

BALLINGER COMMITTEE IS RALLYING

Denby Is on Hand and Olmsted Expected—Root Cannot Attend.

Action Taken in Minneapolis Wednesday May Be Revoked.

Deadlock May Develop on Friday—Three Reports Are Assured.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Representative Edwin Denby of Michigan, one of the Republican members of the Ballinger-Pinchot congressional investigating committee, arrived today and will attend the executive session to be held here tomorrow. Mr. Denby was detained by the holding of the Michigan primaries. Representative Martin E. Olmsted, another Republican member is expected to be present tomorrow.

The presence of Messrs. Denby and Olmsted at the committee meeting will give the Republicans five votes on any action that may be taken. There are four Democratic members here and an insurgent Republican, Mr. Madison of Kansas. The Democrats are relying on his support on questions at issue.

Root Not Expected. Senator Root of New York has not advised the committee so far as known whether he will attend. In any event he could not reach Minneapolis in time for the meeting tomorrow. Without the aid of Mr. Root, it is probable that a tie vote would be recorded on certain matters to be acted upon, providing Representative Madison assists the Democrats.

What action will be taken respecting the resolution adopted yesterday by the four Democratic members and one insurgent Republican is not known. This resolution declared that the charges of Gifford Pinchot and L. R. Glavis against Secretary Ballinger of the department of the interior should be sustained and that he should no longer be retained in office. Madison has stated that the action could be reversed by a new law.

Any plans the Republicans may have were not divulged. Denby declined to discuss the matter until he had an opportunity to see the other members of the committee. He spent some time this morning in conference with Representative McCall and Senator Sutherland. (Continued on page 11, fifth column.)

Charge d'Affaires Gives Out Interview on Conditions There.

Panama, Sept. 8.—In an interview today Richard O. Marsh, charge d'affaires of the American legation at Panama, intimated that if the Panama government should ignore the wishes of Washington, the United States would be compelled to occupy or annex the republic of Panama.

ST. LOUIS COUNTY POTATOES WIN

Apples and Honey Also Are Given Prizes at the State Fair.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—In today's awards at the state fair, St. Louis county gets first prize on collection of potatoes. William Taber of Woodland gets first prize on Okanena apples, second on Duchess, third on Liberator apples and first on white honey. J. Kimball gets the prize on extracted honey.

MONTENEGRO MURDERS BRIDE OF A FEW DAYS.

Ironwood, Mich., Sept. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Word has been received that a Montenegrin resident of the North Park location, has shot and killed his bride of a few days. Drunkenness and jealousy are thought to have incited the man to commit the murder. He has been lodged in jail.

MANAGER BURKE HAS DEMANDED JURY TRIAL.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Manager Burke of the Congress hotel, arrested on account of the fight picture show given at the hotel for Lake Superior mining men, has demanded a jury trial.

Shut Down to See Teddy. Janeville, Wis., Sept. 8.—The school was closed, schools dismissed and 5,000 persons gathered today to greet Theodore Roosevelt. The train made a five-minute stop, during which Col. Roosevelt made a brief speech.

Key Jiggers Meet. Chicago, Sept. 8.—Members of the Old-Time Telegraphers' association and the United States Military Telegraph Corps began a three-day joint reunion in Chicago today. Members of the two organizations from 250 cities throughout the country are in attendance.

NEW HEAD OF MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

HARRY BURNS HUTCHINS. Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 8.—After a year of serious consideration the University of Michigan has elevated its dean and acting president, Prof. Harry Burns Hutchins, to the position of president, once held by Dr. James H. Angell. Dr. Hutchins is a graduate of the university, but he has been a professor at Cornell, a superintendent of public schools in a small Michigan city and a practicing lawyer at different times in his life. He was acting president while Dr. Angell was minister to Turkey and he has been acting president for the last year.

HAIR BELLE ELMORE'S

Exhibit Is Identified By Witness in Trial in London.

Doctor's Purchase of Poison Proved By Man Who Sold It.

London, Sept. 8.—At the resumption today of the trial of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen and Ethel Clara Leneve for the murder of the former's wife, Public Prosecutor Humphreys introduced evidence to establish the claim of the crown that the parts of the mutilated body found in the Crippen home once formed a part of the person of Belle Elmore, the missing wife, and so to strengthen what has been popularly regarded as the missing link in the chain of circumstantial evidence against the accused.

The first witness called was Mrs. Adeline Harrison, whose acquaintance with Belle Elmore had extended over a period of twelve years. Mrs. Harrison was asked to examine strands of hair found when the dismembered body was uncovered, and having done so she swore that she recognized the exhibit as similar to the hair of Belle Elmore. "RUSSIANS" DRIVE GERMANS BACK Invading Army Is Successful in Mimic War—Aerial Scouts Help.

Elbing, Prussia, Sept. 8.—The imperial army maneuvers opened today with a successful dash of an invading division theoretically designated as Russians. The defenders fell back under a powerful attack, their weakness having been exposed by the enemy's aerial scouts. Emperor William and Princess Victoria Louise, both wearing the brilliant red uniform of the Death's head Hussars, of which the young princess is honorary colonel, witnessed the fight. A total of 85,000 participated. They comprised the first army corps under command of Gen. Kluck, which was designated as the invading Russian "Blues," and the Seventeenth army corps, commanded by Gen. Mackensen, the defending "Reds." Each corps was supplemented with a dirigible balloon, officered by a crew of scouts.

TAKE STEP FOR BIG WATERWAY

Active Co-operation of Nation and Illinois Is Begun By Army.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The initial step toward the co-operation of the general government with the state of Illinois in the Lakes-to-the-Gulf waterway project was taken today. The war department announced the appointment of a board of distinguished engineers to pass upon the proposed establishment of navigation from Lockport, Ill., to the mouth of the Illinois river. The board is headed by Gen. W. H. Bixby, chief of engineers.

ENEMIES OF LA FOLLETTE

Plan to Override Advisory Primary Vote in the Legislature.

Have Support of "Interests" Within and Without the State.

By Willis J. Abbot. (Copyright, 1910, by Joseph B. Hoopes.) Madison, Wis., Sept. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—The night I reached Madison there was a great meeting in the gymnasium of the University of Wisconsin addressed by Senator Cummins, Congressman Norris and by Frank J. Heney, the indomitable prosecutor of graft in California. The meeting was held for the purpose of arousing public sentiment in behalf of the re-election to the United States senate of Robert M. La Follette. On the same night in other Wisconsin cities, Senators Dolliver, Clapp and Borah were speaking. It seemed extraordinary that such endeavors should be necessary to persuade the voters of a state to send to the senate of the nation a man who is eclipsed in national reputation by few if any of the oldest members of that distinguished body.

May Defy Primary Mandate. But as a matter of fact the fight that is being made in La Follette's behalf is nationally necessary. The people have elected him at the primaries; but it is believed here that the legislature may refuse to obey the majority announced command of the voters.

The primary law in Wisconsin, like every primary law with which I have any acquaintance or experience, is lamentably weak. Here it is only directory—not mandatory. There (Continued on page 11, fifth column.)

BROWNE TRIAL VERY NEAR END

Verdict May Be Reached By Friday, Say the Attorneys.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—The Lee O'Neill Browne case will be in the hands of the jury by tonight. This is the positive statement of attorneys on either side of the famous bribery case now drawing to a close for the second time. Judge Kersten will read his instructions to the jury and the jury will retire to deliberate upon its verdict, which may be ready by tomorrow morning.

TRACE GRAFT VIA BROKERS

New York Legislative Probers Quiz Brokers' Book-keeper.

Bedell, Goodsell and G. T. Rogers Credited With Funds.

New York, Sept. 8.—The effort to trace Metropolitan Street railway cash through the brokerage firm of Ellingwood & Cunningham to the accounts of various members of the legislature of 1909 were expected to engage for a considerable time today the attention of the legislative probers into alleged graft in connection with legislation at Albany. When the committee adjourned yesterday the examination of the witness considered to be the most important of the day, George Carpenter, formerly bookkeeper for the defunct brokerage firm, had not been completed. Already, however, he told the committee many interesting things.

Credited to Legislators. Among these was the statement that H. H. Vreeland, president of the Metropolitan Street Railway company had, on April 17, 1909, given the firm his check for $5,000, of which amount, according to Carpenter's reading from the firm's books, the account of Louis Bedell, then chairman of the committee on railroads of the state assembly, had been credited with $2,575, while the balance had gone in nearly equal parts to the accounts of former Senator Goodsell and of G. T. Rogers.

HOW MUCH NEGRO BLOOD IN NEGRO?

Question May Be Put Up to Supreme Court for Answer.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Just what constitutes a negro in the United States is a question which the United States supreme court may be asked to settle in the near future.

One-sixteenth negro blood in an individual classifies him as a negro in the District of Columbia, according to a decision by Justice Daniel T. Wright of the district supreme court, in the case of Isabel I. Wall, an 8-year-old child who recently was barred from a white public school because the principal had information that she was of negro parentage. The father of the girl attempted to force the board of education to reinstate the girl, but failed. Justice Wright, in ruling, she was a negro. The case was appealed to the district court of appeals. If the appellate court affirms Justice Wright's decision, an effort will be made immediately to have the United States supreme court pass upon the question.

HILL AND ELLIOTT TO ATTEND McVEY BANQUET.

Doubling of Signal Service Force Will Be Asked of Congress.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The signal service of the army will renew its efforts at the next session of congress to secure an increase of its force and to obtain an adequate appropriation for its aeroplane work.

There are 1,200 men in the signal service now, and Gen. Allen, chief of the bureau, would like to see that number doubled. Signal service officers are anxious to have their aeroplane experiments put upon a plane equal to that of any European government.

TROPICAL STORM OFF GULF COAST

Heavy Squalls and Falling Barometer Tell of Its Coming.

Key West, Fla., Sept. 8.—Heavy squalls from the northeast, accompanied by rain and a falling barometer, early today indicated the approach of the tropical storm which was reported by the weather bureau off Porto Rico yesterday, when the wind had a velocity of seventy-two miles an hour.

Leaves Path of Destruction. Washington, Sept. 8.—The tropical disturbance, which caused considerable damage in Porto Rico during the night of Tuesday and which centered yesterday off Santo Domingo, has advanced by its westward course to about 250 miles from Porto Rico, leaving in its wake destruction of property in San Domingo and Haiti.

Ex-President Refuses to Attend Banquet With Senator.

Big Time Planned for the Colonel's Visit to Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—The committee of the Hamilton club has rejected its invitation to Senator Lorimer to attend the banquet to be given tonight by the Hamilton club in Chicago unless United States Senator Lorimer is excluded. He demanded that a telegram to that effect be sent to the senator.

Big Time in Chicago. Chicago, Sept. 8.—Extensive preparations have been made for the entertainment of Col. Theodore Roosevelt upon his arrival in Chicago from Freeport, Ill., late this afternoon. From the time he arrives over the Northwestern railroad at 4:55 o'clock in the afternoon until he departs for the Park Row station for Cincinnati at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, Col. Roosevelt will be the central figure in a series of social affairs managed by members of the Hamilton club.

Following a brief informal reception and preceding a late formal reception, the distinguished visitor will be the chief guest at a large banquet to be given at the Congress hotel. There will be 1,100 diners at the banquet. (Continued on page 11, fifth column.)

BIG MEETING AT ST. PAUL NEARING END

Conservation Congress Program May Be Cut One Day Short.

J. B. White of Kansas City Is Likely to Be President.

Chief Forester Graves Makes Address to the Delegates.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is possible that the National Conservation congress, which by the program, should continue tomorrow, will close tonight. President Baker said that he would crowd the program as much as possible to this end, and perhaps hold a night session. It has been a strenuous convention, and delegates and visitors want a rest.

The presidency of the congress is expected to go to J. B. White of Kansas City, the present chairman of the executive committee. Gifford Pinchot, who is president of the National Conservation association, told his friends that he would not be a candidate.

Members of the resolutions committee met early to whip a mass of recommendations into platform. T. Gilbert Pearson of North Carolina, who is secretary of the National Association of Audubon societies, introduced a plank for the protection of wild birds.

Wild Birds An Asset. "The wild birds," he declared, "constitute one of the most valuable of the natural assets in our country."

He stated that the losses to the agricultural and forestry interests of the United States annually amount to $1,000,000 through the ravages of insects, and that this per cent is on the increase, owing to the decreasing number of birds which constitute one of the chief natural enemies of injurious insects. The association last of which he is secretary interested Col. Roosevelt while he was president in setting aside by executive order sixty-one national reservations as bird refuges, and these reservations are today guarded by the wardens of the Audubon society. It has also secured the enactment of laws in thirty-seven states, prohibiting the killing of insect-eating birds.

Has Trimming Huts Work. "The great stumbling block in our way of securing better laws for the protection of birds," he declared, "is the great influence wielded by certain disinterested interests in the country, who have large sums invested in the handling of game, and in the next breath, for women's hats. We can never hope for the protection that the birds rightfully deserve until these great corporate interests can be controlled by statutory enactment."

Henry S. Graves, who succeeded Gifford Pinchot as head of the forestry bureau, in an address to the delegates. (Continued on page 11, fourth column.)

TRI-PLANE IN AN ACCIDENT

Englishman Has a Smashup While Trying to Land at Atlantic.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 8.—While trying to land with his tri-plane in front of the grandstand at an elevation of about twenty-five feet, A. V. Roe, the English aviator, so badly damaged his machine today at the Heaton-Harvard aviation field, in Atlantic, that in all probability it will be out of commission for the remainder of the meet. The wheels struck in soft dirt, throwing the tri-plane on its nose.

Spurred on by the large lead in the number of points held by Claude Grahame-White, the professional aviator, made preparations today to attempt to overcome the Englishman's advantage. Grahame-White, however, stated today that he would go after the accurate landing record made by Glenn H. Curtiss yesterday, which is 63 feet, 10 inches.

William M. Hilliard in a Burgess-Curtiss bi-plane covered half the course in a practice flight at an elevation of about fifty feet. Augustus Post, in a Curtiss bi-plane, made several short flights around the course.

CENSUS BUREAU TELLS OF COTTON

Bales Ginned to Sept. 1 From 1910 Crop Number 356,824.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The number of bales of cotton ginned to Sept. 1 from the growth of 1910 was 356,824 bales, round bales counted as half bales, according to the report of the census bureau made at 10 o'clock this morning. The 1909 total was 388,242 bales; the 1908 total 402,225 bales and the 1907 total 200,728 bales.

The number of Sea Island bales included is 208, as compared with 1,239 for 1909.

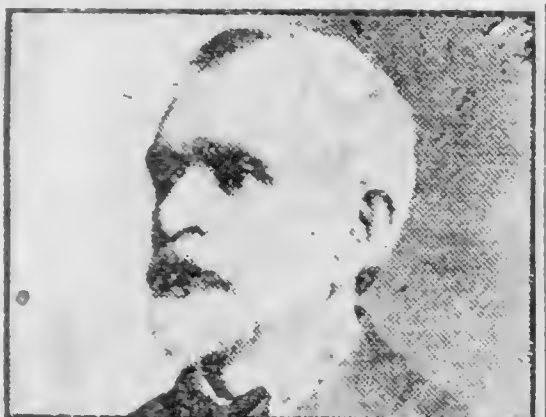

Statisticians of the census bureau do not consider the falling off in the figures as significant as they might appear. They attribute the decrease to the lateness of the crop rather than to any cause which in the end would affect its volume. Without having any other definite information they expect a material improvement in future reports. The season has been unusually good in Texas, which accounts for the prospective larger crop there.

WEATHER—Partly cloudy and cooler weather tonight and Friday; brisk north-west to north winds, diminishing Friday.

DROWNS IN THE RIVER

Charles Nelson Falls From Launch Near New Duluth.

Sinks Before Companion Can Come to His Rescue.

Charles Nelson was drowned in the St. Louis river below New Duluth yesterday afternoon, falling out of a gasoline launch in which he was riding with three companions.
He was the only man familiar with the engine and before the others could reverse it or get back to him he had sunk out of sight. The river was dragged until 10 o'clock last night but the body was not recovered.
Those with the unfortunate man were Matt Eklund, 4810 Magellan street; John Mattson, 5305 Walden street; and Albert Svenson of Spirit Lake.
Nelson was in the employ of R. B. Knos, who has a summer home on the Wisconsin side of the river below the boat club. He was accustomed to the boat and water, being in the habit of sailing to Spirit Lake for supplies. Eklund and Mattson were picked up by Nelson at West Duluth. Svenson joined the party at Spirit Lake. After going to the Knos home the party went up the river to the station at New Duluth, where it is stated, that all but Eklund went inside. It was after leaving that the drowning occurred. Nelson stepped to one side of the boat to adjust some part of the machinery. Two of the others were on the same side. His additional weight tipped the boat and he fell overboard. The others didn't know what to do. They finally turned the boat around, but too late to be of assistance. Nelson is survived by a wife and five children.

PROCTOR TO HAVE FOOTBALL TEAM

Village on the Hill Will Strive for Gridiron Honors This Year.

From present indications, Proctor will put a strong football team into the field this year. The suburbanites have made an excellent showing on the diamond and intend to live up to the reputation on the gridiron.
In former years there has been no suitable ground for a football game at Proctor, but since the residents of the village laid out a baseball park this spring, they have overcome this obstacle.
Among some of the former football stars who will try out for the team this season are: In Twombly, Bert Bartlett, H. Erickson, John Rossiter, James Ryan, Louis Shovin, William Edverson, Charles Hassel, Dan Donovan, Gordon Wood and Roy Rich.

Two Valuable Teams, Taken at Pike Lake Monday, Returned to Owner.

Two teams, which were reported to the West Duluth police as being stolen Labor day from Louis Sandstrom, Forty-ninth avenue west and Magellan street, and William Carlson, who lives on the Seville road were found yesterday.
Sandstrom's horses were located just above the boulevard at about Twenty-second avenue west and the other team was found near Pike Lake. The horses were taken while Sandstrom and Carlson were celebrating at Pike Lake Monday.
The men were drinking in a saloon and had left their horses tied outside.

HOLDING CONVERSE WITH A MONKEY

PROF. GARNER AND "SUSIE."

Perhaps you would not understand Prof. Garner's adopted child, Susie, when she said "danger," but Prof. Garner understands her. He also understands eight other words that she uses. It was Prof. Garner who went to Africa some years ago and lived in a cage in the monkey-frequented forest listening to the conversation of the Simians and trying to learn their vocabulary. He brought Susie back with him when he returned to America a few days ago. Susie is very affectionate and Prof. Garner thinks her very intelligent. She makes a noise which sounds like a laugh when you tickle her and altogether she affords the professor great satisfaction in demonstrating his theory that monkeys are akin to man.

The first "kidd" football team for the 1910-1911 season has just organized at West Duluth.

JACK BARRYMORE HAS WEDDED HEIRESS

Robert Hardborough Sherard magazine writer and grandson of the poet Wordsworth, on his recent American visit gave a dinner at the Plaza to a large number of magazine editors.
Mr. Sherard was at his best at this dinner. In magazine circles his "mots" are still being quoted with laughter.
One not concerned with the wine, a very rich and fruity port which was served, in English fashion, with the fruit and nuts at the dinner's end. All praised this wine. As for Mr. Sherard, rolling it upon his tongue, then swallowing it with closed eyes, he cried ecstatically: "It slips down like an angel in a pair of velvet trousers!"

SEPT. 19. DATE SET FOR HIGH SCHOOL OPENING.

The new Superior High school will be opened Monday, Sept. 19, according to the date set yesterday at a special meeting of the board of education. There is some talk among the board members of attempting to enforce the penalty clause in the contract, which provides that the contractor shall forfeit $50 a day for each day beyond July 1. It is said that if this is attempted, the contractors will assert that the board also failed to live up to the contract in not meeting the payments promptly.

Peddled Without License.
It cost Louis Nelson $25 and costs yesterday afternoon in municipal court because he peddled without a license. He did not pay his fine and was taken to the county jail for thirty days. Nelson was arrested a few days ago when he offered some ladies shirt waists for sale.

Will Remodel Block.
Plans are now being made to remodel the Watkins block, northwest corner of Tower avenue and Belknap street. It is said that the owner will spend a considerable sum to make it one of the finest business blocks in the city. The building is a four-story structure.

Typhoid Epidemic.
Over forty cases of typhoid fever have developed in Superior within the past few weeks. The health department blames the lengthy drought for the increase. Piles are also held partly responsible for the epidemic.

WELL PACKED WORDS.
"A woman is a better talker than a man," said Harry Leir at a dinner in Newport. "A woman can say in one neat, graceful phrase more than a man could pack into a paragraph."
"If I stood in a railway station the other day, and on all sides wives about to start for seashore and country, were taking leave of their husbands. I heard one really charming wife say, 'as she held her husband's hand: "Good-bye, dear. Don't forget to write."

"No, no; I'll write often," he replied earnestly.
"Yes, do, if it's only a check," said she."

The Famous "Hobble" Skirt

Will Practical Women Adopt It?
Yes the "Hobble" Skirt is stylish—in fact, it rules the Skirt-Fashions of the season. And we do not doubt in saying that practical and conservative dressers will heartily endorse the "Hobble Skirt," in many of its various forms.

As an illustration that sensible and brainy women appreciate the obligation of style, and revel in the charming novelty of the Hobble Skirt, one might cite the fact that Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox, the greatest living poet, is an enthusiastic devotee of the "Hobble" Skirt, in its extreme form. This great and dignified genius, whose practical sense and good influence has been felt throughout the land, cherishes her fetching "Hobble" garments, and declares with the rest of Fashion Followers, that the Americanized adaptations of the French "Hobble" Garments are altogether fetching, and very welcome for their distinctive newness.

There's no room for argument; the pretty Banded Skirts, the gracefully confined plaits, and the skirts cut on narrow lines to simulate the French idea that the bottom of the skirt must not be wider than the breadth of the shoulders; are stylish! They are pretty, graceful and are being readily adopted by Old and Young; Sedate and Frivolous, in fact by ALL who desire to appear "Stylish."

The Fall Dresses, Suits and other garments which are daily coming to make up our Fall stocks, show most delightful variations, modifications, and simulations of the French Hobble Skirt—Any You Milady Fair, will not be an exception to the rule, in the wearing of fashion's new Favorite.

Forward's Electric Star Washer and Wringer
Put in the Clothes and turn on the electric current, it does all the work.

We have recently been appointed agents for Duluth and vicinity for the Electric Star Washer. You can now get one on payments—it used to be all cash.
It is the greatest household labor saver yet invented. Every housewife should have one, because it robs blue Monday of its terrors. Come in and see it.

Our Methods

are the safest, surest and quickest.

We use both electricity and medicine in curing our patients, and they stay cured after our careful treatments.

By using both electricity and medicine together, a more speedy, yet safe, cure can be effected.

Our method cleans and purifies the blood, which in turn strengthens the system, nourishes and builds up all broken down tissues.

We are specialists in curing men, and when sick, weak men have given their case to our care, the patients have become strong and healthy, with all signs of the trouble gone.

If you are suffering today from any chronic disease that has not been successfully cured, you should not fail to see us. We have made a life study of men's diseases, and have done nothing else except to cure men of skin and blood diseases, weak nerves, blood poison and general debility.

Our experience is so varied that no disease known to men is new to us.

Come to us. Let us talk it over. Examinations and consultations are absolutely free.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Democratic Club Meets Tonight at Sloan Hall for Last Time Before Primaries—Attorney General Simpson and State Auditor Iverson at Fifth Ward Republican Meeting—La Du of Pine River on Reappointment.

Democratic candidates will be out in force with their friends tonight at Sloan's hall, where the Democratic City club will hold its last meeting prior to the primaries. The club will meet at 8 o'clock. The speakers will be: Charles Jespersen of Eveleth for sheriff; E. A. Lindgren of Duluth for treasurer; Thomas J. McHugh for judge of probate; Walter E. Dacey for county attorney; H. W. Cleaves for senator, Fifty-first district; Edward E. Ribbeck for representative, Fifth district. The club will also discuss the importance of the primaries and the candidates for each office. The club is composed of the most active and influential Democrats in the city.

Attorney General George T. Simpson and State Auditor Sam G. Iverson were seen leaving a party at Sloan's hall last night. They were both seen leaving the hall at about 10 o'clock.

Can't Stay Away From Fifth Ward Club. Two weeks ago they were seen at the club. They were seen at the club at about 10 o'clock.

North Dakota Baptists Meet. The state officials made speeches of encouragement to the young men in the club. They were seen at the club at about 10 o'clock.

Program for Annual Convention at Grand Forks Is Issued. Grand Forks, N. D., Sept. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Success promises to attend every feature of the annual convention of the North Dakota Baptist conference, which will be held in Bismarck on Sept. 20 to 23, the program for which was made public in Grand Forks today by the committee in charge.

The convention opens in the afternoon of Tuesday, Sept. 20, when Rev. J. J. Walker, pastor of Grand Forks, delivers the annual sermon. This will be followed up by an interesting discussion of the subject of "The Church in the World" by Rev. John Sundt, pastor of the Norwegian church, while Rev. Peter Rydman of Kenosha will speak for the Swedish conference. Rev. A. C. Zell, pastor of Fargo, will speak for the work done up to date. At 6 o'clock a banquet will be served, while in the evening the subject of "The Church in the World" will be discussed by Rev. J. J. Walker.

Charles W. La Du of Pine River, candidate for the Republican nomination for representative from the Fifty-second district, puts the above and below in the following manner:

Re-appointment for every other office. The above and below in the following manner:

When a great empire like this Fifty-second district, containing five large counties, with a large population and great wealth, paying the largest portion of the taxes of the state, has only two representatives and one senator as against the counties in the southern part of the state, which has one senator and one representative with a population of less than any one of these five counties, it is not fair to have a re-appointment and make it the great moral issue of Northern Minnesota.

We need roads, need a better management and disposition of state lands, need agricultural and rural schools and those things that will benefit the whole state, but how can we get them if we are met by a stubborn resistance on the part of the south counties and their representatives? There is but one answer and one conclusion and that is that we must stand together solidly for reappointment. It is of general interest to all who care for the best and most economical government of this state to take care of her interests of what ever nature they may be and in position where she will come into her own.

The writer believes that Northern Minnesota is awake; that the Northern Minnesota Development association has stimulated the best and best of the people and will be behind strong men within its domain, men who will stand with the state and that is being hung at us.

NO MORE MISERY IN THE STOMACH. Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Vanish in Five Minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch Gas and Eructate sour, undigested food or have a feeling of Dizziness, Heartburn, Fullness, Nausea, Bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is Indigestion.

A full case of Paper's Diarrhoea costs only 50 cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or Indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula printed on these 50-cent cases, then you will understand why Dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or Indigestion in five minutes. Diarrhoea is harmless and faster like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for Biliousness or Constipation.

This city will have many Diarrhoea cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranked about this splendid stomach preparation, for you ever try a little for Indigestion or Gastritis or any other Stomach misery. Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of Stomach Trouble and Indigestion.

More Children Begin School This Year Than Last.

Total Enrollment in Thirty Schools of City Is 11,336.

The enrollment in thirty of the Duluth public schools at the opening of the school year was 11,336. The enrollment at the Bay View Heights, Fond du Lac and Krugger schools, which are ungraded schools with a light attendance, has not yet been reported, but they will probably bring the figures close to 11,500.

A Reliable Medicine—Not a Narcotic. Mrs. Mary E. Smith, 3833 Polaris, says: "My little boy, Foley's Honey and Tar saved his life. She writes: 'Our little boy contracted severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the chocking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house.' Sold by all druggists."

DELMONTS WILL PLEAD GUILTY

Woman Admits Having Abandoned Child at West Duluth.

Nick Delmont and his wife, Margaret Delmont, arrested at Two Harbors yesterday afternoon for abandoning their 5-week-old baby on a West Duluth doorstep early yesterday morning, waived examination in police court this morning and were bound over to await the action of the next grand jury. They stated today that they will endeavor to be brought before one of the judges of the district court as soon as possible to enter pleas of guilty. Mrs. Delmont told Detective Twine that she abandoned her husband of about a year and a half, and that she was leaving the child for the maximum penalty which the court could impose under the statute in the case of putting a child in jeopardy. Other cases of that nature have been disposed of by putting the offenders on parole.

FLIGHT FROM CHAIN GANG UNSUCCESSFUL. Though William J. Gilmore had only one more day to serve, he grew impatient and tried to break away from the chain gang, while it was working at Thirteenth avenue and East and London road, yesterday. After a chase of several blocks across lots, John Hemmer, the guard, captured Gilmore and took him to the county jail again. As William J. was sent up for five days for disorderly conduct and is spending his last day in the dungeon.

HILLSIDE EXTENSION WILL NOT BE CUT. The proposed changing of the routing of the projected hillside street car extension does not mean that the line will be shortened. The proposed line will be shortened of Sixth avenue east, as the expense of putting Sixth avenue in shape for the tracks would be much heavier than that for the line which will be extended up the hill to Eleventh street. The hillside in that vicinity has grown rapidly in recent years and many new homes are now either planned or already under construction.

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE BAKE OVENS

A Visit to the Offices of the Specialists, Loughney & Loughney, Reveals Some Astonishing Facts

After watching the commendatory statements from day to day in the newspapers by patients of Drs. Loughney & Loughney, the specialists in the Christie building, located at Fourth avenue west, between First and Second streets, the writer made a personal call at the offices. After being shown the many testimonials voluntarily given by thankful patients, who have been relieved and cured of various diseases, the wonderful ovens were visited and thoroughly explained by Dr. Loughney himself. These great health-giving machines are wonderful inventions, and constructed along the lines laid down by the greatest medical experts of Europe and America, the proper application of dry and intensely hot air creating a circulation of the blood that soon drives the disease germs from the system. Not alone Rheumatism, but Gout, Neuritis, Arthritis, Lumbago, Ankylosis and kindred diseases disappear when the proper treatment is given the patient in these remarkable ovens. Of course, a great knowledge of the human system, in fact, years of study and continuous practice can only bring about successful treatments, while the Specialists are also assisted by graduate nurse nurses, who give the patient every care.

It is perhaps strange, but true, that a large percentage of the patients successfully treated by the specialists are old people, even to the ages of 75 to 85 years old. These patients are always given prompt benefit, because of the very fact that even the strongest internal medicines become ineffective in old age.

This fact was brought out to answer the question of many younger patients: "Can I stand the heat?" The scientific application of this intense treatment is such that any one, even taken from the sick bed, not only is able to take the treatments but, enjoying them, for the fact that they bring instant relief.

Drs. Loughney & Loughney have since opening their offices in Duluth, treated a great number of prominent women and men, with wonderful results. Their strongest arguments as to the efficacy of their treatments are the numerous heartfelt letters they have received from their patients. Many will be published in the daily papers of Duluth from time to time. These specialists charge absolutely nothing for a full and complete examination of your condition, and will tell you exactly what they will be able to do for you. They occupy all of the offices on third floor of the Christie building on Fourth avenue west.

OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER

CLOUDY

After many days of cool weather, the weather bureau got up steam yesterday and turned loose a torrid blast that sent the mercury shooting up in the tube. The maximum temperature was 82 deg. and it was some hot in contrast with the low temperatures last week. The heat continued into the evening, but cool weather was restored this morning and the sudden change is enough to give one the shivers.

Cloudy, cool weather prevailed a year ago today.

The sun rose this morning at 5:36 and it will set at 6:35 tonight, giving twelve hours and fifty-five minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"A cool wave is advancing over the Northwest in connection with an abnormally high pressure condition central over Montana and Alberta. Evening temperature prevailed this morning at Edmonton, Calgary, Qu Appelle, Yellowknife and Winnipeg, and a heavy frost also occurred at the latter place. The Minnesota low pressure has moved its center to Northern Michigan, resulting in warmer weather. At Duluth, on Lake Superior and Lake Michigan, temperatures for twenty-four hours and the minimum for twelve ending at 7 a. m. today.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—Forecasts for twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Friday: Upper Michigan—Partly cloudy and much cooler tonight, with frost in the interior; Friday fair and cooler.

North and South Dakota—Generally fair tonight and Friday; cooler tonight, with frost in the interior; Friday fair and cooler.

Montana—Generally fair tonight and Friday; cooler tonight, with frost in the interior; Friday fair and cooler.

Upper and Lower California—Generally fair tonight and Friday; cooler tonight, with frost in the interior; Friday fair and cooler.

Idaho—Generally fair tonight and Friday; cooler tonight, with frost in the interior; Friday fair and cooler.

Utah—Generally fair tonight and Friday; cooler tonight, with frost in the interior; Friday fair and cooler.

Arizona—Generally fair tonight and Friday; cooler tonight, with frost in the interior; Friday fair and cooler.

Nebraska—Generally fair tonight and Friday; cooler tonight, with frost in the interior; Friday fair and cooler.

Kansas—Generally fair tonight and Friday; cooler tonight, with frost in the interior; Friday fair and cooler.

This Week's Sunday School Lesson

WRITTEN FOR THE HERALD BY REV. J. S. KIRKLEY, D. D.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON: SEPT. 11, Matt. xxi, 1-14. The King's Marriage Feast.

THE CONNECTION.
It is still that Tuesday, and Jesus is in that series of fierce struggles with the officials, which lasted all day. He defeats them singly and in groups. In the parable of the two sons. He showed their insincerity; in that of the wicked vineyarders, their neglect of accepted duty; in this of the marriage feast, their contempt of God's grace. From this point on the battle rages with increasing fierceness all day. All three parables pronounced doom in words that burned. They forfeited their privilege and merited their punishment.

THE LESSON.

The Urgent Invitation, 1-6.
"And Jesus answered and spake again in parables unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son, and sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the marriage feast; and they would not come. Again he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them that are bidden, Behold, I have made ready my dinner, my oxen and my calves are killed, and all things are ready: come to the marriage feast. But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise, and the rest laid hold on their servants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them."

1. PEASANT.—The blessings of His Messianic reign are like a marriage feast, whose festive joys they are asked to share. It is a marriage of royalty, and the very invitation confers honor on them. It is a marriage in which, as we afterwards learn, they collectively form "the bride, the Lamb's wife," and are asked to come into the most sacred and endearing relations with "the King's Son."

Jesus could liken their privilege to nothing else so striking. They had been asked to a feast, a marriage feast, and described so the awe-inspiring and highest privilege because He wants us to be one in spirit with Him. Other- wise, the invitation is defeated.

2. REBELLION.—The refusal to accept was part of a policy of rebellion. It is a policy of rebellion, but more it becomes violent when disturbed, and some even slew the messengers. That was the way the Jews had done. God had called them by His prophets, then by John and Jesus, straight now they were violently rejecting the notification given them by Jesus Himself. The apostles will go still further into the details of the rich feast, as they tell of the great doctrines of atonement and love and providence. Their refusal is rebellion and insult, an affront to God and an abuse of themselves.

3. THEIR PUNISHMENT, 7-10.
"But the king was wroth, and he sent his armies, and destroyed them, and burned their city. Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they were not worthy. Go ye therefore unto the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage feast. And these servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was filled with guests."

4. PUNISHMENT.—When power and authority and good will are met by rage and rebellion, there is nothing left for the king to do but to proceed against them. They lost their city and their lives. That was inevitable. It was merciful too. It follows, as a matter of course, that they lost the unique privilege they enjoyed.

5. GREAT HEART.—The big hearted king brings in the previously uninvited, without regard to social or moral status. Christ invites all to the blessings of his reign, and, thank God, persons of all characters and positions are welcome. Of those who may be called "good," there were Nathaniel and Cornelius and others; while, of those who would be called "bad," there were Matthew and Zaccheus and Saul of Tarsus and thousands more. The Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost; He came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

6. THE FIRST OFFENDER, 11-14.
"But when the king came in to behold the guests, he saw there a man who had not on a wedding garment; and he said unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Then said he to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and cast him out into the outer darkness; there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen."

7. INSTANT.—His invitation was for all, but it was not to be accepted. Any one could accept it, but no one could disregard the laws of the feast itself. One of the laws of the feast was that each should have on a wedding garment. Mere mechanical acceptance is not enough. The king furnished each one with a suitable robe, as was often done. As a large part of oriental wealth was usually in garments, a king could easily furnish them. But the question of how the garments were to be secured is not vital in the parable. The man found without one had violated the law of the feast and insulted his king. The preparation for the feast of salvation is the robe of Christ's righteousness. The offer of salvation is made to the Gentiles, but they must accept it on God's conditions. They cannot despise His arrangements with impunity. This man sinned against complete kindness. He may have thought that one who was so anxious to have him there would not care for the wedding garment, or that, if he was, he would not care for the feast, with that spirit. But God does not intend to enjoy the highest privileges because He wants us to be one in spirit with Him. Other- wise, the invitation is defeated.

8. RETRIBUTION.—The king was the one to discover the unfit man, for going probably on the coming Sunday. The different religious bodies held during the week will be reorganized and the work generally will be fairly under way within the next ten days. Friday there will be a meeting of the secretaries of all the departments. So that they will not be interrupted in planning the work in their departments for the coming year. It is likely that the meeting will be held at the Spirit lake branch of the Duluth Boat Club. Plans will be thoroughly talked over and the fall campaign for members will receive attention.

The night school this year will be on a larger scale than ever before and if the number of inquiries is any indication of the interest, a being taken, it will be the largest in point of numbers. Several new features will be inaugurated in connection with the gymnasium work and the basketball team will have many new engagements than last year when the boys got a late start.

The different clubs will get under way in a short while and there will be more activity at the association building than in past years. The dates of the first meetings will be announced and it is expected that the summer meetings will be continued and that there will be more energetic work than there was last year. It may be decided to start the season with a formal opening. This will be decided at the meeting to be held Friday.

The building has undergone repairs during the summer and the association is better than ever able to furnish young men with hearty recreation. The officials are planning on making the 1910-11 season the best ever and the Friday meeting will be an enthusiastic head of each department outlines his work.

TRUE BILLS IN SIBLEY CASE
Ex-Congressman and Four Others Indicted on Charge of Corruption.
Warren, Pa., Sept. 8.—The special grand jury which since last Monday has been investigating charges against former Congressman Joseph C. Sibley and four co-defendants, in connection with Sibley's nomination as the Republican candidate for congress at the June primaries, returned true bills last night against the defendants. All are charged with conspiracy to bribe, defraud and corrupt voters of Warren county.

Besides Mr. Sibley, who is now at his home in Franklin, the defendants are Frank H. Taylor, his private secretary, George R. Munn, David M. Howard and C. H. Crandall, the last three of this county.

Of the $17,800 which Sibley's election expense account shows he spent in Warren county, Crandall, it charges, rec'd $10,000 and Howard $7,800 for expenditures. Money that Munn used is charged to have been received through Crandall.

LATE ELECTION DATA
Concord, N. H., Sept. 8.—Complete returns from the 289 election districts of New Hampshire show that the Republicans yesterday nominated R. P. Bass of Peterboro for governor by a vote of 19,577 to 10,213, over Col. Bertram Ellis of Keene.

THOMAS COLE SAYS HE WAS BADLY SWINDLED.
Council Bluffs, Iowa, Sept. 8.—New and added interest was injected into the civil cases in the United States court, brought by losers in the Mabray swindles, when Thomas Cole of Minneapolis, formerly from Ames, Iowa, was put on the stand yesterday. Mr. Cole admitted that he had been swindled out of $5,000. Nine other civil suits for an amount aggregating $55,000 were dismissed.

Dentist Killed.
Ayer, Mass., Sept. 8.—Dr. Claude Grenache, a Peppercorn dentist, was killed in an automobile accident here last night. He was riding in a machine operated by Roger Taft of Peppercorn and was thrown from the automobile under the wheels of a freight train when the automobile struck a telegraph pole.

Bomb Hurled at Congregation.
Youngstown, Ohio, Sept. 8.—A bomb was thrown at the congregation of St. Anthony's Catholic church as it was filing into the street after a special service last night. The bomb exploded prematurely, when only a few feet from the head of Father Stabile, the pastor. Nobody was hurt.

Public Works Fund.
The public works fund was placed at $90,000. This includes $25,000 for the engineering department and $65,000 for the building inspector. The engineer asked for $26,000 and got $40,000. The building inspector asked for $39,000 and got $25,000. The fund is made up by the street maintenance fund, amounting to $15,000, which will have the care of all work on the streets. Of the latter sum, $30,000 will be used for the care of the city's third charter amendment, and $15,000 by the village tax.

For the coming year, two mills, was levied for the street intersection and storm sewer fund, creating a fund of $80,000. This will have the care of the work done this year as well as next year. It was stated at the meeting yesterday that this will hardly be sufficient, but under the amendment now before the city council, it will be the same. Not taking the last fund into consideration, it will be the same. The increased valuation of the city property.

There was little discussion under the other funds and they went through without a vote. The following is the complete list of appropriations, as drawn at yesterday's meeting, follows:

TENTATIVE LEVY MADE

Conference Committee Will Probably Approve Figures Compiled Wednesday.

Provides for Bridge and Road Work and Extra Police.

The tentative levy fixed yesterday by the conference committee will likely be passed at the next meeting, Sept. 17, with little change. As stated in The Herald last evening the total estimated expenses of the city for next year will be $979,257, of which $725,000 will be raised by taxation. The remainder will come from miscellaneous sources, such as license fees and the mortgage tax. This will make the city rate 18.14 cents compared with 16.13 mills for the present year.

The police department got practically all that was asked, being allowed $26,000. This will provide six extra men, at least two of whom will be placed at New Duluth. The fire department was put down for $25,000, which will include a new fire engine for New Duluth.

The permanent improvement fund will provide for practically all that was asked for by the council committee which reported on the city's needs Tuesday night. This includes a new fire hall at Lakeside, a site for a fire station on the hillside, a site for the Carnegie library at West Duluth, improvement of the city's water supply, and a new road crusher.

The public works fund was placed at $90,000. This includes $25,000 for the engineering department and $65,000 for the building inspector. The engineer asked for $26,000 and got $40,000. TAKT BACK IN BEVERLY.
President is Congratulated on His Speech at St. Paul.
Beverly, Mass., Sept. 8.—President Taft got back to Beverly from St. Paul yesterday, making the last stage of his journey by automobile from Boston. In Boston the president went to the Touraine hotel to inquire as to the condition of Senator General Lloyd W. Bowers and was much gratified to find that he had recovered from his recent illness.

AEROPLANE SQUADRON FOR THE FRENCH ARMY.
Berlin, Sept. 8.—The report received here that France will have received five aeroplanes at the end of November, is attracting much attention in Germany. Even the Socialist newspaper Vorwarts now advocates the introduction of aeroplanes in the German army. The military authorities announce a conditional offer of $6,250 as a prize to be awarded at the national aviation competition which will be held Oct. 9 to 16, inclusive.

DECLINE IN OUTPUT OF PIG IRON NOTED.
Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 8.—The Iron Trade Review today notes a decline in output which has been taking place for several months. During the last month the output of pig iron and anthracite furnaces amounted to 2,102,372 tons, against 2,158,124 tons in July, a loss of 55,752 tons. The daily average production was 67,818 tons, as compared with 69,617 tons for the corresponding month of last year. During the last month, eighteen stacks were blown out and eight were blown in, making a net loss of ten stacks from the active list. The total number of furnaces in operation on Sept. 1 was 244 as against 254 on Aug. 1.

ELKINS RENEWS HIS EARLIER DENIALS.
Elkins, W. Va., Sept. 8.—Emphatic denial was made yesterday by Senator Stephen B. Elkins of the rumors that he is preparing to go to Paris or that his daughter, Katherine Elkins, will marry the duke of the Abruzzi in February, or at any other time, or that the family is to be presented to the Italian court.

Eight Hurt in Gas Explosion.
Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 8.—Eight men were caught in an explosion of gas in the basement of a five-story building of the Grand Rapids Gas company yesterday. All were seriously burned, the foreman, Thomas Halloway, probably fatally.

THREE REPUBLICANS REFUSE TO MEET ON BALLINGER QUESTION

Denby, Sutherland and McCall Stay Away From Committee.

Democrats Sign Report Condemning Secretary of the Interior.

Sergeant-at-Arms Is Sent to Bring in the Absent Members.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—But six members of the Ballinger-Pinchot investigating committee, one less than a quorum, were present when the session began today. Senator Sutherland of Utah and two other Republicans, Representatives Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts and John Denby of Michigan, refused to attend the meeting and did not appear at the hotel where the session was being held.

The failure of these three members to attend when the session was opened was decided on last night, following the arrival of reports that the action of five members, who on Wednesday adopted a resolution of Representative Madison of Kansas, an insurgent Republican, which charged Secretary Ballinger with malfeasance in office, was the "most extraordinary, indecent and unpardonable act in the history of the department."

"Absurd to Meet?" In view of that, he stated it would be absurd to meet with those members when they had already promulgated their decision.

Messrs. Sutherland and McCall took a similar view and failed to put in an appearance. Chairman Nelson, the only Republican member, and Mr. Madison, the insurgent representative, was present and the meeting was regularly called to order. In addition to Mr. Madison and Senator Nelson, the Democrats (Continued on page 16, fifth column.)

MISTAKE LOGS FOR BIG GUNS

German Aerial Scouts Lead Army Into Ambush in Maneuvers.

Pressnach-Holland, Prussia, Sept. 9.—The two dirigible balloons used for aerial scout duty by the opposing armies in the imperial maneuvers failed gravely today, one crew leading its army into an ambush while the other crew fell victim to the machine gunners when the motor of its machine gave out. The invading army triumphed.

The dirigible balloon operating with the defenders reported this forenoon what the airman took to be the exact location of "far-extended entrenched lines of the invaders' infantry and artillery. Upon receipt of this information the defenders advanced in a strong attack, only to find, when the thin line of invaders retreated, that hind which trunks of trees instead of guns, had been placed. Before they could recover from their mistake the invaders' flank was attacked and a victory for the invaders ensued.

The dirigible of the invaders developed a defect in its motor, and being compelled to descend, was captured by the enemy.

ROOSEVELT IN OHIO CITY

Cincinnati Entertains Visitor With Elaborate Program.

Columbus Is to Be Host to Ex-President on Saturday.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 9.—An elaborate program of entertainment has been arranged covering the visit of Col. Theodore Roosevelt during his stay in this city, which began at 8 o'clock this morning, when he arrived at the Torrance road railroad station.

While the main events in connection with the visit of the former president are to be held in the downtown section of the city, which is in the extreme eastern portion of the city, some time in advance of the arrival of the Roosevelt train.

Congressman Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of Col. Roosevelt, went to Chicago yesterday to accompany the party of the former president here today.

Committees representing the Ohio Valley exposition, whose guest the colonel is, and the city of Cincinnati, citizens and officials formed a local committee of reception.

DEATH TAKES L. W. BOWERS

Solicitor General of the United States Stricken Suddenly.

Has Been Regarded as Possible Member of Supreme Court.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 9.—Lloyd W. Bowers, solicitor general of the United States and believed to be in line for appointment to the supreme court of the United States during the coming winter, died here today of complications following an attack of bronchitis.

Mr. Bowers was a close personal friend of President Taft. He had been ill for several days, but was believed to have been past the crisis of his illness. Death came suddenly while Mr. Bowers was talking with his family. A blood clot in the heart caused almost instant death. Mrs. Bowers, a son and the nurse were present. The family had been staying at the Hotel Touraine in this city for a fortnight.

Born in 1859. A graduate of Yale in 1879 and of the Columbia law school in 1882, general counsel for the Chicago & North-western railroad in 1884, and solicitor general of the United States in charge of the government's business before the highest judicial tribunal of the country at 50 years of age, Lloyd W. Bowers, descendant of hardy English-Irish stock, climbed rapidly in the field of law. He was born at Springfield, Mass., March 9, 1859.

Was With Judge Wilson. Mr. Bowers was admitted to the bar in June 1882, and immediately took a desk in the offices of Chamberlain.

HUGHES TO BE AN ASSOCIATE

Must Be Raised After Taking Oath If He Is to Be Chief Justice.

Washington, Sept. 9.—If Governor Hughes is to be made chief justice of the supreme court of the United States he will be promoted from an associate justiceship. Reports that the nomination of the governor as an associate justice would be withdrawn and his name sent to the senate as chief justice have been put to rest by arrangements that the New York executive has been making to take up his duties on the bench on the second Monday in October.

It was reported from Albany last night that the governor probably will relinquish his present office in about three weeks and immediately thereafter remove to Washington, preparatory to taking the oath of office on the first day of the court in session next term.

Harlan Acting Chief. As congress does not convene until December, the new associate justice will have at least two months to serve in a subordinate position on the bench. President Taft has not yet made up his mind just what position he will occupy after that period.

Until the successor of the late Chief Justice Fuller takes his oath of office, Associate Justice Harlan will act as presiding justice. Justice Harlan is the senior member of the court, both in point of years and of service.

FARGO HAS $75,000 FIRE

Heart of Business District Is Scene of Conflagration.

Flames Start in Cafe Laundry and Get Good Headway.

Fargo, N. D., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—The center of Fargo's business district was the scene of a fire early this morning that threatened to equal the conflagration of 1893, when the entire city was burned.

The losses are estimated at about $75,000, with $50,000 insurance. The flames originated in the laundry of the Pile & Co. cafe, and were first seen underneath the Amerland Realty offices on Northern Pacific avenue, having gained great headway before their discovery. The following are the total losses:

Fargo Commercial club rooms. Pile confectionery store, cafe and delicatessen. H. Amerland, real estate offices. Pettibone Directory company's office. Frank Lake's tailor shop. Mayor Lovell's law office. City Attorney Shure's law office. Judge H. F. Miller's law office. Ellsworth-Jenkins company, realty office. H. P. Lough's realty office. Club rooms of the Order of the Blue Goose.

Partial losses: Fargo National Bank, Broadway cigar store, Bank cigar store, Ambler, Rupert & Carpenter's insurance office. The Pile company's building, owned by Miss Stern, was completely gutted, and the Fargo National bank building badly damaged, but the fire walls protected the banking rooms. The narrow block was gutted and the flames blocked damaged by both sides. All the property damaged was right in the heart of the business center.

SHERIFF TO ASK TROOPS

Dietz of Cameron Dam to Be Taken Dead or Alive.

Land Looker Who Approached Dietz's House Is Badly Beaten.

Conduway, Wis., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—Sheriff Madden, who went to Winter last night with the intention of going out to arrest John F. Dietz, the Cameron dam defender, left Winter for Hayward again this morning without going out to make the arrest. It is stated on good authority that the sheriff has decided to ask Governor Davidson for a company of troops from Superior or Rice Lake to assist in the capture of Dietz, and take him dead or alive.

Yesterday forenoon Dietz found a land looker on his place and with the words "you spy," he attacked the man and sent him up horribly. The land looker went to the Kaiser Lumber company's camp near Cameron dam, and was fed and left, refusing to give his name or who he was working for.

The sheriff has seven warrants in his pocket for the arrest of Dietz, but it is no use for any one man to go out single-handed to attempt the capture. It is claimed the whole family is armed with automatic revolvers and rifles. With his dogs to watch at night and his house on a small hill with the land cleared all around Dietz can hold a large posse at any easily.

EVIDENCE OF TRAGEDY

Skeletons Found in Cave at Isle Royale By Young Women.

Believed Men Were Murdered and Bodies Pushed Into Cave.

Two young women, trained nurses, one of them a niece of E. T. Seglen, who have been spending the past two weeks at Mr. Seglen's place at Siskiwit bay, near Menagerie Island light, at Isle Royale, made a gruesome find early this week while wandering about the island. It consisted of two piles of bones, evidently the remains of two men.

The skeletons were in a low cave about 200 feet from the shore line which the girls discovered by mere chance, and the bones had evidently not been touched since the men met their death. How they came to their death will probably forever remain a mystery.

BROWNE IS FREED

Jury Brings in Verdict of Not Guilty in Bribery Case.

Deliberations Last Only Twenty-Three Hours in Second Trial.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Lee O'Neill Browne, Democratic leader in the Illinois house of representatives, was acquitted today on the charge of having bribed Representative White to vote for William Lorimer for United States senator. The verdict was returned late this afternoon after the jury had been out nearly twenty-three hours. Browne's first trial on the same charge resulted in a disagreement at the end of 115 hours.

Judge Kersten occupied nearly an hour in reading his instructions to the jury yesterday afternoon. Attorneys for Browne declare the instructions are decidedly in favor of the Democratic representative.

Judge Kersten told the jury to avoid considering their suspicions, to remember that the defendant is charged with bribing Representative Charles A. White, and not Representative Beckemeyer and Link, both of whom testified to having received money for their votes; to avoid testimony of White, where it is not corroborated, and return a verdict of not guilty if there is a reasonable doubt.

DISASTER IS A MYSTERY

Wireless Call for Help Is Repeated Continuously for an Hour.

Pere Marquette No. 18 Lost With Cargo Worth Over $100,000.

Big Ship Fresh From Inspection By Federal Officials.

Ludington, Mich., Sept. 9.—One of the worst marine disasters in the history of Lake Michigan occurred early today when Car Ferry Pere Marquette No. 18, flagship of a fleet of six steel car ferries owned and operated by the Pere Marquette Railroad company, sank to the bottom of Lake Michigan, twenty miles off Port Washington, Wis., with a loss of twenty lives.

The boat was valued at $400,000, and the cargo, which included twenty-nine loaded cars, at $100,000 to $150,000. The total loss will exceed half a million dollars, which is fully covered by insurance in Lloyd's of London.

Called Help for an Hour. "Car Ferry Help"—"Help!" was the wireless message that brought the first news of the disaster to this city about 5 a. m. today.

The flash was repeated continuously for nearly an hour, but was unsiged. At 7:30 a. m. Supt. Mercereau of the Pere Marquette car ferry line received a wireless from Car Ferry No. 17 stating that No. 18 sank at 7 o'clock.

The lost car ferry carried a crew of fifty men, and had on board two women passengers said to be from Saginaw. At this hour the cause of the accident is unknown and the facts will not be available until No. 17 arrives here late this afternoon.

Disaster Is Mystery. Marine men are utterly at a loss to account for the sinking of No. 18, which was one of the finest and most costly car ferries ever built on the Great Lakes, and only yesterday the craft was inspected by government officials at first-class condition in every respect. This was her first trip on her regular run after returning from Chicago, where the big car ferry was under repair. The big car ferry was under repair, being run in the excursion business between Chicago and Waukegan during most of July and August.

WILL HEAR GRIEVANCES

Editorial Association Committee to Consider Subject of Freight Rates.

Hearing Will Be Held in Duluth Sept. 20, 21
and 22.

At a hearing to be conducted by the committee on railroads of the Northern Minnesota Editorial Association at the office of P. E. Dowling, 910 Alworth building, Sept. 20, 21 and 22, people of the thirty counties included in the territory of the association will have an opportunity to present grievances for the association to take up with the state railroad and warehouse commission.

At the meeting of the editorial association at Crookston June 1, 2 and 3, the subject of freight rates and traffic arrangements as applied to the towns of Northern Minnesota was thoroughly discussed and numerous instances were reported of alleged overcharges, discrimination and inequitable rates. A committee of three, headed by Mr. Dowling, was appointed to investigate the subject and report at the meeting to be held in Brainerd in December.

best method of getting knowledge of specific grievances is by the holding of a three days' session of the committee, at which such information will be received. The findings of the committee will be formulated in a report, which will be submitted to the Brainerd meeting. It is expected that the association will then appoint a committee to take up with the state railroad and warehouse commission, the matters covered by the report.

Every member of the association is vitally interested in the subject of freight rates as affecting the growth and business of his town, and Mr. Dowling expects that many inequities that now exist can be wiped out by the action of the association.

TIPPED OFF THE BIG FOUR FRAUD

Couden's Dismissal Is Based on Charges of Insubordination.
Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 9.—Frank M. Couden, cashier in the office of the local surveyor of customs, who was dismissed from the government service today, made it public last fall that he "tipped off" the $653,000 shortage in the local treasury of the Big Four railroad about one year ago.

Couden secured an interview with President Brown of the New York Central lines, through Senator Dick of Ohio. Couden admitted that he gave the information in the hope of securing a reward in money. Charles L. Warriner, whose defalcation was exposed, is now serving a six-year term in the Ohio penitentiary.

On Charge of Insubordination.
Washington, Sept. 9.—F. M. Couden's removal is ordered on the specific charge of insubordination. In that he absented himself without leave from his office. While it is not stated in the order of dismissal, it is known that Couden went to the Ohio State Republican convention at Columbus after having been refused a passport by Amos Smith, the surveyor at Cincinnati.

That was the technical charge against him and Senator Dick of Ohio, without avail, came to his defense. The charge is formally made against Couden, so far as is known, because of the connection of his name with the Warriner embezzlement. His temporary suspension occurred several weeks ago, and the order making it permanent came from Secretary MacVeagh at Duluth, N. H., to Assistant Secretary Hilges in Washington today.

POSTPONE WORK UNTIL NEXT YEAR

Eleventh Avenue East Will Not Be Paved This Fall.

About a dozen property owners on Eleventh avenue east, between Second and Fifth streets, who appeared before the board of public works this morning to present their views upon the kind of paving to be laid, voted unanimously to postpone work until next year. No action was taken by the board this morning, but the wishes of the meeting will likely be followed.

A big petition, representing probably a majority of the property owners, was presented asking that tar macadam be laid. The other pavements to be considered were tarmac and asphalt.

The board listened to complaints of property owners on Fremont avenue, between Third and Tenth streets, where the grade was reduced to enable the street car company to give that vicinity service. The original contract was for $6,250, but before it was completed the cost ran up to $12,753. Several complaints on this ground and others alleged that the assessment was not properly apportioned. The board made some minor changes and confirmed the assessment.

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 9.—President Taft was notified today of the death of Solicitor General Bowers. He expressed great sorrow at the passing of one of his oldest friends and one of his most valued associates in the public service. President Taft and Mr. Bowers had known each other practically all their lives, having been at Yale together and maintained a close friendship ever since.

MILL STILL GRINDING

Three More Divorce Decrees Are Granted in District Court.

One Woman Failed to Keep Husband's Eight Children Clean.

The district court divorce mill continues to grind. Judge Ensign granted three decrees this morning and listened to the two sides in a contested action. The arguments in this case will be heard later.

The contested case is that of Anna Baran, 49 years old, against her husband, John Baran, 52 years old. They were married in Duluth in 1907 and as a basis for the action Mrs. Baran claims cruel and inhuman treatment. She claims that on Oct. 7, 1907 he first slapped her and then threw her down a flight of stairs. In her complaint she cites several instances when he became so violent in his conduct to her, that she was forced to leave the house. She claims also that he is a habitual drunkard.

It seems that this is not the first venture on either side. When they were married he brought eight children to be taken care of and she brought three to her property.

In his answer he states that the children were not properly cared for and that she neglected her duties as a wife. He states that the children were allowed to go about naked and filthy. He states that she also likes liquor. He asks the court to give custody to him. The final arguments in this case will be taken up at a later date.

On a charge of desertion Emma Houlihan, 35 years old, was granted a divorce from her husband, Alphonse Houlihan, 55 years old. They were married at Vaucluse, Iowa, in 1892. She claimed that he deserted in Nov. 1906.

Emma Edmunds, 35 years old, was granted a divorce from Charles Edmunds, 42 years old, on a charge of desertion. She claimed also that he treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner; that he was habitually drunk and that he refused to work or support her property.

Marie T. Close, 41 years old, secured a divorce on almost all known grounds from her husband, Mason A. Close. They were married in Duluth in 1892. She stated that he was nearly always drunk. She cited instances of cruel and inhuman treatment. She stated that on Christmas day, 1896, he drew a revolver and threatened to shoot both himself and her. While shaving one day he threatened to cut his own throat. He is said to have admitted that he did this to worry her.

As a result of the indictment, she had to enter a sanatorium for treatment.

There are two cases to come up this afternoon. Claire M. Hagen, 29 years old, wants a divorce from her husband, Charles O. Hagen, 28 years old. In her complaint she claims that if her husband's custom to spring at her and strike her in the face. They were married in Duluth in 1909.

The case of Arthur L. Sauve against his wife, Lillian A. Sauve, will also be taken up. They were married at St. Ste. Marie, Mich., in 1896. In his complaint he states that although he provided a home for her in Duluth she refused to live with him. He states that she was at one time since their marriage a divorcee. He is now in Duluth which bore none too good a reputation. He is now a "street walker" and has been seen by his friends in both Detroit, Mich., and Toledo, Ohio.

OBITUARY

Frederick Gebhard, for years one of the best known clubmen in New York City, died in New York, Sept. 8. Mr. Gebhard was an assiduous for a long time in his attentions to Lily Langtry, the English actress, and their engagement was at one time reported. Shortly afterwards, however, in 1894, he married Alice Lulu H. Morris of Baltimore. They were divorced a few years after. Mrs. Gebhard afterwards marrying Henry Clews, Jr., and Mr. Gebhard four years ago wedding Marie Wilson, an actress.

Gen. W. C. Outes died in Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 9. He was formerly governor of Alabama, a Confederate veteran and a brigadier general in the Spanish-American war.

FOR THE DEFENSE

Walter Lonadale, Dr. Cook's secretary, was adducing facts in praise of "Dr. Cook."

"And these facts," he concluded, "are the honor and the other side's defense is as weak as the well-known defense of the parlor maid."

Mr. Lonadale clasped at his luggage packed for Copenhagen. Then he laughed and resumed:

"Mary," said a mistress to her parlor maid, "what time did my husband get home last night?"

"Not till 4, mum," the maid answered.

"I thought so," said the mistress. "Here it's evening and the brute not up yet."

"The maid bridled defensively.

"Oh, but mum," she said, "he has been up once; mum; but he just drank his bath and went back to bed again."

FURS WILL COST MORE MAY DISRUPT HOSTS' CLUB

Even a Good Polecat Hide Is Worth $4 as "Marten."

Musk rats Become "Hudson's Bay Seal" Worth 90 Cents Apiece.

Furs are likely to cost my lady dear this season, according to the advance information being handed out by the furriers of Duluth. Practically every kind of fur is going to cost from 10 to 50 per cent more than it did last year.

The reason assigned by the furriers for this is the trappers are getting higher prices than ever before for raw skins. And some of the prices quoted to a Herald reporter today as being the values paid for raw skins in the city, are alluring enough to make a goodly share of the citizens of Duluth clean up their old shot guns and camp on their back steps waiting for a skunk to leave in sight so that they, with a charge of shot, may change him into a "Marten." For a goodly share of the local furriers will pay $3, $3.50, or if it is an exceptionally good skin, possibly $4.

Musk rat hides are worth 80 to 90 cents apiece instead of 40 cents last year, and 10 cents a few years ago. One reason for the phenomenal rise in the price of muskrat skin is the fact that during the last two years fur manufacturers have been drying them and placing them on the market under the alluring title "Hudson Bay seal," and it is said that the imitation of a real seal skin which can be made by properly treating a good muskrat hide, is so perfect as to require expert inspection of a finished garment, to identify it.

The lynx is still an infrequent habitant of Northern Minnesota forests and an occasional hide is brought in to local furriers. From $25 to $50 is paid, according to the quality of the skins.

Not only furs purchasable in the local market have risen, but catalogues from Eastern fur dealers also show a heavy increase in imported furs. As an example of this chinchilla, purchasable up to a year or two ago at $1.50 a skin now fetches $3.50 and $10, and fifteen or sixteen skins are necessary to make a collar of any pretensions.

The pony coats so popular at the close of last season will be more expensive, a coat selling for $75 last year being worth $90 or $100 this fall.

The fur dealers look on the raise not as a mere temporary market fluctuation, but a permanent thing, and one due to last and grow as the wild game regions of the country are slowly but surely reduced to nothingness.

Roosevelt's Action Regarding Lorimer Has Stirred Up Trouble.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—The Hamilton club, often called the banner Republican club of the nation, is wrought up today following the Roosevelt-Lorimer incident of yesterday. Senator Lorimer has a host of close friends in the membership, and from these men today came rumblings of revolt. All declared they were anxious to rebuke President Taft for accepting Col. Roosevelt's ultimatum regarding the banquet. The senator's friends say they are only waiting the cue from Mr. Lorimer, and if he resigns his membership in the club they declare they will do likewise.

President Taft's meeting with Senator Lorimer when in Chicago last March as the guest of the Hamilton club is declared by members to have made the Roosevelt move all the more unexpected. When President Taft was here Senator Lorimer was a guest at the various banquets and receptions. The club members say if the president did not feel there was any official impropriety in meeting the senator in public they did not apprehend that a private citizen would consider it impossible to attend the same public function with the senator.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Ward Clubs Will Be Organized for Campaign By the Democrats—James P. Boyle of Eveleth to Speak in the West End This Evening—Teddy and the Eighth District—Elmer E. Adams Quits Republican Fold.

The City Democratic club last evening set about plans that will result in the formation of ward clubs to carry on the work of the party after the primary.

Democratic Ward Clubs To Be Organized. Frank Craswell, chairman of the committee consisting of one man from each ward, with power to select ward organizers. This committee will meet at an early date and set in motion the machinery of the ward organization.

It is planned to have weekly meetings of these ward clubs, whenever each organization pleases to gather, and that all the clubs unite in the next monthly meeting of the City Democratic club at Sullivan's hall. Such an auspicious will be given Democratic effort by the organization of these ward clubs that it will be much more effective in the campaign than has been expected by the opposing party workers, say the club members.

The members of Mr. Craswell's committee are:

First ward—Not named.
Second ward—Not named.
Third ward—J. J. Hector.
Fourth ward—George Neff.
Fifth ward—William McKeon, Jr.
Sixth ward—Louis L. Barnard.
Seventh ward—William McKeon.
Eighth ward—John Cashin.

The work of this committee will be to select and impress into service the Democrats in each of the wards best fitted for the task of organizing ward clubs. All that is needed is to get this movement started. Then it will take care of itself and will grow and flourish, the club members believe.

Only two candidates for county office were at the meeting last night. They were C. J. McKee, candidate for judge of probate and Walter E. Dacey, candidate for county attorney. Both were called upon to make talks and they did it in a way that fired the club members with a resolve to do their utmost for the party this fall.

Mr. Dacey was roughly cheered when he received the last night's meeting was the best the club has held for a long time, and the general opinion was that Mr. Dacey was usually, but the night on the head.

Mr. McKee in the course of his remarks took occasion to boost the ward organization scheme as a very good one and in a way that strengthened his grip on the affections of the Democrats of Duluth.

President Dice and Secretary Tucker were called upon to speak and they got down to cases without delay, just a little more than intimating that it would be well for members who are in a hurry to pay up.

Louis Levine, one of the war horses of the Seventh, took a prominent part in the meeting and was called on several times to add the weight of his counsel to the deliberations of the meeting.

E. A. Lindgren, candidate for county treasurer, sent word that while he was not able to be present in person, he was with his fellow club members in spirit. Mr. Lindgren went out on the range yesterday on a business trip. He is expected to do some quiet political work while away. The Democratic candidate for treasurer is exceptionally strong on the range, where he has long been widely acquainted for many years.

Mr. Dacey, Mr. McKee, Mr. Jesmer and other Democratic candidates are doing very little toward interesting the voters in their candidacies, preferring to wait until the primaries are passed. Then they will go into the fight with energy.

The progress of the pre-primary campaign of the Republican rivals for office is, of course, extremely interesting to the Democratic candidates, who say they are more than satisfied with the way things are going.

There will be a meeting tonight of the Republicans of the Seventh and eighth wards and such other parts of the city as may desire to hear good speaking in the office of the City Advertiser.

The committee has arranged to have James P. Boyle present and he will be heard and it is expected that the meeting will be largely attended. So much interest has been aroused in the senatorial contest in the Forty-ninth ward that the fact of Mr. Boyle's presence at the gathering is counted upon to attract many voters.

Mr. Boyle came to Duluth from his home at Eveleth today and spent some time getting acquainted with the business men of the West end and West Duluth. On every hand he was assured that he would be given enthusiastic support and as a result of his visit to the city feels that his confidence that he will win is justified by the facts.

The Virginia Enterprise quotes ex-President Roosevelt as saying: "No man should make a promise before election that he does not intend to keep."

"Hunt Him Out," keep after election, and if he does not keep it, he does not keep it.

Col. Roosevelt.

From the speech made by the colonel at Oswatimie, Kan., and the Enterprise says they are "words which should be remembered by every voter in every state and every congressional district in the Union." The Enterprise says: "If he does not keep it, he hunt him out."

The voters of the Eighth congressional district of Minnesota will remember the promise of the Honorable Clarence B. Miller, made during the last congressional campaign, in which he repeatedly and with unabated vim declared his opposition to Joseph Cannon for the speakership, and going so far as to state that he would vote against Joe Cannon even though he should be the only member of the house of representatives to do so.

The voters will also remember that the first official vote cast by the Honorable Clarence B. Miller, after assuming his oath of office and the duties attendant thereon was to vote for Joe Cannon for speaker of the house.

We do not know that ex-President Roosevelt had the Honorable Clarence B. Miller in mind when he made the remark in the course of his address at Oswatimie, Kan., on Wednesday evening, that he had, he had a mark well worthy of his aim, and his aim could not have been truer.

If he does not keep it, hunt him out. He did not keep it, and the voters of the Eighth congressional district of Minnesota are going to hunt him out, even though it may necessitate the election of a Democrat in his stead.

The betting on the results of the primaries is attracting considerable attention here. The one bet is on the men who handle bets. One superior merchant of chances declares that he can make a bet of $10,000 that will be staked on the results of the primaries. This money is said to be available at any time in any amount. As posted just now, this bet stands at odds of 50 to 30, but it will stand that way long.

Six to ten on Bates is the betting on the fight for sheriff, Melning men having all their offers taken. Odds are even on the county attorneyship.

As to Judge of probate the same situation seems to prevail, with no bets recorded.

Two to one on Miller is how it frames up on the congressional state.

Saturday is a complete list of odds will be posted and business in the merchandising of chances is due for a boom.

Elmer E. Adams, member of the house two years ago as a Republican, isn't a Republican this year. Mr. Adams makes a specialty of making trouble and then wallowing around in it. He likes trouble just as a man of ordinary desires likes peace and comfort. Adams wouldn't recognize peace if he met her on the street, and if he was introduced to her he'd try to pick a quarrel. He is editor of the Pergus Falls Journal. He favors county option, incidentally. He is opposed to the project to create legislative districts in Otter Tail county. His opposition is said to be based on the fear that under the district plan he would be ejected out of office.

Just before the time for filing ended, Mr. Adams, who was an avowed candidate for renomination and re-election, announced that he would not be a Republican candidate, but would file as an independent.

While it is declared in some quarters that Mr. Adams takes this course because of some local conditions that tend to endanger his political fortunes, the fact seems to be that he is getting out from under. He doesn't want to go to the legislature with the Republican label pasted on him. Probably he has an idea that the Republican brand is going to be highly unpopular about the time the legislature meets.

And Adams is not a Democrat.

Emil Nelson, sheriff of Lake county, was in the city yesterday from Two Harbors, returning last night. Mr. Nelson is a candidate for re-election, without opposition.

Alex G. McKnight, candidate for congress, was in Eveleth today. Tomorrow he will attend the Masonic ceremonies incident to the laying of the cornerstone of the Virginia courthouse, and tomorrow night he will speak in the opera house at that place. He will be in Hibbing part of tomorrow.

Clarence B. Miller is doing some quill moving about. Where a fence is found to be somewhat damaged, C. B. hastens to that spot and with his trusty quill strives desperately to mend said fence. It will not be known until a week from next Tuesday what success he has had.

INDICTMENTS ARE RETURNED

Charges Are Preferred Against Eight Men By Grand Jury.

The September grand jury yesterday returned eight true bills. Two of them are secret as the men against whom they are returned are not in custody.

Thomas O'Leary and Charles Carroll are charged with stealing from the Northern Pacific Railroad company a Bagdad rug, worth in the neighborhood of $37.50.

Alexander Casper is accused of stealing $132 in money from John Hiculaik. Aug. 7. Axel Erickson is accused of stealing $50 from Charles Scheyel.

A charge of grand larceny in the second degree is brought against Joseph Bakes. He is accused of stealing from John Garvey a number of checks for various amounts.

George Smith is said to have broken into the saloon owned by Stanislaus Pernala and taken $235 in cash and a gold watch.

Mile Manovich is charged with a statutory offense.

BOY COULD NOT HOLD TRIGGER

Clouget, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—It has developed that Elmer Amell, who was accidentally shot by his own gun Monday afternoon, did not pull the trigger himself, as was at first thought. Several young companions were with him, and among them a Wons boy, and as Amell was half kneeling on the ground, the younger boy lifted the trigger of the gun as Amell held it in his hand. The child was not strong enough to hold the trigger and it fell back, the shot taking effect in the side of Amell's head just above the ear. The latter is still in a precarious condition.

A peculiar fatality seems to hang over the Wons boys recently. The older brother of the boy who may be responsible for Amell's life, is the lad who was with Napoleon Caza Saturday when the latter lifted a boat car and struck Joseph Koski, knocking him into the river, and who is held for Koski's murder. At the hearing before Judge Skemp last night, Caza was bound over to the grand jury, and Wons was held as a witness.

FIRE SUPPOSED TO BE OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN.

Aberdeen, S. D., Sept. 9.—The fire which yesterday wiped out the town of Lebeau, on the Missouri river, is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. The town had a chemical engine, but when the fire was first discovered the hose upon the engine was found cut so badly it was useless. Lebeau was the point for registering for reservations in the land drawing last fall and the terminus of the Minneapolis & St. Louis railroad. The loss is estimated at $125,000.

WEST END

QUICK TURN ON WEST END LOT

Profit of $150 in Two Days Illustrates Rapid Advance in Prices.

West End Land, photographer at 20 North Twenty-first avenue west, has purchased from David Adams for $1,200 a lot on Grand avenue, near Fortieth avenue west. The deal has just been closed. Mr. Adams bought the property this week for $1,050 and sold it within two days.

Mr. Landin, the new owner, will improve the property by erecting a substantial two-story brick building, the lower floor of which will be devoted to his photographic gallery. The upper floor will be given over to living apartments.

Grand avenue in this vicinity has grown rapidly, and there promises to be a live business section there within a short time. On Forty-first avenue west and Third street a new grocery store has gone up this spring, and a hardware store will be erected on the Thirty-ninth avenue west corner of a drug store, a brick structure, is now in course of construction.

REPUBLICANS TO

ADAMS FOOTBALL TEAM
PREPARING FOR SEASON.

Playing either the Maroons or the Palominos, the Adams Athletic association football team will open the 1910 season with an aggregation of fast players, which is "dressed" out to give all other semi-pro teams in the city a hard race for the pennant.

Manager John Gostman is now arranging the schedule. Games may be arranged through him at 77, Osborn block, West end. Capt. Andrew Grenier says that there is every indication that this year's outfit will outclass the team that took the city honors last year. The candidates are out for practice every evening.

Entertain at Cards.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Lee entertained a number of their friends last evening at their home, 2831 Railroad street. Cards were played and refreshments were served. Lunch was served at 1:30 p.m. and the evening was most enjoyable. Mr. and Mrs. A. Milligan, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bralier, Messrs. N. Miller, S. M. Miller, C. S. Sanger, P. Butchart, A. Christian, Misses Mabel McDowell, Olive Clark, Josephine De Yonck, Maude Lee, Mrs. George McDowell, N. Wilmer, Ernest George McDowell, Horace Stewart, Perry, John Sayan.

WILL PETITION FOR A BRIDGE

At a meeting of the West End Hillside Improvement club this evening, which will be held at the office of Former Alderman Peter Olson, Twenty-third avenue west and Tenth street, the club will probably be urged to present before the council the needs of a bridge across Miller's creek at Thirtieth street.

West End Shortfalls.

Asel Erickson, 2224 West Fourth street, has returned from a visit at the state fair, Mrs. Erickson, who has been visiting in the Twin Cities will return in a few days.

The Ladies Aid Society of Central Baptist church will hold a social this evening at the home of Mrs. J. T. McKenzie of 2202 West Third street.

Michael Wagner, John Gostman, Henry Gustafson and Henry Anderson are among the West end people who have returned from a few days' visit at the state fair.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Broutelle of 2222 West Second street, Sept. 3, school teachers of the First Swedish Baptist congregation will hold a meeting this evening in the choir room of the Swedish Temple, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street.

Court No. 177, Catholic Order of Foresters, held a meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. J. T. McKenzie of 2202 West Third street, while on their homeing trip, have returned to their home.

Ex-Alderman John J. Moe and Mrs. Moe are expected to return to the city Sunday.

Funeral services for Hjalmar T. Hansen of 1004 Piedmont avenue were held this afternoon at the undertaking rooms of Olson & Crawford, 2010 West Superior street. Burial was at Park Hill cemetery.

Men and women "who know" wear the Heimach, nailless rubber heel. Neatly, 19 First avenue west.

HEAVY FROST IS PREDICTED

Weather Condition May Damage
Vegetation on Hill Near Duluth.

Real fall weather descended on Duluth last night and sent the temperature down to an uncomfortable point. There was a light frost, that was not damaging, but the weather man says a heavier frost, that may do some damage to vegetation back on the hill, will occur tonight. This morning was crisp and bright, but almost cold enough for light overcoats.

GAYNOR FOR GOVERNOR

Belief Growing Stronger That the Democrats Will Nominate Him.

Regarded as the Only Candidate Who Could Defeat Roosevelt.

New York, Sept. 9.—As the date for the Democratic state convention at Rochester draws nearer the belief grows stronger among Democratic politicians that Mayor William J. Gaynor of New York will be nominated for governor. In fact, many politicians have become convinced that the mayor is not only the logical candidate, but is the only man on whom the Democrats could rely for victory in case Roosevelt should be nominated at Saratoga. There are two questions that are bothering the politicians who would like to see Gaynor nominated. One is: Will his health permit it?

The other is: "Will he accept?"

Several of the mayor's most intimate friends are ready to answer the question in the affirmative. At least two men who have been with him at Des Moines since he went there to recuperate said that there is no doubt he will take the nomination.

"He will accept," said one of the mayor's friends. "That is, he will, provided it is made quite clear that the people want him for governor more than they want him for mayor."

"When he took the office of mayor he entered upon his duties with the understanding that he was to be mayor for four years. He made it quite plain that he regarded his election as a sort of contract to serve the people of New York for that term. He feels bound just as much as if there were actually a legal contract."

"However, if the people of New York want to change the form of that moral contract, and have him serve the whole state rather than the city alone, he will abide by their wishes, in my belief, for then there will be no question of violating a pledge."

The mayor's attitude toward the governorship is described as that of uncertainty. He is said to be firm in his conviction that his present position is bigger than that of the governorship, but he realizes that the position of common consent have given the governorship the aspect of something much higher and greater than the position of mayor of New York.

To all his intimates who talked to him about the governorship before he was shot, he made the unvarying reply that he had a bigger position already than the governorship. His friends say he may have meant that he had a bigger task, or that it was more important that things he could do as mayor should be done.

Views of His Friends. The mayor's friends who look upon him as the logical candidate for president in 1912, want him to run for governor. They say that no matter how much bigger the mayor's present position is than the governorship, the fact still remains that it will be more important for him to step from the governorship to the presidency than to go from the city hall to the White House. Some of them admit that in this view they are slaves to precedent, but they argue that most people are bound by precedent, so the strength of precedent might as well be recognized. They say that the people of the United States have a different perspective from ours, and that the public at large attributes more dignity and honor to the governorship of New York state than to the chief office of New York city.

It is declared unanimously by those who are familiar with the mayor's views that he is personally inclined to remain in the mayor's office. There is no doubt that it would be against his personal inclination to run for governor. However, the men closest to him say that he will not be guided by personal preference if there is a general demand for his nomination. He is asserted by the mayor's friends that if he should be nominated he will make a campaign in the usual sense of the word. His physical condition now is not such as to warrant the belief that he could take an active part in a political campaign. He would not be able to make speeches, but might write a few letters in lieu of speeches.

Beat Roosevelt. "If the Republicans nominate one of the old guard, or a compromise candidate without great personal strength, the Democrats at Rochester may be willing to risk a campaign with a candidate who does not possess the political strength of Gaynor," said a Democratic politician today. "But if there is perfect harmony in the convention at Saratoga and the delegates select a candidate who can command the full strength of the Republican party, then we must have a man of great vote-getting ability in order to win. For instance, if Roosevelt is nominated, I believe that better man than Gaynor could beat him. That Gaynor could do it I haven't the slightest doubt. Roosevelt could swamp the West in a presidential campaign, but New York alone he would not stand much of a chance against Gaynor just at this time."

William Randolph Hearst is the second big question of Gaynor's willingness to accept it. Hearst is willing to fuse with the Democrats and the Democrats are willing to fuse with Gaynor, then the situation, so far as Gaynor is concerned, will be changed. Many political leaders say that with such a fusion victory would be certain, in fact, far more certain than Gaynor were the candidate of the Democrats alone, with Hearst opposing him. That Hearst would oppose Gaynor hardly any one doubts.

So far Mayor Gaynor has done nothing to indicate that he is a candidate for governor. Many persons believe that he has countenanced and even encouraged the men who have been organizing Gaynor clubs in the state. The very contrary seems to be true. It is said by close friends of the mayor that he has not only discouraged the organizers of the Gaynor clubs, but has strongly rebuked them for their unauthorized activities.

The Last of a Friend. Would have been about as welcome to A. Cooper of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, in grippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. Price, $1.00, guaranteed by all druggists.

LONG HOSE WERE ON HIS FOOTIES

Pretty Young Man in Feminine Attire Arraigned for Burglary.

New York, Sept. 9.—Attired in feminine apparel, the most conspicuous of which was an embroidered nightgown, trimmed with blue baby ribbon, a youth, calling himself Gus Edwards, was arraigned by Magistrate Harris in the Gates avenue police court, Brooklyn, on a charge of burglary. He also wore long tan stockings, tan pumps and a blonde wig.

With the arraignment of Edwards, who insisted that he was only 15 years old despite the assertions of his captors who say he is old enough to sprout a beard on his pretty face. There was the sequel of the most peculiar burglary case the Brooklyn police ever were called upon to solve.

The young prisoner was a stranger to the police until two uniformed men from the Atlantic Avenue station saw him in St. Marks avenue, near Buffalo avenue, fighting with feminine fury with the intention of protecting the dignity of a victim, but they changed their minds when the apparent woman sounded a few choice epithets of defiance.

William Grim, a baker of No. 124 Buffalo avenue, who assisted in the capture of the alleged burglar, saw the man enter the home of Mrs. Catharine Scully, at No. 126 Buffalo avenue.

He thought the stride was that of a man, and he brought neighbors to the scene who caught him. Magistrate Harris ordered that the burglar suspect be removed to the observation ward of the Kings County hospital and in the embowered nightgown he was taken there. He is held in $2,000 bail.

WILL BE MADE WARDS OF THE STATE.

On petition of those in charge of the Children's Home, children whose parents have apparently deserted them will probably be made wards of the state and sent to the home at Evanston, Ill.

In all there are sixteen children at the home whose parents have evidently forgotten them as their board has not been paid in some cases, but they seem to have been before Judge Easton at the juvenile court Saturday for final disposition.

Board for the little children amounts to puncturing aching at the home. An effort has been made to locate some of the parents, but they seem to have disappeared in the greater number of cases.

There are but two ways of disposing of the children. They can be made wards of the state or can be adopted by private citizens.

MINERS ARE HELD UP.

Relieved of $1,070 While on Way to Their Homes.

Minot, N. D., Sept. 8.—Poorer to the extent of $1,070, Young and Walker, two employees of the Davis Coal mine at Burlington, are looking for two hold-up artists who relieved them of their cash last evening. Young, who has been running the boarding house at the mine, came to town Monday with the checks which he had cashed. The amount he claims to have had at the time of the robbery was $980. Walker, who was with him, had $90. The story told to the police was as follows: The two men were walking home about 11 o'clock in the evening and had reached the school house, five miles from this city. Two men, who had apparently been lying in the hollow by the side of the road, jumped at them as they passed, and at the point of a gun relieved them of their cash. As soon as the money had been secured, the two men turned and ran towards town. The police are of the opinion that the two men wanted for the crime were in the city on Sunday.

NORTH DAKOTA HEIRESS

Will Get One-Fourth of $2,000,000 Scotch Estate.

Lisbon, N. D., Sept. 8.—Mrs. E. H. Mundenhall of this county is reported to have fallen heir to one-fourth of a $2,000,000 Scotch estate.

Some time ago Mrs. Mundenhall received a letter from her brother which announced that he thought he had at last completed the evidence necessary for proof of heirship.

Today it was learned here that the estate is now in settlement and that Mrs. Mundenhall is the wife of a farmer. They live six miles from Lisbon.

The estate is reported to have been in the courts for a long time and to have just recently been released from legal technicalities.

Hints For the Boudoir

By MILDRED WYCKOFF.

For Rough Hair.

Some hair refuses to be smooth and glossy no matter what care is bestowed upon it. The result is an unkempt head. Systematic treatment is the best remedy. If that is out of the question, do one's best at home, with regular brushing allied to tonic masses.

As hair is usually rough because of natural oil, seek to supply it. Each night before retiring rub into the scalp a few drops of almond oil. This must not be spread on the long hairs, as it makes it greasy and a dust collector. Apply the oil with finger-tips or with medicine dropper, then rub in well by lightly pinching the scalp with thumb and forefinger. Spread the oil with the fingers several inches apart and gradually draw them together. Keep this up all over the head in different directions.

Cucumber Milk.

Cucumber milk, which is a bleach and astringent, may be made by mashing the vegetable. After peeling and cutting put them into an agate or porcelain saucepan and heat gently, simmering until the mass is pulpy. Strain through a cloth, add an equal quantity of tincture of benzoin. This is wiped over the face daily and allowed to dry on. If it is too astringent, one-eighth the quantity of pure glycerine may be added.

Premature Grays.

In the treatment of premature grays an iron tonic is often prescribed. At the same time the general system must be built up by means of outdoor life, diet, plenty of milk and outdoor exercises.

Sleep in a well-ventilated room, rise as soon as you wake, and get out into the fresh air as soon as possible. If only for a few minutes.

As for the cause it may be over-stress, weakness of constitution, or a sudden shock to the nerves. Very often it is hereditary.

Fads of the Fashions

A neat looking traveling duster of linen is fifty-six inches long and is made with patch pockets, turned over collar and cuffs, and big buttons fastening the double-breasted front.

Wash belts for linen or gingham gowns come in white and combinations of white and lavender, pink, tan and blue. Some are tucked, others are buckles are of pearl.

Nailbook slippers and dresses for the new baby are made with round or square yokes and bishop sleeves. Some are trimmed with embroidery. Others have plain hemstitched hems.

Among the Austrian printed summer coverings shown complete sets in dainty sweet pea designs are in effect.

Shaped raffia bedroom slippers in pretty weaves, lined with fine meshed toweling, that are washable as well as comfortable, are shown in men's and women's sizes.

Washable cotton and mercerized belt ribbon, 1 1/2 to 2 inches wide, in solid white and fancy weaves that include

Women the Dictators at Home

By MARGARET E. SANGSTER.

Women are the natural dictators of manners. In the division of labor, which began in the Garden of Eden, it was Adam's part to till the ground and Eve's to dress and keep it. Man goes forth as the pioneer to do the rough work and woman makes the home.

No home, in the true sense, ever exists unless by the grace of woman's gently guiding hand. The home idea is largely in the heart of woman first and becomes materialized as the woman dictates.

Where the wife is at once firm and gentle, serene and brave, she teaches her children to be thoughtful, considerate and amiable, and the manners in the home reach out toward a fine and beautiful courtesy.

Can think of home after home where the spirit of one mother infused itself throughout the entire circle, so may be the husband and father after his pattern and the children, the sons and daughters are modeled, not even that dropped in three measures.

Ruskin claims that with both Scott and Shakespeare it is the mother who watches over, teaches and guides the youth who will be the nation's leaders. In a very charming review of the woman, going back to the Greek and Roman times, everywhere woman was pre-eminent in influence and in the molding of manners.

For the chief ideal type of human beauty and faith the Greek turned to the mother and wife. All the great authors of the world, Homer, Virgil, Dante, Chaucer, Shakespeare, Sir Walter Scott, Hawthorne, Longfellow, Whitman and a multitude of lesser writers have loved to depict not so much men as women, because women are really the potential factors in the world's development rather than men.

Ruskin says, still pursuing the same subject: "The perfect loveliness of a woman's countenance can only consist in that majestic peace which is founded in the memory of happy and peaceful years full of sweet favors and the joining of this with the yet more majestic childhood which is still full of change and promise, open always, modest at once, and bright with the hope of better things to be won and to be bestowed. There is an old age where there is still promise."

The same author says, and it cannot be too often repeated: "Do not think of the lady as a girl, for if you do not make her happy and in this connection I like to recall Wordsworth's lines:

"Three years she grew in sun and shower,
Then nature said: 'A lovelier flower
On earth was never sown.
This child I to myself will take,
She shall be mine and I will make A lady of my own."

"Myself will to my darling be
Both law and impulse, and with me
The girl in rock and plain,
In earth and heaven, in glade and Shall feel an overseeing Power to a tree or cover with snow while she is busy.
To kindly or restrain."

In India the baby rides in a basket which hangs from its mother's head, or from her hips in a hammock. Some times the baby's nose is adorned with a nose ring, and in some parts its face is wrapped in a veal its mother's.

The Chinese baby is tied to the back of an older child, while the Mongolian infants travel about in bags slung on a camel.

Strangest of all, the mother in Guinea buries her baby up to its waist, and that is the only cradle that the baby ever knows.

Cure of Children's Feet.
During the holidays, no matter where they are spent, an extra amount of exercise and running is the order of the day with the little ones. The highest importance is attached to proper care of the feet in consequence. During the hot weather they invariably grow tired and painful unless care is taken to keep them soft and easy.

The feet are all the more comfortable for at least one or two washes per day, sea water being best for this purpose, or if this is not obtainable, plain water with a little soda will answer the purpose admirably.

It is most essential, also, that the children's shoes should fit properly and be neither too large or too small to afford comfort. Corns and other complaints in after years are, for the most part, brought about by the wearing of ill-fitting footwear while still growing.

Hombach nailless rubber heels for women who wear classy shoes. Neatly, with soft soles. The mother can hang 19 First Avenue west.

Some Queer Cradles.
In Lapland, a new-born baby is cradled in its mother's shoe, a big affair, covered with skin and stuffed with soft moss. The mother can hang 19 First Avenue west.

Such help as we can give to each other in their world is a debt to each other.

One hobby leads you out of extravagance; you cannot drive a team of hobbies, till you are rich enough to find coin for them all.

Homelessness has this advantage over beauty: it is that it is as difficult to be a homely woman to be calumnyated as for a pretty woman not to be.

It is not the quantity of the meat, but the cheerfulness of the guests which makes the feast.

And now a fevered existence succeeded to the girl's loved tolerance of life. Here was something that had to wake her—something to rise for, to dress for, to live for. A man stopping at the Vandergrift, a young lady, a being from that other world, in which she was at home. Someone of different cut and pattern from Louis Donald. But meantime Donald's slow wits were alert and noting that is worn across the meadows. As his dark eyes glared at the man's handsome features, he said to himself: "You surely don't live here!" he asked, and waved a hand towards the humble hamlet, insinuating that no abode in the neighborhood was worthy of his habitation.

Half ashamed, she indicated the farm on the point.

SENSE IN SHORT SENTENCES

All other knowledge is truthful to him who has not science of honest and good.

Good taste is the modesty of the mind; that is why it cannot be either imitated or acquired.

Hunger is the teacher of the arts and the bestower of invention.

There is gravity in wisdom, but no particular wisdom in gravity.

Those who complain most are not to be complained of.

Variety is the condition of harmony.

Some people carry their hearts in their hands; very many carry their heads in their hands. The difficulty is to keep them apart yet both actively working together.

What madness is it for a man to starve himself to enrich his heir and so turn a friend into an enemy.

Such help as we can give to each other in their world is a debt to each other.

One hobby leads you out of extravagance; you cannot drive a team of hobbies, till you are rich enough to find coin for them all.

TAKE OFF THE FAT*WHERE IT SHOWS

Most women suffer much humiliation because of great quantities of fat, so located that no matter how they dress, it is always seen that they are abnormal. This is the day of the slender figure and fat women are almost not tolerated either in business or social affairs. Women may not know it but when they see a fat woman pass them on the street or in public places make all manner of sympathetic remarks about her. They do not mean to be unkind or to seem unkindly, but it is natural for a man to dislike fat on a woman. Where fat shows the most there is where it must be removed, and as quickly as possible. This season's dresses seem to be made for the fat woman's misery and she will not remove it. This has been proved. The famous Marmola prescription which has met with such phenomenal success and has so many of our society women as its sponsors, is now being sold in tablet form to meet the demand of the public for this style of treatment. These little tablets go into your system and digestive apparatus from producing fat and reduce the fat upon the body at the rate of from 12 to 15 ounces a day. They are harmless and can be taken in your purse and taken even after you have indulged in a hearty meal away from home. They are sold at all drug stores at 75 cents a case, or if you prefer you may write the Marmola Company, 431 Farmer Building, Detroit, Mich.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWESTWILL FIGHT THE DITCH*Hundred Farmers in Polk County Opposed to Proposed Ditch.*Claim It Will Carry Sand on Farms, Causing Big Damage.

Thief River Falls, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—What promises to be one of the greatest ditch contests which have arisen in this section of the state will likely occur near the northern boundary of Polk county, west of Thief River, cuts off a corner of northwestern Red Lake county and then runs practically due west through the northern townships in Polk county into the Red river.

About 100 farmers in the Polk county township west of the St. Vincent line of the Great Northern railway, have banded together to fight the ditch and prevent its construction altogether. They claim that if it is dug it will necessitate the cutting through of the Pembina trail, the sand ridge which was the location of the old Red river or cart route from Manitoba to St. Paul.

The contention is that this ditch will carry a great amount of sand from the river and deposit it on the farms west of the trail and thus lead to a vast damage to the crops and the water in the water are turned loose on this section. Attorneys have been secured to enforce the law and a great deal of litigation will be the result before the matter is satisfactorily settled. These drained lands are extremely valuable, and the owners of the same are determined that they shall be drained and brought into the market.

BRIDGES ARE BEING DAMAGEDLow Stage of Water in Red River Is Causing Trouble.

Grand Forks, N. D., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—Serious consequences are liable to follow the very low stage of the water in the Red river has reached at this point, it already being responsible for considerable damage to several railroad and city bridges crossing the river. The west bank of the river at the point where the Great Northern bridge is located is now moving out at the rate of about an inch a day, and yesterday the piers were set back twenty-four inches because of the shift already made in the foundations. With the gradual manner in which the bank is sliding, the west span of the bridge was forced against the central pier in a manner as to partially damage its moorings on the central pier, and constant watch will have to be maintained to prevent further damage from the same cause. The fact that there is almost no water in the river allowing the banks to slide outwards in a most remarkable manner.

STATE PLATFORM OF REPUBLICANSPresident Indorsed and Com-promised Made in North Dakota.

Bismarck, N. D., Sept. 9.—A meeting of the Republican state central committee was held in this city today for the purpose of adopting a state platform for the campaign. It was the largest gathering of Republicans of the two factions held in some time.

There were some vigorous speeches by both stalwart and insurgent leaders, but the result of the conference was a compromise platform with progressive leanings. President Taft was indorsed, the protective tariff principle was conferred to the tariff commission, and a revision of the tariff schedule by section, based on information furnished by the tariff commission, was made a prominent feature of the platform. It was harmonious gathering, as all Republicans realize that it will require hard and united efforts to win the race for governor this year.

ATTEMPT TO KILL WIFE.Dynamite Intended for Spouse In-jures Man and Wrecks House.

Bessemer, Mich., Sept. 5.—While he was lighting the fuse on a stick of dynamite which he intended to kill his wife, Nestor Mahanen, of this place, was badly injured because the explosive went off before he had time to throw it. The room in the boarding house where his wife was employed was wrecked and the house shaken, but the woman escaped unhurt.

PRESENCE OF MIND SAVED WOMAN'S LIFE.

Lakota, N. D., Sept. 9.—Because she had presence of mind enough to secure a heavy overcoat, which she wrapped tightly about herself, Mrs. Hattough was saved from death by fire. While engaged in working about the kitchen, she accidentally set fire to a can of lard. Endeavoring to save the burning fat, she carried the can out of doors, but in doing so her own clothing burst into flame and she lay on the floor before she was able to extinguish the flames.

MEETINGS A SUCCESS.

Evangelists Reed and Johnson Arouse Interest at Cloquet.

Cloquet, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—The special meetings now being held by Evangelists Reed and Johnson are proving a great success. The children's meetings, which were held every afternoon for nine days, were great in their interest and wonderful in their results. There were from 250 to 300 children present each afternoon, and the meetings were full of interest and entire sanctification, which is a new doctrine to many people.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

Mankato.—Dr. John Nutting of North Mankato was pleasantly surprised by friends and family on Wednesday evening in honor of his seventy-sixth birthday. The affair was a total surprise to the doctor, who was celebrating a gold-anniversary with his wife. A gold-headed cane bearing his monogram, also a gold-headed umbrella, were presented to him. Dr. Nutting left last Monday morning for the East where Mr. Elmer Erickson, who has been employed at the Great Northern shops the past year, left Saturday for his home at Barnesville, Minn., where he will visit for a few days. He will then leave for Minneapolis where he will enter the university of Minnesota.

LONG ISLAND BOROUGHES

Jubilant Over Increase of Population Shown by the Census Bureau.

Put Manhattan in Shade as to Growth of Population.

New York, Sept. 9.—This city is enthused at the census returns showing its great increase in population since 1900.

All the boroughs find reason for congratulation, but the borough of Long Island is the happiest, and feel that the city's future prosperity, its future increase in population, in trade, in manufactures and its commerce will all lie with them and that the Bronx, Richmond and Manhattan politically, in the greater municipality, will become adjuncts of Long Island.

The Long Islanders have received the census returns at a very opportune time for them, as they add to the hilarity and good feeling that exists in these boroughs over the opening for actual operation of the Pennsylvania tunnels, from the great terminal station at Thirty-first street and seventh avenue, Manhattan, to points on Long Island.

During the past week the final inspection of the tunnels was made by the full corps of railway officials of the Pennsylvania company, accompanied by a score of other interested persons.

Everything was found to be in complete order and satisfactory condition, and the opening for regular transportation was made on Sept. 8.

The run of the train of inspection from the Manhattan station to the station at Long Island City was made in less than five minutes, and it is an established fact that passengers to the majority of Long Island points will find the present schedules shortened fully 20 minutes, and that means saving of time to an extent equal to the saving of dollars annually, as busy New Yorkers count time, but the interrupted communication and transportation of freight and passengers between these great divisions of the city, it means the relief of the packed and jammed ferry boats and bridges, and will, to a great degree, diminish the constant complaints of the travelers by those routes of transportation.

There has been during the last three weeks a marked revival in the dealings for real estate upon Long Island.

Fully $15,000,000 is involved in deals now in progress and virtually agreed upon to be closed within the next thirty days, and the bulk of the money which is to be paid will come from men of the Middle West, who are buying large acreages, and the bulk of the money which will realize great profits in the immediate future, from the purchase of Kansas City, St. Louis and Texas money, is strongly represented in these negotiations, and for a person to take up the past five years the list of the parties who have pulled money out of Long Island it would seem that every state and territory of the United States had contributed to the activity in its dealings.

Of course, these investors have before them an object lesson in the growth of these Long Island boroughs during the past decade.

Kings County, Brooklyn, has added to her population during these years as many persons as the entire city of Buffalo contains at this time. Just think of this, one subdivision of this great city adding to her inhabitants within that period more than the city of Cincinnati contains in toto, or to put it in still another form, nearly as many as the enlarged city of Pittsburgh holds within its boundary lines.

In making these comparisons I am using the single subdivision, the borough of Kings, the principal borough today of Long Island.

It is the Long Island situation I desire to present, because from these census returns it is perfectly clear to all that the claims of the Long Islanders that they are henceforth the rulers of the greater city are soundly and well based.

With the opening of the tunnels on the 8th inst. they feel they will enter into their own, and they are also delighted by the fact that they will be no longer cut off from the main land of the United States but can soon take trains on Long Island that will insure them direct rail communications to the great West and South.

When the Hudson river tubes of the Pennsylvania company are opened for traffic into their new terminal station on Seventh avenue it will be the commencement of a new business era in New York city.

Underrated by Promoters.

It is apparent now that the most optimistic promoters of that great undertaking have underrated its saving capacity, as well as the enormous changes it will work in the life of the city in every form.

Next week, when the hundreds of thousands of daily visitors from Long Island debouch near Herald square, there must necessarily result a crush of people, an immense addition to the usual number of persons to be found in that vicinity.

The intersection of Broadway and Sixth avenue at Thirty-fourth street is today one of the most dangerous places for crossings of the streets to be found in any city in the world, and when the number of persons is so much increased as it will be next week, and still more increased when the Hudson river tubes are opened, it will be most difficult to avoid bodily injuries and even losses of life.

The heart of the city is now located from Thirty-fourth street north to Fifty-ninth street, or in other words, at the southern line of Central park.

That it will remain there for the next fifty years seems now well established, and the location of the direct through routes from New Jersey to Long Island and south lines of transportation in Manhattan and the Bronx.

Real estate values have gone up rapidly throughout the entire area in the greater city, but the section of the city north of Twenty-third street to Forty-ninth street, especially on the west side, shows the most gain in percentage on former values.

In the district referred to there is now concentrated the bulk of the construction work now in progress on Manhattan Island, and while building work here has been very much depressed since June 1, yet I have personal knowledge of building plans in this section referred to that will amount to scores of millions of dollars in value, and these plans will be carried out to completion within the next two years.

During the summer mortgage money for building operations was very difficult to procure.

The money supply was ample, but sentiment here in financial circles was pessimistic and the result was hoarding of cash and curtailment of building loans.

During the past three weeks there has been a loosening of the purse strings upon real estate mortgages and on building loans, so that now there is in prospect a renewal of the activities prevalent for two years last past.

News of abundant rains in Texas, especially abundant in the southern and western portions, where drought has prevailed for several months, gives strong hopes of an improvement in the conditions of the cotton crop of that section, and an attendant greater yield of cotton for the spinners, and of cash to the cotton growers.

It will also add to the very large tonnages already in sight for our railways in every section of the Union.

Don't Break Down.

LUNATICS' OUTING

ORDERLY AFFAIR
Barring Speeches By Dukes and Kings to German Emperor.

New York, Sept. 9.—An aged man, wearing a big straw hat, sat at an upright piano on Ward's Island and played rousing accompaniments for the lunatics, while the insane patients and the employees ran races, leaped hurdles and filled the afternoon with athletic events. The aged man was "Grandpa," but seemed as sane as any of the visitors.

Women played violin and the orchestra, conducted by George Kazanek (sane), gave a full program of good music, old-time melodies, alternating with operatic selections. Except speeches by two dukes and several kings, explaining things to the emperor of Germany, the crowd of lunatics was as well behaved and as sane as any Chautauqua assembly.

Visitors spoke of the soothing effects of the music and the charming scenery on the patients. A bright woman, handsomely attired, came out to the lawn with a group of visitors. Her vivacious remarks and engaging manners attracted much attention.

Great was the surprise of many to learn that she also was a patient, but so far recovered that she is allowed to go shopping and to see friends in the city.

These noisy dukes, the kings and the emperor of Germany were snubbed by the thousands of other lunatics interested in the sport.

When long lines of neatly-dressed patients were detailed to see lunatics made to the thousands, they did their work perfectly under the spell of the music.

One of the events was a nail-driving contest by female employees. Forty or fifty spikes were to be driven into a long plank. Some of the girls hit the nail once in ten or fifteen times. Others drove them like carpenters. One girl smashed her thumb and quit.

The race between girl patients ended with each trying to thread a needle. They laughed because the fastest runners were the slowest needle threaders.

The prizes were pictures, neckties, vases, boxes of candy, ribbons and jar-liners.

A young negro maniac won a lot of hair-brace, neckties and a cut glass flower vase. He smiled and looked as happy as if he had got the contract to build the subway.

TERRE HAUTE CHILD
Killed By Opium Contained in a Patent Soothing Medicine.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 9.—Deputy Coroner Jett finds that the infant child of Paul Stankovitch was killed by opium in a patent medicine sold as a soothing medicine for crying children. Dr. Jett says there is 1.6 grains of opium in every ounce of the preparation.

HOLD-UP OF PRISONERS
For Communication With Friends, Stopped By New York Police.

New York, Sept. 9.—That prisoners in the various precinct stations may have the use of stamped envelopes and three free telephone calls became known today when Police Commissioner Baker issued an order to this effect. Special delivery stamps will be kept on hand, but these must be paid for.

Prisoners have been compelled to send out for their stamps, and have been forced to get some one to do the telephoning for them, paying excessively large fees.

Once a door man at a station where 800 prisoners in a gambling raid were held made about $350 by doing errands and telephoning for bail for the prisoners. Telephone calls will be limited to New York city numbers.

SWINDLED ON A WAGER.
Remarkable Defense By Friends of Larkin, Arrested in Missouri.

Stratford, Tex., Sept. 9.—James T. Larkin, who was arrested a few days ago at Kansas City, Mo., on instructions from Sheriff McChesney of Delbart, Tex., on a charge of fraudulently securing $500 from a bank at Texline, that county, formerly lived here.

His friends tell a remarkable story, in which it is sought to free Larkin of any criminal intent in extensive transactions with banks at several places in Texas and Oklahoma. They say that Larkin made a wager about eleven months ago that he could swindle banks all over the country for a year without detection.

He mailed letters on Aug. 1 to all banks that had suffered from his operations, telling them what he had done and stating that he would refund the amounts obtained from them on Oct. 1, when his year under the wager would be up. It was Larkin's intention to write and publish an account of the system that he followed in working the banks for the benefit of those institutions and the public.

Woman's Home Companion: The cheapest and most ordinary table linen may be made to take a sheen as beautiful as the finest damask by ironing in this way: After linen has been carefully washed, boiled and rinsed, wring dry as possible and roll up in a dry sheet and leave for one hour. Four splendid concert songs by John Barnes Wells

This noted young tenor always charms his audiences not only because of his lovely voice, but because of the absolute clearness of his enunciation, which enables every word to be understood.

Mr. Wells first became known as a singer through the prominent part he took in the musical life of Syracuse University. On graduating he was secured by the Brick Presbyterian Church of East Orange, noted for its fine choir; but was soon afterwards captured by the Madison Avenue M. E. Church of New York, when his concert career may be said to have begun.

The unusual qualities of his superb tenor voice are fully apparent in the numbers he has sung for the Victor.

TARIFF COMMISSION WILL MEET SEPT. 21.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The tariff board will meet in Washington, Sept. 21, and lay the foundations for the beginning of a scientific investigation of the three most important schedules of the Payne-Aldrich law. The new famous schedule "K," the woolen schedule, which has been sharply attacked and strongly defended, will have first consideration. The cotton schedule and the metal schedule will follow in the order named.

It is understood that the board hopes to have at least five schedules thoroughly scrutinized during its first year's work and it is said such a plan has President Taft's approval.

"REMEMBER THE OTHER TARIFF SCHEME"—PARKER.

Rockland, Me., Sept. 9.—Judge Alton B. Parker of New York in his third and last speech in the Democratic campaign in Maine last night warned his hearers not to accept the program of President Taft for a reduction in the present tariff rates, one schedule at a time. He asserted as his reason that if the Republican machine can pass any more legislation during the session, it will be the demand for a substantial reduction than it has previously.

"While President Taft purposes undoubtedly to be honest," he said, "the only way safely for people to make their demands known is by overwhelming defeat of the party that has dared betray them for a political campaign mess of pottage."

IS SPIRIT RETURNING?

Brookline Pastor Says He Met "Presence" of Prof. William James.

Promise in This Life Half Carried Out By Scholar.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 9.—Prof. William James, America's foremost psychologist, who died a week ago last Friday, has accomplished his expressed desire to communicate from the beyond, according to the Rev. Dr. Frederic A. Wiggins of Brookline, pastor of the Unity church.

Prof. James died at Chocoma, N. H., on Aug. 26, but Dr. Wiggins, who has been attending a convention of spiritualists at Madison, Me., did not learn the news until last Sunday. He immediately set himself to get into touch with the spirit of the psychologist, and says that after an hour's summoning of his control the spirit manifested itself.

"The spirit of Prof. William James has manifested itself to me, just as he promised he would," said Dr. Wiggins. "Within a week or so I believe my control will be fully attuned to the wave length vibrations of Prof. James. Dr. James Hyslop and Dr. Richard Hodgson, who passed over in 1906, were of the same type."

"When I learned last Sunday that Prof. James had passed on, I retired to my room and sought to summon my control. Ever since I have been on my vacation my control has been weakened or has disappeared altogether for days at a time. In my individual case my control seems to take a vacation about the same time that I do."

"With my control weakened, I felt it would be difficult to attain full communications at first, or you must know that a man of Prof. James' high spiritual type will not come into spirit high vibrations. As we have estimated these vibrations, they vary from thirty in a weak spirit to about seventy-eight in the genius, and I know that Prof. James' vibrations must be at the latter rate. To receive these spirit vibrations the control must be strong."

"My control came to me after a time, and I experienced a strong illumination of a presence in the room. The presence of a presence in the room could not translate from the subconscious mind the identity of the presence. The presence that remained there and that of Prof. James, when I established communication with the spirit of Dr. Hodgson I began to see the same way."

Spirits Await Message.
Chicago, Sept. 9.—Scientists at the University of Chicago and at Northwestern university will devote a part of their attention to spiritualism this fall. The professors said yesterday that they would follow with interest the attempts of Prof. James Hyslop of New York to establish spiritualistic communication with the late Prof. William James, the Harvard psychologist and philosopher.

The news that Prof. James deposited letters in the vaults of the English Society for Psychical Research shortly before his death, intending to communicate the contents to Prof. Hyslop through Mr. Piper, the London medium, and that Prof. Hyslop will hold the seance in November, has been of great importance to the scientists.

The authorities of the two universities hold different reasons for their interest. Prof. Nathaniel Hyslop, of the University of Chicago, said that an attitude of respect toward the case would become educated persons, who Prof. James D. Scott of Northwestern admitted that he would be chiefly interested in the popular effect of a public test.

Might be Proof of Telepathy.
"An open mind and suspension of judgment should characterize persons who follow this experiment," said Prof. Butler. "I speak merely as a layman, but it is clear that while we do not know what there is in the possibility of such communication we cannot say there is no such thing. The whole question of spiritualism is in bad repute largely because of many frauds. There are too many short-haired women and long-haired men in it. The matter of thought transference of thought seems to depend on getting just the right medium—one who is in some way accommodated to the mind of the person sending the message. As one tuning fork responds to another so one mind might respond to another. This might be true in the case of Prof. James and Mrs. Piper. We cannot say what this faculty is."

"Prof. James himself never dogmatized on this subject, but said that we ought to get at the truth if we were any possibility of doing so. His attitude here was in line with his attitude toward philosophy in general, and applicable to every day life. Don't see that spiritualism has anything to do with religion, except that should Prof. James succeed in communicating the contents of the letters it would be a proof of immortality. Should the power of telepathy finally reveal the contents of the letters it would be just as wonderful as a communication from another world, as we have now no established phenomena of telepathy."

Sees Another Failure.
"I read what the physical research society publishes and should like to see this seance," said Prof. Scott. "I shall regard it as most interesting as proving another failure and showing that the public will refuse to disbelieve in spiritualism even then. I have tried to gather data for the society, but I regard it as a losing cause, and other scientists feel the same way. I do not think Prof. James will communicate with Prof. Hyslop. This psychical research has not made good."

NEW USES FOR POSLAM

Surprising Results After One Application—Skin Affections Eradicated.

Those who have on hand a jar of poslam, the new skin remedy, should try it for some of the little skin ailments common to all households, particularly in the summer time. Surprising results will be seen after a single application when poslam is used for sunburn, fever blisters, mosquito bites, burns, rashes, pimples, hives, red noses and irritated and inflamed skin. The complexion is cleared over night; dandruff is dissolved; itching or chafing feet are speedily relieved. These uses are suggested apart from the primary purposes of poslam, the treatment of eczema, acne, skin scales, all forms of itch, and other serious and virulent skin troubles. There is no skin disorder for which poslam should not be unhesitatingly used and which it will not benefit. Whenever itching is present, it is stopped at once.

According to the uses for which it is employed, poslam may be purchased in 50-cent boxes or $2 jars at all drug stores, particularly the Lyeum Pharmacy and W. A. Abbe's in Duluth, and the A. E. Holmberg Drug Co., in Superior. A free sample, which will demonstrate its marvelous work, will be sent by mail, upon request, to any person who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York city.

SHE MAY WIN HER FRITZIE

Lillian Hobart French Says She Will Yet Be Mrs. Heinze.

New York, Sept. 9.—Do the captains of high finance possess psychic virtues? Yes, and decidedly so, maintains Mrs. Lillian Hobart French, the Butte heiress of Fritz Augustus Heinze, the copper millionaire, whom she is suing for $25,000, the amount she claims she lent him the money of 1907. Mrs. French is a theosophist.

"There are psychic virtues and psychic defects in every man," said Mrs. French. "But these psychic characteristics are most developed in the great captains of high finance. The man I've studied most is Fritz Augustus Heinze."

"Take J. Pierpont Morgan, for example, whom I have met socially. He is a man whose psychic virtues positively dominate and control his actions. He is a man whose mind over mere sensualism."

Fritz Heinze is a man with both traits equally developed, but with lack of sufficient will power to allow his virtues to dominate.

She Is Sorry for Fritz.
"Fritz has run away from me and got mixed up in a lot of trouble. For the other woman, for sooner or later she will be sorry for him. He is in his hand, crying like a naughty boy, to be reinstated in my affections. I have undergone a great change. My love for him has been replaced by a love for myself. Yet I shall always regard him as my occult lord and master. His life and mine have been bound together. He has been a great help to me in many ways and a great deal of trouble to me."

"Fritz does not understand his own nature. When the realization comes, when hard luck arrives, he will know that he has attempted to humiliate me. He will know that he has attempted to humiliate me. He will know that he has attempted to humiliate me. He will know that he has attempted to humiliate me."

He Likes a "Good Sport."
"I don't mind Heinze's actions, for he is showing himself up, but I certainly do like a good sport, whether he be an occultist or just a plain every day person."

"He may marry fifty times prior to the next reincarnation, but if I want to be a million years, I shall in the last analysis wed him and become in the same sense of the word Fritz Augustus Heinze."

Mrs. French exhibited proof sheets of her new book, "Are These Things True?" and here are some aphorisms from one chapter:

"The time will come when there will be neither marriage nor giving in marriage."

"The divorce courts prove that marriage is becoming a failure."

"Some day unadulterated love will rule supreme and become empress of the wide world."

"No human power can separate two souls whom God hath joined together. No human power can keep together two souls that man hath joined together. No human power can separate two souls that man hath joined together."

He's Reincarnation of St. Paul.
"But he will not learn—he's stubborn. Mr. Heinze is the reincarnation of St. Paul, but he won't profit by his experience he had in that life and heed when the great white light shines on him."

"My own former identity as John of Arc shows my physical peculiarities. I have strength of mind and was born again to lead again. That's why I want my $25,000—so I can start my school."

TRAMP DOG

Saved Three Persons From Being Burned to Death.

New York, Sept. 9.—Fire in a two-story dwelling at No. 312 Wyant street, Brooklyn, partly consumed the building, which is occupied by Dr. Samuel Lieber. But for the barking of a tramp dog Dr. Lieber, his 14-year-old daughter and their housekeeper would have suffocated with smoke. The three occupants of the house were asleep on the second floor and their rooms were rapidly filling with smoke. The barking of the dog awoke Dr. Lieber. He

RED SQUIRREL IS FOUND UNDER HEN

Mothered Along With Brood of Recently Hatched Chicks.

Hancock, Mich., Sept. 8.—A hen belonging to Alex Scott of Vivian street has been mothering a red squirrel along with a brood of recently hatched chicks. The chicks are about a week old, and a couple of nights ago Mr. Scott visited the hen coop to see if there were any eggs in the nest, when his hand came in contact with some-found the parlor abase. Dr. Lieber carried his daughter to the yard, and a second trip led the housekeeper through the smoke to safety. When the fire was extinguished the dog that had given the alarm was taken to the house of a neighbor by Dr. Lieber and it will have a permanent home. The damage was about $1,000.

closed his hand over the object, but in the dark could not see what the creature was. It lay still and Mr. Scott carried it into the house, where it was found to be a large red squirrel.

The creature appeared to be perfectly tame and made itself at home with the members of the family, eating from the hand and making no effort to evade. A cage has been provided for the animal and it has attracted considerable attention from friends and neighbors to whom the circumstance of its capture has become known.

The squirrel probably came from the woods on the hillside back of the Scott residence, and finding its way to the hen house sought a warm resting place among the chickens under the old hen, the latter showing no signs of alarm and adopting the new member of her family without any apparent objection.

LIGHTS BLAZE OUT AT VIRGINIA

"Great White Way" on Chestnut Street Is Very Brilliant.

Virginia, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—The "great white way" on Chestnut street in this city blazed forth in resplendent glory for the first time last night, and the beauty and brightness of the thing received much favorable comment from the people of Virginia. The "white way" is a series of lights, each about five feet long, and each with five tungsten lamps upon each end, and all these lights make the street appear almost as bright as day.

The "white way" was constructed by the park board at a cost of $5,000, and its inauguration is considered by the business men and citizens in general to be one of the best things yet accomplished by the board in its work of beautifying the city.

NASHWAUK MINES ARE VERY BUSY

La Rue Expected to Add Sixteen More Underground Crews.

Nashwaug, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—The La Rue mine has four crews of men at work in the No. 1 shaft here and reports have it that the company will add sixteen more for their underground work within a few weeks. The mine will beyond doubt employ a small force during the winter.

The Rickards-Matler property, which is located one mile northwest of town, has not as yet been opened, but it is expected that this company will begin operating in the near future. John Rickards, the railroad contractor of Duluth, has recently completed the Great Northern spur to the property and a small force of men have been busy blowing stumps on the ground preparatory to opening.

The Crosby mine has a larger force of men at work than ever before in the history of the property. The mine has been putting in 10-hour shifts, this work is expected to be kept up until the middle of October.

Hunter Bros., contractors, will be finished with their work on the La Rue mine within a week and their engines and shovels will be taken to Duluth where the company has a contract for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kempfmann returned home Thursday morning from Hovey and Grand Rapids, where they spent a few days with relatives and friends.

Miss Mabelle Hudson, one of the local teachers in the schools here, was taken ill with diphtheria Wednesday at the residence of John C. Oiles at Second street. Her condition is not thought to be serious.

Frank Kolar left the fore part of the week for Collegeville, Minn., where he will resume his studies for the year.

GREAT CROWD IS EXPECTED TO GO

Grand Rapids Ball Team to Play at Hibbing Sunday.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—Sunday will be the big day of the Grand Rapids City Baseball team. The team, accompanied by a trainload of Grand Rapids citizens here, will go to Hibbing for a series of two games with the strong Hibbing Colts.

This is really the first opportunity that the people of Grand Rapids have had to go out on the range over the new line outside of on a week day, and as many do not get the chance to go on working days, the opportunity will doubtless be made the most of. It is expected that between 5,000 and 10,000 people will go to Hibbing on that day. The train will leave Grand Rapids at 10 o'clock in the morning, returning in the evening.

The lineup of the team for these games will be as follows: Pitchers, Brownlee and Naveson; catcher, Edw. H. Herold; first base, Edw. Nason; second base, Ralph Root; third base, Weaver; short stop, Field; fielders, Vetter, Blasing and Benz.

WILL BOOST THE CITY OF TOWER

New Commercial Club Starts Out With Much Enthusiasm.

Tower, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—The first regular meeting of the Commercial Club of Tower, which was held Monday evening at the Benson building with a large attendance, was presided over by P. E. Kott, president, with W. G. Golden, the newly elected secretary at the desk. The hour for the sessions of the club was fixed at 8 p. m.

A motion was made and carried to change the age of admission so as to admit young men of 18 years old and over.

A committee on printing envelopes was named as follows: P. C. Burgess, Gus Gohberg, John F. Fothergill, P. O. Nelson, newspaper publicity committee. Messrs. Weinman, Robertson and Pearson were named.

A communication was read from the general freight and passenger agent of the Duluth & Iron Range railroad company, stating that the club and the city of Tower on the formation of so important an organization.

The meeting was addressed by Vice President Murphy on the necessity of every member doing his utmost to further the interests of the club, Tower Institutions, and especially the new iron properties in this vicinity, after which the meeting adjourned.

CEREMONY BY MASONIC ORDER

Laying of Corner Stone of New Range Courthouse at Virginia.

Virginia, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—The cornerstone of the new range courthouse now in course of construction in this city will be laid tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Masonic order, V. B. Patton of Duluth, grand master of the order for Minnesota, will have charge of the ceremonies, and other prominent Masons from Duluth and the range towns will be present.

Judge Martin Hughes of Hibbing, who presides over the range court, has been asked to make an address at the ceremonies and will probably be present. Attorney N. B. Arnold, who took such a prominent part in securing the range court, and Hon. Neil McInnis, chairman of the county board of commissioners, will also be present at the ceremonies.

It is expected that a large number of people from the range towns as well as from Duluth will attend, and the laying of the stone will be a handsome structure, similar in architecture to the courthouse at the county seat, though on a smaller scale.

Two Harbors, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—At a meeting of the boys of the high school, Thursday, it was decided to organize a football team this year. Mr. White will be the coach, while Mr. Frank will assist him. The team will be put in shape for the season by the end of the month.

LACK OF MONEY

Was a Godsend in This Case.

It is not always that a lack of money is a benefit.

"A lady of Green Forest, Ark., owes her health to a fact that she could not pay in advance the fee demanded by a specialist to treat her for stomach trouble. In telling of her case she says:

"I had been treated by four different physicians during ten years of stomach trouble. Lastly I called on a specialist who told me he could not cure me; that I had neuritis of the stomach. Then I went to a specialist who told me I had catarrh of the stomach and said he could cure me in four months but would have to have my money down. I could not raise the necessary sum and in my extremity I was led to quit coffee and try Postum.

"So I stopped coffee and gave Postum a thorough trial and the results have been magical. I now sleep well at night, something I had not done for a long time; the pain in my stomach is gone and I am a different woman.

"I dreaded to quit coffee because every time I had tried to stop it I suffered from severe headaches, so I continued to drink it although I had reason to believe it was injurious to me, and was the cause of my stomach trouble and extreme nervousness. But when I had Postum to shift to it was different.

"To my surprise I did not miss coffee when I began to drink Postum. Coffee had been steadily and surely killing me and I did not fully realize what was doing it until I quit and changed to Postum."

Hibbing, Minn., Sept. 9.—A farewell reception and dinner was tendered to C. P. Bates, the retiring pastor of the local Presbyterian church, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pearce, about twenty-five guests were laid. Only the officers of the church and members of the congregation were present. The dinner was given by Rev. Frank Durant, Mrs. Bates was tendered a beautiful floral offering, and the gift of the women of the service fund, the presentation being made by the pastor.

MOORE IS EXPECTED TO FULLY RECOVER.

Chisholm, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—James Moore, the engineer at the Whiteside mine, who was injured by a falling rock at the Whiteside mine, is expected to fully recover. The injury was a severe one, but Moore is now recovering rapidly.

EMIL BERGMAN SUCCEUMS TO ATTACK OF TYPHOID.

Two Harbors, Minn., Sept. 9.—Emil Bergman died after an illness of about two weeks with typhoid fever at the Two Harbors hospital. He was about 40 years old and came to this country about ten years ago, and made his living as a laborer. He was engaged in the lumber business, and was working for the Two Harbors Lumber Co. when he was struck by the disease. He was taken to the hospital on Tuesday, and died on Friday.

TYPHOID AT HIBBING BECOMING ALARMING.

Hibbing, Minn., Sept. 9.—There are now twenty-five cases of typhoid fever in Hibbing, and the situation is becoming alarming. The disease is spreading rapidly, and many cases are severe. The local health board is taking steps to prevent further spread of the disease.

CHISHOLM WILL SOON EMERGE FROM DARKNESS.

Chisholm, Minn., Sept. 9.—A. W. McMillan, president of the Range Power company, has returned from Milwaukee accompanied by four men, who will superintend the installation of a 400-horse power steam engine and two large boilers at the plant as soon as they arrive from the E. P. P. Co. The new engine and boilers will require about a week to install the new machinery, meanwhile the old engine will be kept running. The new engine will be a great improvement on the old one, and will enable the company to produce more power.

Caught Between Cars.

Eveleth, Minn., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—James Deluga, an Adams mine worker, was caught between two dump cars and his feet were broken. He will soon be able to resume work.

adoption in Music hall and luncheon at the exposition grounds. Col. Roosevelt addressed the assembled throng in the evening at 7:30 p. m., and in the evening will attend the opera, "Pascetta." Col. Roosevelt will return to his private car, which will be switched to a special engine and taken to Columbus, Ohio, where tomorrow he will speak.

The special train bearing Col. Roosevelt and party stopped at Torrance a few miles beyond the city limits, where automobiles were in waiting to take the colonel and his party to the hotel. Longworth to Roosevelt. Mrs. Longworth met her husband at the hotel and they were well preserved and the discoverers say that one of them showed that it was fractured as if struck vigorously with ing at Hamilton and cheered the colonel when he appeared on the rear platform.

"Come Back to Help." Speaking upon good citizenship, Col. Roosevelt added: "I have come back to join with you in helping to forward any wise and proper movement for our betterment. While we need good laws and while there must still be some changes in the law, we need still more honesty in the administration of the laws, but the essential thing is to have good individual citizenship."

"Now, don't wish to kidnap your mayor," shouted the colonel to the crowd as he helped Mayor Rothwell to climb back to the ground as the train started.

Carlier & Hornblower in New York city. He soon won a junior partnership with Former Justice Wilson of Minnesota. In Minnesota he had a general practice and later moved to Chicago, where in June 1893, he became a member of the legal department of the Chicago & Northwestern railway. During his sixteen years' connection with that road it is said that no charges, technical or otherwise, were brought against that system.

He was appointed solicitor general shortly after President Taft's inauguration. He was a member of the Chicago Club, University Club of Chicago, and Chicago Athletic club, was president of the Chicago law club, and was president of the Yale Alumni Association of Chicago.

Married Woman Girl.
Mr. Bowers was twice married. In 1887 he married Miss Louise B. Wilson of Winona, Minn., who died ten years ago. In 1896 he married Miss Charlotte Josephine Lewis.

Mr. Bowers had figured conspicuously in the gossip about the succession to one of the vacancies on the supreme court. He was a member of the Chicago bar, and was a member of the Chicago Athletic club, and was president of the Chicago law club, and was president of the Yale Alumni Association of Chicago.

He received national attention last March when alone he defended the constitutionality of the corporation tax provisions of the Payne-Aldrich tariff act before the supreme court. Arranged against him was a corps of the leading lawyers of the country, and the success of the solicitor general in presenting his case stamped him, so his friends assert, as certain of appointment to the supreme court.

During his term as solicitor general no case which he argued was decided against him. One decision regarding grazing on forest reserves was reversed, but later the case was set for a rehearing.

Mr. Bowers was appointed as solicitor general by President Taft on March 26, 1909. He was the first official act of Mr. Taft as president.

The first news of Mr. Bowers' illness became generally known through a telegram sent by Mrs. Bowers to President Taft last Tuesday. The message was delivered to the president on the morning of Wednesday, and Mr. Bowers was able to see him. At that time President Taft expressed much satisfaction that he had been able to see him.

Mr. Bowers had been in the hospital since he was attacked by the disease. He was a member of the Chicago bar, and was a member of the Chicago Athletic club, and was president of the Chicago law club, and was president of the Yale Alumni Association of Chicago.

Cause Not Known.
The accident happened far from any shore and for several hours the cause of the disaster was not known. It is believed that the disaster was not due to any carelessness of the crew on the North Dakota, says the admiral's report. "A board of inquiry was named to investigate the accident, consisting of Capt. C. A. Gore of the Delaware, senior officer, and Lieut. Commander C. M. Price of the Delaware and Lieut. Commander A. M. Proctor of the Connecticut. This board will thoroughly look into the cause of the explosion."

cratic members in attendance were: Senators Purcell, North Dakota; Fletcher, Florida; and Senator Foraker, Ohio. James of Kentucky and James M. Graham of Illinois.

Soon after entering the committee room, the Democratic members affixed their signatures to their findings, which they are usually known as the "Gifford Pinchot" report, and the one insurgent Republican.

Madison to Report.
Mr. Madison had prepared an independent report, which favors Mr. Pinchot, and brought it to the committee room.

Shortly after the executive session began the secretary of the committee, Paul Sleman, was designated as secretary, and he was directed to find the absentees, if possible, and bring them in. In view of the positive declaration of Messrs. Denby and others that they would not attend, his mission seemed futile. The action was considered a mere formality. Two of the members had left the hotel shortly before the committee met and Mr. McCall remained in his room.

Later Senator Sutherland and Representatives Denby and McCall were found in the latter's room by the secretary, who was directed to find the absentees, if possible, and bring them in. In view of the positive declaration of Messrs. Denby and others that they would not attend, his mission seemed futile. The action was considered a mere formality. Two of the members had left the hotel shortly before the committee met and Mr. McCall remained in his room.

It was apparent that the Republican absentees feared that should they attend it would give the five members who voted Wednesday for the adoption of the Ballinger resolution of Madison an opportunity of winning up the previous question and possibly secure ratification of the action of the four Democratic members and the one insurgent Republican.

Senator Nelson requested that an adjournment be taken till Monday and the meeting be held in Chicago. This, however, was refused by Senator Foraker, who was present. No action was taken on this suggestion. The Democrats were not disposed to delay any longer. Senator Nelson soon after the adjournment of the committee for the time being was without a chairman.

the young women were not acquainted with the man who was found dead. The bodies of the men had rotted away and there was nothing by which they could be identified. The skulls were well preserved and the discoverers say that one of them showed that it was fractured as if struck vigorously with a blunt instrument. The cave was very low they say, and the position of the bones the finders were convinced that the men had not walked or crawled in there but had been pushed in and covered over with leaves and branches to conceal them.

The girls whose hospital training had enabled them to know what they were talking about, are positive that one of the men whose bones were found was struck on the head either accidentally or with murderous intent, with force sufficient to cause death.

Old employees on the Booth line boats recall the sudden disappearance eight years ago of two fishermen who went out to Isle Royale to fish for lake trout. The men left Washington harbor in a small boat, and headed down the coast of the island in the direction of the place where the cave with its gruesome contents was found. The men were never heard of afterwards, nor was any trace of the boat discovered. A heavy snowstorm swept down on the island the day after the disappearance of the men and it was always supposed that they had become lost and frozen to death in the snow. What became of the boat has always been a mystery, however.

When the story of the find was reported to C. W. Turner of the Booth line, he advised the wireless operator on board the steamer American to go to the cove at the nearest Michigan port and have a thorough investigation, with a view to clearing up if possible the mystery of the cave.

Speech by Heney.

In the course of a vigorous and wildly applauded speech, Francis J. Heney of California said:

"There are some evidences that public opinion in this country does not have a free chance to operate. I need not mention many instances to convince you. Ninety per cent of the people ple of the United States were opposed to the bill, and they were not to profit by poisoning a people; they wanted a pure food law, and yet they waited until the big game of Congress for sixteen years, until Thomas Watson, the Georgia politician, forced it out. What public opinion failed to do, the big stick accomplished. The Government of the United States sent from each state respectively one or more Senators to represent the people of that state. In the interest of the average common man, the Government of the United States has the right to use the arm of the government will be inefficient; and I discovered that it is in the interest of the people of the United States—I mean in the greatest interest of the people of the United States—that the Government of the United States should use the arm of the public property of the United States, the executive arm of the Government, to force the people to have been the greater part of the time utterly inefficient to safeguard the people of the United States. I am failing in my performance of this duty.

Senator Tamm Powerful.

It is because, while we have the Government of the United States, the Government of the United States the appointing of the United States Senators, the Government of the United States has the right to use the arm of the public property of the United States, the executive arm of the Government, to force the people to have been the greater part of the time utterly inefficient to safeguard the people of the United States. I am failing in my performance of this duty.

there has been a rule grown up in the senate of the United States which has

In effect robbed the executive of any real power in that respect, and has placed the appointing of such officials in the hands of the United States senators from the respective states in which those districts lie.

"What is the result? It is that the lumber interests in a particular district are represented by the senators from that district, and the executive is left with no power to appoint or remove officials in that district."

ceded in despoiling the people of a large part of their timber interests. Those lumber interests are apt to dominate the election of a United States senator, and those lumber interests are also liable to dictate through that senator the appointment of the United States officials whose duty it will be to enforce the laws of the United States against his benefactor.

MEHLIN PIANOS!

In this shipment is a beautiful toned MEHLIN PIANO in a CIRASSIAN WALNUT CASE, which is pronounced by a prominent local musician to be the finest instrument EVER SHOWN IN DULUTH. We want you to SEE and hear it.

Mehlin Talks:

The house of Mehlin—Paul G. Mehlin & Sons as it is known—is now directed by the second generation of Mehlin with H. Paul Mehlin at the head and with Charles and Otto Mehlin spending practically all of their time at the factory personally superintending the construction of the Mehlin and at the same time continuing the valuable experiments in acoustics which were so many years directed by their father.

A visitor to the Mehlin plant will find some of the most interesting things to be found in a piano factory in America. In the first place he may see there such a mass of data and scientific records of subjects which have to do with the art of piano making that exist in few, if any other, piano plants. He will find recorded the results of experiments that extended back for many years and these experiments have had to do with matters of string tension, plate making, and distribution of metal in the plate and the relation all this bears to the tone of the piano when new, as well as to the durability of the tone. Thus it will be seen that to the Mehlin, the manufacture of a piano is a serious business and they consider it a solemn duty that they gather these statistics and data and make deductions therefrom, all with the view of making the Mehlin piano, if possible, better than ever. It is this painstaking, scientific endeavor that has made the Mehlin piano what it is today, and the spirit shown in the second generation of Mehlin make it plainly apparent to the trade that the Mehlin piano will continue to occupy the position of eminence in this trade for many years to come. The Mehlin piano is sold by the COUNTY BOARD.

Few Matters of Importance Confront Commissioners at Meeting.

The county board meeting held this morning had little business before it. Walter J. Smith of Eveleth resigned from the county sanitarium commission and William Getty of Duluth was appointed in his place. The discontinuance of School District No. 53 township 42-23 was discussed. N. J. Miller was appointed appraiser of state lands. The sum of $500 was appropriated to the St. Louis County Agricultural society for the county fair at Hibbing. A saloon license was granted to R. Finch in 50-17.

The Kenney-Sponner controversy was referred to W. H. Stevenson for a report to the board.

PUT BAN ON AIR RIFLES

Pneumatic Gun Source of Much Trouble to West Duluth Authorities.

Police Also Warn Boys Against Use of Firearms and Slingshots.

A ban has been placed on air guns by the West Duluth police.

Patience has been a virtue with the authorities in the western end of the city, and Lieut. Charles Wilcox, in charge of the department, has decided to take rigid steps in enforcing the ordinance in regard to shooting within the city limits.

In the future a boy who shoots a rifle at West Duluth, no matter for what purpose, stands an excellent chance of being arrested. If the boy is under 14 years of age, his parents will be prosecuted, says Lieut. Wilcox. In case that the youngster is over 17 years old, he will be taken to the police court, but otherwise he will be arraigned in juvenile court.

Broken windows, and people who have been shot with air guns, and narrowly missed with rifle bullets, play a prominent part in bringing about the warning which has been issued by the police.

Hardly a day passes at West Duluth but there are complaints in regard to the careless shooting of rifles and air guns. On Monday three boys, one over 17, were arrested because they were hunting ducks with rifles near the city limits, and the river. The eldest, when arraigned in police court, was fined $2 for the misdemeanor.

Lieut. Wilcox states that if any boy is caught discharging an air gun, a rifle, the gun will also be taken away from him and confiscated. Boys with slingshots are also warned, and their activities along different lines, as there have been reports of too much trouble caused from this source.

"Every parent should know whether or not his child has been using a certain extent for the child," said the officer.

This week two boys were taken in hand by Lieut. Wilcox. One of the boys, a 12-year-old, was charged with stealing money with which to purchase air guns. The youngsters are small and their case will be dealt with by the juvenile court.

SICK MAN TAKES FATAL "BRACER"

Frank Rolka Found to Have Died From Drinking Wood Alcohol.

By a chance remark made last evening by Mrs. Frank Rolka, wife of the Proctor man, who died after a two hours' illness at his home Wednesday afternoon, it was learned that the cause of death was probably responsible for his death.

Last evening, Mrs. Rolka told a neighbor that she remembered that her husband had been drinking a "bracer" and that shortly afterwards he died. When asked to show the bottle from which the drink was taken, it was found to be a bottle of "Wood Naphtha" and had a poison label on it. He had purchased it, supposedly thinking that it was ordinary alcohol from a drug store. It is not thought that the poison was taken with suicidal intent. A widow and two children survive. Rolka was buried today at Oronota cemetery.

AUTOMOBILE BROKE DOWN

West Duluth Party Had to Come Home By Train.

Motoring between Duluth and St. Paul is far from being delightful, when everything goes wrong with a car and a party has to walk seven or eight miles and then take a train, according to Corey M. Phillips, who returned yesterday from the state fair. Mr. Phillips and his family and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lindgren of West Duluth visited the state fair this week, making the trip to St. Paul in Mr. Phillips' car. On the return trip, a crank shaft broke just outside of St. Paul, and the machine had to be towed into White Bear with an ox team, while the occupants of the car walked. From White Bear, the party took the train to Carlton and then transferred to the Great Northern to Duluth. Mr. Phillips' car is still at White Bear waiting for repairs. He will soon have it brought to West Duluth.

He was taken to St. Mary's hospital. He will recover. Gréndich is employed at the West Duluth stone crusher.

Will Report on Depot.

When the West Duluth Commercial club meets this evening, it is expected that the most important business to come up for consideration will be the report from the committee, which is handling the new Northern Pacific depot question.

Body Not Found.

Up to a late hour this afternoon, the body of Charles Nelson, who was drowned Wednesday in the St. Louis river, had not been found. It is thought that the body was carried down the river a considerable distance by the current.

Lieut. Wilcox states that if any boy is caught discharging an air gun, a rifle, the gun will also be taken away from him and confiscated. Boys with slingshots are also warned, and their activities along different lines, as there have been reports of too much trouble caused from this source.

"Every parent should know whether or not his child has been using a certain extent for the child," said the officer.

This week two boys were taken in hand by Lieut. Wilcox. One of the boys, a 12-year-old, was charged with stealing money with which to purchase air guns. The youngsters are small and their case will be dealt with by the juvenile court.

SUPERIOR FIVE WARRANTS ARE ISSUED

Police Arrest One Youth for Assault on Ford Campbell.

Stanley Anderson, 20 years old, son of Postmaster O. K. Anderson of Superior, was arrested this morning and warrants were sworn out for four other young men in connection with the rowdy assault upon Ford Campbell, a well known Duluth boy, by the Country club, Friday evening last.

In municipal court this morning, the postmaster of the city was charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm preferred by Campbell. The charge was returned by the grand jury.

Warrants are still out for William Stack, S. Stansbury, Truman Steele and Raymond Anderson, all charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm. Late this afternoon, none of the four was in custody. Campbell attended a dance at the Country club, Friday evening. While there, he was seized upon by five or six young men, all named. He alleges that he was beaten and kicked and otherwise maltreated.

VIOLATED LIQUOR LAWS.

Four Are Arraigned for "Blind Piggings"—One Pleads Guilty.

Charged with "blind piggings" two men and two women were in police court yesterday afternoon as a result of warrants sworn out by Capt. Olson of the police department.

They were Martin Steger, Edward Carter, Maggie Lahti and Lena Laskin. Steger pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $50, but the others pleaded not guilty and asked for examination, which was set for Friday.

Joseph Oselus, a lower tower avenue saloon keeper, was charged with serving liquor yesterday afternoon charged with selling liquor on Sunday. His case was also adjourned.

CITY BOWLING LEAGUE READY TO OPEN SEASON.

The City Bowling League will open its season Sept. 20, a schedule having been drawn up last evening at a meeting of the captains of the various teams, which organized and elected officers. Charles Fottgeller was named president and the other officers were Frank Swan, vice president; Henry Buchanan, secretary; and Charles Jackson, treasurer.

The teams and captains in the league are: Tower Clothing company, Charles Fottgeller; Great Northern, Frank Swan; Temco, Charles Buxall; Jackson, Robert Listy; Floua & Leveaux, Hank Swanson; Columbia, Lester Billings.

EX-MAYOR'S DAUGHTER WEDS NORTH DAKOTA MAN.

The marriage of Miss Dora O'Hare daughter of ex-Mayor and Mrs. C. N. O'Hare of 204 West Sixth street and Walter D. Fouse of Jamestown, N. D., took place yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's father, Rev. H. J. Fouse, officiating. The groom was a former Superior boy and a graduate of the local normal and Academy high school. He is now a civil engineer at Jamestown.

SCHOOL BOARD WILL ENFORCE PENALTY CLAUSE.

At a special meeting yesterday afternoon, the board of education decided to enforce the penalty clause against the contractors for the new city school building at the rate of $50 a day since July 1. Notice to that effect has been

ARRESTED FOR "BLIND PIGGING."

Three more alleged "blindpiggers" were taken in tow today by the Superior police. They will be arraigned this afternoon in municipal court. They were Mrs. M. B. Timlin of the "Blind Pig" saloon, 123 North Third street, and John Miller of 123 North Third street. The latter conducts a confectionery store.

Is After Convention.

Postmaster O. K. Anderson has gone to Eau Claire to attend the annual convention of the postmasters of the state and will make an effort to secure the support of the city for Superior. He will also attend the annual meeting of the first and second-class postmasters of the country who will gather, Sept. 23 at Richmond, Va.

THE SHARK'S EYE WAS ON HIM. "Ever get mesmerized by a fish?" said the manager of the Nautucket show. When full grown they are from eight to ten feet long, and weigh from 50 to 100 pounds. They have a broad head, with the mouth well under it. They are very voracious and will eat almost anything and a half long, and they often kill the men who catch them. But for a human being the perils is in the eyes.

I don't believe in man-eating sharks. I believe that if a shark is in bloody water he gets excited and will snap at anything he sees; but let one of those fellows get his eye on you and you don't know where you are at.

"They have a habit of coming up alongside of your live boxes and lying there while you fish. Then when you get anything on your line the shark has it off before you get a chance to pull it.

"I remember the first time I saw one of them. I was a boy at the time and one of these fellows had come up alongside of my live box and I put my hand out and touched his back. He didn't seem to mind it at all, but a minute later when I stood up I caught sight of his eyes, or one of them. Well sir, I just tumbled back in the boat and was as helpless as a jellyfish out of water.

"I don't know how to explain it. The eyes of the fish are no bigger than the point of your little finger, but there is something that comes out of them that makes you feel all in a heap. Many a time after that did I have a similar experience and I know of a lot of men who have felt the same effect. The only explanation I could suggest is that the shark's eye has some sort of mesmeric power."

OLD BILL A SMART HORSE. Logging is sometimes considered a hazardous occupation, but in the mountainous countries there is a much greater loss of life among the horses than among the men. When a heavy load of logs is being dragged down a steep descent the chains or other device used to hold it back sometimes breaks and lets the whole load down on the horses.

There is one horse that has been logging in the White Mountains for years and notwithstanding many narrow escapes Old Bill seems to bear a charmed life. Old Bill used to work with a mate called Cherry hauling logs with a single sled directly from the stumps to small landing, and he has never had a main road.

One day on a steep pitch something gave way and the load came down on them and they were unable to hold it. Old Bill promptly sat down on his back and said: Cherry, with less experience and lacking the knowledge of what to do in an emergency, threw himself was scraped into a tree and suffered a broken neck. That is what the "blind pigging" is all about. So Old Bill was put to work twitching logs. He was pretty slow.

"I had to look carefully to see which way he was going, says a writer in Recreation, and nothing in the wide world would make him move faster. When he came to a pitch he would stop and look about to see if anybody was going to help him down.

"After the delivery had pushed him over he would sit down and slide. If the log he was dragging had a tail chain wrapped around it everything went smoothly, if it didn't it would slide and bump him. In that case he would make a nifty hop to one side and use spread legs to get under the log and slide between them. If he was swept off his feet it was all one to him and he was apt to sit down on the log and ride to the bottom. I watched the performance two or three times with ever growing amusement.

KANSAN'S BURIED TREASURE.

Glen Elder Correspondence Topeka State Journal: Kidd and his hidden pirate hoard of fiction have come to light in this country following the discovery of $21,000 in currency by the heirs of Perry Rice, one of the old time residents of this city, who died recently. The heirs are continuing the search in the belief that only a portion of the old man's wealth has been uncovered, and before it ends the home place will be turned upside down.

Some of the money already uncovered was in the yard, more of it in the cellar and the roll containing $5,000 was found in the old mattress, just before it was consigned to flames. Mrs. Ross, one of his daughters, was searching for hidden treasure in the cellar and found a buried can which contained $25,000. This money was all in gold and the search was taken up with renewed vigor and in an old can which was buried in the yard $5,000 more was found.

Mr. Rice was known in and about this city for his eccentricities and for years past had no confidants, living the life of hermit in the hotel which answered the purpose of a home to him. He owned much city property, including several business buildings and three good farms, from which he derived a considerable revenue, which he refused to deposit in banks.

There was much speculation before his death as to where he kept his wealth, and it was common talk that it was buried about the place. This led to search which has so handsomely rewarded his heirs. Not a great while ago a force of workmen were excavating for a sewer, and the bodies of laborers were watched closely by the old man until one of them unearthed a tin filled with glittering coins, which he carried away with him to a more secure hiding place.

Stories are in general circulation of mysterious happenings which the neighbors have witnessed about the place for years past and indicate that the fortune will be found at the bottom or hidden away behind some loose bit of the stone curbing. As he dropped out of sight in the well the neighbors wondered, but considered that it was one of his eccentricities, and he thought but little of it as he reappearance a few moments later.

So the stories go, and before the search for his wealth is discontinued his farm as well as city property will be thoroughly searched. He left no will, though it is thought that his property is worth at least $50,000, besides the currency which so far has been unearthed.

SPECIAL AGENTS ARE ARRESTED

Opened A. A. Oliver's Grip and Charged With Highway Robbery.

Cass Lake, Minn., Sept. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—A. A. Oliver and W. B. Jones, state land appraisers, while attending to their duties in a national bank here, were arrested by special agents of the Indian department who were on the look-out for "boozers." While they were getting off the train at Cass Lake, Oliver was confronted by Agent Davis, who demanded possession of his grip, which he refused. Oliver then drew a revolver and fired at the agent, who was hit in the arm. Oliver was then taken to the police station and charged with highway robbery.

Italian Doctor's 3-Year-Old Son Comes Back After Three Months.

New York, Sept. 10.—Little Michael Simeca, the 3-year-old son of Dr. Michael Simeca, a prominent Italian physician, is today safely in the hands of relatives named Petrella, after having been held for nearly three months a captive by "Black Hand" kidnapers. The abductors of the boy have so far escaped the police dragnet.

THOUSANDS AT SERVICE

Outdoor Ceremony of Eucharist Congress Attended By 75,000 People.

Archbishop O'Connell Delivers the Sermon of the Occasion.

Montreal, Sept. 10.—A throng of 75,000 persons assembled on a picturesque field today for the first open-air ceremony of the Eucharist congress. Archbishop O'Connell of New York, who presided, drove out to the place of assemblage with Archbishop Bruchesi. Applause greeted the archbishop all along the route to the field. On his arrival he was escorted to the temporary chapel erected at the foot of Mount Royal, where for several months workers have been engaged in building the altar at which Archbishop Farley today said the mass.

The preacher of the day was Monsignor O'Connell, archbishop of Boston. When the mass was said, Cardinal Vannutelli, arrived at the foot of the mountain, escorted by a mounted squad of Hibernians, a set of chimneys which had been placed on the mountain yesterday morning, rang out a welcome. Archbishop O'Connell was about to mount the pulpit when the legate arrived.

Boston, Sept. 10.—The practical use of aeroplanes as instruments of war is to be further demonstrated today at the Boston-Harvard aviation meet at Atlantic. Riding as a passenger with Charles F. Willard, the Curtiss biplane, Capt. J. C. Siskel, U. S. A., planned to take rifle shots at targets on the field while the machine was in motion 200 feet in the air.

WILL ALWAYS BE MYSTERY

Car Ferry Disaster on Lake Michigan Cannot Be Explained.

Twenty-Nine Deaths Are Recorded as Result of Accident.

Ludington, Mich., Sept. 10.—That yesterday's wreck of Pere Marquette Car Ferry No. 18 and the loss of twenty-nine lives was not due to a storm, to overloading, or to a breakdown in the vessel's machinery and that the real cause of the disaster will never be fully determined, is the conclusion reached by General Supt. W. D. Trump of the Pere Marquette, who came here yesterday to investigate the wreck.

HONOR PRESIDENT MORE THAN KING

Taft Orders Flags at Half Mast for Death of Chilean.

Washington, Sept. 10.—An earnest of the growing kinship among the peoples of the American hemisphere is the presidential order that the American flag shall be kept at half mast for a few days over the public buildings here as a mark of respect to the memory of Fernandez Albano, late acting president of Chile, who died in Santiago on Sept. 6. A similar order was issued when President Montt of Chile died in Valparaiso Aug. 17, so that the flags have been kept constantly at half mast since that date. This is almost without precedent.

JUMPED INTO FLAMBEAU RIVER

Unknown Man Commits Suicide By Drowning at Park Falls.

Park Falls, Wis., Sept. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Last night an unknown man cast himself off the new city bridge and was drowned in the Flambeau river. The man was acting strangely all day and under influence of liquor. His hat was found drifting down the rapids about a mile from the bridge. One peculiar incident was that two couples were on the bridge at the time and one of the young ladies tried to jump in after him, and was only saved through the combined efforts of the other three parties.

INSPECT SITES IN MINNESOTA CITIES

Col. Low Will Look Over Places for Federal Buildings.

Washington, Sept. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Assistant Secretary Hilles of the treasury department, today assigned Col. J. P. Low of the supervising architect's office, to examine and report upon the various sites offered to the government for public buildings in the following Minnesota cities: Owatonna, Lake City, Anoka, Little Falls and Monticello. Acting Secretary Hilles has detailed various agents of the treasury department to visit cities for which new government buildings were provided at the last session of congress and inspect the sites which have been offered in response to advertisement. STATEMENT GIVEN OUT AT ST. PAUL Letter Written From Everett, Wash., Is Just Made Public.

Has Been Withheld Pending the Writer's Return to Minnesota.

Judge Stanton of Bemidji Is Suggested as the Candidate.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Lind, in a letter dated Aug. 14, and made public today, tenders his "formal resignation," as the nominee of the Democratic state convention for the office of governor.

Frank A. Day gave out the letter, which was dated Everett, Wash., Aug. 14, this morning. Mr. Day explained that the letter was withheld by him after he had obtained Mr. Lind's consent to do so until the nominee could return to Minnesota.

Since Mr. Lind's return home, the strongest kind of pressure has been brought to bear upon him to induce him to accept the nomination, but while he appreciated the strong public sentiment which compelled the Democratic convention to name him, he declined to accept.

BEAR HUNT AT LAKEWOOD

Engineer at Pumping Station Shoots Mother and Cub.

Black Cow Led Other Hunters on Wild Goose Chase.

A mother bear and two cubs caused considerable excitement at Lakewood yesterday afternoon and while Chief Engineer William Palmer and Engineer William Bratcher of the city pumping station were creeping up on Mr. Palmer's black cow, which had been mistaken for the bear in a rush for the barn, Engineer Charles Chatterer located the members of the tribe of Bruin and brought down the mother and one of the cubs, the other cub escaping.

Bears are by no means uncommon visitors to the vicinity of the pumping station, and Mr. Chatterer has shot six in a little over a year. A bear always causes excitement, however, and the report yesterday that the family was in the woods near the pumping station caused everybody to rush for their guns and join in the chase.

Mr. Chatterer was first in the field and he located the three animals. He wanted to tree the cubs and capture them alive, but was unsuccessful. In the meantime, Mr. Palmer's cow had bolted out of the woods and into the barn at about as speedy a rate as any cow ever attained since the mythical bovine of the nursery rhyme threw a scare into the man in the moon.

Mr. Palmer and Mr. Bratcher saw the black streak go through the barn door and thought Mrs. Bruin had been cornered. They crept up with their guns pointed ready for a rush through the door. By the time they had discovered their mistake, Mr. Chatterer had dropped Mrs. Bruin and one of her young and the other cub, thoroughly dazed, rushed off into the woods and was lost.

Mr. Chatterer had his picture taken with the two bears. The mother was a large animal, weighing over 150 pounds.

"Fond du Lac and Woodland may claim agricultural achievements, but there are joys of living at Lakewood that eclipse anything the other suburbs can show," said Mr. Chatterer.

CLUB WILL FIX STOPPING POINT

Fond du Lac Train Will Stop at Western End of City.

A special meeting of the West Duluth Commercial club will be held next Friday evening to determine where the most convenient stopping place for passengers on the Fond du Lac short line in the western part of West Duluth would be.

Three are suggested, Seventy-first avenue west, Raleigh street and Sixty-third avenue west. Commercial club members have received assurances that the Northern Pacific will stop a train at whatever point is suggested by the club.

At the club meeting last evening, it was learned that Supt. Nicholas has taken the club's decision to build a new depot, J. J. Frey has received assurances from Supt. Nicholas to this effect. It will, however, be a matter of a few months before this action is taken by the company.

West Duluth is pleased with the attitude which Supt. Nicholas has taken in the matter of the Nansay street extension, which crosses the right-of-way near Central avenue. Supt. Nicholas has indicated that the company will not place any obstacle in the way of the city in carrying out this project.

NELSON'S BODY IS RECOVERED

Money He Was Supposed to Have Had Is Missing.

Did Charles J. Nelson, 44 years old, who was drowned in the St. Louis river near Spirit Lake, Wednesday afternoon, have on his person over $200, which he had intended to deposit in a bank?

A rumor to this effect has been in circulation at Smithville since the fatal accident. The body was found this morning by Christ Mortenson.

FRIENDLESS BUT "NOT GUILTY"

Seven Indicted Prisoners Will Have Attorneys Appointed By Court.

YOUNG MAN 'MAKES GOOD'

Released From His Parole By Judge Cant in District Court.

Father Thanks Judge for Giving His Son Another Chance.

John H. Reagman was discharged from parole this morning by Judge Cant of the district court. Reagman is one of the young men who, after leaving home, fell into bad company, became addicted to the use of liquor and finally got into jail when he forged the name of a prominent Duluth man to a check.

Reagman is a different looking man than he was last March, when he was brought before the court. At that time he was in the garb of a woodsman, dirty, unshaven and looked generally like a pretty tough character. This morning he was attired in a neat business suit and looked prosperous from head to foot.

Reagman has "made good." He said at the time he was put on parole that he would make good if given a chance, and it was his word that the judge determined to give him a chance.

Incidentally by signing the pledge, staying at home and working with his father who has a prosperous business man has brightened the lives of his parents.

His father was with the young man in court this morning. He thanked the court and the county attorney for giving him a chance and said that he was now a different man. He said that he was now a different man.

FIRE MENACES SUPERIOR PLANT

Demon Pursues W. H. Rieckhoff, Whose Duluth Factory Was Destroyed.

W. H. Rieckhoff & Co., box manufacturing firm, seem to be in the grip of the fire demon.

The $40,000 plant in this city, located at New Duluth, was burned to the ground Monday after three attempts had been made by an unknown incendiary.

The plant in Superior was seriously threatened by grass fires yesterday afternoon, which blazed up at the South end of the city and threatened the rival of the Eighth ward department. It is thought that the entire plant at the South end of the city would have been destroyed had it not been for the timely arrival of the fire department.

The Rieckhoff factory is located between the eighth and fifth streets, near the Northern Pacific tracks.

Yesterday marked the third time that the buildings of the plant have been threatened with grass fires.

PLANS CALL FOR $150,000 OUTLAY

Improvements Will Be Made By Water, Light and Power Company.

The Water, Light & Power company, in its three departments, will spend in the neighborhood of $150,000 during the next year, on improvements. Half of this amount will be expended this year on the water plant.

Manager W. H. Winslow has returned from New York, where he has conferred with Consulting Engineer Hazen, who recently inspected the local plant. A larger pipe line and one or two new pumps are in the plans which have been laid out.

The cost of the new proposed main alone is $22,000.

FAKE SOLICITORS WORK IN SOUTH SHORE CAMPS.

Rev. H. Milford of the Superior Mission, yesterday, received word from Ashland, Wis., that a number of fake solicitors, alleged to be from the local mission, were working in the camps near Port Wing on the south shore of Lake Superior.

As the mission solicits no funds in this manner, an effort is being made to apprehend the impostors.

It has been well said that "the man who is his own lawyer, has a fool for a client," and it would seem equally unwise for a man to attempt to be his own Banker.

The real benefit in having money comes not from the hoarding of it, but in making it earn something, in other words make it grow.

The world's financial history is written by self-made men who commenced with a Savings Account in a responsible bank and by systematically adding to it, earned for themselves a competency for their later and unproductive years.

Commence now by depositing a small portion of this month's income in the American Exchange National Bank and add something, no matter how little, every succeeding month and the results will surprise you.

SPECIALISTS KNOW THEIR LINE!

We are specialists for the doctoring and curing diseases of men.

We take worn-out, broken-down men and by careful and skillful use of electricity and medicine we have brought them back to strong healthy manhood again.

We do not believe a doctor can be a specialist in all lines of human disease. We, therefore, have limited our time, study, and skill to the curing of men only, and have done nothing else for the past twenty-five years.

No disease of man is new to us. We know the remedies to use that will most quickly and safely cure. Our offices are the most completely equipped in the Northwest, with all the modern appliances.

We do not experiment with patients. Our experimental days were over twenty-five years ago while we were studying in the most famous colleges and universities of Europe and America. Today we are experts in treating men's diseases.

We know the curative powers of both electricity and medicine and when used together their powers are marvelous.

Today is the day for you to call on us. Consultations are free. Out-of-town patients send for symptom blank.

BUYCK'S SURETIES ARE TO BE SUED

Former Treasurer of Town of Buyck Is Now in Canada.

Virginia, Minn., Sept. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—In view of a decision handed down recently by the supreme court in the case of the town of Buyck against Hippolyte Buyck, Arnold & Pickering, attorneys for the town, have entered judgment against the defendant in the sum of $10,000, the papers having been filed in district court this week. Buyck was elected treasurer of the town in 1906, and while acting in that capacity, it is claimed misappropriated funds to the amount of over $20,000 in the construction of roads, and it is further alleged that only about $7,000 of this amount was expended legally upon the roads.

Buyck is now in Canada, where he fled soon after the supreme court handed down its decision against him. Suit will also be brought against the American Bonding company and the Bankers Security company, which companies were sureties for Buyck, to recover the amount illegally spent by the former treasurer of that town. The attorneys will make no effort to extradite Buyck, but will hold the surety companies for the amount involved, although the latter may force Buyck to return to this country and straighten up the matter.

Two Harbors man seriously hurt. One hand badly injured while blasting stumps near Alice.

Hibbing, Minn., Sept. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Oscar Johnson of Two Harbors was seriously injured about 9 o'clock Thursday morning, while blasting stumps near the village of Alice. The accident, which was caused by a premature explosion of a defective fuse, separated his thumb from the rest of the hand and dislocated and fractured all the bones up to the wrist. The man was hurried to the Commercial hospital, where Dr. Cummings worked over him for nearly four hours in an effort to save the thumb. It is thought necessary to amputate the thumb at the first joint.

BUYCK'S SURETIES ARE TO BE SUED

Former Treasurer of Town of Buyck Is Now in Canada.

Virginia, Minn., Sept. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—In view of a decision handed down recently by the supreme court in the case of the town of Buyck against Hippolyte Buyck, Arnold & Pickering, attorneys for the town, have entered judgment against the defendant in the sum of $10,000, the papers having been filed in district court this week. Buyck was elected treasurer of the town in 1906, and while acting in that capacity, it is claimed misappropriated funds to the amount of over $20,000 in the construction of roads, and it is further alleged that only about $7,000 of this amount was expended legally upon the roads.

Buyck is now in Canada, where he fled soon after the supreme court handed down its decision against him. Suit will also be brought against the American Bonding company and the Bankers Security company, which companies were sureties for Buyck, to recover the amount illegally spent by the former treasurer of that town. The attorneys will make no effort to extradite Buyck, but will hold the surety companies for the amount involved, although the latter may force Buyck to return to this country and straighten up the matter.

Two Harbors man seriously hurt. One hand badly injured while blasting stumps near Alice.

Hibbing, Minn., Sept. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Oscar Johnson of Two Harbors was seriously injured about 9 o'clock Thursday morning, while blasting stumps near the village of Alice. The accident, which was caused by a premature explosion of a defective fuse, separated his thumb from the rest of the hand and dislocated and fractured all the bones up to the wrist. The man was hurried to the Commercial hospital, where Dr. Cummings worked over him for nearly four hours in an effort to save the thumb. It is thought necessary to amputate the thumb at the first joint.

BIG VOLUME OF TRADE REPORTED

New York, Sept. 10.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade today says:

There is a continuance of former mixed conditions of trade and industry, which is less pronounced in productive sections than in the distributing markets. It shows most clearly in the speculative and financial centers, which are exceedingly sensitive to political influences.

But in spite of the reaction, a vast aggregate of business is being carried on, making a really high average of transactions. The profit of commerce is, however, not so evident as its volume, the margin between cost and price being narrow, and leading in some cases, notably in cotton-spinning, to suspension of operations.

Some check to the recent rapid decline in pig iron production is indicated by the returns covering the output during August, which, while showing a decline since July, 1909, compared closely with the figures for the previous month. Inquiries for pig iron are increasing in the Pittsburgh district, but actual new business shows little expansion. In finished lines specifications are increasing, and several suspended shipments of bars, plates and light structural material are being resumed.

Reports from leading jobbers of dry goods indicate a steadier distribution, but the volume of business is still below that of recent activities. Footwear lines continue quiet. Jobbers buy cautiously and wholesalers hold off for lower prices. Trade in leather is still quiet, though some increase in the demand was noted a week or so ago; no further improvement in business has since occurred.

The bearing of children is frequently followed by poor health for the mother. This supreme crisis of life finding her physical system unprepared for the demands of nature, leaves her with weakened resistive powers and sometimes chronic ailments. This can be avoided if Mother's Friend is used before the coming of baby, and the healthy woman can remain a healthy mother. It is the only remedy that perfectly and thoroughly prepares the system for healthy motherhood, and brings about a natural and easy consummation of the term. Women who use Mother's Friend are always saved much suffering when the little one arrives, and recover more quickly, and with no ill effects, or chronic troubles. Every expectant mother should safeguard her health by using Mother's Friend, thus preparing her physical condition for the hour of motherhood. This medicine is for sale at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers.

ST. LOUIS COUNTY AGRICULTURALISTS REPEL INVADERS FROM THE WEST

WHAT ST. LOUIS COUNTY CAN GROW.

All week long the war of the agriculturalists has raged.

Woodland still holds the fort, and Fond du Lac has retired from the field, but not defeated, and with all the honors of war. Yet, the invader's feeble resistance to the onslaughts of the defenders who turned aggressors, and the tale of results is that St. Louis county, as an agricultural district, is without a peer.

The hostilities began with the appearance of the invading force. Strongly entrenched behind a friendly railroad embankment, the western foe of Northeastern Minnesota's progress established camp with an active and persistent scouting party harrying the country, non-combatants and all alike.

There was a rapid mobilization of the local forces. Fond du Lac was early to the fore, hurling at the foe a perfect rain of shot.

Then came Woodland to where the invader's East Enders took to the field, and the line of battle and joined their loyal line of the invaders. All the fourth week watched the progress of the fray, and saw that the Fond du Lac forces were holding well their line and steadily advancing.

Then came Woodland to where the invader's East Enders took to the field, and the line of battle and joined their loyal line of the invaders. All the fourth week watched the progress of the fray, and saw that the Fond du Lac forces were holding well their line and steadily advancing.

That was some carnage!

As the tide of battle continued to favor the defenders, Fond du Lac's ammunition becoming wilted, retired from the field, sure that Woodland would win the day and hold the advantage won by the Lac-ers at the fight. Which is due to take up the fight.

Which is one way of saying that the arguments advanced in behalf of land far in the West have been quite adequately set at naught by the farmers of St. Louis county during the past week, and that the Head of the Lakes is strongly entrenched in the line of the ideal place for market gardening and farming, as a result of the exhibits of home grown stuff shown on Superior street.

ROADS ARE IN FINE SHAPE

Fall Motoring in and About Duluth Will Be a Pleasure.

Some of the Places to Go and Condition of Highways.

The autumn, the best time of all the year for motoring is at hand. In and about Duluth the fall is always considered the best part of the year to tour the surrounding country, for by this time the improvements which have been going on in the different districts have been completed and the roads are generally at their best.

The woods about the city are most beautiful at this time of the season. The leaves have begun to turn. So much has been said of the beauties of northern Minnesota, that many from the Twin Cities will this year tour the northern part of the state.

Just now the roads in almost every direction are in fine shape. The run to Minneapolis can now be made more quickly and with more comfort than ever before. The amount of work put in by the farmers, and there is a fine road all the way to the city.

Many troubles have been cleared away and the roads are in fine shape. The Miller Trunk road has been greatly improved and by the way it is a fine road to the lake.

The Black River falls run out of Superior is a trip that every motorist should make. The falls are but sixteen miles from Superior and the road is one of the best in the country. The scenery about the falls is particularly beautiful at this time of the year.

The Solon Springs trip is one that should be made by every motorist. The road is in fine shape and the scenery is beautiful. The trip is a winner. On the straight stretch of road just west of the city, there is a fine road to the lake.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The freshman class is the largest entering class in the history of the high school. After suffering patiently the hazing of the wise sophomores and easy-going Juniors, they appeared in chapel and occupied nearly all the seats in the gallery. The upper classes decided that despite their open-mouthed expressions of surprise, they are a "likely looking lot of youngsters," and great things are expected of them before they finish their high school course.

The musical society will not meet for several weeks. The lights have been removed from the old music room and it will be impossible to replace them so early. The society is now in the process of removing the music room to the old chemical laboratory as soon as the new laboratory above the engine room is completed. This room is better lighted and ventilated than the old one and should aid materially in enlarging the membership of the society.

Although high school has been in session only four days, Principal Young has become very popular with the student body. Besides Mr. Young eight other new faces have appeared in the faculty.

Mr. Donat, from the Winona Boys academy, Winona Lake, Ind., has taken charge of the English history department of the freshman class.

Mr. Shilling, formerly of Bloomington, Ill., has taken Mr. Wallace's place in the basketball team at Bloomington. If Mr. Shilling takes charge of the basketball and basketball teams, the athletic association will be greatly benefited for it was at a loss where to secure a coach for the basketball team.

Mr. Kendall of Eveleth has taken charge of the freshman and sophomore English classes.

F. B. Carey of Winona, Minn., replaces Mr. Nevers of the commercial department. Mr. Carey's department at Winona is said to have made an excellent showing under his supervision.

F. Taylor of Stockland, Ill., is teaching Freshman algebra and bookkeeping. Mr. Taylor received an A. B. degree from Indiana university in the class of '09.

Orville Hickman of Bluffton, Ind., has charge of the commercial geography classes.

Miss Conlan is assisting Mr. Romieux in the French department.

Miss Smith has been secured to take charge of the girls' athletic classes and as soon as the apparatus for the new gymnasium arrives, the classes will be organized.

Among the alumni who visited school this week were: Larry Boyle, who will attend Minnesota university this year; Bill Crawford, who will go to Pennsylvania; and Max Cook and Charles Taylor, who will attend Wisconsin university.

The old lunch room will never be used as such again. Mr. Young has stated that the pupils should bring their lunches to the new lunch room in the Washington building is completed.

Mr. Romieux's classes did not begin until Friday because the new seats and desks in his room were not in readiness until Thursday evening.

Following the close of school Monday there will be a meeting of the athletic association. At this meeting a general outline of the athletic work for the school year will be drawn up. New officers will be elected and a manager for the football team chosen. Immediately after the meeting the first football practice of the season will be held. All candidates, especially the freshmen are urged to report for work.

Norman Hackett, noted as a lecturer and writer on the drama, will address the students of the central high school next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. His subject will probably be "Modern Conditions in the American Drama." He has been the star of "Classmates," the play which he has frequently delivered before such universities as Cornell, Michigan, Illinois, Virginia, Hobart, Purdue and others.

Mr. Hackett is a graduate of the University of Virginia and a prominent fraternal man. He has been very successful in the drama since leaving college, having supported such famous plays as "The Sign of the Cross," "The Merchant of Venice," "The Taming of the Shrew," and "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

Mr. Hackett will be seen at the Lyceum next week.

Mr. Jacob Wilmet, Lincoln, Ill., found her way back to perfect health. She writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble and backache and my appetite was very poor. After a week's treatment I got Foley Kidney Pills and gave them a fair trial. They gave me great relief, so continued till now I am in perfect health." Sold by all druggists.

NOTED MEDICAL MEN PRAISE THE BAKE OVEN TREATMENT

MADE FAMOUS BY LOUGHNEY & LOUGHNEY

THE BAKE OVEN TREATMENT FOR CHRONIC DISEASES.

By A. W. Meyers, M. D., Bloomington, Ill. Read before the McLean County Medical society.

Wherever counter-irritation is required, hot air finds fruitful application. In the category of diseases in which it has been employed with signal success are sprains, synovitis, rheumatism, gout, arthritis, neuralgia, lumbago, gangrene, phlebitis, ankylosis not osseous, in the after treatment of fractures and dislocations, indolent ulcers and infected sores, emphysema and obesity. Its sphere of usefulness is daily widening, and the inviting field it presents for profitable research has enlisted many progressive practitioners.

A case of synovitis of knee joint, patient on crutches, was subjected twice on alternative days to 300 degrees, for thirty minutes, patient went to work the following day. Sprains are frequently entirely relieved by one application. In rheumatism, acute, articular, chronic and muscular, the improvement is marked from the beginning. Deposits of gout and arthritis are removed by use of the hot air bake.

SYNOVITIS AND PERIOSTITIS OF TRAUMATIC ORIGIN TREATED BY DRY HOT AIR.

By F. H. Little, M. D., Muscatine, Iowa.

Dry hot air of intense temperature, intended first as a remedy for acute and chronic articular and muscular rheumatism, was soon found to be very efficient in arthritis, synovitis and teno-synovitis, no matter whether due to trauma, rheumatism or tuberculosis. My own experience in traumatic periostitis is practically new. The intense heat apparently reduces inflammation, even when situated deeply, causes absorption of effusion and relieves pain.

BAKE OVEN AS A THERAPEUTIC AGENT.

Hudson D. Bishop, M. D., Cleveland, Ohio.

The use of heat as a remedial agent dates, no doubt, from the beginning of the healing art, but it is only of recent times that it has been possible to apply high temperatures to diseased tissues of the body.

My attention was first called to the Bake Oven by its use in rheumatism and joint troubles. Whatever the pathology of rheumatism is, the clinical picture is one of inflammation, and the theory of heat therapy applies to all who call—do not tell them what your ailments are; they will tell you. They do not take incurable cases, such as consumption or chronic Bright's disease, cancer, fevers, or any contagious diseases. In spite of the fact that they advertise such cases will not be taken, they have a great many calls from such sufferers, but they are all refused treatment, and go away disappointed. Hundreds of citizens are now calling on Drs. Loughney & Loughney, and many are on the road to new health. Owing to the many letters and requests that have been received, Loughney & Loughney will see patients up to as late as 7 o'clock in the evening; and it is asked that only those who are unable to come during the day consult them after 6 p. m. Loughney & Loughney have the best of Graduate Nurses at look after the Lady Patients, and they invite all who are willing to come and receive free consultation. Their hours are 8 a. m. to 7 p. m., Sundays, 9 to 12 only. Telephones, Melrose, 2442 and 2425.

THE ABOVE CLIPPINGS ARE FROM MEDICAL JOURNALS.

Drs. Loughney & Loughney, who own the Bake Ovens, occupy all the offices on the third floor of the Christie building, located on Fourth avenue west, between First and Second streets. The classes in domestic science were not held this week but will begin on Monday. This year the junior advanced graduates will take the course as well as the junior kindergarten students and seniors. On account of this Miss Pettinell is not able to take charge of the hall so Miss Beard has taken her place.

Torrence hall or the new hall is the only one in use this year. It will accommodate a great many more pupils than Washburn hall.

Miss Martha Williams has succeeded Miss Horn as critic teacher in the seventh and eighth grades. Miss Cornish is in charge of the fifth and sixth grades, succeeding Miss Crow.

Musie is now under the directorship of Miss Taylor. Miss Birch will take charge of the drawing and manual training.

People's Dialogues

No. 2

"Say Bill, what do you think of this Carrie Nation 'dope'? I think the government has as much right to try to regulate the number of hours a man shall sleep as to tell him what he shall or shall not drink! It's interfering with the Constitution, that's what it is—taking away a man's liberty!"

Nix on the interfering with liberty—no man has a right to fill himself up with bad whisky and then get out and beat up the public—you can't run the country by giving folks that kind of liberty—no, sirc! I'm with this temperance movement every time!

"Say, ain't you a little previous? Last time I was down to your place I saw two or three bottles of booze lying around!"

"You never saw any booze in my house. I never use it!"

"Well, what was in those bottles—hair oil?"

"Oh, that was People's Beer!"

I always drink it with my meals and so does the wife—but that ain't 'booze.' Why you'd have to drink a case to get the amount of alcohol there is in one good drink of whisky. I drink it because it's purer than water. All those microbe-things you see about in the Sunday supplements have had the kibosh put on them by the splendid sterilizing plant of the People's Brewery!"

Every time now, you'll hear Bill's friend say, "People's Beer for him!"

Games Today.
Superior at Duluth, two games.
Winona at Wausau.
La Crosse at Eau Claire.
Rochester at Red Wing.

With the score three all in the Duluth-Superior series, Artie O'Dea's bunch swung the heavy end of the series to their side of the scale yesterday, punching hits on Cummings in the third for two runs, which won the game. The Sox rallied in the ninth, but got only one man across the plate. Richard Thorsen was doing the stinging to the Reds and let the Sox down with five hits. A great deal of credit is due to Richard Thorsen for the win that would put Dickey's bunch in a hard corner.

Richard Thorsen, who had been a hard one to catch, was given a long fly of Cummings in deep center that looked like a sure out, but Cummings was quick to catch it. Cummings was quick to catch it. Cummings was quick to catch it.

AT THE THEATERS

THE COMING WEEK AT DULUTH THEATERS

LYCEUM—Sunday and Monday, "The Goddess of Liberty"; Thursday, Friday and Saturday, "The City"; ORPHEUM—Vaudeville.
BIJOU—Vaudeville.
ORPHEUM AND LYRIC—Motion Pictures.

Duluth saw the first of the regular Shubert shows during the past week, and if they are a fair sample of the coming winter's attractions it should be a notable season in the theatrical world for Duluth.

"The Witching Hour" was a splendid production, well staged and presented by a most capable company, headed by John Mason. "The Cow and the Moon" is probably the best of their bookings, but it was advertised as a musical extravaganza, and the people who enjoy that class of attraction, probably got what they paid to see. Margaret Anglin appeared last evening in "The Awakening of Helena Richie," a review of which is given in another column.

For the next week the Lyceum has booked "The Goddess of Liberty," a Joe Howard musical show, with Mr. Howard himself in the cast. This fact should insure a good company, as Mr. Howard need not do anything but draw down royalties from his songs. If he cared for that kind of life, and doubtless would not go on the road with a second-class company. Clyde Fitch's famous posthumous play, "The City," will be seen Thursday, Friday and Saturday. There is no little interest among followers of the theater in this latter.

The Orpheum show last week was up to the standard of its two predecessors. There were three or four first-class numbers on the bill and it was a good average bill on the whole. Some notable attractions are announced as Orpheum fall bookings. Among them are Annette Kellerman and Elbert Hubbard. They are now playing the Orpheum circuit and will make Duluth unless some unforeseen incident prevents.

The Bijou will try a new plan of booking after next week. The Sullivan & Considine shows, like the Orpheum shows have been made up of acts booked separately. A week from tomorrow the Sullivan & Considine shows will be booked as solid shows and will remain intact. It is believed that the new plan will simplify booking and billing. The Bijou also announces that it will add another act to its bill.

Evidently the present season is to be one of farce. The first four plays produced in New York this season—"The Brass Bottle," "Love Among the Ruins," "Baby Mine" and "The Comedians"—are all feathery lightweights and all appear to have scored, while the only serious play, "The Marriage of a Star," has fallen flat. That this change in public taste has been coming for a long time was foreshadowed last season, when three of the biggest hits were registered by farce-comedies, "Seven Days," "Is Matrimony a Failure?" and "The Lottery Man." Now there is a plethora of the form of entertainment that was vastly popular in the days of "Charley's Aunt," "The Man From Mexico" and "What Happened to Jones." David Belasco is to bring out several farces, notably "The Concert," with Leo Ditrichstein, Janet Beecher and Jane Grey. Frohman has other amusing offerings up his sleeves, and the aeroplane is to enter the race with "The Aviator," in which Edward Aheles is to star. That there will be a reaction from this time is inevitable, because minor managers will flood the country with witless farces. But while it lasts, it is sure to be enjoyable, for there is no form of entertainment more diverting—and, incidentally, more difficult to play.

"THE CITY" COMING TO THE LYCEUM.

Clyde Fitch's last and most powerful play, "The City," will have its first local presentation at the Lyceum theater, Sept. 15, 16 and 17, with a matinee Saturday, Sept. 17, under the direction of the Messrs. Shubert. The piece comes direct from the Lyric theater, New York, where the play ran for an entire season.

Nothing Mr. Fitch ever wrote resembles his posthumous work. It is once said that he could not write a man's play. "The City" will be his answer. As the Evening Mail remarked: "It seems a bit of irony that the 'biggest' play ever wrote should have been the one he was never to see acted."

George Rand, Sr., is a wealthy banker living in Middleburgh, N. Y. In his younger days he has had an affair with the local milliner. A son outlives the result of the affair. It is this boy, George Frederick Hancock, upon whom the playwright has bestowed the fruits of his experience as a dissection of character. Hancock turns out to be a dope fiend, and although he is not aware of his parentage, he realizes that he has some hold upon the banker and accordingly he exercises this power to the fullest. Finally, grown old from worry, Rand, Sr., endeavors to resist the boy's demands. Hancock threatens his life. The shock kills the older man. Before his death, however, he reveals the secret of Hancock's birth to his son, George Rand, Jr.

With the banker now out of the way, George, Jr., his mother and two sisters see their way clear to accomplish their one absorbing ambition, which is to move to New York. It is the call of the city. They go bitter and within a few years the son has amassed a fortune as his private secretary. His political manager, the district attorney, is ashamed of him. He enters politics, using the fact and name for the secretary's dismissal. Rand says that he cannot comply with the demand, little realizing that he is covering a hidden sin. Hancock, a blackmailer at heart, makes unusual demands both of Rand and the district attorney. The issue between the two men—sons of the same father—is brought to a head. Rand discharges Hancock, who refuses to go. "You can't get rid of me," he declares. Hancock proceeds to tell him that he has married Rand's younger sister, which forces Rand to lay bare the secret of his parentage.

The situation, of course, is described as the most dramatic, the most tragic, ever produced in a modern play. Chicago follows climax, until the young wife, Cleely Rand, is confronted by her brother. She defies him and he is about to tell her of the impossibility of such a marriage—that Hancock is her brother—the drug-crazed fiend shoots her through the heart.

Mr. Fitch has written an epic in the city. The play has received more comment than any drama seen in New York during the past twenty years. The startling reality of the story and the vivid manner in which it is told.

META CARSON.
"The Bonnie Lassie" at the Orpheum Next Week.

mark it as a powerful and stirring drama. Even as a character drawing the author has done his best work. From the time the audience sees Hancock injecting the "dope" into his arm, until a policeman enters the room to arrest him as a murderer, it is treated to one of the most unusual character delineations. Truly Mr. Fitch said to himself, "the world is mine," and he drew upon the vast resources of human nature as no playwright has ever done before.

JOE HOWARD IN "THE GODDESS OF LIBERTY."

Fresh from its run of 300 nights at the Princess theater, Chicago, "The Goddess of Liberty," Mort H. Singer's past musical comedy, pronounced by Ashton Stevens, critic of the Chicago Examiner, "Chicago's best musical comedy," comes to the Lyceum theater Sunday and Monday, Sept. 11 and 12, with Joseph E. Howard, actor, author and composer in the stellar role. The engagement of Mr. Howard is a limited one, having been arranged by Manager Pierce only by special arrangement with Mort H. Singer and affords players a chance to appear in the time of the Prince of Tonight, "Hokey," "The Flower of the Ranch," "The District Attorney," "Miss Nobody From Starland," "The Goddess of Liberty," "The Golden Girl," "The Bong Bong," "The Time, The Place and The Girl" and other operatic hits.

Mr. Singer is sending to Duluth the original $99,000 Princess theater production, including the singing and dancing chorus which aided in making the name of his Chicago theater, a byword among lovers of musicals. And he has surrounded Mr. Howard with a galaxy of principal players for personal attractiveness and singing ability. The story of "The Goddess of Liberty" involves an "international marriage" theme. Lord Jack Wyngate, a young English nobleman, is engaged by his parents to form an alliance with some foreign heiress. His family fortunes may be rehabilitated. His cousin, Lord Algernon Banbury, arranges a meeting with Hope, only daughter of Banker Butterworth of New York and the daughter of the rich and powerful. Hope is delighted at the prospect of securing a titled son-in-law. Wyngate is invited to view the Butterworths at their home in the Berkshire hills and he goes only to find himself in the hands of a number of athletic trainers. Old Butterworth is quite fond of athletics and is training his family men in the manner of a college athlete head than a father and it is his desire that Wyngate participate in all the contests. During one of these, Wyngate meets Hope, a young woman of exceptional charm. She is thought to be in poor circumstances. Wyngate soon finds himself in the predicament of being betrothed to a young woman of wealth and in love with a penniless girl. The clever stratagem by which he breaks off the engagement to Hope wins Phyllis and finds happiness for both affords the climactic scene which brings the play to a happy conclusion.

Mr. Howard, of course, will be seen in the role of young Wyngate. Violet Saxon, Wisconsin girl, who needs no introduction to Duluth music lovers, is cast as Phyllis and Marceline Montau, as Hope. Others in the supporting cast are Robert Wilson, Lida Kane, Clyde Briggs and Albert Denier. The first act shows the country place of the Butterworths, the second a forest near the Butterworth home and the reception room in the Butterworth's mansion and the third the dining room of Lord Jack's apartments in New York, overlooking the Claremont river. It is in the second act the telling of a tree during an electric storm, is portrayed realistically. Among the song hits of the bill, interpreted by Mr. Howard, Miss Saxon and the talented chorus are "Don't Grieve," "Gibson Girl," "Oo-ee, Oo-ee," "The Goddess of Liberty," "Lonely," "Hail Diana," "All the Moons Were Honeycombs," "The Haunted Pool," "What's the Use of Dreaming," "Jum-my-tum-tum," "Here's to the Last Girl" and "Let's Pretend You Love Me." As a special mark of courtesy to Mr. Pierce and at the request of Mr. Singer, Mr. Howard has consented to sing any of the favorites from his other operas during the performance Sunday night upon request. A special program, slip of paper, addressed to Mr. Singer, and containing the name of the song desired will be transmitted to Mr. Howard, if left at the box office.

THE COMING WEEK AT THE ORPHEUM.

Variety will be the feature of next week's bill at the Orpheum theater. There will be no two acts that are in any way similar, and the bill should be the strongest yet seen at the new theater.

Featured on the act will be the Guss Edwards' "School Boys and Girls," presenting a tabloid musical comedy known as "Graduation Day," and is described as "a singing and dancing comedy of plauds and Highland humor." The act is full of Scotch dances, Scotch songs and Scotch wit. The Minneapolis Journal gave the act the following highly complimentary notice last week: "With the refreshing breath of the heather, Peter Donald and Meta Carson return with their refined and artistic little Scotch act, in which the Scotch brogue is mingled with tuneful songs, excellently sung. Not to have seen Peter Donald singing home with his lamppost is to Miss a delight seldom afforded a spectator."

THE TEMPLE QUARTET.

The Temple quartet comes with the stamp of approval of the Broadway root gardens and vaudeville theaters. From a purely technical point of view the quartet are claimed to be the best singing quartet in vaudeville. The repertoire is an extensive one, embracing all classes of music. There are hundreds of musical acts in vaudeville, but the Temple quartet is claimed to be one of the most meritorious.

"The Circus Girl," presented by Marie and Billy Hart is headed as one of the real novelties of the season. The playlet gives a glimpse of circus life, and affords Miss Hart ample opportunity to introduce a number of very clever and amusing specialties.

Arthur Bowen is well known to many Duluthians from his work as a cartoonist. For the last six years he has been cartoonist on the Chicago Journal, but he is a Minneapolis boy.

At the Chicago Press club for President Taft, Mr. Bowen was induced to sing a song about the president and draw his picture. The turn was so well done that his friends persuaded him to go into vaudeville. He was booked over the Orpheum circuit, and has made a big

THE WEEK'S BILL AT THE BIJOU.

The show presented at the Bijou commencing Monday afternoon and lasting all week, will be headed by what is considered one of the best musical and scenic offerings on the vaudeville stage. Here is what the press agent says about it: "Beautiful scenery, gorgeous costumes, entrancing melodies and artistic orchestrations combine to make the mammoth attraction offered by the five Columbians an unusually pretentious act for vaudeville. In fact it is a genuine condensed musical fantasy and one of the real merit. Gorgeous in the extreme with a grand array of musical hits and surprising dances. "The Ballet of the Roses," the concluding scene of the production is a magnificent scenic creation. It is produced with natural flowers, the only effect of its kind on the vaudeville stage."

Among some of the singing and dancing numbers will be La France Novelties, Dance Ecceentrique, Satirical Travay (Arcadia), doll impersonations, piano novelties, and "The Ballet of Roses," with La Merilyn, petite premier danseuse, and ensemble.

A good comedy in one act is always a welcome feature on any vaudeville program and "The Town Fiddler," presented by a well known rural comedian, Joseph Ketter, who is supported by Miss Marie Nelson, who will be

At the Endon Methodist Episcopal church, First street and near Incent street, east, the pastor, Rev. John Walker Powell, will preach at 10:30 a. m. The subject of the morning service will be "The House of the Lord." The musical program follows:

MINING IN THE BLACK HILLS

New Work Started on Mark Twain Property in Bald Mountain District—Continental Company to Sink Shaft 200 Feet Deeper.

Deadwood, S. D., Sept. 10.—New work has been started by the Mogul Mining company on the Bald Mountain property in the Bald Mountain district, and it is proposed by sinking a shaft to reach quartzite and explore the underlying strata which in other properties in that section have shown profitable ore bodies. A couple of years ago the Bald Mountain Mining company, which is the owner of the Bald Mountain property, sunk a shaft to quartzite and was obliged to go down 600 feet, but it is estimated that the Mogul will only have to sink 400 feet on the Mark Twain. The quartzite which is worked by the Mogul Mining company is on the opposite side of the divide, and the latter company has for some time past been shipping from this level high-grade ore, the work being near the surface in tunnels. The upper levels of the Mark Twain have long furnished both high and low grade ore in large quantities, the latter being a good cyaniding material, but the lower levels are as yet untouched.

The Mogul mill at Pluma is handling about 350 tons a day and operating nearly full force.

The Continental Copper company at Hill City has let a contract to J. M. Kempt of Denver to sink the shaft 200 feet deeper, and the latter company is sinking another 100 feet if the company so decides. The shaft is now down 740 feet and has shown some good copper stringers in the ash formation.

Gordon S. Duncan of London, an engineer familiar with tin mining, is examining the Bald Mountain property in the Bald Mountain district, and it is proposed by sinking a shaft to reach quartzite and explore the underlying strata which in other properties in that section have shown as usual to the Basin concentrator, but confidence is lacking owing to the company not announcing any definite plan of financing and the stock is gradually declining. It is now stated that the delay in the re-opening scheme adopted at a special meeting of the stockholders is due to the fact that the holders of the stock are not in agreement as to the plan of re-opening the mine, and it is stated on good authority that Mr. Clark is showing a profit of $238 a ton from the Elm Orlu, while it is said that the Butte & Superior has lost thousands of dollars in the operation of the mine in the past few months.

WESTERN CROPS WILL BE GOOD

Secretary Wilson Talks of Them on Return From His Trip.

Washington, Sept. 10.—"Business and agricultural conditions through the West and Northwest are notably prosperous. The crops this year scarcely will be bumper crops, in the ordinary sense of that term, but they will be very large."

This statement is made by Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture, who has just returned from an extensive trip, consuming practically two months, through the country west of the Mississippi river.

"The crops will be in now within a couple of weeks," continued Secretary Wilson. "Recently the weather conditions have been very favorable, and if frost should hold off two weeks longer, the crops will be a good average."

Better Than Expected.
"All of the crops were fairly good, better, perhaps than we had reason to expect," said the secretary. "The wheat crop is thriving and finely and is of excellent quality. Oats are good, but the crop is not very large. People throughout the sections which I visited are well satisfied with conditions. They are making money and are contented with general business conditions."

"How about political conditions?" he was asked.

"Well, you will have to judge of that yourself," said the secretary. "My assessment of the political situation in the country west of the Mississippi river, of agriculture and of forests, it was in no sense political."

"We are attempting to turn into homesteads some of the land in forest reservations. I have devoted a great deal of time recently to work in connection with the preservation of forests from fire. By tremendous labor and expenditure of money, together with the use of the best of the science of agriculture and forestry, we have been able to quench the Western fires and save the most valuable timber."

DENNETT HAS SCHEME TO HEAD OFF RAILROADS.
Washington, Sept. 10.—Railroad companies, particularly those in the Far West, will be prevented from securing lands which they have no right by a new policy inaugurated by Commissioner Dennett of the general land office. This policy consists of having a mineral expert accompany parties engaged in surveying public lands within the limits of railroad grants to determine whether the lands are really valuable or not.

Night Riders.
Ripley, Okla., Sept. 10.—Night riders last night destroyed all the seed plants in the tobacco fields of Henry Young and family, who live near here. The farmers had allowed the finest plants of their crops to go to seed to fulfill a contract.

WHY SHOULD MINNESOTA LAG?

There is one lesson in the election news from the free and progressive states of the Middle West that Minnesota should take to heart and ponder well.

This lesson is that the splendid victories of the people over the servants of special interests, in practically every case, have been due to the primary election system.

Could Burrows, heir to a large part of Aldrich's power and long time faithful servitor of privilege, have been defeated in Michigan under the convention system? Not in a hundred years.

Could La Follette, friend of the people and long time assailant of tyrannical greed, have been renominated as state senator from Wisconsin so overwhelmingly under the old boss-ridden convention system? Could he have been nominated at all?

While her sister states have been advancing handsomely in the work of putting control of the people's affairs in the hands of the people, Minnesota has stood still.

The present primary election law, which applies to congressmen and local officials, was adopted ten years ago. Since then it has not been changed in any vital particular. At every session of the legislature the friends of the old system of corporation-controlled politics would have been glad to repeal it altogether, but they dared not do it. They did dare oppose and defeat every attempt to improve it and extend it, however, and it is to the shame of Minnesota that this is so.

Why does Minnesota cling to the rotten old convention system in its selection of candidates for United States senator, governor and state officers, when its sister states are broadening and improving their primary election systems?

For the same reason that the Republican organization in this state is still in the grasp of the agents of reaction and special privilege. For the same reason that the party now offers to the people a candidate for governor who was always a supine servitor of the interests during his career as lieutenant-governor, and who has brought with him into the present campaign, as his campaign manager, the man who herded the herdable votes of the state senate in the interests of the "interests."

Minnesota clings to the discredited and rejected convention system in its nominations of candidates for United States senator and governor because the Republican organization, which rules the legislature, clings to that system of corporation control as the drunkard clings, with twitching, convulsive fingers, to the bottle that is destroying him.

The time has come for Minnesota to take its stand with the progressive states that have repudiated bossism, driven out corporation rule, and placed the full control of public affairs in the hands of the voters.

The legislature at its next session must adopt a primary election law that will yield to the people not only the small share of control that the present law grudges, but full and absolute control. A primary election law putting into the hands of the people the selection of United States senators and state officers is demanded of the legislature, and the people in all parts of the state should insist that such a law be passed, and should be content with nothing less.

TO HEAR GRIEVANCES.

Complaints of railroad discriminations having been made at the Crookston meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association, a committee was appointed to investigate the matter. P. E. Dowling of Duluth, chairman of that committee, has called a meeting to be held in Duluth Oct. 20, 21 and 22, at which all communities, sections and individuals that have complaints to make will have a chance to present them.

The way to get results in Northern Minnesota is to make common cause, and to put back of all attempts at redress the full force of the whole northern two-thirds of the state. That is the purpose of the Northern Minnesota Development association. Those who have grievances should attend this meeting, and the press of Northern Minnesota will help it if it will give publicity to the call.

NELSON AND BALLINGER.

Senator Nelson, in his zealous pursuance of the self-imposed task of shielding Ballinger for the sake of the Republican administration, is sinking himself deeper and deeper into the mire of Ballingerism.

The administration plan was to hold off the report on Ballinger until after election, in the hope of keeping it out of the campaign as an issue. Though unquestionably every member of the committee had made up his mind, though it is notorious that Senator Nelson has a report ready while washing the secretary of the interior, though ample time for full consideration of the evidence has elapsed, though a majority of the committee appeared in Minneapolis to consider the case, the country has witnessed the shameful spectacle of a minority of the committee members present engaging in a ludicrous and panic-stricken attempt to prevent action by the committee. Except Senator Nelson, the Ballingerites on the committee absented themselves from the meetings, preventing a quorum. When the members who were ready to act insisted on remaining in session, Chairman Nelson, after refusing to entertain any motion but one to adjourn to suit his will and the whitewashing plans that had been formed, deliberately misled the committee by pretending to leave the room on an errand, and then sent back word that the committee stood adjourned.

This was a subterfuge little to the credit of the senior senator from Minnesota, but it is about what should be expected from those who have set out to befool and mislead the people by recommending to them as faithful a cabinet officer who has been proved unworthy.

The five committee members who remained to agree upon and publish their reports, and who refused to participate in any further meetings until congress convenes, have acted sanely and rightly.

Their report scorches Ballinger and demands his removal from office. The proceedings of the reactionary Republicans, under Senator Nelson's leadership, brand them as tricksters who have stooped to shameful methods in the pursuit of ends purely partisan.

PROMPT DECISION.

It is related that a young man recently applied to the foreman of a gas plant for a job, and in response to his inquiry was told that the only position open was for a pump operator. When asked if he could do the work, he said that he could.

"Do you want the job?" asked the foreman.

"I don't know whether I do or not," was the reply.

The foreman turned and walked to the other end of the building, and while he was away the young man asked an employe for details about the job. He wanted to know what were the hours, what was the pay, whether there was Sunday work, whether there was pay for overtime, etc.

In the meantime another young man came in and approached the foreman.

"Have you got a job for a man of my size?" he asked.

"One—a pump operator," was the reply. "Can you do it?"

"I am a fireman, and I can do it," said the young man.

"When can you begin work?" asked the foreman.

"Right away. Show me the pump."

He was taken to the pump and immediately got into his overalls. Two minutes later he was ciling the pump.

Then the first young man approached and said: "All right, I'll take the job."

"No, you won't," said the foreman.

"Why not?"

"I've put a man to work on the pump, as he took the job as soon as it was offered. You are too slow for this plant. If we had an accident it would take you all day to make up your mind what to do and the plant would be blown into the air. You won't do for us. Good day."

The moral of this tale, of course, is the value of promptness of decision. Now promptness of decision is a very good thing when it is based on knowledge and real judgment. But promptness of decision when it is based on neither is very likely to be that sort of blind leaping in the dark which is every bit as bad, both for a young man and his employer, as slowness of decision.

It is entirely natural that a man seeking work, unless he is so hard pressed by the need of a job that he dares not wait to ask about details, should want to know about the nature of the work, the pay, the hours, the chances for promotion, etc. A man who is just seeking a job, without regard to the future, may snap up the first thing that comes along; but the man who is seeking to do the best he can for himself, and who has a mind for the future as well as for the present, must assuredly want to know something about what he is jumping into.

The man who can make up his mind promptly is admirable, but the man who jumps without looking or thinking is not. Quick decision is needed in a thousand junctures of life, but for general, all-round purposes the chances are that the man who is slow but sure in coming to a decision will get about as far and do about as well as the man who decides without knowledge or real judgment, and leaps blindly into any opening that presents itself.

PAGANISM AGAINST PURITANISM.

Peoples grow great and strong in times of plain living, of struggle against handicaps and hardships, of effort to overcome the forces of poverty.

Peoples grow weak and succumb to the corroding vices in times of ease and luxury; though in all such times luxury has been the exclusive possession of the few, and bitter poverty the lot of the many.

The real test of a nation's strength is not in the time of stress and struggle, but in the period after the conquest of hardship is completed, when it settles down to enjoy the fruits of its enterprise.

A people of good stock, brought face to face with a wilderness and the necessity of conquering it to gain a livelihood, is in no danger. Its muscles, its nerves, its will power, its moral strength are hardened by the exercise of conquest, and large families of sturdy sons and wholesome daughters are nature's contribution to its success.

The real test comes, as it has come to this country, when the victory is won over the obstacles that nature sets in the pathway of mankind to make humanity strong. When wealth abounds, and the channels of commerce are full of the comforts of living and running over with luxuries, then comes the real test of the fiber of humanity.

Strong is the nation, hardy the people, that can survive that test. Few peoples, fewer nations, have stood it. The mightiest have fallen from insidious sapping by the vices and indulgences of luxury.

The need for sober thinking and simple living never was greater in the history of the nations than it is today in the United States. Never has this need been more vividly, more eloquently or more convincingly declared than in the remarkable speech made the other day before the eucharistic congress in Montreal by Father Bernard Vaughan, a brilliant Catholic clergyman from England.

"We are living," said the eloquent father picturesquely, "in a day of headlines, snapshots, taxicabs and music halls; in a day when the scramble for the prizes of life has become a mad passion. It is a day of fever, fret and fume, when competition for earthen toys is so keen, and the margin of profit in commerce has become so fine, that the one cry beating through the air is 'hurry up!' No one seems to have time for pause till, worn out in the pursuit of gewgaws and vanities, a rest cure becomes imperative, the clock is stopped, and all action, mental as well as physical, must be prescribed as prohibitive for an eighth part of the year.

"We are living in a day when the high ideals of old are fast yielding to the pressure of creature comforts; when self-sacrificing Catholicism is being bartered for self-centered materialism; when the Christian sense of sin is being regarded as a by-gone superstition; in a day when you do, and when you may do what you like, provided you are not found out; in a day when the relations between the sexes takes one back to pagan times, while the garbage on which men and women feed is as foul and loathsome as the stuff over which they gloat and chatter; in a day when marriage has become so debased and defiled that not even the pledged troth can make it long and enduring without change of prospective partners in a life of legalized vice; in a day when there is no empty place but the cradle, no room in which to move but the churches."

This is from a Catholic to Catholics, but it is a true picture, and one that should make every honest mind turn inward for anxious self-examination. True, the moral side of economic questions is taking firm hold of the plain people. True, the arrogance of greed is being challenged as never before. True, the very fact that the evil of conditions is being widely recognized and reproached gives hope that it will be cured. Yet it will not cure itself, and nothing but a deliberate turning away from the delectable temptations of luxurious vice will set this people in upward paths of peace and honor and self-respect.

THE OLD ORDER CHANGETH.

On the theory that competition is still alive, and that it must be preserved as a safeguard against monopoly, this country has the Sherman anti-trust law to forbid combinations and to preserve competition.

In spite of this law, competition is as dead as a door nail, and monopoly, slightly bothered but not checked, stalks abroad.

If, as economists pretty generally agree, competition inevitably has given birth to monopoly, and monopoly is therefore a necessary evolution, time and energy spent in the attempt to preserve competition is wasted. What ought to be done is to train monopoly to the service of the people.

Monopoly has come, and it could not fail to come. Competition is economic war, and in that economic war only the fittest survived. The fittest are intelligent, and when they view the havoc of competition they agree that they will have none of it, so monopoly arises. Without regulation, monopoly is the people's master. With regulation, monopoly can be made the people's servant.

It is time, therefore, for a readjustment of the people's program. If monopoly is inevitable, the fact should be recognized. If it cannot be crushed, it can be regulated. If it cannot be killed, it can be trained. The Sherman law should be repealed and monopoly should be put in leading strings by wise laws regulating it in the people's interests.

Brooks Adams, in a suggestive article in the Atlantic Monthly, treats of the capacity of the American people to deal adequately with the tremendous change that has come in economics, which has made obsolete old economies and invalidated old laws formulated under conditions that have gone forever. Unless there shall be developed capacity to meet the new conditions so as to preserve natural rights, he foresees the same consequences that befell Rome when, conquests exhausted, no genius arose to adapt the nation to the new conditions. Of the far-reaching change that has come to this country he writes:

"Modern society, as reorganized after the French revolution, posited, as its fundamental principle, that if buyer and seller were both left free, they would come together substantially on what Adam Smith called the 'natural price'; if one man asked more than a normal profit for his goods, another would be content to take less for the same article. The supposition being that there would always be more than one seller, or, as we say, an open market. Since 1870 these conditions have vanished as utterly as have the conditions of the Stone Age."

So long as there was an open market, with competing sellers, a bargain could be struck that was fair to both sides. Yet competing sellers competed until they forced the weaker to the wall, and now, as a rule, there is but one seller and one price. So long as the government keeps up the absurd attempt to pump life into the empty veins of competition, this price is left to be fixed by the seller, and the buyer is at his mercy. There is but one price for coal, one price for oil, one price for transportation, one price for lumber, one price for almost every necessity—and that price fixed by those interested only in profits, and not at all in the service of the public beyond the end of profit-getting.

Competition is dead. Long live Regulation.

ST. LOUIS COUNTY AT THE FAIR.

According to folks returning from the state fair, St. Louis county's exhibit there this week was of a character calculated to make the man from this county stick out his chest and boast to everybody within hearing that he lives where that exhibit came from.

And that's the way it should be. There is no section of any state with more to show and more to be proud of than St. Louis county, and it is only fair to the rest of the state that it should have such an opportunity as this to find out what Northeastern Minnesota has done, can do and will do.

The highest praise is due those who created this exhibit and made it so thoroughly representative of St. Louis county and so interesting that 40,000 people have visited it every day during fair week. Credit is particularly due to Charles P. Craig, of the board of managers, not only for his efforts in getting up St. Louis county's exhibit but for his enterprise in making the agricultural department of the fair the greatest success in its history.

A harsh critic is always more effective, however.)

APPRECIATION

FROM A SUFFRAGIST.

To the Editor of The Herald: This is a line in appreciation of the editorial in Saturday's Herald on the question of woman's suffrage. It is a satisfaction to read the common-sense, reasonable and logical statement of the "privilege" argument was one emphasized by Miss Maria Sanford in her address against the movement. One fairly met and refuted. Hoping that the question may have further attention in your columns when Mrs. P. Squire Potter gives her lecture here next month, on "Aspects of the Suffrage Movement." I am, sincerely, Yrs., D. B. BELL.

Rubbery in Rubber.

New York World: The rubber trust, headed by Aldrich's friend, C. C. Rock, reported on Tuesday 21 a profit of $5,555,000 and $500,000 added to surplus upon sales of $38,700,000. The new rubber has been so cooperative that it has not been a success.

These figures show a net profit on actual sales of 15 per cent. The rubber trust is guarding entirely the fictitious capitalization of the company. In the report on total sales is believed to be seldom more than 5 per cent. It is usually less. The labor cost of shoes is from 22 1/2 to 27 1/2 per cent. The rubber trust is 10 per cent on the cheaper goods.

But the rubber trust was not satisfied with a net profit of 15 per cent. It wanted more. It wanted to be three times as great as competitive goods. It wanted to be three times as remunerative. Last March it was only selling its shoes at 25 per cent. In the report it is said that Mr. Aldrich had jacked up the price of the shoes to 75 per cent. That month, as Mr. Evans points out in the World's Work, it bought out the Rubber company and raised prices of rubber boots 10 per cent. Later it raised the price of shoes 10 per cent. and again in May raised prices 10 per cent. Yet, as all the world knows, the rubber, the raw material, has lately fallen in price, owing to the collapse of the London boom.

The rubber trust, like the steel trust, according to Mr. Carnegie, needs no protection whatever. In the report it congratulates its stockholders upon having largely increased its sales of rubber goods abroad without competition, but profitably.

By raising the rubber tariff—indeed, by not removing or greatly reducing it, as his party in effect had promised—Aldrich has made a fortune for himself. He has made a fortune for the sole customer of his own raw rubber company. A sensitive man, he ought to be ashamed of himself for robbing the people so wantonly, would resign.

Ben Franklin on Fresh Air.

The Survey: The New Hampshire branch of the American Red Cross has published an interesting wall card, containing in large type, a brief quotation from Benjamin Franklin's Art of Securing Pleasant Dreams, written in the form of a letter to his son, Thomas, of the modern open air crusade:

"Another means of preserving health is to attend to the having a constant supply of fresh air in your bedroom. It is a great mistake to suppose that the sleeping in rooms exactly closed and the beds surrounded by curtains. No outside air that may come to you is so wholesome as the unchanged air of the open air. It is therefore, as boiling water does not grow hotter by long boiling if the particles that receive greater heat are removed, so living bodies do not purify, if the particles, as a fast food, become rancid, can be thrown off. Nature expels them by the pores of the skin and the lungs. And in a free open country they are carried off, but in a close room we receive them again and again though they become more and more corrupt. A number of persons who sleep in a small room thus pollute the air in a few minutes, and even render it mortal as the fact lies at Carfax."

A person is said to spoil only a gallon of water in a day, but a room full of people spoils a longer time to spoil a chamber; but it is done, however, in proportion to the number of people who are there. From present indications the Melba concert will be the most brilliant musical and social affair ever remembered in Duluth.

Inquiries have been pouring in upon Melba as to when the tickets will be on sale, which it is now stated will be on the 15th inst. The first of the time intending subscribers are sending their subscriptions for the course, which includes the Melba, the Russian Dancers, Nov. 3, and the St. Paul Musical Club, Nov. 10.

Course subscribers have first choice of seats and will be allotted the best seats in the orchestra. The subscriptions are received by the secretary of the course, the famous artist, a few figures calculated to take away the breath of the uninitiated in the matter of music. Three Naughty Cubs - A Bear Story.

BY WILLIAM WALLACE, JR.

OW, my dear Pinky, I am going to set a task for you to perform this morning while I am away from home," said Mrs. Doodoo Bear to her young daughter. "And I want you to do your work well and quickly, for you are getting a big cub now, and it behooves me to begin your training in household affairs. The cupboard needs new linens on the shelves and the glassware requires shining, and the silver wants polishing. I shall be away from home all the morning, and on my return I want you to have finished the work outlined for you."

Pinky Bear looked displeased when her mother said this to her, for she liked work of any kind, and usually her good mother had to keep an eye on her during her morning chores to see that she performed them right.

But on this morning Mrs. Bear was obliged to go to the river, a mile distant, to engage some workmen to move up the fall preventer, and so she was obliged to leave Pinky alone.

As Mrs. Doodoo Bear went along the brook leading through the woods she met Hearty and Sandy Bear, a little brother and sister who often went to play with Pinky. But Mrs. Doodoo did not encourage the visits of these cubs, for they, like Pinky, were inclined to laziness, and their good parents were obliged to punish them often for these visits.

"Oh, Mamma is well," informed the girl-cub, Hearty. "She's very busy this morning storing up some of these cubs. She told us we might go to your house for an hour to play with Pinky."

Of course, Mrs. Doodoo could not tell them not to go to visit Pinky since their mother had permitted them to do so, but she did tell them that they must not visit Pinky to stop her work, but rather to help her by gathering fresh leaves for her to spread over the cupboard shelves. "You see, my dears," said Mrs. Doodoo, "Pinky must have the work done before my return, and done well. So, you must both help her all that you can. And when I reach home if the cupboard is nice and neat, the glassware shining and the silver looking like new, why, I will give each of you a bonny cake."

Hearty and Sandy said they would assist Pinky with her work; then they went on toward the home of Mrs. Doodoo, while that lady bear hurried toward the river. But while she went along her mind was worried over the visit of Hearty and Sandy Bear, for she knew them to be naughty cubs and feared their presence would cause Pinky to slight her work.

And the good mother bear had cause for worry, as we shall see. When Hearty and Sandy reached the house of Mrs. Doodoo, a most cozy little place beneath a great spreading tree, they found Pinky sitting on the doorstep, looking very unhappy. She had gathered a few leaves for the cupboard shelves, but was resting before putting them in place. Not that she was tired, not at all, but just a bit lazy.

"What makes you work when your mother is away?" asked Hearty, a mischievous cub.

"Yes, why not run away with us?" said Sandy, his sister's equal in naughtiness.

from its hiding place, and entered the house of Mrs. Doodoo. There he rummaged about, taking whatever pleased him. Silverware, foods, Mrs. Doodoo's best frock and Pinky's fine Sunday shoes and hat, all went into a big goshawk bag he carried. And even Pinky's due winter muff and her overshoes were taken by this thief who was none other than a tramp bear much sought after by the bear authorities of the Woods.

While the thief was filling his bag in Mrs. Doodoo's cozy house, Pinky was going along with her companions toward the mountains. But she had scarcely left her own doorway when her conscience began torturing her. What would Mamma Doodoo say on returning, and no daughter thereof! And the cupboard yet undone! And then, this voice speaking so loudly in Pinky's ears, she stopped short and said to her partners in wrongdoing: "I must not go further. I must go back home again and tidy up the kitchen cupboard as mamma bade me do. I am a very naughty cub to go off like this, and mamma will be right if she punishes me severely."

Again did Hearty and Sandy try to prevail upon her to continue the journey with them, but something good within her told her to turn a deaf ear. And heeding determined to do the right thing (for she was beginning to see how guilty she was), Pinky turned her face homeward.

"All right, we'll go without you," called out Hearty. "Yes, and you'll be sorry you did not hear us company," called out Sandy. "We'll have a fine day of it."

But for the first time in her life Pinky acted according to the dictates of her better self. She reached home just as the tramp bear was leaving the place, his well-filled bag slung over his back. In vain did Pinky run after him and around the corner, but he was not to be caught. And Pinky, weeping bitterly, for she knew he must have taken her mother's most valuable belongings—ran into the house and began to look about her. Investigation showed her that the house had been fully ransacked and that among the missing things were her own lovely shoes, hat and muff. Oh, it had all been due to her wickedness, her disobedience! Could her mother ever forgive her? Then a good resolve came to her. She would tidy up the house as nicely as she could and keep a strict watch over it till her mother's return.

After a while her mother came home and, with tears flowing over her cheeks, Pinky confessed her own faults and told about the robbery. At first Mrs. Doodoo was dazed. Pinky had gone off without her consent, and the house had been robbed by a common thief! It was too much for her to grasp of a sudden. But gradually the whole truth dawned upon her, for Pinky showed her the empty drawers in the big chest. Then the good mother understood all. Owing to Pinky's repentance and grief, Mrs. Doodoo thought her punishment great enough and merely said:

"Daughter, you see the consequences of wrongdoing. Never forget this day's lesson. And as for your companions—I fear for them, warning has been sent out among us by our Woods Scouts. Hunters are abroad."

And it happened that Hearty and Sandy never came home again. The Terrible Hunters got them, and their poor, distracted parents were left to mourn their wickedness, which had brought them to their untimely end. And the lesson learned that awful day by Pinky was never forgotten. And as a punishment for that day's wickedness Mrs. Doodoo would not provide her with another hat and another pair of shoes nor a muff; and during the fall and winter Pinky was seen everywhere in her old garments and worn shoes. And not once did she make a murmur against her mother's treatment of her. "Mamma is right," she said to herself. "It was through my disobedience that my pretty things were stolen and that dear mamma and grandma and her fine Sunday frock were taken away. And I am glad that my punishment was so severe. I shall never again be so naughty. The thief could not have gotten entrance to the house. So I should have to pay the penalty."

Of course, Tom could not well refuse; He mounted, then and there; But both his knees a-trembling were, And he whispered low a prayer.

When in the saddle he had got, Old nag, enjoying th' weather, Went off a-trotting at full speed, Her burden light as feather.

Of course, Tom could not well refuse; He mounted, then and there; But both his knees a-trembling were, And he whispered low a prayer.

The Pumpkin Chariot - A Fairy Tale.

BY HELENA DAVIS.

THINGS were not so bad for Minko during his mother's life, but after her death he went to live with his stepmother, who was a very cross old woman and who disliked children above all things on top of the earth, and more especially boys. And she lived as far from a town or city as she possibly could, so when Minko was once installed in her household he was virtually a prisoner, cut off from the rest of the world.

It was "Minko, do this, Minko, do that," all day long for the old aunt seemed to keep the child on the jump continually, never giving him a moment to rest. And if, from fatigue or ill health, he lagged in the least, the wicked old woman would flog him with a heavy strap. So poor Minko's life was far from happy.

During the early fall Minko was set to help the gardener, who, from having been so long in the city, had become a wicked woman, had become himself heartless and cruel. And although he knew the orphan Minko was much abused he did not try to make his lot the easier by kind words or considerate treatment. Indeed, he set very hard tasks for Minko, and scolded him severely if he complained of them. There were many big yellow pumpkins in the garden which must be carried to the cellar, and this work fell to the lot of Minko.

"Come, be brisk, you laggard!" the gardener yelled angrily at Minko as the little fellow, laden with a pumpkin as heavy as himself, staggered slowly through the garden towards the huge vegetable cellar. "Come, move along, or we'll have to try some strap oil."

But during the afternoon the cruel gardener went to his cottage to have an hour's rest. Before going he had instructed Minko to finish placing the pumpkins—many dozens of them—in the cellar before his (the gardener's) return.

and there the pumpkin chariot came to the ground. And Minko and the fairy got out and walked to the entrance of a lovely cave, into whose doorway the bright sun peered. A bed of soft, dry leaves was in one corner and a fireplace was opposite. Dry chips and faggots lay piled up, ready for burning into the fireplace. Cooking utensils were at hand, and fishing tackle hung against the wall.

"Your home," said the fairy, "And here you may live close to nature and worship God, for here you commune with him every hour of the day. In the places where men dwell in many numbers, and have a mad desire for riches above truth and charity, their Creator is forgotten. Here He will be with you every hour."

Then the fairy disappeared, and Minko stretched himself on the bed of soft leaves, happy in his freedom. And there he slept till the next morning. On awaking the sun shone across his cave door, warm and cheering. Minko arose and offered a prayer of gratitude to his God, whom he knew was there. Then he rammed through the woods, took a dip in the clear stream which flowed by, and returned again to the cave, where he prepared a fine breakfast of fruits, nuts and honey, for the bees had provided honey in plenty for him in a tree close to his cave. And Minko decided to pass his youth here on the mountain, where he would grow up strong and good, after which he would go among men, trying to teach them the way to live in purity and love, for now men struggled against each other, hating fiercely, greed their idol, yet, even their god.

"Come to earth this minute, or your aunt will strap you till—stream, happy in your freedom. Birds and insects and little forest creatures will be your companions, and you will learn to love them. And a beautiful cave—dry and light and snug—will offer you shelter when the weather is severe. And fish in the stream and fruits and nuts that grow abundantly will sustain you. And you will be a child of Nature and a friend of the fairies."

Minko felt a thrill of happiness at the good fairy's words, and hastily dried his eyes and got to his feet. Immediately one of the huge yellow pumpkins began to roll toward him, and when close beside him it opened and became a fine chariot. The fairy entered the chariot and bade Minko to follow her. Within another moment they were seated on a velvet-covered seat, and were flying into the air.

But at the moment that they started to ascend the gardener, who for some reason had returned to the garden, saw and there the pumpkin chariot came to the ground. And Minko and the fairy got out and walked to the entrance of a lovely cave, into whose doorway the bright sun peered. A bed of soft, dry leaves was in one corner and a fireplace was opposite. Dry chips and faggots lay piled up, ready for burning into the fireplace. Cooking utensils were at hand, and fishing tackle hung against the wall.

The Pumpkin Chariot - A Fairy Tale.

BY HELENA DAVIS.

THINGS were not so bad for Minko during his mother's life, but after her death he went to live with his stepmother, who was a very cross old woman and who disliked children above all things on top of the earth, and more especially boys. And she lived as far from a town or city as she possibly could, so when Minko was once installed in her household he was virtually a prisoner, cut off from the rest of the world.

It was "Minko, do this, Minko, do that," all day long for the old aunt seemed to keep the child on the jump continually, never giving him a moment to rest. And if, from fatigue or ill health, he lagged in the least, the wicked old woman would flog him with a heavy strap. So poor Minko's life was far from happy.

During the early fall Minko was set to help the gardener, who, from having been so long in the city, had become a wicked woman, had become himself heartless and cruel. And although he knew the orphan Minko was much abused he did not try to make his lot the easier by kind words or considerate treatment. Indeed, he set very hard tasks for Minko, and scolded him severely if he complained of them. There were many big yellow pumpkins in the garden which must be carried to the cellar, and this work fell to the lot of Minko.

"Come, be brisk, you laggard!" the gardener yelled angrily at Minko as the little fellow, laden with a pumpkin as heavy as himself, staggered slowly through the garden towards the huge vegetable cellar. "Come, move along, or we'll have to try some strap oil."

But during the afternoon the cruel gardener went to his cottage to have an hour's rest. Before going he had instructed Minko to finish placing the pumpkins—many dozens of them—in the cellar before his (the gardener's) return.

and there the pumpkin chariot came to the ground. And Minko and the fairy got out and walked to the entrance of a lovely cave, into whose doorway the bright sun peered. TYPE OF NEW RESIDENCES THAT ARE BEING ERECTED IN EAST END

HOME OF H. E. WALKER.
Fifteenth Avenue East and Fourth Street. P. M. Olsen, Architect.

BUILDING PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHTER FOR WINTER

Clouds Disappearing From the Outlook as the Summer Wanes.

Many Residences Will Be Built for Occupancy May 1.

Architects and builders are looking forward to as active a winter season as they have had in some time. Architects say that the gloom, which has been noticeable in building circles in the city for some time is disappearing and there are a few rays of sunshine breaking through the clouds.

Some years ago, winter building was unknown. If a building was not under roof by the time the snow fell, work was abandoned until spring and the starting of work in winter or as winter approached was unknown. All that has changed. Winter building is carried on without restraint and architects say that the volume of it during the coming season will be greater than ever before in Duluth.

The unusually numerous sales of lots during the summer season have had their effect on the building prospects. Many of the people who purchased lots in the new additions will build beautiful homes during the winter and even if no big buildings are erected, the residence work will keep architects and builders busy.

The man who starts building in the fall has an advantage. If building has not been heavy during the summer, as it has not been this year, material is cheaper in the fall than it is likely to be the next spring. Men in the building trades are looking for the just now with the completion of buildings erected during the summer and labor may be had without paying premiums.

Under these conditions, a man may safely go ahead with a building, knowing that he will not be caught in an intricate rush that will delay materials and send the prices of materials and labor up beyond his reach.

A decided winter has come about in the situation during the past two months, and a prominent architect yesterday, "Two months ago, the outlook for a busy winter was decidedly dark, but now the prospects are bright and I believe we will have one of the most active winters in building we have ever had. Hundreds of lots have been sold during the summer and many people are anxious to have new homes ready for occupancy May 1, when they hope to give up renting forever. Many sketches are being called for and I look for an unusually large volume of work."

The outlook for investment building is not bright. The money market is in such a condition that money for building cannot be obtained on rates that promise any appreciable return without placing rents at prohibitive figures. The residence building will spring up all around, however, and few architects and contractors will be idle during the winter.

Radcliffe & Price are preparing plans for a new building for the Gogebic Iron works to replace the structure destroyed by fire last spring. The building will be 40 by 88 feet and three stories high. It will be concrete, brick and will be fireproof. It will cost about $15,000.

F. L. Young & Co. have let the contracts for the new four-story school building at Mountain Iron to the following: General contract, Andrew Granby of Virginia; plumbing, heating and ventilating, Virginia Plumbing & Heating company; electrical work, Richardson Electric company.

Kelly & Lignell are taking bids on the foundation of the Grand Marais courthouse. The building will cost $55,000 and will be a modern county building.

Duluth people were considerably disappointed because the city did not rank first in amount of building for which permits were issued during August. New York is the only city topping Duluth, however, and this city stands first in percentage of gain, a condition that will attract attention to Duluth and the steel plant under construction here. The following permits were issued by Building Inspector S. M. Kiley during the past week:

To Albert Wireman, frame cottage, West Fourth street between Eleventh and Twelfth avenues 1,000

To J. Dallavia, concrete block cottage, Seventy-second avenue west and Thompson street 500

To Charles Atoll, concrete block dwelling, West Michigan street 2,000

WILL WIPE OUT DISCRIMINATION

Development Association Committee on Railroad Rates Hopes for Results.

"The Northern Minnesota Development association should do much to smooth out inequalities in freight rates and to wipe out the discrimination which the railroads of the Northwest have always shown against Duluth and in favor of the Twin Cities," said a Duluth man this morning in discussing the hearing to be held here by the railroad committee of the association. The committee will hear grievances to lay a foundation in a report for the association to go before the state railroad and warehouse commission to secure just treatment for Northern Minnesota and Duluth from the railroads.

The announcement that the hearing would be held Oct. 20, 21 and 22, has caused considerable discussion among Duluth citizens, especially those having business dealings with Northern Minnesota towns. Duluth shippers have always had to contend against tariffs drawn for the benefit of the Twin Cities trade, despite the fact that Duluth is a shorter distance than most of the towns affected and the district is directly tributary to Duluth.

At the Denfeld and Crookston meetings of the association, many instances were mentioned of unjust freight rates and tariffs favorable to the Twin Cities. The members of the Development association know that their interests and those of Duluth are mutual, but the railroads were swinging trade to the Twin Cities that should come to Duluth. Few individuals would care to go before the state railroad and warehouse commission with a petty grievance, but the association will take the grievances of shippers and consignees in the thirty counties and will lay them before the commission with the hope of getting immediate and tangible results.

The hearing here will be held in the office of P. E. Dowling, chairman of the committee, 319 Alworth building. Through an error last night, the dates were announced as in September, instead of October.

TWO MORE SUSPECTS

Special Officer Arrests Two Strangers Coming From New Duluth.

Claim They Spent Night in Car Near Ice Houses.

Unable to give a clear account of themselves and to explain their whereabouts while at New Duluth last evening, Otto Phillips, aged 23 and Maurice Thulsen, 21 years old, were arrested this morning by Special Officer Krueger of New Duluth and will be held pending an investigation into the recent incendiary fire.

Officer Krueger brought both men to the police station at West Duluth, where they will be held on a charge of vagrancy. The watchman at the steel plant claims that two men answered to their description asked him where they might get something to eat about 5:30 o'clock, a half hour after the fire at the Thompson Furniture company is supposed to have broken out.

The watchman said that he ordered the men off the grounds. From there they went to the steel plant camp and asked for breakfast. They claimed that they slept all night in a box car at the ice house of the Duluth Ice company.

When Officer Krueger took them in custody, they were heading toward the city. He stopped them at Seventy-first avenue west. At the police station they stated they had come to Duluth in search of work from Minneapolis. They said that their homes were in Illinois.

QUARREL WAS CAUSED BY DOG.

Following a fight over a dog, Carl Berg was arrested Saturday night and fined $5.00 by Justice J. D. Plank of the West Duluth justice court. Berg is 19 years old. The complainant in the case was Mrs. Eli Rieck of 17 South Sixtieth avenue west, who claims that Berg assaulted her 13-year-old son, John.

STRUCK BY STREET CAR

West Duluth School Girl
Has a Narrow Escape.

Injuries While Serious Are Not Expected to Be Fatal.

Anna McIntosh, a 6-year-old school-girl at West Duluth was struck and seriously injured by a street car, east bound, on West Third street, this morning about 8:30 o'clock while on her way to school.

The girl was crossing Thirty-sixth avenue from the upper to the lower side and had just passed behind a west bound car only to run into one coming from the other direction. Had the car not been running at a slow rate of speed, she would probably have been killed.

As it was, she was thrown for some distance and badly scratched and bruised. She was picked up and carried to the residence of Dr. C. S. Conner, veterinary surgeon, 3511 West Third street, where she is being treated.

Dr. David Graham was called. After her injuries were dressed, she was taken home.

The little girl is the daughter of Donald McIntosh, residing on West Sixth street, between Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth avenues west, and attends the Bryant school, Thirty-third avenue west.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

Methodists Preparing for Annual Meeting at Fergus Falls.

This is quarterly conference week among the Methodist churches of West Duluth and the West end.

In preparation for the annual conference which will be held next week at Fergus Falls, Minn., the various churches of the city are winding up their affairs for the year. All will send delegates to the conference.

Rev. E. P. Stidd of Merritt Memorial; Rev. W. G. Boyle of Ashbury M. E.; Rev. J. A. Roberts of Forty-third avenue, in charge of the Garfield avenue mission; and Rev. M. O. Stockland, pastor of the Grace church at the West end, are among those who will attend the sessions, which will be held at the asylum town, Sept. 21 to 26 inclusive.

Rev. M. S. Rice of Duluth will deliver the annual sermon at the conference on Wednesday, the opening day. It is not expected that any changes will be made in the pastors of any of the local churches.

The quarterly conference of Grace church will be held this evening; Merritt Memorial, Tuesday evening; Lester Park, Wednesday night, and Ashbury on Thursday evening. The quarterly conference of the City Mission at Garfield avenue was held last week and a resolution was passed which requests the conference to return Rev. J. A. Roberts as superintendent next year.

PUTS BULLET THROUGH KNEE

Superior Boy Wounded While Duck Hunting on River.

Savert Berg, a Superior boy aged 18, may be left crippled from a self-inflicted gun shot wound, sustained in a recent duck hunt, while duck hunting with two companions yesterday on the St. Louis river. He is at the Duluth hospital.

Berg tried to put a loaded gun under the seat of the boat in which he was sitting, when the trigger caught in a blanket and discharged. The charge was received in the knee.

His companions rushed him to the Duluth hospital. He is a son of John Berg and lives at 1701 Susquehanna avenue, Billings Park.

CORPORATE NAME MERELY AN ALIAS

Attitude Taken By Government in Cases Against Packers.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Indictments of individual packers are expected late this afternoon when the federal grand jury is believed, will report to Judge Landis in the United States district court.

The indictments are said to have been drawn with elaborate care, charging violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. The government is said to take the position that the name of a corporation may be considered merely as the alias of its officers, just as Doe may be convicted of a crime, although the offense may have been committed under the alias of Richard Roe.

District Attorney Sims, Special Assistant District Attorney Wilkerson and Assistant United States Attorneys Fagin and Kenyon held a conference with reference to the indictments when the grand jury took a recess at noon. It was understood that indictments were expected late today.

FILES SUIT FOR BIG DAMAGES

John J. Gram Claims Son Was Severely Injured By Cave-in.

John J. Gram filed suit in district court today on behalf of his son, Henry, against the Northwestern Boiler works and M. A. Ryan for $20,000.

Mr. Gram claims that the boy was in the employ of the defendants on Nov. 12, 1909, while he was working in a ditch, a quantity of earth caved in on him and injured him severely. He says the boy was so badly injured that he should be compensated by the sum asked.

BACK FROM HIS WESTERN TOUR

THEODORE ROOSEVELT AS HE APPEARED WHILE SPEAKING AT SOME OF THE TOWNS VISITED DURING HIS RECENT TOUR OF THE WEST.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 12.—After an absence of three weeks, Col. Roosevelt is home again, weary from his Western trip, but well satisfied with the results. He enjoyed every minute of it, he said. The colonel spent Sunday afternoon and evening in the comfort and seclusion of his family life. Today he plunged into an accumulated mass of correspondence.

Col. Roosevelt left New York Aug. 23, his absence he was in six or seven states and traveled more than

KILLED AT DEERWOOD

Duluth Railroad Man Meets Death While Walking Between Cars.

E. D. Gray, 35 years old, a Northern Pacific brakeman, residing at 2607 West First street, was killed at 2:30 o'clock this morning by falling between two cars while the train was in motion, about a mile east of Deerwood, Minn.

A special dispatch from Brainerd to The Herald states that both his arms and legs were cut off. Gray attempted to walk between two gondola cars.

Gray is survived by a wife and two children. The body will be brought to Duluth. The train was stopped by a brakeman on the freight train, but he also had a listing with the company as an extra conductor.

HAS EXPLORED UNKNOWN LAND

D. B. MacMillan Sends Word of Success of Trip in Far North.

New York, Sept. 12.—Prof. Donald B. MacMillan of Worcester academy, who accompanied Lieut. Commander Peary on his trip to the North Pole, sent word to friends here today that his party, which explored the land west of Davis' Inlet, had been successful. In a dispatch from Labrador, dated Aug. 30, Prof. MacMillan says:

"It might interest you to know that we have pulled off our trip successfully. Our party was made up of the west from Davis' Inlet across country through an unexplored section until we came to the George river and home of the Nascapue Indians, hoping to see what progress had been made in the regular trail of these people to the coast."

"We did all that we planned and more. Took sights for longitude and latitude at various points on the trip, passed through three large lakes, the largest, Mts-Ter-Nip, about twenty-five miles, and came to the George, 15 miles from the coast. We passed one night in a lodge with the Nascapue Indians at Chen-e-Teo-Vis on the banks of the river."

MOVE EXHIBIT TO DULUTH

Zenith City May Have a Little Fair of Its Own.

The project of moving the St. Louis county state fair exhibit from St. Paul to Duluth for installation in a readily accessible building in this city, for the benefit of the people of Duluth, is being seriously agitated.

So excellent is the exhibit, and so high the words of praise that have been bestowed upon it by thousands of people at the state fair, that it became apparent to those interested, that the people at the Duluth Lakes who had no opportunity to go to the fair, should not be deprived of a chance to see what progress has been made in agricultural lines in Northeastern Minnesota.

It is expected that a definite line of action will be determined upon in a few days.

OBITUARY

Prof. A. C. Boyd of the Boston university law school, a legal authority, died in Chicago, Sept. 11, while in an automobile on the way to a hospital. Three hours before death he suffered an attack of cerebral hemorrhage at the home of his sister-in-law, with whom he was visiting. The body will be taken to Calais, Me.

Prof. Boyd was graduated from Dartmouth college in 1889 and until six years ago was affiliated with law publishing companies of New York and St. Paul, Minn. He was born in New Brunswick near Calais, Me., forty-four years ago. He was said to be wealthy.

Col. Isaac L. Elwood died at his home in De Kalb, Ill., Sept. 11, after an illness lasting since the death of his wife, nine weeks ago. The illness was of a paralytic nature. Col. Elwood was born in Salt Springs, N. Y., in 1833. He took part in the California gold rush in 1850 and located in De Kalb in 1855. As a business associate of John W. Gates, Elwood became best known in the reorganization of the United States Steel corporation. Col. Elwood engaged the attention of the financial world through his fight with Morgan and Gates. At the time of his death he still was the holder of large steel securities.

John E. Scanlon, a cartoonist of Philadelphia, was found dead in his studio there Sunday. He evidently died from natural causes, according to the coroner. For several years he worked alone in his little studio in the business section of Philadelphia, drawing, penning verse and stories that from time to time brought him returns from publications. On several occasions he had written to his sister, postal cards signed "Walt Mason," the name of a well known writer of verse. She thought "Walt Mason's" productions were her brother's, and this fact led the police to believe for a time that Scanlon was the well known writer. "Walt Mason" is in Emporia, Kan.

Mother Mary Clements, for twenty-two years superior-general of the Sisters of St. Joseph of the Roman Catholic church in Philadelphia, died at the convent of the order at Chestnut Hill, a suburb of Philadelphia, on Saturday.

"Correct Dress for Women."

To be correctly dressed—to know that your Tailored Suit, Coat, Waist, Gown, Wrap, Fur or Hat can stand muster wherever it be—East, West, North or South, is something worth thinking of when buying one's clothes.

Half the satisfaction in being well dressed lies in the self-assurance that one has the right thing.

This establishment stands pre-eminent as style arbiters—with its fashion representatives permanently stationed in the world's fashion centers—also, with its retail establishment in the heart of New York Fashionland, 564, 566 and 568 Fifth avenue, at Forty-sixth street—it is by the very nature of things in a position to know what well-dressed women want.

Yet, because of a vast outlet for high-grade apparel, we are in a position to pass them along to our patrons at sensible prices.

Lower, in fact, than inferior grades usually sold for at most places.

A visit and comparison will prove this fact to you, as it has to hundreds of others who are staunch admirers and patrons of our establishment—

Autumn styles are arriving daily. See them if you wish to keep in Touch with the newest in Fashionland. Lookers or buyers are equally welcome.

BUILDING TO BE READY BY FEB. 1

Gilbert to Have One of Best High Schools in State.

Gilbert, Minn., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Unless something unforeseen occurs to impair building operations on the new high school building here, the residents of District No. 18, will be the proud possessors of a school structure by Feb. 1, that will be second to none in the state and ideal in every respect.

Building operations on the new high school were started about six weeks ago, and much progress has already been made. The first story is now being under the course of construction. The building will be of a light brown, pressed brick, which comes from Shawano, Wis. The building will face Wisconsin avenue and be directly opposite the present high school. It will be two stories in height and fireproof throughout. Gray and Nyström, the architects, have prepared plans for a fine interior. The entire basement will be occupied by the manual training and domestic science departments, and a commodious gymnasium will also be installed.

As soon as the building is completed, the high school students in the present building will be transferred to the new high school and given an opportunity to take the new courses of study, which will be the industrial and commercial branches. The last semester's work which will commence in February will be so adjusted as to permit all students to secure their full credits for their work in the new courses. The four buildings on the corner of Wisconsin and the present high school are being used for kindergarten and primary grade students will then be abandoned, and the pupils and teachers transferred to the new school. This will be a large saving to the school district.

FOR ENFORCEMENT OF THE LIQUOR LAW

"Committee of Fifty" Perfects Organization at Eveleth Saturday.

Eveleth, Minn., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—At a meeting held Saturday evening by those standing for law enforcement a motion prevailed for permanent organization. A committee was named to develop and abate the illicit sale of intoxicants. A motion endorsing the course pursued by Rev. P. A. Schwan, Jr., was passed. The purpose of the organization, which will be known as the "Committee of Fifty" will be to encourage public sentiment for the liquor law, and work for the moral benefit of the community. A meeting of those present at the meeting and those interested in reform work, will soon be held at which time officers will be elected, constitution adopted, and the various committees appointed.

Miss Esther Perry, valedictorian of the June graduating class, who completed her high school work in three years, left Friday for Menomonie, Wis., where she will attend the domestic science department of the Stout Training school.

Alderman Charles Jesmore returned yesterday from the Twin Cities, where he attended the conservation congress as a delegate to the local commercial club, and incidentally visited the state fair.

PULLS GUN TOWARD HIM; LOSES THUMB

An Eveleth Man Meets With an Accident Near Tower.

Tower, Minn., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Prior to Eveleth accidentally suffered the loss of the right thumb and part of the hand by the accidental discharge of a gun Friday at Vermilion dam. He was removing a weapon from a boat or canoe when the accident happened as stated.

The mail of last Saturday was the heaviest at the Lower postoffice for many months.

The long wooden canopy over the platform at the Duluth & Iron Railroad passenger depot is a great convenience to the passengers, as the distance from waiting room to train can now be made under cover.

The work on the Scott-Bevire dam is to be more rapidly pushed hereafter. The number of men at work in the shaft has been increased and drifting will soon begin. This ore is of an exceptionally high grade. Another season may see it on the shipping list.

Interest in a new band for Tower is rapidly increasing and some ten experienced players are probably waiting for an opportunity to join such an organization.

NASHWAUK'S WHITE WAY READY NOW

New Electric Cluster Poles Are Being Placed in Position.

Nashwauk, Minn., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Contractor Deak has completed the laying of the curbing on central avenue, which with the work done by his large steam mixer, was a matter of only three days. Work on the cement walks will be started as soon as possible. George Lindsay, superintendent of the village water and sewer department, has recently made a cluster of three lights attached to each pole with the addition of twenty-two of these poles, the main thoroughfare will have an abundance of light.

Charles Gietle, proprietor of the Nashwauk pharmacy has recently made many improvements to the interior of his store, which is located in the corner block, opposite the Olla hotel.

J. P. Rattama returned Friday from a few days' vacation at the state fair. Mrs. M. Smith of Keewatin spent a day in the village with friends.

The dance given in honor of the local corps of teachers at the school auditorium Friday night was a decided success. People from Hibbing and Keewatin were over and enjoyed the evening in enjoyment. Shufman's orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

Rev. Henry Hulme has resigned his position as minister of the Methodist church here and expects to leave the latter part of the month. Rev. Hulme has done a great deal in building up the facilities of the church and his many friends regret his departure.

CORNER STONE IS LAID AT VIRGINIA

Imposing Ceremonies Occur at New Courthouse—Hundreds Present.

Virginia, Minn., Sept. 12.—The cornerstone of the new range county courthouse was laid here Saturday afternoon with imposing ceremonies and in the presence of hundreds of people from Hibbing and Virginia. The ceremony was held at 2 o'clock, and the Masons being in charge of the program, and Grand Master W. D. Patton of Duluth, laying the stone.

In the parade, which preceded the ceremonies, there were 125 Masons in line, headed by the city band. The fire department also occupied a place in the parade. Judge Martin Hughes of Hibbing delivered the principal address, and made a fine speech, complimenting the people upon the great undertaking, the evident prosperity and the progress made in the development of the resources. His remarks were received with frequent applause.

In the cornerstones were placed the following documents and other articles: A copy of the constitution of the Virginia and the Enterprise, list of officers of Virginia Lodge No. 264, A. F. & A. M., list of officers of Virginia Chapter No. 17, R. A. M., copy of the Virginia, seven Lincoln pennies of 1910, copy of the resolutions of the grand lodge of Minnesota for 1910, copy of the resolution of the county commissioners, requesting the Grand Master Patton to lay the cornerstone, copy of the court calendar of the Eleventh judicial district, historical review of the founding of the district court of Virginia, copy of the town code Review, and a copy of the laws of Minnesota.

CHARGED WITH MISAPPROPRIATION

Treasurer Loben of Crystal Bay Township Is Arrested.

Two Harbors, Minn., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Andrew Loben, treasurer of Crystal Bay township, has been arrested by the county authorities on the charge of appropriating town funds to his own use. He was brought in Saturday and released on bail and will be held in the custody of the Peace E. Phillips today.

The conference of Duluth & Iron Range railway employees who are connected with the auditing department was held at the club Saturday evening. After the arrival of the employees from the north, the whole party went to the tug Torment and made a trip around the docks. After the trip the party went to the First M. E. church, where supper was served.

Following supper, the commercial club rooms were opened for the employees and there the various discussions took place. The evening was called to order by H. Johnson, auditor and general passenger agent, who introduced Mayor Knaut. Mayor Knaut welcomed the gathering and showed some of the line in which Two Harbors excelled Duluth. Mr. Owens then spoke and commented on the appearance of the city and the party on the other end of the line. The principal question of the evening was "Stock raising in Minnesota or less than Canada," and various means for prevention of accidents were brought up.

ORE NEAR ZIM

Much Interest in Discoveries on Various Homesteads Near There.

Eveleth, Minn., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Many local parties are interested in the ore that is being reported has been found on the homesteads in the vicinity of Zim, Georgia. The work is being done by the Reclamation and on the range. The cost over $4,000, and it is expected will be completed within thirty days.

CAUSED BY FLIES.

Believed That Pests Are Responsible for Typhoid at Biwabik.

Biwabik, Minn., Sept. 12.—It is the belief of the board of health that a large number of the typhoid fever cases here have been caused by flies and special warnings are given to protect all kinds of food from flies. Screens on windows are necessary and says the board.

Let us the village water show that it is not contaminated, and the disease cannot come from this source. The spread of the disease must be charged to the next worst agency to spread flies of all kinds. A fly which has sent out the warning that where absolute cleanliness is maintained there will be no flies. Flies collect in filth. When rooms are not screened sick people become liable to typhoid and tuberculosis from filth to the food, thus transmitting the disease.

of the state an object lesson in how to do things in Minnesota, bring him to a point of view from which he could see the faults in his own policy in the repeal of this law.

But the story of the currency when the party reached Duluth, an outer suit has already been instituted against the Hines interests in the Southern state because they persist in holding the currency in the hands of the public.

However, that may be, Governor Noel, accompanied by his wife, Mrs. E. M. Lockwood of Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. Hines, came to Duluth and made arrangements for a party to be given at the Iron Range hotel.

The party went to that place and not only viewed the sawmill and its great yards, but also looked over the Iron Range mine.

After returning to Duluth in the evening, and yesterday departed for Chicago, Mr. Cusson returning to Virginia. Nothing was given out by Governor Noel.

error Noel or Mr. Hines that had a bearing on the subject of the Mississippi limit and the millions of Mr. Hines.

The governor did talk of the great iron ore mining industry, however, saying that his interest in it was aroused by the descriptions he had heard the late Governor John A. Johnson make of it.

"I first met Governor Johnson in Washington when President Roosevelt made the first move toward the conservation of our resources," he said, "and he told me of your mineral wealth. I could hardly believe it. It did not seem to me possible that a state could have as much iron as he said—enough to supply a big demand for years and years. Yet when I got up there today I found your late governor had not exaggerated one bit. There was iron—four iron—everywhere.

"Where does Mississippi stand on conservation as between national or federal control? It stands for national control. That is the way we believe and that is the way we voted at the congress at St. Paul.

"I think that the benefits of the St. Paul congress are beyond estimate at this time. I believe the country is now thoroughly aroused over the subject of conservation of natural resources. I believe that the Hines interests are not first gathering at Washington on President Roosevelt's call."

delayed until the business depression had passed, the witness said.

"The matter of advancing rates came to a head with the recent wage demands," said Mr. Thayer. "It is not an extraordinary and unprecedented advance in rates, but is in line with our established practice for two years."

Passenger Rates Too Low. Mr. Thayer said that passenger rates were not compensatory for the service rendered, but that the public, through its legislatures, would not permit an advance in their passenger fares. He said that the rates on through traffic had been too low in comparison with local rates.

NEGROES SHOOT TWO WHITE MEN

One Is Dead and One Dying as Result of Holdup in Ohio.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 12.—Four unknown negroes attempted to hold up Charles Otis and Calvin Heygo, two white men, near Circleville, and in the pistol fight which followed Otis was killed instantly and Heygo was shot through the back. Physicians say he cannot live through the day. The negroes escaped.

WILL NOT SHIP THIS SEASON

First Ore From Cuyuna Not Expected Before Next Spring.

George H. Crosby, who has large interests on the Cuyuna, believes that from ore will not be shipped from that range this year. Unforeseen conditions have arisen at the Kennedy mine which may make production for shipping impossible before the close of navigation. The Kennedy will stockpile next winter, however, and will be in a position to ship moderately next year. The ore will be shipped over the lake by the new docks which are being constructed in Superior.

The International Harvester company has made a strike on section 1, 46-29. A shaft will be put down when the extent of the ore body is determined.

DEFENDS RAISES IN FREIGHT RATES

Thayer of the Pennsylvania Says They Should Have Come Sooner.

New York, Sept. 12.—John B. Thayer, third vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad, today told the interstate commerce commission, which is sagging in the question of increased freight tariffs by the Eastern roads, that the rates between the East and West have for years been too low and that the tariffs should have been raised in 1908. The adjustment, however, was also steadily increased, 146,553 cubic yards being laid in August, against 151,553 yards in July.

WOMEN HEAVILY ARMED.

Are Traveling Thousands of Miles Alone on Horseback.

Wyandemere, N. D., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Riding horseback from Texas to Butte, Mont., Mrs. Elia Burgess and her daughter, Miss Elfrida Burgess, spent a day in Wyandemere. Both ladies are heavily armed to protect themselves on their journey, up to the present time they have found no occasion to use their weapons.

Mrs. Burgess and her daughter are the owners of a ranch of 6,000 acres in Montana. They are going there to make their home. Both are experienced horse women and they are withstanding the rigors of their long journey exceptionally well.

HARTMAN NOMINATED IN MONTANA FOR CONGRESS.

Charles S. Hartman, who is well known in Duluth, having represented the district in the interests of Charles A. Towne in 1896, has been nominated by the Montana Democrats for congressman. As a Republican, Mr. Hartman was elected as Montana's congressman in 1892 and again in 1894. He was one of the Republicans who walked out of the national convention in 1896. That year he was the Silver Republican candidate for congress. The Democrats made no nomination; he was elected. During the past dozen years Mr. Hartman has been with the Democrats.

HUMAN BEINGS BAKED IN OVEN

H. E. Hubbard Says the Bake Oven Is a Wonder at Curing Diseases.

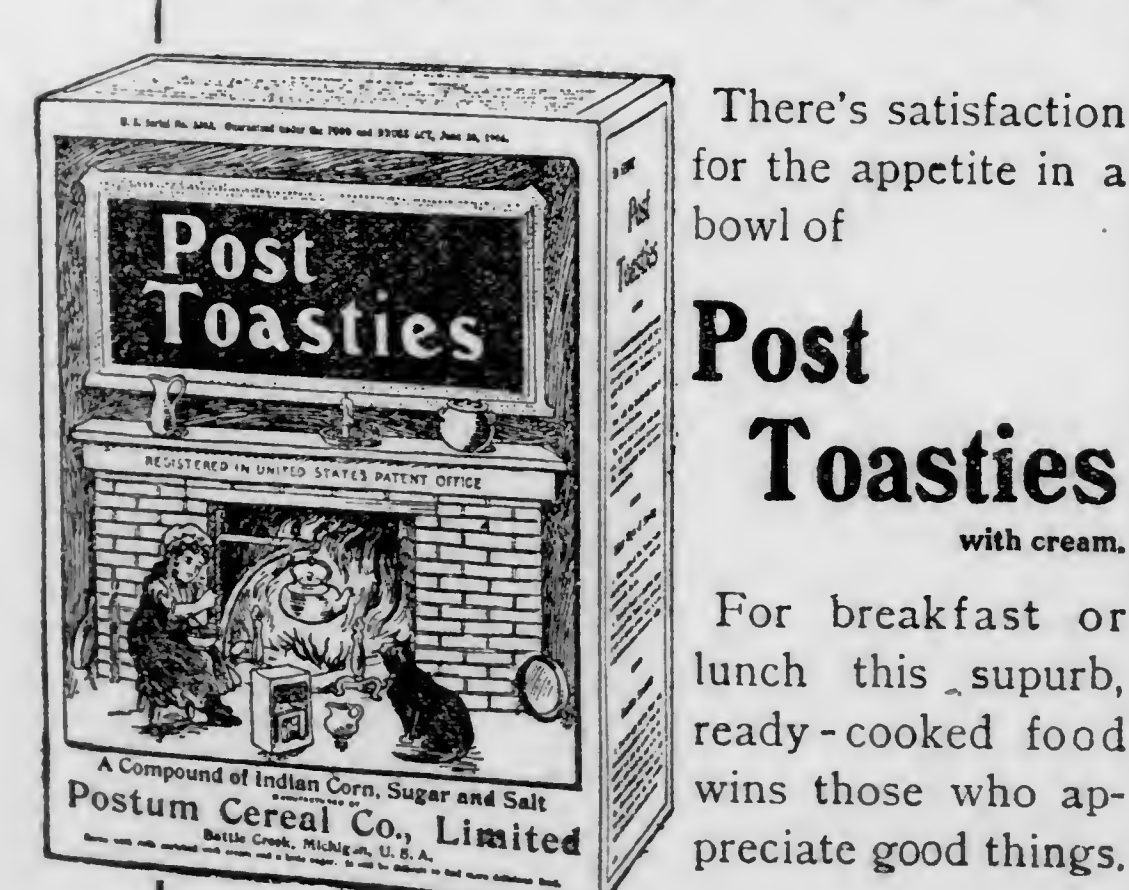

baked, sounds terrible; and it is certainly an odd treatment, when one stops to realize that 215 degrees Fahrenheit will melt lead. People won't believe it when they are told; they think it impossible, but there are a great many sufferers in Duluth and vicinity who have had these apples and potatoes baked in the oven with them; and they are all pleased and surprised at the quick relief they obtained. In my own case, I was crippled so bad and suffered so much pain I could not sleep for weeks. At times I could not step on my feet; my legs were numb and cold all the time. I had tried all manners of treatments and medicine, without relief. I heard of the Bake Ovens, and I knew there was good in it. It was all I could do to get there, I was very busy and now, after a few treatments I sleep well, and I do not suffer at all from pain; and when I walk I don't look as if I had made a century run; and I have every confidence that in a short time all the Uric Acid will be dissolved out of my system, and my Rheumatism permanently cured. Go then if you have any aches or pains. They will quickly relieve you; and you will and the treatment a very pleasant one. I got instant relief. APPLICANT FOR DIVORCE DRAWS JUDGE'S WRATH

Court's Ruling Is Announced.

Then Learns Something of the Law's Attitude Toward Such Cases.

"You can not come into this court and demand a divorce. I don't know that you will ever be granted a decree by this court. All that you can do is to ask a divorce and show cause why you should have it."
"The policy of the law is to strongly against divorce. It is not to be granted unless the husband and wife have made strenuous efforts to that end."
"There is something strange about a man who will allow his wife to strike him. A young man in good health will not, I dare say, allow himself to be pounded around very much."
"You married that woman in the eyes of the law and you intended to stay with her and you with you. You may seek a reconciliation with her; it matters little to this court what you do about it. Your remarks do not lead favor."
"You cannot come in here merely because you have had trouble with your wife and demand that you be granted a divorce. A man understands that as the world goes husbands and wives have trouble occasionally."
"The case is a most unsatisfactory one. The wife ought to be here. I will delay the proceedings for some time."

Harold E. Elder "got in wrong" with Judge William A. Cant of the district court this morning when, after the court had made a ruling that a divorce would not be granted at once, he attempted to insist.

The chief complaint was that Mrs. Elder had an ungovernable temper and Judge Cant stated that if the proper influences were brought to bear, she might be made to see life in a new light.

"You would, in a case of that kind, be required to have something to work on," said Judge Cant, "and you stand and quite worked up after having occupied the chair nearly all the morning."

That seemed to get on the court's nerves and the case was closed with a bang after he had given vent to his thoughts as above related.

Elder is 33 years old and his wife, whose name is Charlotte E. Elder, is 27. They were married at Charlevoix, Mich., Jan. 10, 1909.

Elder claimed cruel and inhuman treatment as the basis for divorce. He cited many instances where she had struck him with her fists, scratched him, choked him and called him names. On one occasion he stated that she threw a kitchen knife at him.

They have three children. Harold is 7, Olaf is 6 and Helen is 1 year old.

Long Tale of Woe.

It took him nearly all the morning to tell of his ten years of married life. He said she was as strong as he, but he received at her hands he was always kind and gentle to her.

He said that he married her as a result of a flirtation on a boat. She was 17 and he was 23 at the time of the marriage. It was stated that he had worked on the boats and in the woods up to that time and that he didn't know nearly so much about women then as he does now. He had known her but a month when they were married.

He said that they had never been able to get along. He had worked himself up until now he is state manager for a local concern, and even with his increased earnings, he stated, he was unable to support his family. It was due to his wife's poor management, he stated.

He told on the stand of a time, and he decided to start in business in Duluth. She insisted on coming to him. She boarded at the St. Louis hotel and the house was more than he was able to stand. He earns $200 a month, but even on that amount she was unable to get along, he says.

He stated that there was nothing the wife would do but her temper. In his complaint he asks that she be given the custody of the children, and that the court stipulate a fair amount of alimony.

He told on the stand of the various forms of ill treatment he had been subjected to. On one occasion she went for him with the poker. One of his favorite diversions, he claims, was to call him a "Norwegian slob." He said that she humiliated him before strangers, and even accused him of improper relations with other women before them. When mad, he said that she would throw whatever happened to be in her hands. At one time she is said to have gone after him with a poker when the correct dress of one of their children was under consideration.

Her maiden name was Charlotte Pajon.

At the present time Mrs. Elder is residing in her home at 1000 W. Third street. When Judge Cant said that the case was unsatisfactory, and that it would be delayed for some time, Elder insisted, until he was told in plain language what his complaint should be.

Elder was represented by A. N. McIndley.

SEARCHING FOR CRUISER

Party Leaves to Find Some Trace of Alex
Glenn.

Friends Fear That He Has Met Death in the Woods.

A searching party under the leadership of Alex McDonald left the city today for the vicinity of the Spring branch road east of Mesaba, where they will look for Alex Glenn, who has been gone on a cruising trip fourteen days.

There were seven in the party and they will search the woods over for some trace of the missing man. It is said that in this vicinity the underbrush is very dense and that in addition a greater part of the land is swampy.

Glenn, who is a cruiser and well known in Duluth, left about two weeks ago for a trip which he thought would keep him for but one day. He took food for that length of time only.

His continued absence has been the source of much worry to his friends, who today could stand the strain no longer and set out to look for him.

In the party is George Glenn, a brother of the man who is missing.

WEST END DULUTH WELL KNOWN ABROAD

Zenith City Has Good Reputation in Europe, Says
J. J. Moe.

John J. Moe and Mrs. Moe returned Sunday evening from a tour abroad that included visits to many places of interest. While enjoying their trip immensely they were glad to return home and the big bill and the aerial bridge, even the musty old passenger station, found much favor in their eyes as the train swung into the city.

The travelers left Duluth about four and a half months ago. They saw the famous Passions at Oberammergau and visited Naples, Pompeii, Rome and other places in Italy. They crossed the Alps into Switzerland and passed into France and went to Sweden and Norway by way of Germany. They visited all of the large cities of those countries.

Mr. and Mrs. Moe spent a month in London visiting with many friends and relatives.

Duluth, said Mr. Moe, is better known abroad than many cities of more than size because of its diversified interests. Its scenery and its enterprise.

"THE STORE THAT MADE GOOD."

JAP THANKS MAYOR CULLUM

Purse Lost in Duluth Found and Owner Expresses Profuse Gratitude.

Mayor Cullum today received a letter from Katsutaro Tetsuka, expressing the deepest gratitude for his assistance in recovering a purse which he lost at a local hotel while on a visit here. It contained a considerable sum of money and some valuable papers. The phraseology is quaint and characteristic of the Japanese.

Addressed to the mayor and dated at Winnipeg, is as follows: "I have received by postbook with all contents safely last evening. I do not know how to express my gratitude."

Defunct Bank Dividend.
Washington, Sept. 12.—A dividend of 15 per cent to the creditors of the defunct National Bank of Rhyolite, Nev., was declared today by the controller of the currency. The bank failed on March 10, 1910.

TWO MORE PACKERS ARE TO BE INDICTED; TEN IN NET ALREADY

Federal Grand Jury Returns True Bills Against Individuals.

Trust, Conspiracy and Monopoly Charged—Bonds Will Be $30,000.

J. Ogden Armour Says That Charges Made Are All Unfounded.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Two more meat packers are expected to be indicted by the federal grand jury which yesterday charged ten Chicago packers with conspiracy and illegal monopoly, and today the government announced its intention to secure early trial of all.

The additional indictments, it is intimated, may not come until the ten men already named have been tried. The men indicted are: L. F. Swift, president of Swift & Co.; Edward Swift, vice president of Swift & Co.; Charles H. Swift, director of Swift & Co.; Francis A. Fowler, director of Swift & Co.; Edward Tilden, president of the National Packing company; J. Ogden Armour, president of Armour & Co.; Arthur Meeker, general manager Armour & Co.; Thomas J. Connors, superintendent of Armour & Co.; Edward Morris, president of Morris & Co.; and Louis H. Heyman, manager of Morris & Co.

Three indictments each in detail charges all defendants with engaging in a combination in restraint of interstate trade in fresh meats. The second charges conspiracy. The third charges the defendants with monopolizing trade in fresh meats by unlawful means. Each must provide $10,000 personal bond on each of the three indictments returned. Judge K. M. Landis, who started the present investigation into the packing industry, refuses to admit surety companies into his court, as bondsmen.

None of the men against whom presentments have been handed up was (Continued on page 15, second column.)

Amateurs Take But Little Part in Eastern Meeting.

Boston, Sept. 12.—The Harvard-Rosston ac ro meet has the distinction of being the first aviation meet in the country to result in a financial success and today, the last of the ten days of competition, again called forth the many thousands who have become enthusiastic over the sport. Although the meet will continue through Thursday, competition for the numerous prizes closed today. A number of interesting events are scheduled, however, for the remaining days.

Now that he has again tuned up his engine and lightened the wires of his racing biplane, Glenn H. Curtiss was said to be contemplating the Bonham-Wicks time, 34 minutes 17.5 seconds for the 33 miles spin, looked unbeatable early today.

Johnstone's Record Revised. The contest committee today revised the new American record for distance established yesterday by Ralph Johnstone in a Wright biplane, which gave the plucky air pilot about four miles additional. Johnstone's distance was given out yesterday as 47 miles 4.68 feet, while the corrected official statement issued in the forenoon credits him with 51 miles 35.5 feet.

The amateurs continued to show no great amount of interest. During the early morning hours only one appeared on the field for all of the favorable weather conditions.

W. Starling Burgess made a dozen sharp jumps up and down the field in front of the grandstand, but did not allow his biplane to mount higher than ten feet.

NEW TESTAMENT IN CHINESE READY

Psalms of David Also Have Been Translated Into That Language.

Pekin, Wednesday, Aug. 17.—The final revised edition of the New Testament, together with the first completed book of the Old, the Psalms of David, is now issuing from the press in Chinese, and stacks of the volume are being shipped to the remotest parts of China. The special committee of translators is now gathered at Chefoo at its annual conference on the work, which it is hoped will be China what the authorized version of the gospel is to the English-speaking world.

The project was inaugurated in 1890 at a conference of all the missionary bodies at work in China, and is being consummated at the expense of the Bible societies of the world. Several books are added each year, and it is estimated that the whole volume will be complete about the year 1915.

SAYS CHARGES AGAINST PACKERS ARE BASELESS

NELSON LATE AT MEETING

All Other Republicans on Hand for Ballinger Session.

Minnesotan Is Said to Have Proxy From Senator Flint.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—The meeting of the Republican members of the Ballinger-Pinchot investigating committee, which was set for today by Chairman Knute Nelson, was delayed by the failure of Mr. Nelson to arrive at the appointed hour, 10 o'clock. It was said that the train on which he was expected to arrive was late, but that he would be here today and call the meeting to order.

As was expected, the Democratic members and Mr. Madison of Kansas, the insurgent Republican, who on Friday made public his findings condemning the official acts of Secretary Ballinger, failed to attend. All the Republican members with the exception of Senators Nelson and Flint were here. Senator Flint is not expected to return from a trip abroad for some time. His absence will result in no quorum being maintained.

Said to Have Proxy. It was reported that Senator Nelson has a letter from Senator Flint, authorizing Senator Nelson to cast Mr. Flint's vote with the majority of the Republicans. If this is done, action on the question as to whether the Republican findings in the controversy shall be made public now may be expected. The Republicans, however, were non-committal regarding this phase of the dispute.

FIRES ON YAKIMA LAND CONTROLLED

Report Is Made to Washington That Troops Will Be Sent Home.

Washington, Sept. 12.—A telegram was received at the Indian office today from Supt. Young of the Yakima Indian reservation in Washington, saying that the fire conditions there were greatly improved. Mr. Young reported that Indian agents and forest rangers were able to take care of the situation and that troops would be returned to their station at Vancouver barracks.

SECOND VICTIM OF NEGROES IS DEAD

Five Blacks Are Arrested in Connection With Ohio Murders.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 12.—Paul Heyge, who was desperately wounded by supposed negro robbers who killed Heyge's companion, Charles Otis, died early today at Circleville. Five negroes, members of a Western crew on construction work, are under arrest on suspicion of doing the shooting.

INFLUENCE DECREASING

Willis J. Abbot Thinks Bryan's Hold on Democrats Is Waning.

Strong as Ever in South Dakota, Says Ex-Senator Pettigrew.

By Willis J. Abbot. (Copyright, 1910, by Joseph B. Hoelzel.) St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—It has seemed remarkable, almost inexplicable, to one who has attended public gatherings, and particularly conservation congresses for years past, to neither hear the voice of William J. Bryan nor even any discussion of him. They told me that Mr. Bryan had not been invited. This was denied by the secretary of the congress. At the same time Mr. Bryan has not been here nor has anybody spoken for him on either the question of conservation or of politics. Ollie James was here, though his purpose was to attend the meeting at Minneapolis of the Ballinger-Pinchot committee. (Continued on page 15, fourth column.)

INDIAN AGENT IN HANDS OF SHERIFF

James Davis of Duluth Is Ordered to Furnish Peace Bonds.

Cass Lake, Minn., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—James Davis of Duluth, government agent in the Indian country, became intoxicated Saturday afternoon after the continuance of his other case for assault and battery, and threatened Attorney Argall, for the state. He was arrested at Bemidji last night and brought here by a deputy sheriff. Today he pleaded guilty in justice court and was ordered to furnish a $300 peace bond, which he has not been able to furnish yet and is still in charge of a deputy sheriff.

The people are glad that after months of suspense the status of Indian agents is being established in the state courts.

Washington, Sept. 12.—The population of Watertown, N. Y., is 26,730, an increase of 5,034, or 23.2 per cent, as compared with 21,696 in 1900. The population of Cohoes, N. Y., is 24,709, as compared with 23,810 in 1900. The population of Oswego, N. Y., is 23,385, as compared with 22,190 in 1900.

TWO NEGROES ARE LYNCHED

Assault on Children in Tennessee Avenged By Mob.

Forty Unmasked Men Take Prisoners From the Sheriff.

Tiptonville, Tenn., Sept. 12.—Will Sharp and Bob Bruce, negroes, were lynched last night by a mob of about forty men. Their crime was an attempted assault on Sallie and Carrie Downing, children of Jack Downing, at their home at Comersville, five miles above Tiptonville, Saturday night.

The negroes were taken from Sheriff Haines in a cypress barge about three-quarters of a mile from Tiptonville, the sheriff having taken them there to await developments in connection with the rumors of a mob.

The mob appeared unexpectedly and rushed on the officers. No shots were fired, the mob covering the little posse and taking the handcuffed prisoners. The negroes were quickly swung to the cypress trees and the mob dispersed. The members of the mob were not masked.

DEMOCRATS WILL CONTROL THE MAINE LEGISLATURE; ELECT TWO CONGRESSMEN

DEMOCRAT ELECTED GOVERNOR OF MAINE

Practically Complete Overthrow of Republicans in the Election.

G. O. P. Will Lose Member of United States Senate as Result.

Liquor Laws May Be Resubmitted to People—Many Appointive Offices.

Portland, Me., Sept. 12.—For the first time since 1883 Maine is to have a Democratic United States senator as a result of the elections held throughout the state yesterday. Furthermore, the voting brought virtually a complete overthrow of the Republicans, for Frederick W. Plaisted was elected governor over Governor Bert M. Fernald by a plurality close to 8,500; the Democrats won twenty-one of the thirty-one seats in the state senate; with but four districts yet to report they have seated eight-four representatives against sixty-three for the Republicans; they have elected two out of four congressmen, and they have more good on thirteen of the sixteen high sheriffs of the state who were chosen in yesterday's election.

On the congressional vote the revised returns show the election of Asher C. Hinds, Republican, in the First district, by 174; Daniel J. McGillicuddy, Democrat, in the Second, by 3,000; Samuel W. Gould, Democrat, in the Third, by 2,200; and Frank E. Guernsey, Republican, in the Fourth, by 300.

A recount may be had of the votes in the First district.

Legislative Turn-Over Important. Control of the legislature is of more importance in Maine than in some of the other states, because under the constitution a number of the highest state officers are appointed by that body. These are treasurer, attorney (Continued on page 4, fifth column.)

HOW RATES WERE RAISED

Daly of New York Central Testifies at Hearing in the East.

Says Each Road Made Tariffs and Then They Were Unified.

New York, Sept. 12.—Inside light on how the increased freight tariffs were made up was shed by Charles F. Daly, vice president of the New York Central lines, under cross-examination today before the interstate commerce commission, now inquiring into the proposed increased freight rates in the Eastern territory.

Mr. Daly said that each road had decided on its own increases in rates and the railroads' representatives then met in this city to check up results and make the raises uniform.

"It would be suicidal for each road to have a different rate," said Mr. Daly. "Protection of commercial business in (Continued on page 4, third column.)

IS CALLED BACK FROM PANAMA

R. O. Marsh Relieved of Duties and Missouri Man Appointed.

Washington, Sept. 12.—For reasons which are not divulged, the state department has decided to make a change in the American legation at Panama and R. O. Marsh has been relieved of the duties of secretary of legation and ordered to report at the state department for duty therein. Charles Campbell, Jr., of Missouri, at present third secretary of the American embassy at Tokyo, will replace Mr. Marsh as secretary of legation at Panama.

Mr. Marsh recently gave out an interview in which he said that it seemed likely that the United States would have to annex Panama owing to the threatened course of the government there.

SETTLES STRIKE OF LA CROSSE MEN

Humphrey Brings End to Trouble of Wood Workers.

La Crosse, Wis., Sept. 12.—The strike of 200 union woodworkers, which since last June has seriously interfered with the operations of three large wood-working plants here, has been settled, an agreement having been reached by which the men will return to work on the basis existing before the strike. John Humphrey, member of the state board of arbitration, effected the settlement, which will be formally ratified at a meeting of the strikers tonight.

WILL NOT TRY TO GET DIETZ

Sheriff Madden Will Resign Before Taking That Risk of Death.

He Is the Fourth Officer to Fail to Land Cameron Dam Man.

Condeav, Wis., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—There are reliable reports today that Sheriff Mike Madden of this county will resign before he will risk his life in attempting to arrest John P. Dietz, the Cameron dam defender. Knowledge that Dietz will not be taken alive, and that Governor Davidson will refuse to furnish troops is the cause of the sheriff's intentions.

Sheriff Madden resigned his office for the same reason and was fined $100 and given thirty days in the county jail. Sheriff Gidley also went to arrest Dietz, but after being shot at several times before reaching the place he gave up the attempt. Sheriff Gidley with seven armed men also went to arrest Dietz, but failed. On that occasion one of the sheriff's posse shot Clarence Dietz through the top of the head and Robert's, one of the posse, was shot through the neck, hip and heel. Both recovered. This was a few years ago. Madden is the fourth sheriff of this county (Continued on page 4, third column.)

TRIES TO HAMMER HIS BRAINS OUT

Iron River, Wis., Man Fractures His Skull With Repeated Blows.

Iron River, Wis., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Bert Peterson, a drayman of this place and about 40 years of age, attempted to beat out his brains yesterday with a hammer. He went to the barn and commenced to strike himself over the head. He was discovered by his children, but before they could interfere he had succeeded in fracturing his skull in places and inflicting a number of minor bruises. He was taken to the hospital. It is not believed he can recover. He is supposed to have become demented by worry.

LEAVES FIRM TO ENTER BUSINESS FOR HIMSELF.

C. E. Roe, who with W. C. Sherwood organized the Sherwood-Roe company about a year ago, has severed his connection with that firm and has entered the real estate and insurance business with offices at 412 Providence building. Mr. Roe came to Duluth four years ago to take charge of the commercial department of the Central high school, in which work he continued up to the time of the organization of the Sherwood-Roe company. William B. Roe, who came here last Saturday to become associated with his brother, will also be associated with him in the new venture. The brothers have a wide acquaintance among business men and their experience in the city will aid them in making a success of the business.

OUR CURES LASTING

When we accept your case we guarantee to cure you so that you stay cured.

Hundreds of men go through the days afflicted with some disease they THINK cannot be cured. Probably they have gone to incompetent physicians who did not have our years of successful study and therefore did not know how to cure it. They did not know where the trouble was and did not know the right remedy to use, while their equipment of modern appliances was incomplete.

We have had over 25 years' experience in this city as specialists in chronic and specific diseases of men alone.

Our reliability and skill protects you against dishonest and incompetent treatments. Our success is due to the careful attention we give to each individual case.

You can come to us with perfect confidence in us that we will cure you. You should not delay visiting us. We give you a full consultation and examination of your case. Out of town patrons should send for symptom blanks, and we will send you our advice in a plain envelope. Every treatment is strictly confidential.

RAILROADS SHORTAGE IS FEARED

Increase in Railroads' Business Causes Traffic Men to Worry.

Roads of the Northwest Are "Carrying Coal to Newcastle."

With a series of occurrences contributing to the taxing of the available supply of cars of the Northwest, railway freight men and operators of this city are asking if there is likely to be a serious coal shortage before the present fall runs into winter.

To start the list, as a traffic manager for one of the large wholesale houses put it today, "the railroads are carrying coals to Newcastle."

In several sections of the country there is a hay drought. As a result the railroads of the Northwest are busy at the present time hauling hay in large quantities to sections where hay was grown in plenty, before the drought of the past summer.

The railroads are also hauling a large amount of oats into sections of the Northwest that have in the past been heavy producers of oats. Railroad men say that these two unusual calls upon the rolling stock of the Northwestern roads has resulted in startling something that may end in a serious shortage.

But the troubles of the railroads, if an increase of business can be called trouble, does not end here. There are other sections of the Northwest that have failed to raise the customary product of that particular locality, and this has further added to the demand for cars.

Then there is the coal strike in Illinois. At the present time the railroads of Duluth are shipping coal from the West to sections of Iowa and South Dakota that have been supplied in the past from the mines of Illinois. This makes a longer haul and results in the taking of more cars.

Coal is moving. At the present time the coal is moving in surprising volume from the West to sections of Iowa and South Dakota. This is in favor of the railroads, as increased business is expected to come later, and the operators want to get out of the way as possible.

While the taxing of the rolling stock of the railroads of the Northwest is not as heavy as last year from the demands of wheat shippers, there is not as much wheat in the Northwest to ship, the increase of fall business, begun with a smaller grain movement, is beginning to worry some of the traffic managers.

Traffic managers for several of the Duluth wholesale houses stated today that their houses were doing an unusually heavy shipping business at the present time. They are shipping a large amount of goods to the West, from the East they are also receiving supplies.

Until recently it was not believed that there would be any likelihood of a car shortage, and it was thought the railroads would not have to call all their cars in from foreign lines. New business has changed the situation and if the expected coal rush comes up the lakes this fall for distribution into the country, and the general business of the railroads shows an increase it is very probable that the operating officials will bring into picture use some of the old blue smoke vocabulary, which operating officials are in the habit of using when cars are not to be had and shippers are applying epithets to the railroads.

Last season a little over 5,500,000 tons of coal was brought to the Head of the Lakes. A coal dealer this morning made the prediction that over 6,000,000 tons will be brought to the docks at the Head of the Lakes during the present season. This increase of coal alone, if it materializes, will mean a tax upon the railroads of the Northwest.

OPPOSE CUT IN RATES.

Railroads to Have Hearing in St. Paul on Oct. 12.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 13.—On application of T. J. Norton of Chicago, attorney for the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway company, Judge W. H. Sanborn of the United States circuit court yesterday set Oct. 12 for the hearing on the application of the company for the injunction against the interstate commerce commission which recently ordered a cut in the rates on oranges and lemons from the Pacific to the Atlantic coast from $1.15 to 75 cents per hundredweight. The hearing will be held in St. Paul.

PLANS SIGNED FOR CANADIAN RAILROAD.

Winnipeg, Sept. 13.—Premier Sifton, for the government, has signed plans for the 100 miles of the Pincher Creek, Sandstone & Montana railroad, which will run from the international boundary to Peace river landing, 700 miles. New York capitalists are the builders. There will be a branch into the Kootenai coal fields.

"SOME POTATOES" AT THE POOR FARM.

There will be a potato demonstration at the county poor farm, under the direction of Prof. T. T. Cooper, tomorrow at 1 p. m., which will serve to accentuate the idea that St. Louis has had "some potatoes."

The demonstration plot at the poor farm supplied some of the potatoes that went to make up St. Louis county's wonderful potato exhibit at the state fair. It is believed that never before has any potato exhibit anywhere scored as high as this one, for not only did the collection take first prize, but each individual tuber was declared by the judges to be perfect. There were twenty varieties, each perfect.

When Supt. A. B. Hostetter of the Commercial club's horticultural department gets together his potato exhibit next year, it is probable that he will score plus. He can't do better than he did this year without scoring higher than 100 per cent. Tomorrow's demonstration will be of

"BIG FEED" ON PARK POINT LASTED FOR TWO DAYS AND TWO NIGHTS

SOME OF THE GUESTS AT THE CLAM BAKE.

Supposin' that before you were spread chicken and blue fish and clams and sweet potatoes and Irish potatoes and green corn in unbounded quantities, and

Supposin' you had lived at boarding houses and restaurants for many years, and

Supposin' the chicken and blue fish and clams and sweet potatoes and Irish potatoes and green corn were all cooked to perfection, and Supposin' you had all day Sunday and all of Sunday night before you with no responsibility but that of gorging yourself with what lay before you. What would you do with the nerves?

That was the question which two or three hundred amateur epicures propounded to themselves last Sunday at Park Point and they answered it by executing said gorging to an extent that might well make any man wonder that the small food receptacle with which nature had provided him, could hold so much.

The principal enjoyment of mortal man from the time of the first dynasty of Egyptian monarchs, and perhaps before that, down to the present day, has been gained at the table. When men's spirits are high, the first thing that comes to mind is to eat. The mind of mortal man can conceive?

To the story. On Saturday morning when the first streaks of dawn were appearing in the east and one hour and thirty-nine minutes before the sun rose at Lake Superior in a red ball of fire—at 4 a. m. to be exact—a launch pulled away from the end of the street car line and headed for the Point, two miles below the end of the street car line.

But what is a groaning board to a hole in the sand, ten feet deep, filled with chicken and blue fish and clams and sweet potatoes and Irish potatoes and green corn cooked to the most perfect of perfection of which the mind of mortal man can conceive?

SOME BRIEF INTERVIEWS WITH ZENITH CITY VISITORS

DULUTH TAKING HER PLACE IN STEEL WORLD.

"In the iron and steel world of New York and Pittsburgh," said W. H. Given of New York last evening, "Duluth is beginning to occupy much attention. They know that in achievement this city is going to rank with the largest cities in the country."

Mr. Given, who is an expert on steel construction, is in Duluth on a good progress in architecture, basing his belief on what he has observed and many past visits. As to the natural beauties of Duluth, he said:

"The question if there is anything in all England or in Paris to compare with the picturesque attractiveness of the city at St. Paul, but because of the fact that the city is so close to the water, it is a different thing."

"We have but one war vessel, and this I believe is not an armament in case of a sudden difficulty—which there is not the slightest reason to believe will ever develop—the United States certainly at the start would have absolute control over the Great Lakes."

"With this situation confronting the interest to all agriculturists, professional and amateur, and will show how St. Louis county managers to amaze the rest of the state with its products of the soil."

Special interest attaches to the growing of potatoes just now, not only on account of the showing made by the county at St. Paul, but because of the fact that the potato belt of the state faces a real potato famine and Northwestern Minnesota will be called upon to meet the demand, getting possibly $2 a bushel for the finer specimens.

been destroyed by fire. The loss is $25,000 and at Big Bay, Marquette county, the second mysterious fire within a week, today destroyed a barn and fourteen horses owned by the Lake Independence Lumber company. The first blaze burned the planing mill and much lumber.

The Value of a Name!

THE power of a good name in any business enterprise is incalculable. It cannot be estimated in mere dollars and cents. There are some—self-touted, that float along in mid-stream for the nonce to be in a reasonable time washed ashore by the impetuosity of their own momentum.

There are others—that build up confidence, powerful enough to arm merchandise against criticism, and make one feel if it's labeled so and so—that's all that is necessary.

Styles introduced are ever and always authentic and exclusive. Everything must be right, to such an extent that the purchaser buys in good faith, because she knows it will fulfill to the letter all claims made for it.

When decades of conspicuous success and honest endeavor in a community bring about the building of such implicit faith—who can gauge the value of a name?

It sure was a great eatfest. The weather man was some unkind, for he sent a deluge early in the morning, but the rain did not extinguish the fires in the well-baked primitive oven, and it would take more than a little rain to extinguish the fires of the appetites that were taken to Park Point that morning.

When the last Sunday and all of Sunday night the loyal ones fed chicken and blue fish and clams and sweet potatoes and Irish potatoes and green corn to their respective stomachs. As the cub pulled away from the end of the street car line, the scene "beggars description." A great tent, erected to shield the epicures from the chilling blasts of Lake Superior, they had reached at the oven during the hours of the long but not tiresome vigil.

TURNED OFF THE LIGHTS

Hotel Proprietor Gives the Inmates a Chance to Escape.

The police met a chilly reception from the proprietor of the Sixth Avenue hotel, Sixth avenue west and Michigan street, when it was visited by a raiding squad from headquarters at an early hour this morning.

Declaring that he was there to protect his guests, he tried to stop the officers at the stairway. Pushing him to one side the officers made their way upstairs, but they had not got far when the rooms when they found themselves in absolute darkness. The proprietor had switched off the electric lights and flatly refused to turn them on again.

In the ensuing confusion one couple escaped through a rear window, making their way to the street, where they made a safe getaway in a hurry. Stumbling through the rooms the policemen found one couple who were taken to headquarters and booked on statutory charges. He did not know whether or not any others managed to get away in the dark.

These arrested gave their names as Cora Gallagher and Phillip Albert. They entered pleas of guilt when arraigned in police court this morning, but sentence was suspended when they agreed voluntarily to be married. One or two other hotels were visited but no others were in police court this morning as a result.

ON THE IRON RANGES

ELY SCHOOLS MAKE HIT AT BIG FAIR

Exhibit at St. Paul Last Week Given High Praise.

Ely, Minn., Sept. 13.—The St. Paul Pioneer Press in its issue of Sept. 6 had the following to say of the Ely school exhibit at the state fair:

"Considering the size of the city from which it comes, the Ely public school exhibit is undoubtedly the largest and best shown. It is up in the iron range and its few thousand inhabitants must be very thoroughly inclined to education. If the exhibit tells a true tale, there is everything, almost, that young hands can make in this elaborate exhibit from a steel chisel to a delicate designed book cover. Tools and all kinds of mechanics testify to the activity of the boys and sewing exhibits and drawing and cooking testify to the girls. There are jellies and jams and cakes from Ely—proof positive that the iron range holds something far more precious than iron, or even gold and silver. A handsome blue serge gymnasium suit is one of the many made by the Ely girls for their own work. Dresses and shirtwaists are displayed showing what the Ely girls are doing along lines of making their own clothes. Supt. Harms came down from Ely and instructed the exhibition, leaving for home Saturday night."

EVELETH COUNCIL AWARDS CONTRACT

To Advertise for Bids for Laying 1,500 Feet of Sewer Pipe.

Eveleth, Minn., Sept. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—At an adjourned meeting of the city council last evening, the estimate of the city engineer of $1,233 for the laying of 1,500 feet of 6-inch sewer pipe from Fayal road and Kimberly avenue, to the Spruce location, was approved and the city clerk instructed to advertise for bids on the work.

A resolution awarding the contract for laying water mains in Central Division No. 3 to the Peterson & Lawrence company, Duluth, was approved. A resolution instructing the city clerk to pay the final estimate of $15,318.82, to Rudolph S. Blome & Company, on their bill for the Grand avenue paving, was adopted and the total amount of the contract then paid the company will be $22,122.89.

A motion requesting the mayor to have all obstructions on the local sidewalks removed, and the streets and sidewalks at all times kept clear, was passed. The mayor was also instructed to see that the cow ordinance prohibiting animals from coming on local streets was enforced by the poundmaster. The city engineer was instructed to hand in his monthly bills, and the superintendent of the waterworks, chief of police, city engineer and street commissioner requested to submit monthly reports.

A new innovation will be tried on the local streets, to keep them in a good sanitary condition. A street washer which will be attached to the city sprinkler, will be purchased and used daily on the new Grand avenue pavement. The request of the fire department for suitable fire fighting apparel, was referred to the purchasing committee.

On motion the city clerk was instructed to communicate with Congressman Miller so that free mail delivery service can be had here soon.

THE CASE AGAINST LOBEN DISMISSED

Court Finds There Is Not Enough Evidence for Action.

Two Harbors, Minn., Sept. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The case against Andrew Loben, treasurer of Crystal Bay township, was tried Monday before Justice of Peace T. E. Phillips. Justice of Peace Phillips dismissed the case on the ruling that there was not enough evidence to warrant action.

AURORA ALSO TO HAVE WHITE WAY

Council Orders Standards for Lights in Business Section.

Aurora, Minn., Sept. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The village council last night ordered the iron standards for the white way to be installed in the business section of the village. Corbin (five-light standards) were ordered, the Thompson & Stewart Company of Duluth being awarded the contract.

Four blocks in the business section will be lighted. In three of the blocks there will be six standards to the block, which will make the street practically as light as day.

J. H. Simons of Gilbert has been appointed as superintendent of the light plant and is getting all the small matters in hand and making rapid progress toward the completion of the plant.

COUPLE FAILED TO SECURE A LICENSE

Virginia Pair Returned Home After a Trip to Eveleth.

Eveleth, Minn., Sept. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Peter Larson and Miss Muttie Johnson of Virginia, who drove over to Eveleth yesterday to get married, rather than wed in their home town and have their secret betrayed, finally had to return to Virginia to procure the license.

The couple drove over to Eveleth to secure the marriage license and have the marriage ceremony performed. The couple after a few hours' search for authorities in a position to issue the marriage license, found their efforts futile, and decided to return to Virginia to secure a license there, even though it would then be made known that they had been in Eveleth, where they became aware of the couple's presence here, that large signs, that read "Married," were posted. On the rear of the back, which drove away to Virginia, the sign occupied the front of the car, which had been played upon them.

Mr. Larson is a well known liquor dealer, while his bride is one of the most popular young ladies in Virginia.

INTEREST IN FOOTBALL.

Thirty Candidates for Teams Appear at Eveleth for Practice.

Eveleth, Minn., Sept. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Very much interest is being shown here in the revised football rules, and a squad of thirty candidates answered the call of Coach John S. Peoples, for the initial practice.

the held yesterday afternoon on the high school team. Fifteen candidates will try for positions on the first team, which is being captained by Percy Fryer. The larger class is trying for the second eleven, under the captaincy of Samuel Owens. Games will be played with all the strong range high school eleven, and as much interest is being manifested in the game, this year's team should excel those of the past.

BURNED TO GROUND.

Boarding House at Eveleth Destroyed by Fire.

Eveleth, Minn., Sept. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—A frame dwelling on the Virginia road, on the extreme north end of town, caught on early Monday morning and as no alarm was rung, the structure burned to the ground. The structure was two stories high and used as a boarding house.

GILBERT BRIEFS.

Gilbert, Minn., Sept. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Griggs of Athens, Pa., Miss Mable Griggs, Athens, Pa., and Mrs. S. Dayton of New York city, who are visiting on the range, the guests of Dr. Fred Barrett, Sunday.

The local population is certainly increasing, and was boosted by the arrival of wins at the home of Bruce Miller, a shoemaker in the Gilbert location yesterday.

District Court at Hibbing.

Hibbing, Minn., Sept. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—District court convened here yesterday. Owing to the settlement of some cases out of court, Judge Hughes dismissed the jury until Wednesday morning. No criminal cases are on the calendar.

WILL NOT TRY TO GET DIETZ

Davidson Will Not Act.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 13.—For perhaps the twentieth time in the last few days Col. O. Davidson, secretary to Governor Davidson, has denied the report that the governor had ordered him to send troops to capture John Dietz of Cameron dam. Col. Davidson said he had not heard from Sheriff Madden of Winter, and did not consider likely that the demand for soldiers would be granted even if made. The governor is still disposed to believe that if peace officers really want to capture Dietz they can get him with a posse.

Sheriff Madden has not called upon me, but if he does come, I will have to tell him that I do not intend to call upon the militia to capture Dietz," said Governor Davidson. "I read with interest that Dietz entered the village of Winter the other day but no attempt was made to arrest him. The sheriff feels that he needs a large body of men to assist him in his work. He has power to deputize as many as he considers necessary to take Dietz."

Mr. Daly admitted on cross-examination that most of the luxuries of life were carried in the earliest in the freight known as the "upper classes" of transportation.

As to Luxuries.

Regarding the increases Mr. Daly was asked if the luxuries would cost a little more for the people and the shippers.

"So little that the advance will have no practical effect in many individual cases," replied the witness.

"What effect on the man who sells his goods?"

"It will be more than gained by the improved conditions of the railways of the country and its aid to general business," replied Mr. Daly.

Some of the Luxuries.

"Are women's dresses, children's clothing and shoes in these freight luxuries?"

"Yes," was the reply.

"Well, the men of St. Louis who buy shoes from New England factories must pay the freighter's freight; the money will be taken out of their pockets and transferred to the coffers of the New York Central."

"Some of it is paid back to the men who buy shoes. We keep very little of it. It goes out almost as fast as it comes in."

general, secretary and commissioner of agriculture.

Among the appointments which rest with the new governor are:

A judge of the Kennebec superior court, a state commissioner of industrial and labor relations, a state commissioner of highways and a warden of the state prison.

The Democratic overturn of yesterday extends even to minor state offices. Today's figures show that the Democrats elected thirty-one of the sixteen high sheriffs in the state.

Repealing Liquor Law.

The capitol legislature by the Democrats probably will mean the repeal of the Maine liquor law, and a change in the Democratic party platform, can be repeated. Certainly the Democrats are apparently waiting for the repeal of the present commission and neglecting to appoint their successors.

Senator to be Chosen.

The legislature is to choose a successor to United States Senator Eugene Hale and give Maine her first Democratic senator since 1883 and New England the first since the election of William D. Eaton in Connecticut in the late '70s.

The next legislature will have full charge of redistricting the state.

AVIATORS LOST IN HEAVY FOG

Seymour and Schriver Have Serious Time in Hempstead Flights.

New York, Sept. 13.—Joe Seymour in his Curtiss biplane, and "Ted" Schriver in the Howard-Dietz biplane, had an unusual experience early today, when both became lost in a fog which hung over the Hempstead plains, obscuring all objects.

Both men had difficulty in getting their bearings and kept well in the air to prevent collisions with trees and fences. Each aeronaut was warned of the other's approach by the throbbing of the motor, and thus avoided collision by flying over or below each other as they approached. Seymour made four long cross-country flights and Schriver made three.

HAGUE DECISION IS IRREVOCABLE

Time for Appeal in Fisheries Case Elapses Without Any Action.

The Hague, Sept. 13.—The award of the international court of arbitration in the Newfoundland fisheries case became irrevocable today with the expiration of the five days allowed for an appeal without, either the United States or Great Britain entered a protest against the findings.

WEST END STREET CARS TAKE HEAVY TOLL

Victim of Third Accident Suffers Severe But Not Fatal Injuries.

Charles Upstrom, 48 years old and a laborer, was struck by an Interstate car at 500 Garfield avenue this morning at 12:30 o'clock, sustaining serious injuries. He was taken to St. Mary's hospital, where it is stated that he will probably recover.

Upstrom is a laborer at one of the mills at Garfield avenue and was on his way from work to his home, 212 Washington street, near the Missabe docks.

It is said that he attempted to cross the street car tracks in front of the car before the motorman had time to stop. He was picked up and hurried to the hospital, where his injuries were found to consist of a badly bruised head, a fractured rib, a crushed right foot and a broken left leg.

He did not regain consciousness until he had been in the hospital for several hours. "Until then his identity was not known."

The accident was the third for the street car company in the western end of the city. In the morning a third street car struck and nearly killed a young woman, a 16-year-old school girl residing at 3815 West Sixth street. About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon G. G. Knutson, laborer, was struck by the street railway, was run over and killed. His injuries were so severe that he died at the Central avenue bridge at Polk street.

MRS. KNISTROM DIES.

Well-Known West End Woman Passes Away at Her Home.

Mrs. Carrie E. Knistrom, a widow of the late Andrew Knistrom, died yesterday at the residence, 2109 West second street, aged 61 years.

Three months ago, her daughter, Catherine died and since that time she has been in bed. She was survived by two sons, Charles R. and Arthur A., both of this city.

Mrs. Knistrom was a native of Sweden and had lived in Duluth for a number of years. The funeral was held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence with burial at the Scandinavian cemetery.

Rev. Carl Salomonson, pastor of the First Swedish Lutheran church, will officiate.

MINNEAPOLIS PASTOR WILL PREACH HERE.

Rev. O. A. Elmquist, one of the most prominent Swedish ministers of Minneapolis, will be the guest speaker Thursday evening at the festival of the Swedish Lutheran church, which will be held at the church, Twenty-third avenue west and Third street.

Mr. Elmquist has spoken several times before the Bethany church and is well known to the young people as well as the older members of the congregation. His topic has not been announced.

In addition to the address by Rev. Mr. Elmquist, there will be a number of musical selections.

BODY OF BRAKEMAN BROUGHT TO DULUTH.

The body of Edward D. Gray, 32 years old, the Northern Pacific brakeman, who was killed at Deerwood, Minn., yesterday morning was brought to Duluth last evening and taken to the undertaking establishment of Olson & Crawford, 2010 West Superior street.

Mr. Gray leaves a widow and two children. The body will be sent tomorrow to the home of his father, where the funeral will take place Thursday afternoon.

RETURN FROM CAMPING TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dye and family of West and Rev. J. Wilfred Loughridge, pastor of Central Baptist church, Twenty-third avenue west and First street, returned today from a two weeks' camping trip at Lakeside.

West End Shortfalls.

Miss Clara Sommerville of 2601 West Sixth street and her mother, Mrs. George Sommerville, have returned from South Range, Wis., where they spent the week end on their farm near there. The Sunday school teachers of Bethany Swedish Lutheran church will hold a meeting this evening in the church, Twenty-third avenue west and Third street.

A meeting of the West End W. C. T. U. was held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Andrew Berquist of 2022 London road. Mrs. E. Gustafson read a Seymour and Schriver Have Serious Time in Hempstead Flights.

New York, Sept. 13.—Joe Seymour in his Curtiss biplane, and "Ted" Schriver in the Howard-Dietz biplane, had an unusual experience early today, when both became lost in a fog which hung over the Hempstead plains, obscuring all objects.

Both men had difficulty in getting their bearings and kept well in the air to prevent collisions with trees and fences. Each aeronaut was warned of the other's approach by the throbbing of the motor, and thus avoided collision by flying over or below each other as they approached. Seymour made four long cross-country flights and Schriver made three.

HAGUE DECISION IS IRREVOCABLE

Time for Appeal in Fisheries Case Elapses Without Any Action.

The Hague, Sept. 13.—The award of the international court of arbitration in the Newfoundland fisheries case became irrevocable today with the expiration of the five days allowed for an appeal without, either the United States or Great Britain entered a protest against the findings.

WEST END STREET CARS TAKE HEAVY TOLL

Victim of Third Accident Suffers Severe But Not Fatal Injuries.

Charles Upstrom, 48 years old and a laborer, was struck by an Interstate car at 500 Garfield avenue this morning at 12:30 o'clock, sustaining serious injuries. He was taken to St. Mary's hospital, where it is stated that he will probably recover.

Upstrom is a laborer at one of the mills at Garfield avenue and was on his way from work to his home, 212 Washington street, near the Missabe docks.

It is said that he attempted to cross the street car tracks in front of the car before the motorman had time to stop. He was picked up and hurried to the hospital, where his injuries were found to consist of a badly bruised head, a fractured rib, a crushed right foot and a broken left leg.

He did not regain consciousness until he had been in the hospital for several hours. "Until then his identity was not known."

The accident was the third for the street car company in the western end of the city. In the morning a third street car struck and nearly killed a young woman, a 16-year-old school girl residing at 3815 West Sixth street. About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon G. G. Knutson, laborer, was struck by the street railway, was run over and killed. His injuries were so severe that he died at the Central avenue bridge at Polk street.

MRS. KNISTROM DIES.

Well-Known West End Woman Passes Away at Her Home.

Mrs. Carrie E. Knistrom, a widow of the late Andrew Knistrom, died yesterday at the residence, 2109 West second street, aged 61 years.

Three months ago, her daughter, Catherine died and since that time she has been in bed. She was survived by two sons, Charles R. and Arthur A., both of this city.

Mrs. Knistrom was a native of Sweden and had lived in Duluth for a number of years. The funeral was held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence with burial at the Scandinavian cemetery.

Rev. Carl Salomonson, pastor of the First Swedish Lutheran church, will officiate.

MINNEAPOLIS PASTOR WILL PREACH HERE.

Rev. O. A. Elmquist, one of the most prominent Swedish ministers of Minneapolis, will be the guest speaker Thursday evening at the festival of the Swedish Lutheran church, which will be held at the church, Twenty-third avenue west and Third street.

Mr. Elmquist has spoken several times before the Bethany church and is well known to the young people as well as the older members of the congregation. His topic has not been announced.

In addition to the address by Rev. Mr. Elmquist, there will be a number of musical selections.

BODY OF BRAKEMAN BROUGHT TO DULUTH.

The body of Edward D. Gray, 32 years old, the Northern Pacific brakeman, who was killed at Deerwood, Minn., yesterday morning was brought to Duluth last evening and taken to the undertaking establishment of Olson & Crawford, 2010 West Superior street.

Mr. Gray leaves a widow and two children. The body will be sent tomorrow to the home of his father, where the funeral will take place Thursday afternoon.

RETURN FROM CAMPING TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dye and family of West and Rev. J. Wilfred Loughridge, pastor of Central Baptist church, Twenty-third avenue west and First street, returned today from a two weeks' camping trip at Lakeside.

West End Shortfalls.

Miss Clara Sommerville of 2601 West Sixth street and her mother, Mrs. George Sommerville, have returned from South Range, Wis., where they spent the week end on their farm near there. The Sunday school teachers of Bethany Swedish Lutheran church will hold a meeting this evening in the church, Twenty-third avenue west and Third street.

A meeting of the West End W. C. T. U. was held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Andrew Berquist of 2022 London road. Mrs. E. Gustafson read a

One True Medicinal Whiskey

Beware of So-called Ones—Imitations.

Unscrupulous dealers, mindful only of their profit and caring nothing for the health of their patrons, are offering for sale low grade mixtures, which they tell you are "as good as" Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Some go so far as to try to make you believe it is Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. These cheap concoctions are foisted on the people with the intent to deceive.

When a remedy has been before the public for more than half a century, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and in prominent hospitals, and has carried the blessing of health into so many thousands of homes as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has, imitations are bound to arise. They may imitate the bottle and label only—no one can imitate the contents.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is Beneficial.

It is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain. Its palatability and its freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach. It has been used with remarkable results in the treatment of consumption, pneumonia, grip, coughs, colds, malaria, fevers, stomach troubles and all wasting and diseased conditions.

It is sold in sealed bottles only. The Old Chemist's Head is on the label, and over the cork is an engraved seal. Be certain the seal is unbroken. Sold by druggists, grocers, dealers, or direct, $1.00 a large bottle.

LABOR CUTS BIG FIGURE

Unions Are Active in Primary Election in Washington.

New Jersey Also Is Scene of Balloting for Nominees.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 13.—In today's primary election the polls opened at 11 a. m. and will close at 8 p. m. In precincts where voters are waiting, however, the election officers will hold open for them. A small vote is expected in the country districts and a large one in the workingmen's section of the cities.

Many Republicans will not vote on account of dissatisfaction with the "old guard" on the one hand and unwillingness to vote for insurgents on the other.

The labor unions are supporting Miles Pondexter of Spokane, insurgent Republican candidate for United States senate. Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor has urged that Pondexter be elected. Judge Thomas Burke of Seattle and James M. Aston of Tacoma are making strenuous efforts to carry their own counties. The fight of the regulars has been on the defensive from the start.

Are After Humphrey.

In the First, or Seattle district, the unions are working hard to defeat Representative William B. Humphrey, author of the ship subsidy bill pending in congress. He was attacked for his friendliness to Speaker Cannon and for alleged hostility to labor bills. The Coast Seamen's union is leading the fight against him and in favor of Thomas Reevie, insurgent.

Returns will be late, but the incomplete returns received from the three big cities, Seattle, Spokane and Tacoma, probably will determine the result. The result of the registration in Seattle 47,493—is much larger than ever before. There is no contest for nominations on the Democratic ticket.

Good Voting Weather.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 13.—Fair weather prevailed for the primary elections being held today throughout New Jersey by all parties. The polls open at 7 a. m. and close at 8 p. m.

The greatest interest centers in the contests for the indorsement by the people of candidates for United States senate. There are five avowed Republican candidates for the senatorship to succeed John Keen, but only three of them have consented to let their names go before the people. These three are: Former Governor Franklin Murphy and Congressman Charles N. Fowler, who also has a fight on the issue of re-nomination in the Fifth district. The two candidates for senator who have refused to go on the primary ticket but will take their chances with the legislature are Senator Keen and David Baird, the Republican leader in Southern New Jersey.

The Democrats seeking indorsement by the people for the senatorship are James E. Martine of Union county and Frank M. DeLoach of Essex county.

Delegates to Conventions.

Besides the senatorial indorsement, the people will elect delegates to the state conventions which will nominate candidates for governor, and elect delegates to the various congressional conferences and will nominate candidates for the legislature and various municipal offices.

The most interesting contest for congressional delegates is in the Fifth district, where Congressman Fowler, a radical anti-Cannon man, is opposed by Judge W. N. Runyon of Union county.

There is also a spirited contest in Essex county, which includes the city of Newark, for Democratic delegates to the state convention. Friends of Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton university, are leading a fight against Sheriff William Harrigan for the gubernatorial nomination.

A Sprained Ankle.

As usually treated a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month, or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may, in most cases, be effected in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation; try it for a sprain or a bruise, or when laid up with chronic or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by all druggists.

POLITICS GETTING WARM IN MISSOURI

State Committees of the Various Parties Hold Sessions.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 13.—State committees of the political parties in Missouri began meetings here today in preparation for the fall campaign. New chairmen of the committees were elected.

The Democratic, Republican, Prohibition and Socialist labor parties will draft platforms before adjournment. The meetings may continue through tomorrow. The Democratic committee will, according to the leaders, indorse Joseph W. Folk for the presidency.

Champ Clark, leader of the minority in the house of representatives, is chairman of the Democratic resolutions committee.

KILLED BY PLOWSHARE.

Twelve-Year-Old Boy Meets With a Horrible Death.

Crookston, Minn., Sept. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rudolph Treichel, aged 12, of Lockhart, died here this morning. He was plowing on his father's farm when his foot caught in the wheel and he was thrown under the plow and terribly gashed by the coulters and plowshare. He was rushed here last evening but was beyond help. This is the second calamity at Chris Treichel's farm. Saturday lightning struck his big barn burning it, with the contents, including the cremation of several head of stock.

BABIES SUFFER FROM SUMMER SKIN TROUBLES

Immediately Benefited by Postum, Which Soothes, Cools and Heals.

Mothers and those having the care of infants and young children which are chafed and irritated by skin eruptions and rashes will appreciate the cooling, soothing and healing properties of postum, particularly during the heated term, when these disorders are the principal cause of fretting and ill humor. Postum contains nothing which can in any way injure the most delicate skin and may unhesitatingly be used in all cases. "My little boy had eczema on his head in the most dreadful form for three summers. We spent dollars on various medicines to no effect. After trying sample of postum I saw an improvement, and in a short while his head was entirely healed," writes Mrs. W. E. Hunt, Kingston, S. C.

In all skin troubles postum produces immediately noticeable results, stopping all itching and rapidly restoring the skin to normal condition. A special 5-cent package of postum is prepared for infant uses and this, as well as the regular $2 jar, is on sale by all druggists, postum stores, the 125-cent pharmacy and W. A. Abbot's in Duluth and the A. E. Holmberg Drug Co. in Superior.

But no one is asked to purchase postum without first obtaining a sample package, which will be sent by mail, free of charge, upon request, by the Emergency Laboratory, Inc., 25 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.

READY FOR BARNUM FAIR

Carlton County Show Will Be Held From Sept. 14 to 16.

Good Program of Races and a Large List of Premiums.

Carlton county will give a fair at Barnum, Minn., from Sept. 14 to 16 inclusive. The Carlton County Agricultural Association has been giving plans for twenty years and it has become a habit with the members to begin to prepare for the next fair as soon as one is over. Consequently the Carlton county fairs are among the best in Minnesota, well organized, properly conducted and are notable for the diversity and excellence of their exhibits. Premiums are offered for nearly everything that is grown on Northern Minnesota farms. Prizes are offered for live stock, handicraft, by women and specimens of educational work by children such as manual training and art.

There will be races on each day of the exhibition. The races on the first day will be between green ponies and green horses owned in Carlton county. The second day's program includes a one mile pace or trot, free-for-all for $200; a trot or pace for Carlton horses, one-half mile, for $100; running race, half-mile, $50; ladies' bicycle race, one mile, $25. A ball game will be played for a prize of $40. On the third day there will be a ball game between married and unmarried men for a prize of $10. There will also be many track and field events. Well known men will make speeches on the last day.

The Northern Pacific will operate a special train on each day of the fair, from Barnum to Duluth, leaving Barnum at 8 p. m., for the benefit of people from Duluth and its vicinity. Extra coaches will be attached to morning trains for Barnum while the fair is in progress.

Why Druggists Recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. Frank C. Haurahan, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit, but this remedy is so sure to effect a cure, and my customer so certain to appreciate the benefit of it to him, that I give it the preference." GRAIN MEN FAVOR STEPHENS BILL Say It Will Put Check on Fraud in Bills of Lading.

New York, Sept. 13.—Representatives from sixteen grain exchanges of the country resolved at a meeting here yesterday that the Stephens bill now before congress will reform notorious frauds in bills of lading and that it deserves the support of all grain merchants.

"Without such help as this bill furnishes," says the resolution, "the practice of issuing bills of lading in addition to a short time to twenty-five bushels per acre, which on the present basis of the merchants, bankers and banks in the bill of lading and eventually eliminate its use altogether as a means for securing loans, and thereby cause confusion and contention in the marketing of our various crops."

E. P. Ferrin of this city, in an address intended for the farmers, urged them to increase their yields if America would retain her supremacy in the grain markets of the world. "There is no reason why our farmers should be short of grain," he said. "There are those of other countries who would be able to increase the wheat yield within a short time to twenty-five bushels per acre, which on the present basis of the merchants, bankers and banks in the bill of lading and eventually eliminate its use altogether as a means for securing loans, and thereby cause confusion and contention in the marketing of our various crops."

NEW MODEL ENGINE WRECKED ON FIRST TRIP.

Toledo, Ohio, Sept. 13.—Traveling at a terrific rate of speed for the purpose of testing a new model locomotive, and with the road foreman, of equipment and the superintendent of motive power in the car to watch the tests, the Rocking Valley train No. 33 was wrecked at Walbridge, Ohio, yesterday afternoon. The train was carrying a load of 1,000,000 bushels of wheat, and the engine, a new model of motive power, was wrecked.

L. C. ENGLISH, road foreman of engines, Columbus, Ohio, also of Columbus. The train was wrecked at Walbridge, Ohio, yesterday afternoon. The train was carrying a load of 1,000,000 bushels of wheat, and the engine, a new model of motive power, was wrecked.

NARRAGANSETT CLUB PROPRIETOR IS HELD.

A grand jury of the district court in the case of W. H. Arnold, proprietor of the fashionable Narragansett club which was raided on Aug. 9, when several prominent New York and Philadelphia society people were present. Arnold was held in $1,000 bail on the first count and $2,000 on the second for the November term of the grand jury. Bonds were furnished and Arnold was released.

A literary flavor was given the case by Prof. Alexander Matthews of the English department of Columbia university, one of the witnesses for the prosecution. He testified that in his opinion the club was a "joint."

"A joint," he explained, "is a place where men and women, either drunk or sober, are steered to lose their money."

A reliable medicine—Not a Narcotic. Mrs. E. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says: "Foley's Honey and Tar saved my little boy's life. She writes: 'Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and the doctor's medicine did not cure him. I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar, in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house.' Sold by all druggists."

PUT EX-PRESIDENTS IN THE NEXT CABINET.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 13.—Bernard N. Baker, ex-president of the National Conservation congress, returning here from St. Paul, said that a suggestion made at the St. Paul congress has crystallized into an organized movement to make an ex-president of the United States an advisory member of his successor's cabinet, with a competence sufficient to make him independent. Mr. Baker said that many prominent men in the West thought this method furnished the solution of the perplexing question as to the future careers of ex-presidents.

"Of course," he added, "there would have to be legislation providing, that when a man is elected to the presidency his succession to the cabinet position necessarily follows. It will take time to get any congressional action, but if the public approves the idea legislation will be the result."

Tornado in Illinois. Kankakee, Ill., Sept. 13.—Gillman, Onarga and Danforth, Ill., suffered considerable damage and several persons sustained injuries during a tornado yesterday. A caboose and several cars on a south-bound Illinois Central train were blown off the track and Plagman Fred Tate was severely injured. Two other men in the caboose were hurt.

COUNCIL TAKES HAND IN SEARCH FOR FIREBUG

Asks Mayor to Try to Secure Reward for His Capture.

City Attorney Instructed to Investigate Street Car Accidents.

Following the sixth destructive incendiary fire at New Duluth early yesterday morning, the city council last night, unanimously passed a resolution introduced by Alderman L. A. Barnes, requesting the mayor to secure, if possible, the offering of a reward by the proper authorities for the apprehension of the firebug.

It is not believed that the city will be able to offer the reward itself. The municipality is short of funds, but it is believed that the seriousness of the situation will be sufficient to induce the governor to take positive action in the matter.

Rev. Peter Knudson, pastor of the House of Hope Presbyterian church at New Duluth, attended the meeting last evening. He did not address the council upon the subject, but said after the council adjourned that New Duluth should have additional police, fire and light protection.

Rev. Knudson laid special stress upon the necessity of having more light. He stated that no one other than the city officers are also needed. The pyromaniac has robbed New Duluth of about all the substantial industries which it has, except the steel plant.

He added that despite that fact, the suburb will grow rapidly and that new factories will be erected, but that they must be given proper protection. He said that the loss of work has discouraged many of the residents, but he expected that this would be only temporary. He asserted that all have a firm belief in the future of New Duluth and that it has firmly resolved to go ahead despite the havoc wrought by the firebug.

The resolution introduced by Alderman Barnes follows:

"Whereas, The village of New Duluth has been the scene of six supposedly incendiary fires within the past month, whereby plants were destroyed, many men were thrown out of employment and considerable loss incurred, therefore be it

"Resolved, That his honor, the mayor, is hereby requested to secure, if possible, the offering of a reward by the proper authorities for the apprehension of the firebug, and he is further requested to give such immediate police and detective protection as seems to him wise."

The city attorney was directed to investigate the accident yesterday afternoon which resulted in the death of G. M. Nesbitt, a street car company employee, who was hit by one of the cars. The attorney was directed to attend the inquest to ascertain whether or not the speed regulations were being violated. Attention was also called to the accident at the West end, in which Anna McIntosh, a 9-year-old girl, was injured.

The council postponed action upon the paving of Eleventh avenue east between Second and Fifth streets until the board of public works be refunded to the property owners. The work will be held up until next year. The property owners differ as to the kind of paving, the majority asking for tar macadam and the others for asphalt.

The Imperial Iron works gave notice of big addition to its plant at West Duluth in asking for the vacation of Fifty-second avenue west running 400 feet southerly from Folk street. Several new buildings will be erected.

About fifty of the leading merchants asked the council that steps be taken to prevent outside firms from soliciting trade from house to house without a license. It was not stated that they pay no taxes and injure the business of the local merchants considerably.

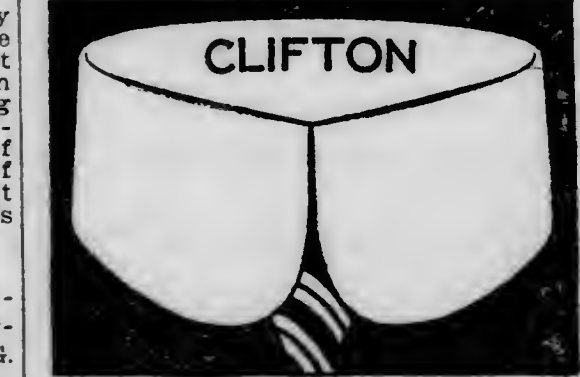

The bonds of J. Allyn Scott, the newly-appointed assessor. In the sum of $5,000, were presented and will likely be approved at the next meeting.

The Soo road was refused permission to install illuminated sign posts in front of its new depot at Sixth avenue west and Superior street.

Alderman Wharton, chairman of the sports committee, gave notice that the baseball game between the Duluth and Superior Aldermen will be postponed until a week from the coming Thursday. He explained that the city fathers across the bay have not had time to consider the matter, but would likely do so tonight.

WHAT THEY SAY OF THE MAINE ELECTION

"Nothing Unusual"—Root.
 Chicago, Sept. 13.—United States Senator Root of New York, when he received news of the Democratic victory in Maine, said the result of the election was caused by a period of discontent usually noticed in the middle of every administration.

"I have seen a similar expression in the middle of presidential term for years," he declared. "The pendulum has swung back from the Republican victory of two years ago and by two years more will have swung back to the Republican ranks again."

"Constant to Constant"—Mack.
 New York, Sept. 13.—Norman E. Mack of Buffalo, chairman of the Democratic national committee, when he heard the latest returns from the Maine elections, said:

"All that I can say now is that the expressions of sentiment which have been coming in to us from all over the country indicated the possibility of such a result. But of course it is almost too good to be true. What does it indicate? You know you don't need to ask me that. It indicates a sweeping Democratic victory from coast to coast."

"Chairman Lloyd of the congressional campaign committee, who was talking with me in Buffalo only last week after returning from the Pacific coast, told me that the sentiment he found out here was the same which has victoriously manifested itself in Maine."

"Not Unexpected"—Lloyd.
 St. Louis, Sept. 13.—Congressman James T. Lloyd of Missouri, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee, expressed his gratification at the outcome of the election in Maine. "While the victory in Maine was a surprise to me," he said, "it was not wholly unexpected, as I have only recently returned from a visit to the state and was familiar with conditions there. The result was a little better than was hoped for."

"Heart and Hope"—Clark.
 Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 13.—Congressman Champ Clark, the Democratic leader in the house of representatives, was visibly pleased when he heard the news from Maine. He was in a group of Missouri politicians at the Madison hotel when the returns reached him.

"The news from Maine should give heart and hope to every Democrat and to every lover of good government between the two seas," said Mr. Clark, whose countenance indicated that his hopes of succeeding Uncle Joe Cannon in the speaker's chair were soaring high.

BELL SCORES THE ARMY.

Inspector General Says It Is Not Ready for Service.

Washington, Sept. 13.—If fearless criticism is calculated to benefit the army, then Uncle Sam's soldiers should profit much from the comment upon their condition and ability contained in the annual report of Inspector General Bell, just made public. He declares that absence of captains from their commands is "most fruitful source of professional disease in the line of the army today."

In one department nearly a third of the line officers were absent from duty. The obvious remedy, he says, is the provision of a sufficient number of superior officers to replace those on detail.

People who think the United States army stands at the top of the profession would be rudely jarred to learn from Inspector General Bell that the field army is wholly unprepared for field service. He says the new regulations are almost entirely theoretical or dependent upon the experience of European armies. Our transportation is the same as at the beginning of the civil war, for our army has so far failed to make use of automobiles, traction engines and other modern appliances in the field.

UNITED EXCHANGE HEAD BOUND OVER

Twenty Million Dollar Concern Has No Assets Except an Idea.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—William H. Holcomb, who as vice president of the United Exchange, capitalized at $20,000,000, is charged with violating the postal laws in the alleged conducting of a "get-rich-quick" scheme, was bound over to the federal grand jury yesterday in bonds of $5,000.

There are practically no assets belonging to the concern. It is alleged, except the scheme itself, Earl P. Smith, a postoffice inspector, testified that the picture of the company's alleged office printed on its literature, was really a likeness of a railway ticket office at Los Angeles, Cal.

According to the witnesses, the company plans to furnish information on any subject, anywhere, to conduct country-wide railway and hotel advertising and a national system of sag-rages, to accept sales agencies, to conduct tours and many other enterprises. By co-operation of the agents in the various lines the investor would be able to make a fortune. The various services cheaper than in the past. Holcomb is alleged to have sold considerable stock in the company.

NATIONAL BANKS MAY NOT INSURE OFFICERS.
 Washington, Sept. 13.—That a national bank may not insure the life of its president or any of its officers has been decided by the comptroller of the currency. A request from a bank for permission to do so has brought out that ruling. The decision is based upon a case which officials discovered in the Northwest some time ago. A life insurance company acquired a string of national banks and insured all the employees. By that system the earnings of the banks went to the life insurance company to pay premiums on the policies.

KILLS WIFE ON WAY TO SHOOT AT HAWK.

Norristown, Pa., Sept. 13.—John C. Hallman of Limerick township shot and killed his wife yesterday. He was hurrying to kill a hawk that was attacking his chickens, and with a shotgun in his hands, tripped over a piece of carpet. The weapon was discharged, the load of shot tearing a hole in Mrs. Hallman's back.

TAFT MAY GIVE UP HIS TRIP TO PANAMA.
 Beverly, Mass., Sept. 13.—The trip to Panama which President Taft had planned to take in November may be given up. It is understood that several of the Republican leaders have tried to convince the president that the political situation at home will require his presence in this country, and arrangements for the trip of three weeks have been abandoned. The arrangements called for his departure from Washington soon after his November election.

Next Sunday Mr. Taft will visit Cincinnati, returning by way of Washington, where he will preside at the first cabinet meeting of the season.

"There's a Reason"

Thomas S. Wood, attorney for Duluth Street Railway company, claimed a fractured arm when he was struck by an automobile owned and driven by Frank J. Nixon, at the corner of Third avenue west and Super street.

Mr. Wood was hurrying to take street car, carrying an armful of books, when he darted in front of a machine, which it is estimated was traveling at a low rate of speed. The fracture was set by Dr. C. A. Stever after which Mr. Wood was removed to his home. It is stated that the injured person.

MAKING GAS FROM LIGNITE

Experiments at Hebron, N. D., Furnish Surprising Results.

Has as Much Heat and Light as Ordinary Eastern Coal.

Hebron, N. D., Sept. 12.—What is said to be the first experimental station of the kind, an institution for the investigation of the possibilities of lignite as fuel, is now in full operation in this place.

The station is a branch of the school of mines of the University of North Dakota, and is under the direction of Prof. E. J. Hancock, dean of the school. He is assisted by Prof. W. B. Snyder, superintendent; Charles E. Johnson, M. Snyder, coal chemist; Leslie Sutherland, gas chemist; Carl Crozier, engineer; and William Budge, assistant on brickmaking work.

The initial work of the station has been encouraging to a high degree and will be continued in the winter by Prof. Snyder and three assistants.

The most significant work yet undertaken is the manufacture of lignite briquettes which have proven to contain as much heat units as anthracite coal. The experiments in producing lignite gas have been wonderfully successful. From one ton of dried lignite 13,000 cubic feet of gas has been produced and it gives a brilliant light. It is the intention to put up several street lights about the station to demonstrate the lighting value of the gas.

BIND WATCHMAN; BLOW BANK SAFE

Robbers Unsuccessful in Getting Any Money at Watertown, S. D.

Watertown, S. D., Sept. 12.—Four men, about 2 a. m. yesterday wrecked the State Bank of Henry in an attempt to blow the safe. After binding and gagging the night watchman they demolished the side of the bank with tools stolen from a section house, but without success. The men stole a team and old buggy to get out of town. Posses are in pursuit.

TAMARACK IS TO HAVE CREAMERY

Farmers of the Vicinity Meet and Organize an Association.

Tamarack, Minn., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The farmers of this vicinity met Monday and organized a co-operative creamery association. Shares were sold to the extent of $1,250, half the amount required to build and equip the creamery.

Officers were elected as follows: E. L. Douglas, president; H. J. Priest, secretary; Warren Nelson, secretary; J. E. Barrett, treasurer; Martin Johnson, J. L. Cayo and Oscar Sundberg, directors.

The village of Tamarack will provide the site for the creamery. The contract was let for the machinery to the Creamery Packing Manufacturing company of Minneapolis. The creamery will be built in the early spring.

MAY HAVE PERISHED.

South Dakota Man Missing and Friends Fear the Worst.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Sept. 12.—Nothing having been heard from him after persistent efforts, it now is feared that Leslie Genter, a South Dakota man, lost his life in the forest fires of the West. The missing man is from Big Stone, where his father resided. He was married about a year ago and has a son. For some time prior to his departure for Spokane and other points on the coast he had been in business at Lemmon, one of the new towns on the coast extension of the St. Paul railroad in the northwestern portion of the state.

SANDSTONE'S NEW HIGH SCHOOL

Sandstone, Minn., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The fall term of school began Monday with the largest enrollment in the history of Sandstone's school. The addition to the building has just been completed and the grounds will soon be cleared of the rubbish accumulated during the building process.

Contractor E. O. Hanson is entitled to a great deal of credit for completing such a large building in such a short space of time from the day the contract was awarded him at the close of the spring term. The old part of the structure had to be practically rebuilt on account of the damage done by lightning a year ago. The new school building is the finest and best equipped school between the Head of the Lakes and the Twin Cities, with the exception of Cloquet, perhaps, and costs about $20,000. The dimensions are 66 by 136 feet, two stories high with a basement fitted for gymnasium, toilet rooms and all the modern conveniences. Several additional teachers are now on the pay roll. Following is the corps of instructors: Louis Anderson, superintendent; Sandstone, Elizabeth Andrews, principal; Minneapolis, United States High School, English and German; Marie Mahaffy, Minneapolis; Latin and commercial subjects, Lucie Souba, Hopkins; science and mathematics, Belle Robinson, Monmouth, Ill.; history and music, Clara Onsum, eighth grade; Duluth, Public High, seventh grade; Harmony, Doris Sell, sixth grade; Adrian, Mabel, fifth grade; Tracy, Rachel Webb, fourth grade; Sandstone, Esther Belmont, fourth and third grade; Roselund, Rosella, Gillespie, third grade; Minneapolis, Margaret Lindley, second grade; Sandstone, Mary Bell, second grade; Minneapolis, Rose Dietrich, first grade; St. Paul, Kate Younger, first grade; Duluth, William Coving, kindergarten; Jackson, Minn.

THIEF THOUGHT HE WOULD BE "PINCHED"

Stops as Officer Points a Pair of Plyers at Him.

Grand Forks, Minn., Sept. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Only a pair of plyers were necessary to stop Axel Johnson, claiming Duluth, Minn., as his home, from getting away with a quantity of plunder that he had removed from the W. J. Nell home in Grand Forks township, near this city. Constable Oat Hagen was giving Johnson chase when he suddenly pulled a pair of plyers from his pocket, pulled them out at the fleeing man, and threatening to shoot. This had the desired effect. Johnson turned back, still in his tracks and raising his hands high in the air.

Johnson was taken to court for a hearing. He was bound over to the grand jury. The plyers that were used with such good effect were made an exhibit in the case.

DYNAMITE HOUSE.

Attempt to Kill Master Mine Mechanic at Calumet Not Successful.

Calumet, Mich., Sept. 12.—An attempt to kill Frank Phillips, master mechanic of the Kearsarge mine, resulted unsuccessfully Sunday night. A charge of dynamite was placed under his house, the explosion smashing the windows and partly wrecking the dwelling. Phillips and his family escaped unhurt. The motive for the outrage is not known. The police have arrested two suspects.

ALLEGED LEPER IS CAUGHT IN NEW YORK.

New York, Sept. 12.—A man believed to be John Keenan, the Greek leper of Salt Lake City, who broke quarantine there, evaded interception in Chicago and escaped eastward, was arrested here yesterday as he was about to buy a ticket for Greece. He was taken to a city hospital to be held for examination by Dr. L. N. Lusk, the specialist in skin diseases. The man's appearance was hideous. "I know I'm leper," said the man, "but I don't know what is the matter with me, and none of the doctors I have asked in the last year and a half in the West have been able to tell me."

CHICAGO POSTAL RECEIPTS EXCEED THOSE IN NEW YORK.

Washington, Sept. 12.—During August, for the first time in the history of the postoffice department, Chicago surpassed New York city in gross postal receipts. Chicago's postal receipts last month aggregated $1,666,454, while for the same period New York's were $1,659,559 less. Postoffice officials figure that the increased revenues at Chicago are due to the very large mail order business by the merchants there. The increase of the postal business at the fifty largest postoffices in the country was 16 per cent better than during August of last year.

INSANITY WILL BE PLEA IN BEHALF OF CHANLER

Family of Cavalieri's Husband Maps Plan to Save His Cash.

New York, Sept. 12.—"Sheriff Bob" Chanler, probably the most sought for man in these United States since the story was told of the stripping of his income from him by his wife, Lina Cavalieri, is still in hiding. Members of his family, however, who, of course, know where he is, continue their conference in an endeavor to find a remedy for the situation in which the mad infatuation of the millionaire for the opera singer has placed him. From these conferences there were little outcroppings of rumor. One story was that the family and the six trustees of the property of the amateur politician and artist had decided definitely not to honor the agreement made by the love-maddened "Sheriff Bob."

All the securities and real estate holdings of the family are in this country, and should the Chanlers refuse to pay over the $100,000 a year income, Cavalieri would have to come to this country to compel the carrying out of the agreement.

It was strongly rumored today that the family and the trustees had decided to wait until the diva should attempt such action before moving. In fact, it was asserted that the family had even decided upon a defense in case the singer should sue, and this sort rises up in scorn. He is guilty of bad sportsmanship. He has had his ring and is not willing to pay for it. Bah! he is a tradesman!

I believe Chanler is stunned by the crash of the ideal little world he had built up—the dreams of love in a little universe where he moved in his imagination as a great artist, side by side with a great opera singer, but he will wake up soon, and when he does I predict that he will strenuously combat any project of going to court and trying to back out of what he has done. I think he will be perfectly willing to shrug his shoulders and pay for his experience.

"Singer's Wide Experience." When Lina Cavalieri, whose debut was made in a safe, plus her arms about the neck of Robert Winthrop Chanler and induced him to sign away his annual income she brought to bear upon him a world of experience. Chanler, he could not have understood, for Cavalieri has seldom come off the worst in an encounter, and "Sheriff Bob" is not the first man who has left her side penniless and disillusioned. There are at least two men in the world, and possibly others, who have occasion to regret knowing her and who have fled or been forced into exile because of that acquaintance.

It was only in 1895 that Cavalieri was a milliner—a step upward from the barbed flower girl—in Rome, with vaudeville aspirations. She made her real debut in vaudeville at the Orfeo in Rome. There the Marquis Carlo di Rodini, so of an ex-premier of Italy, saw her and became her "protector." She was sent to school and her voice was cultivated. Within six months from the night of her opening song she had horses, carriages and liveried servants.

Victim's Father Acts. But the father of the young nobleman took legal steps. A guardian was appointed, and "Sheriff Bob" was sent to France. Barolinsky, a Russian of a good home.

Immediately after the marriage there was a period of retirement for "the most beautiful woman in Europe." She was studying and making herself fit for her position as a princess. It was said. She was also preparing herself for grand opera.

Next came a visit to Lisbon with the prince. At the Theater Royal there she made her debut in grand opera as Nedda in "I Pagliacci." Cavalieri was young, nervous and inexperienced. The company was driven from the stage. There was rioting in front of the curtain and bitter words back of it.

Cowboy—More Cowdy. Amid these surroundings the prince and Cavalieri spoke their words of parting. Cavalieri returned to Paris, where she had the satisfaction of seeing the home of the prince sold under the hammer to pay his debts.

But Cavalieri still was found of Russian nobles. The Grand Duke Alexis, uncle of the czar, was seen much in the singer's carriages when he visited Paris. Then followed a visit to Russia by her. Paris gossiped over that visit. The boulevards chattered that Lina had met in exile Prince Louis Bonaparte, who wished to be emperor of the French. It also would appear that he became ardently in love with the singer. On her departure for Paris he said: "Adieu! We shall meet in that Paris which shall be our home." The words were taken to indicate that a revolution was being planned.

Such were taken to indicate that a revolution was being planned. Such were taken to indicate that a revolution was being planned. Such were taken to indicate that a revolution was being planned.

There were more than 150 veterans of the two wars present. A part of the evening was spent in telling stories of both wars.

It took two street cars loaded to the doors to carry the crowd to the rendezvous on the shore. The Grand Army drum corps played several numbers. A

WASHINGTON MAN ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE ORDER.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 12.—The following officers of the convoked Order of Hoo Hoo were elected just before the close of the annual convention of the order: H. J. Miller, index, Wash. president; A. J. Webb, Grand Rapids, Mich., senior Hoo Hoo; G. A. Griswold, Portland, Or., junior Hoo Hoo; A. J. Russell, San Francisco, bojun; Charles P. Walker, Oklahoma City, jabberwock; W. C. Shupe, Philadelphia, cistacean; J. F. Judd, St. Louis, arconopter; T. H. Calhoun, Beach, Ga., jester (re-elected). The next meeting of the order will be held in one of the cities of the Great Lakes.

HOO-HOOS COMING TO LAKES.

John D. Phay, Genl. Cleveland, Sept. 12.—Persistent reports us to the ill-health of John D. Rockefeller were contradicted yesterday when the oil magnate appeared on the golf links at Forest Hill, his summer home, and for over two hours played his favorite game.

NAGEL IS SUGGESTED FOR SUPREME COURT.

Washington, Sept. 12.—The name of Secretary Charles Nagel of the department of commerce and labor, has replaced that of the late Solicitor General Lloyd W. Bowers in the gossip of Washington regarding the expected appointments to the present and prospective vacancies in the supreme court of the United States. It has been almost taken for granted that Mr. Bowers would be appointed to one of them. In the absence from Washington of both President Taft and Secretary Nagel, the subject must remain one of gossip.

LOTTIE E. GILSON IS IN SORE STRAITS.

New York, Sept. 12.—Lottie F. Gilson, an old-time favorite on the vaudeville stage, was taken to Bellevue hospital last night from a lodging house seriously ill with gastritis and neuritis. She had no money to pay her room rent or for provisions.

LINA CAVALIERI.

defense would be emotional insanity. The family was not content with the story that the ex-sheriff had been "sweet off his feet by his love for the opera singer. At the right moment Cavalieri, who had dealt with great profit to herself, invited men since the days in Rome when the son of an ex-premier of Italy offered her his "protection," but her arms about the neck and coaxed. In a moment of emotional inactivity akin to Harry Thaw's "brainstorm," the Anglo-Saxon succumbed to the Latin. Such is the defense as outlined in press quarters today.

Meantime the needs of Chanler were revealing, consideration from friends today. The former sheriff was not entirely moneyless. It was pointed out. There is still due him half a year's salary with the fees of the office—not so large as those in New York county, but still enough to help the ex-sheriff of Dutchess county a little way on his road. After this is gone there are the resources of the Chanler family.

William Astor Chanler and Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, it is said, will help their brother. So will his sister, Mrs. John J. Chapman and Mrs. Richard Aldrich. Indeed, it is not improbable that John Armstrong Chanler, the brother in Virginia, who is sane legally there and insane in this state, would contribute, despite the fact that his feeling against his brothers has been so bitter that he has changed his name. But the greatest obstacle to a fight, friends of the ex-sheriff say, does not lie in the finding of a strong defense or the means to carry on a legal fight, but in a possible attitude of the young artist himself.

"Chanler, as an art student, lived long enough abroad to appreciate the European attitude in such affairs," said a close friend today. "The European who has been duped by a woman smiles. It is his unkindly smile, for he has simply failed in love, which is the greatest European game. That is to say, he shrugs his shoulders and does not go to law. If one does go to law the whole European world of a certain

POINDEXTER SWEEPS WASHINGTON IN THE SENATORIAL PRIMARY

Insurgents Win Great Victory Over Standpat Republicans.

Humphrey's Defeat Still Is in Doubt—Two Cannon Men Beaten.

Guernsey May Have Lost in the Election in Maine.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 14.—In the insurgent storm that swept over the state of Washington yesterday, the old guard of the Republican party lost nearly everything. Miles PoinDEXTER, of Spokane, insurgent leader in the present house, to defeat whom advisers of the president of the United States lent their advice to the "regular" Republicans, was nominated for United States senator by 40,000 plurality, carrying every county in the state.

In the Second, or Tacoma district, Congressman W. W. McCredie, owner of the Portland baseball club, "standpater," was beaten by Stanton Warburton, insurgent.

In the Third, or Spokane district, William La Follette of Pullman, insurgent, a heavy favorite, was nominated.

Maine Surely Democratic.

Torland, Me., Sept. 14.—According to complete unofficial returns of the vote for senators and representatives in the state election Monday the legislature will have a Democratic majority of thirty-six on joint ballot. The senate will consist of twenty Democrats and ten Republicans, while the house will have eighty-eight Democrats and sixty-three Republicans.

The last legislature consisted of 121 Republicans and fifty-nine Democrats, the Republicans having a majority of fifteen in the senate and forty-nine in the house.

Practically complete returns on the vote of the state of New York, local optionist, has received the Democratic nomination, equivalent to election, for governor of South Carolina. Returns from yesterday's primary received up to noon today showed that out of a total vote for governor of about 105,000, a little more than 50,000 votes have been heard from, and of these probably 30,000 are for Blewett, as against 45,000 for C. C. Featherson, prohibitionist.

Congressman J. O. Ellerbe of the sixth district is nominated for re-election. Congressman J. O. Patterson of the second district and his opponent, J. E. Byrnes, are close together with Byrnes claiming a bare majority.

ONE KILLED IN MINE EXPLOSION

Three Hundred Men Escape Disaster in Indiana Workings.

Linton, Ind., Sept. 14.—One dead, one fatally injured and five seriously hurt is the result of a gas explosion caused by a miner's defective lamp in Vandalia mine No. 10, nine miles from here, today. There were 300 men at work, but they had been changed to another part of the mine this morning, and this fact alone probably prevented a fearful disaster.

Andrew Baxter is dead, David Reese is lying at the point of death with fractured skull, and W. C. Beatty, Charles Young, Ora Parks, Frank Stewart and George E. Ross are seriously burned.

The mine did not catch fire.

TRAIN HITS HACK.

Gates Not Lowered at Crossing When Freight Passes.

Bismarck, N. D., Sept. 14.—A stock train going at least fifteen miles an hour through the city yesterday forenoon, struck a horse driven by Hans Olson. The hack was destroyed, one horse killed and the other injured so it will have to be killed. Olson had leg and arm broken. The accident occurred at a crossing where gates are operated but for some reason the gates were not lowered.

Will Meet in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 14.—The next convention of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway association will be held here Nov. 25 and 26, according to an announcement made today by President W. K. Kavanaugh.

NAMED FOR SENATOR FROM WASHINGTON

MILES POINDEXTER, Leader of Insurgent Republicans in the House of Representatives, Who Was Nominated for Senator in the Washington Primaries by 40,000 Plurality. He Carried Every County in the State.

SAY WILSON HAS VOTES

Princeton Man's Friends Claim He Will Be Candidate for Governor.

Stokes Leads in the Primary Vote for Senator-ship.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 14.—Returns of yesterday's primaries in New Jersey indicate that former Governor Edward C. Stokes won over former Governor Franklin Murphy in the contest for the Republican endorsement for United States senator.

Friends of Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton university, claim that he will have 1,000 of the 1,400 delegates in tomorrow's Democratic state convention and that he will be the party's choice for governor.

Virgil M. Lewis ran a nearly even district and undoubtedly will be the Republican candidate for governor. The convention will meet next Tuesday.

Some Heavy Voting.

The vote in Essex county and in Hudson county, which includes Jersey City, was very heavy and the voters as a rule expressed their preference for Wilson.

NEW MINISTER ON WAY TO PANAMA

Dawson Will Tell Estrada About Claims Against Nicaragua.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Thomas C. Dawson, the newly appointed minister to Panama, accompanied by Charles Campbell, Jr., who is to be the secretary of legation at Panama, left Washington this morning for New York, where they will take ship tomorrow for Colon. Mr. Dawson will spend a few days on the isthmus looking into the situation there, following the change in the presidential office. He will then proceed on a naval vessel from Panama to Corinto, and by rail from there to Managua, to meet Acting President Estrada, with whom an special commissioner from the United States, he will take up the settlement of claims against Nicaragua.

WANT THEOLOGUE FOR GIRL'S DEATH

Missouri Divinity Student Concerned in Fate of Typist.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 14.—A warrant charging Karl Bickel, a divinity student of this city, with manslaughter in connection with the death of Frances Peters, aged 20 years, a typist, who succumbed to mercurial poisoning in a hospital here last night, was issued by the authorities of Johnson county Kan. today. Bickel, who is 22 years old, has not yet been located by the officers.

ZEPPELIN VI DESTROYED

Latest of Famous Series of Airships Ruined by Explosion.

Accident Halts Tourist Passenger Service—Three Men Hurt.

Baden Baden, Sept. 14.—The German dirigible balloon Zeppelin VI, while entering her shed today, was blown up by an explosion of the motor in the rear gondola. Three of the airship's crew were seriously injured.

The defective motor had been operating as usual when suddenly the crew were whirled from their posts in their rear gondola as the craft trembled and lurched. There was a sharp report, a flash of flame and in a moment the immense fabric of silk canvass was afire. The crew, hardly realizing what had happened, tumbled over the sides of the airship, barely escaping with their lives.

The fire spread so rapidly that the shed was soon destroyed.

This is the fifth serious accident which has befallen the Zeppelin dirigibles, the histories of which have been brilliant but brief and usually ending in disaster.

The Zeppelin VI was under charter of the Passenger Airship company, having been replaced in the passenger service by the recently wrecked Deutschland. She was transferred from Friedrichshafen to this place, and after being fitted with improved propellers and other new features made a trial trip on Aug. 19. She proved to be the speediest of her type and it was announced that she would maintain a speed of thirty-eight miles an hour.

In Tourist Service.

The dirigible was reconstructed to carry ten passengers and during the last few days had made trips to various interesting places. Many Americans were among the excursionists. Baron Rudolph Goldschmidt-Rothschild (Continued on page 5, first column.)

WOULD CANCEL PATENT TREATY

German Manufacturers Not Suited With American Agreement.

Mannheim, Germany, Sept. 14.—The Association of West German Manufacturers has adopted resolutions calling on the government to give notice to the United States of the termination of the patent agreement made Feb. 23, 1909, on the ground that the same is detrimental to the interests of German inventors, patent owners and German industrial establishments generally, or to pass a revised patent law, which shall deprive Americans of certain privileges they now enjoy under the international agreement.

IT WOULD ALWAYS SEEM EARLY FOR SOME PEOPLE.

GAINS POINT FOR CRIPPEN

Counsel Makes Witness Admit Sex of Victim Is Not Established.

Government May Be Unable to Prove Belle Elmore's Death.

London, Sept. 14.—Testifying at the resumption today of the Crippen murder trial, Prof. Augustus J. Pepper, pathologist of the University of London, admitted under cross-examination that he had been unable to establish the sex of the victim.

He said his examination had convinced him that the human parts found in the cellar of the Hilldrop Crescent home were severed by a hand skilled in surgery and directed by a mind that possessed a real knowledge of anatomy.

The evidence of the medical experts has been awaited with eagerness and the famous little courtroom in Bow street was crowded.

The prisoners in the dock presented contrasting appearances. Dr. Hawley Harvey Crippen, who is charged as the principal in the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore, the American actress, was seemingly as cool and collected as ever. He did not miss a word of testimony and eagerly whispered to his solicitor, Arthur Newton, whenever he thought he had detected a point in his favor.

Miss Leneve Distressed.

On the other hand, Ethel Clare Leneve (Continued on page 10, fourth column.)

FLORIDA READY FOR LIQUOR FIGHT

Local Optionists and Prohibitionists Will Clash Over Issue.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 14.—A campaign to determine whether Florida shall have state wide prohibition will begin here tomorrow, with the assembly of two state conventions, the local optionists, opposed to the state-wide principle, and the prohibitionists, favoring it. Upon the results of the campaign depends the question whether the entire southeastern corner of the United States shall be "wet" or "dry."

JESUITS ARE TOLD TO GO

Portugal Expels Occupants of Monastery—Warned Not to Return.

Head of Spanish Deputies Says Premier Is Gaining Power.

Lisbon, Sept. 14.—The monastery of the Spanish Jesuits at Aldeia-Fonte has been closed by a government decree and the Jesuits expelled from the country. The latter are warned that if they return to Portugal they will be arrested.

Canalejas Gaining Power.

Madrid, Sept. 14.—Count Romanones, president of the Spanish chamber of deputies, is quoted in an interview today as declaring that the policies of Premier Canalejas are daily gaining adherents among the adversaries of the government, as the country is convinced that he is working for the best interests of the nation.

The count thinks that Spain would be emancipated from "fanatical clericalism," which he says has for centuries weighed heavily upon it. The struggle is not against Catholicism, but against clericalism which is impeding the industrial and commercial development of Spain and mingling in politics.

Stick to Padlock Bill.

At the opening of the Cortes, Canalejas, according to the president, will announce an unmodified continuation of his legislative program. The "padlock bill," prohibiting the creation of further religious establishments until the revision of the concordat has been completed or a definite law on the subject has been passed, which measure is opposed by the Vatican, will not be withdrawn, but on the contrary, the senate will resume its discussion of the legislation.

BADGER FARMER'S WIFE MURDERED

Employee Kills Her With Shotgun and Commits Suicide.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 14.—An Evening Wisconsin special from Oshkosh, Wis., says:

Mrs. Louisa Edwards, wife of Ira Edwards, who conducts a farm at Black Wolf Point, four miles east of Van Dyne, was brutally murdered in a fit of jealousy last night.

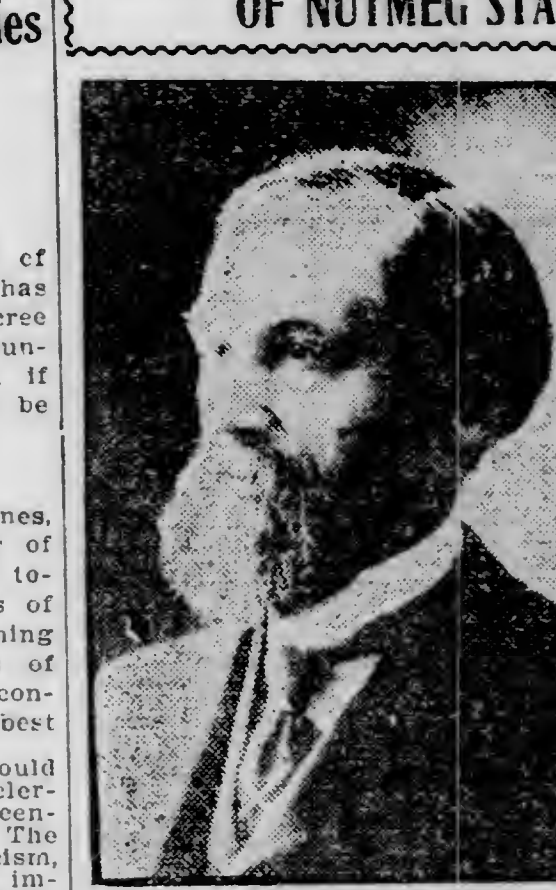

After a quarrel, the husband, a farm hand, who followed up the crime by blowing out his brains.

Kuenzel, who came here some time ago from Buffalo, N. Y., fired the contents of a shotgun into the woman's neck at a distance of about five feet.

No cause for the double tragedy is known. It is believed that Kuenzel, in a fit of jealousy, thirsted for blood and committed the murder, and then fearing apprehension, committed suicide.

ASSESSMENT OF ALL BIG CORPORATIONS RAISED BY BOARD

MAY BE GOVERNOR OF NUTMEG STATE

JUDGE SIMEON E. BALDWIN.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 14.—Simeon E. Baldwin of this city has been nominated for governor of Connecticut. Judge Baldwin is a lawyer and a member of the faculty of the Yale law school since 1893. He was chief justice of the supreme court of Connecticut and has been president of the American Bar association and other national organizations.

Not only did the board raise the assessments of the mercantile concerns, but it boosted the assessment on the land owned by the steel corporation up the river. The land directly beneath and owned by the steel company will later be equalized to conform with the assessment put upon steel company's property. This land was assessed at from $10 to $30 an acre by the city assessor. It is now assessed at $50 per acre, or from three to six times over the former assessment.

The board is evidently planning a wholesale revision of the figures of the city assessor for it became known at this morning's meeting that all the property on Michigan, Superior, First and Second streets, between Seventh and Eighth streets, will be equalized. The list and the figures have been prepared but the owners will have a chance to appear before the board and show cause why their assessment should not be raised before the final action is taken.

There is but little time left to make the changes on the assessment books. In order to get the books completed in time to collect the taxes Jan. 1, the work has to be rushed with all possible speed.

Railroad Property.

A resolution which called to the attention of the board the fact that many tracts of land have up to this morning been marked exempt upon the tax rolls by the city assessor under the claim that they are the property of the railroads which pay a gross earnings tax, and suggesting that the city assessor be requested yesterday afternoon, by George Kuenzel, a farm hand, who followed up the crime by blowing out his brains.

Kuenzel, who came here some time ago from Buffalo, N. Y., fired the contents of a shotgun into the woman's neck at a distance of about five feet.

No cause for the double tragedy is known. It is believed that Kuenzel, in a fit of jealousy, thirsted for blood and committed the murder, and then fearing apprehension, committed suicide.

Street Railway Company's Figures Boosted Above $1,000,000 Mark.

Elevators, Breweries and Coal Companies All Feel Board's Hand.

Steel Plant Site Figures More Than Tripled—Vacant Railroad Land.

At the meeting held this morning at the courthouse, the board of equalization raised the assessment of practically every wholesale house, brewery, coal company, elevator, and grain company. A number of the lumber companies also had their assessment raised over the figures presented by the city assessor, and the raises make up in great part for the very apparent shortage in the assessor's totals.

THE REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

Some Brief Interviews on Live Topics With Duluthians and Their Guests.

LIKELY PLACE FOR HINDOO COLONIES.

All at Singh, a distinguished looking man who spent an hour or more in-structing the new Soo depot this morn- ing, between trains, says that this part of the country appeals very strongly to him as an ideal place for Hindoo colonies.

Mr. Singh, who asked innumerable questions about the new depot and the importance of Duluth from a Duluthian's point of view, proved tractable enough when the tables were reversed and answered questions freely.

"Seven years ago I came to America from India," he said, "I was one of the earliest of the natives of India to seek a new home and a wider freedom in this country. The English domina- tion of India has worked harm to us, although without English rule India might be less advanced now than it is, I admit. But now that my people are so far advanced as to be fitted for civic duties and responsibilities, we are denied the voice in the government of our own land to which we are, as a matter of justice, entitled."

"It is a great regret I feel because of the attitude of your people toward mine, we are not Chinese nor Jap- anese. We are of that great race that has made of India for centuries the most gorgeous empire humanity has ever created—not warships and bombs, and politics, but a wondrously enthralling land."

"I live now in Chicago and New York. Yes, when I came to this coun- try from Vancouver I had not an anna-but to buy food for one more meal. This is a great country, for I am rich."

BUSINESS BETTER THAN LAST YEAR.

Mart Adson, general passenger agent of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroad, who leaves for Montreal, Bos- ton and New York tonight on a busi- ness trip, said this morning that busi- ness on his road this year is better now than it was at this time last year, and last year was an exceptionally good one.

"We certainly have no reason to find anything but satisfaction in the busi- ness situation," said Mr. Adson. "There are no indications of any pending change that can be harmful. The traf- fic is steady, with here and there an exceptional amount of business, but the volume of it all is somewhat greater than it was a year ago."

"My trip East is to be made because business engagements require it. I will be away for a week or ten days."

ST. LOUIS COUNTY AND HER EXHIBITS.

Bishop McGolrick said today that it is his regret that the people of Duluth who did not go to the state fair last week will have no opportu- nity to see the excellent exhibit sent to St. Paul by St. Louis county.

"People here in Duluth are not ac- quainted with what has been done to- ward making this part of the state strong agriculturally," said the bishop. "The difficulty now is that there is no place available for setting up the St. Louis county exhibit in Duluth. It will be possible to make a partial dis- play here, but it will be lacking in that completeness and perfect detail which made the county's showing at the fair so strikingly effective."

"We must see what we can do to- ward getting the range exhibit that was shown at the St. Louis exposition and at Washington returned to Du- luth. It is now in a back room in the basement of the capitol at St. Paul, useless there for any purpose. That exhibit is a very valuable one, one that gives an education in itself. I be- lieve that Duluth is the place where it should be installed, permanently. Its educational value would be especially important to our high school pupils. We must see if we cannot have it re- turned to Duluth. It is well worth en- joying given a permanent and prominent place."

EUROPE OVERRUN WITH AMERICANS.

Dr. J. D. Budd, chief surgeon of the Duluth & Iron Range road, accompa- nied by his daughter, Miss Lella M. Budd, returned to Duluth today from a three months' European tour, leaving here this afternoon for Two Harbors.

"The number of Americans in Europe this year," said Dr. Budd, "Every- where during our journey about the continent we encountered people from this country. Our trip was very en- joyable and we were well satisfied with our experience."

"We made the southern tour, visiting the Mediterranean countries first, with a party of twenty-one persons, under the guidance of Prof. C. C. Parlin of Wausau, president of the Northwestern Teachers' association, who is admi- nistratively qualified to serve his fellow travelers in that capacity."

"The most interesting things we saw I play, not having expected to see so finished a production in such an out of the way place. I am convinced now that it would be well worth while pay- ing the cost of going there if one saw nothing else but the passion play."

"On the British Isles we found much to interest us, the scenes of Scott's novels being particularly attractive. It was indeed an enjoyable and profitable trip."

TO BE USED AT COUNTY FAIR

County's Exhibit at State Fair Will Be Sent to Hibbing.

A big delegation of Hibbing people headed by County Commissioner F. J. Ryan arrived in the city this morning to do what they can towards getting the St. Louis county exhibit that was used at the state fair, for exhibition purposes at the St. Louis county fair which takes place at Hibbing next week.

"Oh, you want it for the Hibbing fair," said one to a member of the delegation.

"I should say not," answered several of the delegation together, "we want it for the St. Louis county fair which will be held at Hibbing."

The delegation visited L. B. Arnold, C. P. Craig and the committee at the Commercial club which had in charge the exhibit. It is expected that the range men will get the exhibit, which they will return this city for exhibi- tion purposes here.

A special space has been provided for the exhibit, and while it is not as large as it should be, there is plenty of room for the exhibit, and the delegates say it is all they care about. It is probable, however, that the entire exhibit consisting of paintings and food products will be sent.

PARTS OF BODY IN EAST RIVER

New York Has What May Prove Another Murder Mystery.

New York, Sept. 14.—What gave in- dications of proving possibly another murder mystery to add to New York's long list was developed today by the discovery of portions of a mutilated human body in the East river.

The portions, which were not num- erous enough to admit of one deter- mining what the body was, consisted of a man or a woman, were wrapped in paper and were floating in the river off the foot of Duane street.

A silk handkerchief with the initial "J." and strips of a blue and white shirt found in the package, afforded the only clues in the case.

SUPERIOR

SUPERIOR WOMAN HEIR TO FORTUNE

Wealthy Michigan Lum- berman Leaves Wealth to Sister, Mrs. M. O'Hara.

Mrs. Margaret O'Hara of 1902 Thir- teenth street today received word from Potosky, Mich., that she had fallen heir to a considerable fortune by the death of Anthony McMan, a millionaire lumberman of that place.

Mrs. O'Hara is a sister and although there are others to share his fortune, it is understood that she will receive the largest part of the estate. The exact amount is still undetermined.

Mr. McMan was one of the wealth- iest lumbermen in Michigan and was counted among the millionaires of the state.

HOME FOR FEEBLE-MINDED.

Superior Will Offer Tract as a Site for $200,000 Institution.

Superior may get the new state home for the feeble minded.

President Elmer A. Grinner of the state board of control states that the board is open to offers of tracts of land for a site. The board desires 600 acres.

The city and county officials will get together at once on the propo- sition and make an offer to the board of control. In the event of the erection of a feeble minded home in Douglas county near Superior, it would mean an expenditure of about $200,000.

The feeble minded home at Chip- pewa Falls is over-taxed and this is one of the reasons for erecting a new home.

SAY CITY SHOULD OWN DOCK AND HARBOR FRONT.

W. C. Lounsbury, chemist of the Superior Water, Light & Power com- pany, was the principal speaker last evening at a mass meeting held at the Commercial club for the purpose of discussing the city dock proposition.

That the city is in urgent need of a municipal dock and harbor frontage owned exclusively by the municipality, was the belief of those present. All who spoke went on record as favor- ing the building of the dock, but there was much discussion as to the prop- er site.

GRIDIRON PROSPECTS.

Blaine Football Team Crippled, But Alumni Will Be Best Ever.

Owing to the fact that several of the gridiron stars formerly with the Blaine team will not return to school this fall, it is probable that the high school squad this year will not come up to last year's standard, at least in the early part of the season.

Among those who are expected to return when school opens at the new building next Monday, are: Captain William Clarke, William Bradley, Dick Bradley and Waldemar Burns.

The Blaine Alumni football aggre- gation will be stronger than ever this year.

Dr. David August, former star fullback of the Northwestern university team, and Captain Arthur Buchanan, a former star fullback, will be out- lined in the game after being out for a couple of years.

A meeting will be held in the near future to elect a captain and manager.

The Tower Clothing Football team has appeared on the field this season. The lineup has been arranged with Louis Branca as coach. Manager Donovan is now looking for games.

Open Market Changes.

At a meeting of directors of the Twin Ports Open Market association yesterday, Judge F. A. Ross, tendered his resignation as a director and T. F. Solon as manager. No successor was appointed for Mr. Ross, but W. E. Kel- log of Solon Springs was named as manager. He will have his son, Carl, as an assistant.

Stein Club Parties.

The Superior Stein club is planning on a series of dances this winter and invitations for the first affair, which will take place Sept. 23, have been is- sued. There will be special decora- tions for the opening affair. A num- ber of parties were given last fall by the club and proved most enjoyable affairs.

Forgery Is Charged.

Charged with forging his father's name to a half dozen checks, both in Superior and Two Harbors, John An- derson was arrested today by local police and he will be taken by Sheriff Nelson to Two Harbors this evening, where he will be arraigned tomor- row. It is claimed that there were six checks, varying from $15 to $20 each.

J. B. Gidding & Co.

"Correct Dress for Women."

Fall Coats and Dresses of Worthy Quality, $25 to $35

THE reputation of the Gidding store for excellence of quality and correctness of style, is firmly established! We cherish the reputation, and are constantly striving to retain and promote it. We are accustomed to the demands of "Fashion-Educated" Women, and deal only with Makers of Highest Repute. But a prob- lem that requires experience, knowledge and calculation, is the problem of crowding a maximum amount of quality, into a minimum price, or in other words the bringing of the regular high-standard Gidding Garments within the reach of eco- nomical non-extravagant women. This we have accom- plished with an astonishing degree of success, and the following are slight hints on the fruits of our labors in this direction.

Coats:

There is no trace of exaggeration in the statement, that we have a Liberal Selection of Better Looking and Better Quality Coats at Popular Prices, than we have ever before seen. The best selections range from $25.00 to $35.00. Other lines at $15.00 and up.

Styles and Materials are too numerous for detail—but there are Lapel, Russian, Military and Shawl-Collared effects, in a multitude of styles, but each with its shapely back, which is the pride of the Gidding Coat—Plain Tailored Style, Braid Trimmed Styles—coats with large heavy Frogs across the front, and Fancy Cut or "Combination-Cloth" Styles—in all Fashionable Materials, such as Zibelines, Snow-Flake Materials, Chain and Basket Weaves, Scotch Tweeds, Diagonal-Cheviots, Boucle Materials, Pebble Cheviots, and Fine Broadcloths in Plain Colors and Mixtures, or Nobby Mannish effects. (Special Styles for Elderly Ladies or Stout Figures.)

Dresses:

Simple Tailored Styles, made for Re- fined Taste and Practical Good Wear.

One might go a whole day's journey to find a dress, more individual looking and more in keeping with Style and Good Looks, than the Plain Tailored Black Voile, made with or with- out Taffeta-Band Trimming, and with or without fancy Lace Yoke and lower-sleeves—which we show at $25.00 and $29.50. Another Nobby Dress, is a handsomely Tailored Fine French Serge, made very plain, except for numerous rows of soutache braid trimming the Belt, Collar, Sleeves and Yoke of the Waist and Skirt. Price $25.00.

There are scores of other styles, and among them are many pretty and modest variations of the New Skirt, with the Banded Bottom. Prices $29.50, $32.50 and $35.00.

Other Dresses at $19.50 and up.

Tomorrow We Will Announce the Opening of This New Store

CARLOADS of the finest mer- chandise ever brought into Duluth is now being unpacked and marked at prices that will surprise the shoppers of this City.

NO WORD YET FROM SEARCHING PARTY.

The party which is out in the woods searching for Alex Glenn, who may have been lost, has not been heard from. The party is under the leadership of Alex McDonald and a brother of Alex Glenn's is with them. Glenn went to look over land in the vicinity of the Spring Branch road east of Mesaba. The woods about that point are very dense and swampy. The party has been out two days. Glenn has been missing for over three weeks. He expected to be gone but one day on the trip from which he has not yet returned.

NOT GUILTY IS HIS PLEA

Serafin Petros Arraigned on Charge of First Degree Murder.

Accused of Shooting and Killing Shipmate on James Corrigan.

Serafin Petros pleaded not guilty to murder in the first degree this morning when arraigned before Judge William A. Cant of the district court. Petros was indicted by the September grand jury on a charge of shooting John Hendrickson on board the steamer James Corrigan, July 31. The trouble between Petros and Hendrickson began when both were off on shore leave. They were both in the boat and on their way back to the ship when the trouble first started. Some one claimed that Petros should do the rowing and he insisted that he was off duty. It was not his place to work. He claims that for this he was thrown into the bay. The rest of the men in the boat apparently thought it was a good joke and after all was over they shook hands all around. It was evidently forgotten for the time being. As soon as the Corrigan was reached, Petros is said to have walked the entire length of the boat, a distance of several hundred feet to his bunk, which was forward. There he is said to have obtained possession of his gun. He then walked, it is claimed, back to the engine room. Here he kicked out a glass window and pointing his gun through the open space, fired and hit Hendrickson, who died a few days later. After the shooting Petros is said to have gone to the captain and admitted the crime.

NOTES OF BOYS' DEPARTMENT

Friday night will mark the formal opening of the fall activities of the boys' department. The outing committee met last evening and arranged for the annual fall automobile ride which will leave the boys' building at 7:30 sharp. In all the past trips there have always been more boys to go than machines. This year the committee will plan to accommodate 100 boys, but the names must be handed in not later than Friday noon. After the ride, refreshments will be served. The autos for the occasion are loaned to the club. The committee in charge is Duncan Frick, Russell Duncan, Robert Ker, Warren Moore, Eugene Rice and Kimball Pinkenstead. The Sunday club committee met yesterday and arranged for the opening meeting for next Sunday at 4:30. W. C. East will be in charge of the opening address. Luncheon will be served at 5:30. All boys in the city are cordially invited. The committee in charge of the club is Glen Merritt, Palmer Levin, Walter Vander, David Cook, David Waniess and Chauncey Carpenter. The Knights of St. Galahad committee will meet Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The orchestra will be Sunday at 3 o'clock. The music committee met Monday, and the members are busy organizing a mandolin club, any boy who can play an instrument is invited to join the club. The orchestra will also be organized. Other committees have arranged for meetings, and a week from Friday the annual fall conference will be held at which time the policies of the year's work will be read.

him with failing to support her and their three sons, Martin, 13 years old; George, 15 years old; and Henry, 17 years old. He entered a plea of not guilty and will be tried Saturday morning. He was released on $25 bail. It was stated in court this morning that he has been arrested before on the same charge.

Paying Wheelage Tax. Following the announcement of the notice that the legal department will take steps to enforce collection of the wheelage tax, the city clerk yesterday issued fifteen licenses, collecting about $100. Several of the larger owners of vehicles have declared their intention of contesting the legality of the tax in the courts, but as yet have taken no positive action.

Arrested for Stealing Ride. Dan York, a teamster, was arrested by George Ness, a railroad special officer, on the Duluth, Missabe & Northern tracks near West Duluth this morning, charged with trespass. He was stealing a ride and when the officer told him to "buck" he was arraigned in police court as yet.

New Assessor Takes Oath. J. Allyn Scott, the newly appointed city assessor, took his oath of office yesterday afternoon at the office of City Clerk H. W. Cheadle. His bonds were accepted by the council Monday night and he will likely take up his duties tomorrow.

Will Welcome Cardinal. Bishop McClellan of the Duluth diocese will go to St. Paul in about a week to join the national convention of the Catholic hierarchy. The distinguished prelate's visit to St. Paul will be the occasion for the gathering of a large number of Roman Catholic clergymen of the archdiocese.

Accuses Roommate of Theft. Tony Dillen, 17 years old, who is arrested this morning on the complaint of Julius Zohma, who claims that Dillen stole $10 from him while the latter was sleeping at the Bethel last evening. Dillen is charged with larceny. He has not been arraigned in police court as yet.

New Farmers' Club. At Berner, Clearwater county, about twenty-five miles north of Fosston, a farmers' club has been organized and it has become a part of the Farmers' Co-operative Market Association of Duluth. N. J. Jensen is secretary of the club. This organization is about as far away from the Duluth market as the fact that it is expected that butlers will be coming in from there soon.

See Potato Demonstration. After the meeting of the board of directors of the Commercial club today, a number of members of the board went to the county poor farm to see the potato demonstration under direction of Prof. Cooper. The expectation was that the event would attract a large number of persons interested in agricultural development.

Sues on Contract. Magnus Peters filed suit in district court today against the Vermilion Lumber company for $415, which he claims to be due him on a logging contract which the company made with him in 1908.

Charges Cruel Treatment. A summons and complaint were filed in district court today in a divorce action, the note of issue in which was filed in January of this year. The action is brought by Nellie M. Christie against John Christie, Jr. She claims that they were married in Indianapolis, Ind., and had lived together until Jan. 1, 1909, when she says she was forced to leave him on account of cruel and inhuman treatment. She asks for a divorce and custody of the one child, David, born Sept. 16, 1907.

Recover for Drill Work. For diamond and churn drill work, Edward Park and Alex D. Cummings will pay to Thomas and Martin Moe $2,300. The action has been going on before Judge Dibel of the district court since the first of this month. The drill concern sued for $3,871.75.

Wants Pay for Potatoes. Before Judge Dibel of the district court Charles Batcher is trying to recover $44.60 from the Minnesota Fruit company for 2,465 bushels of potatoes he claims to have sold to them during the fall of 1909. He was to have received 30 cents a bushel for them, but the commission company refused to accept them claiming that they had been frozen.

Opening Display and Sale of the New Winter Flannels

The exhibit has attracted a good deal of attention these past few days. The entire Wash Goods Section is given over to the showing. The fuzzy warmth of the fabrics reminds one that the chill of winter is coming.

"Viyella Flannels"

Are the chief center of interest—England's finest all-wool Flannel, guaranteed absolutely fast colors and unshrinkable. Viyella is the kind you have seen advertised so many times in journals and magazines. A multitude of light and dark grounds, stripes and checks—will make warm frocks, knickerbockers, night dresses, pajamas and outer shirts; shown likewise in bonnie plaids for school dresses. The stuff is 32 inches wide and 85c a yard.

Bath Robing An elaborate display of foreign Bath robing, in a medley of figures, with unique and pleasing borders, at 39c yard—some without borders, at 35c. Cords and tassels to match each piece. The patterns can well be characterized as "quick"—the kind you won't readily tire of.

Kimono Merrimac and Velvet Velour Kimona Flannel nels for women and children—About 300 pieces to select from—exceedingly handsome patterns. The color shades, in many Egyptian, Persian and other Oriental designs—all we ask is that you look over the collection, 15c yard.

New Wash Goods Recent Arrivals are plain silk and cotton Tissues, as well as lovely dotted patterns, suitable for afternoon and evening frocks, 25c yard; an extensive assortment of new plaid ginghams, 15c; Fall shipment of dark and light percales, 36 inches wide, and 15c yard; recent Poplin arrivals, absolutely fast colors, at 35c yard.

Extra Special To get you acquainted with the merits of our Autumn Flannels we place on sale tomorrow a 28-inch Outing Flannel that sells regularly at 15c—for 12½c. All colors—stripes and checks, in light and dark grounds.

Dress Goods—Special!

THURSDAY morning we will put on sale a very interesting lot of short lengths, ranging from 7 to 15 yards, sent us direct from the mill—Serges and Panamas that are 54 inches wider in shades of navy, King's blue, brown, old rose, light grey, mint grey and black. Under ordinary circumstances they would sell at $1.50 yard—on sale at 85c. Needless to add they will make desirable Fall dresses.

CRY "FRAUD" IN ILLINOIS

Special Precautions Are Being Taken for the Primaries.

Lee O'Neil Browne and Republican Standpatters Up for Nominations.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—In answer to cries that fraud will be attempted at tomorrow's primaries, the election board today granted a hearing to representatives of reform organizations to devise ways and means of maintaining the integrity of the election. State's Attorney Wayman announced he had employed a large force of private detectives to watch the voting. Practically all of the Democratic representatives and senators who voted to send William Lorimer to the United States senate are seeking renomination. Among these is Lee O'Neil Browne, the Democratic leader who was acquitted of a charge of bribery in behalf of Mr. Lorimer's election.

The Illinois congressional delegation in the lower house numbers nineteen Republicans and six Democrats. The Republicans stood squarely behind Cannon in his fight to retain the power of the chair.

Insurgents Are Fighting. Three Chicago congressmen—Doutelle, Mann and Pose, Republicans, are opposed by candidates running on the insurgent platform. J. F. McDermott, Democratic representative in congress from the fourth district, also has a fight on his hands. He is opposed by State Senator Edward Rainey, one of the Democrats who voted for Lorimer for United States senator.

In the Eleventh district, one of the fifteen outside of Chicago, Congressman Snapp withdrew, his backing going to George W. Conn, Jr. There is a hot fight on between Conn and Col. Ira C. Copley, the "progressive" candidate. There are three Republican candidates for the seat vacated by Frank O. Lowden in the Thirteenth district.

DESERTED BY PARENTS

Two Virginia Tots Found Crying, Alone in Their Yard.

Mother Believed to Be Demented--Taken to Children's Home.

Poor Commissioner Charles Shogren arrived in the city this morning from Virginia with two little girls, 3 and 4 years old. They had been deserted apparently by their parents.

The father, Jack Louma, went away several days ago and cannot be located. The mother left the other night and her whereabouts cannot be ascertained.

The children were discovered in the yard of their home about 4 o'clock Tuesday morning by neighbors, who heard them cry. They were not properly clad and the morning was damp and cold. Until Mr. Shogren appeared at Virginia they were cared for by the neighbors. They are bright children and have been placed at the Children's home until it can be determined what can be done with them. A determined effort is being made to locate the father and mother.

The father owns the house—such as it is—that they lived in. The family, which consisted of the two children and the father and mother, lived in two rooms. The rest of the rooms in the house had been rented out to men who worked in the mines.

Mr. Shogren looked into the two rooms that had been occupied by the family, and the one look was enough. There was an old stove in one corner, a chair, an old, damp, rotten mattress on the floor, and not a bite in the house to eat. In these two rooms the family had lived. Most of the rent money was spent by the father for drink, and the mother and the little ones suffered. He has been in the habit of deserting them for a time every once in a while, it is claimed, and this has so worked on the nerves of the woman who is his wife, that she has probably become demented and is roaming in the woods behind Virginia. It is not thought that she left her babies to go with her husband, and a searching party is looking for her at the present time.

The neighbors say that for some time the woman has been in a quagmire as to what to do, and finally, when the strain, her mind gave way, and it is the opinion of those who live near that she has taken or has attempted to take her own life.

The family lived in the city of Virginia. Many times neighbors have been on the point of interfering with the treatment Louma had accorded his wife, but as he was known as a "bad man," they were advised to leave him alone.

Just a few days ago he was arrested for being drunk. He had to stay in jail for a few days. Finally the wife scraped together the necessary amount of money to get him out, which she did. He took her home and beat her because she had not succeeded in getting the neighborhood very much excited over the matter, and if Louma shows himself he may receive harsh treatment.

The woods are being searched for the mother; the authorities are looking for the father, and the children, after years of neglect and ill treatment, are being cared for at the Children's home.

RAILROADS
"THE VELVET SPECIAL"
Name Is Given Crack Train on the New Chicago Route.

Offices Will Be Opened in Soo Depot Next Week.

Practically all of the equipment for the Chicago division of the Soo line has been ordered, and according to the statement today of the officials of the line, it will be the most modern that the car-building industry can produce. The train that will be operated between Duluth and Chicago will be made up of the heaviest type day coaches, buffet-library cars, with standard sleepers and diners.

The cars are at the present time at the Soo shops at North Fond du Lac, Wis. The diners are the finest cars that have been turned out in the Northwest. The cars will carry thirty persons. The interior finish of the cars is of English mahogany. The ceiling is decorated, and the furnishings are also of heavy leather upholstered mahogany.

At each end of the dining apartment is a handsome buffet, finished in the same general style as the dining department of the car. The kitchens of the diners are supplied with the very latest cooking utensils and also with the very latest sanitary arrangements. The system of ventilation and refrigeration and storage of food, is said to be as perfect as modern car construction can devise.

TRAVEL THROUGH DULUTH HEAVY

City Is Becoming One of Country's Most Important Passenger Centers.

In the month of July the Duluth Union depot transacted $15,000 more business than it did in the month of July, 1909, last month the depot did $8,000 more business than it transacted the previous August.

These figures are indicative of the growth of the city as one of the most important passenger points in the entire country.

Through travel has been unusually heavy the past summer, as shown by the figures. Railroad men who have studied the situation here, say that the growth of Duluth as one of the important through passenger points of the Northwest has just started. The coming of the Soo and the new direct connection with Winnipeg, will mean, many railroad men say, a still greater and more rapid growth of the passenger traffic.

Young Egypt Partisans Are Real Angry at the Colonel.

Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 14.—The annual meeting of the permanent committee of the Young Egypt party, the aim of which is autonomy, opened today and afforded an opportunity of which several Egyptians availed themselves to attack former President Roosevelt because of his speeches at Khartoum and London. Among the epithets applied to the colonel were "vulgar blusterer," and "self-advertiser."

The committee sent a telegram to London demanding the immediate evocution of Egypt by the British government. A message also was sent to the headquarters of the Egyptian constitutionalists.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Six Republican issued a statement condemning the action of the four Democratic and one Republican insurgent who delivered a report at Minneapolis last Wednesday demanding the retirement from office of Secretary Ballinger.

Those present were Senators Nelson,
Sutherland and Root and Congressmen
McCall, Olmstead and Denby. They declared the action of what they term the "minority" at Minneapolis to have been "according to the worst methods of ward politics."

Adjournment was taken subject to call of the chairman, Senator Nelson.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Democratic State Committee Will Select Head of Ticket Thursday—McKnight Hits Up a Hot Pace on the Congressional Warpath—Congressman Davis Publishes a Brief But Pointed Platform—Fifty-Second Has a Lively Scramble.

Tomorrow the place at the head of the Democratic state ticket, vacated by the resignation of John Lind as the party nominee, will be filled by the state central committee, meeting in St. Paul under the chairmanship of Frank A. Day.

Among the men who continue to be mentioned as possible selections for the honor are two Duluth men—John Jensen, Jr., and William E. McEwen, state labor commissioner. It is generally accepted as a fact that Jensen would not accept the place, and the friends of Mr. McEwen say they very much doubt he will take it. They say he will some day take the Democratic candidate for governor but contend that this is not the accepted time.

Judge M. C. Tift of the insurance department is prominently mentioned as a man likely to be chosen. Mr. Tift is a man of strong personality and is eloquent and versatile. A number of other names have been mentioned, and the committee is expected to discuss all the possibilities thoroughly and carefully.

Harvey W. Grimmer is said to be slated for secretary of the committee.

Winona Independent—Too bad Uncle Joe Cannon cannot be induced to make a few speeches in the First district. Maybe the news is penetrating his skull that he makes a bad matter worse.

Alex G. McKnight is working energetically to interest the voters of this congressional district in his plea for votes at the primaries and is said to have two months at home made Miller more successful than the Miller party. While the Miller party are inclined to admit, today the insurgent candidate visited Princeton, Minn. Lacs county, and tonight he will speak at Sandstone. Tomorrow he will speak from the same platform with Clarence B. Miller at the Kaibab county fair, and in the evening he will go from Nora to Graham, where he will address a gathering of voters. If two months at home made Miller as much of an insurgent as he now pretends to be, McKnight in a talk at Cambridge Monday night, "two years at home might work wonders in him, and might make him a simon pure insurgent. The experiment is at least worth trying." John A. Crookston introduced the speaker at Cambridge, where the meeting was boycotted by the Millerites.

In one settlement the McKnight men have found a peculiarly encouraging situation, they say. There are 100 votes in the community and but one voter is an avowed Miller man. He says he hopes to influence for or five others to vote with him. Mr. Miller made an emergency call on this community, with his fence-fixing equipment.

Friday Mr. McKnight will be at Baraboo, attending the Carlton county fair and making a speech there. In the evening he will be at Moose Lake.

Returning to Duluth Saturday, he will spend the day meeting as many voters as he can and will attend the meeting of the West Duluth Republican club, where candidates are permitted to plead their own cases. Monday night there will be a McKnight campaign meeting in the Armory.

Richard Jones, secretary of the McKnight campaign committee, said that the friends of the candidate are holding non-meeting every day, two of them being held today.

The Todd County Argus of Long Prairie aptly says of the county option project that it is "a partial application of the referendum."

Charles R. Davis, the insurgent member of congress from the Third Minnesota district, is opposing the plan at the primaries or later, but not quite being an insurgent he has enunciated a platform that for directness of statement and terseness of style takes the palm.

The platform:
I stand for:
Progressive legislation.
Further reforms in the rule of the house of representatives.
Election of a speaker in sympathy with progressive legislation.
Conservation of natural interests from control of parties and politics.
Substantial scientific revision of tariff downward, as soon as possible.
Industrial education for betterment of city and country life.
The Davis agricultural bill.
Attention has been called to the peculiar situation in the Third, the Minneapolis Journal saying:
Here is a district represented in the legislature by seven Democratic and two Republican members, and still it has no Democratic candidate for congress. On the other hand, three of the Democratic senators are up for re-election without any opposition in either party. It is like Barnum's happy family with the lions, zebras and gentle gazelles, all dwelling in harmony and feeding from the same eating bowl. The Democratic senators who are opposed are H. F. Weis of Le Sueur, Julius Collier of Scott county and C. R. Donaldson of McLeod county. Albert Schaller, the popular and able member from the Thirtieth district, is to be opposed at the primaries by the Archie Hayes of Hastings. Senator Nelson's secretary, who is now at Republican state headquarters, A. A. Poehler in the Twenty-first has a Republican opponent in the field in the Twenty-fifth, trying to land the seat from which Senator DuToit has retired. In the Twenty-fourth Carlos Avery is fighting F. Hill of Glencoe against Dr. J. H. Dorsey, who has served in the house, for the senatorship. This fight getting pretty hot.

Virginia Enterprise—Editor Koen asserts that he "will take the Democratic for congress in preference to Mr. Miller." So will many others, whether they edit newspapers or not.

S. F. Alderman of Brainerd, one of the able and energetic members of the senate in the last two legislative sessions, has issued a statement to the effect that he will support the Crookston nomination.

Senator Alderman Wing and Morrison counties, which comprise the Fifty-eighth district, in which he seeks for his nomination, has issued a statement to the effect that he will support the Crookston nomination.

My service in the senate during the past four years has given me valuable experience, wider acquaintances with public men, and extensive general information of the legislative needs of the state at large and special knowledge of what will be required by Central and Northern Minnesota, particularly this legislative district.

Because of these things I believe it is fair to say that I am better qualified and equipped to serve for another term than I was at the beginning of the present term.

I am heartily in accord with the principles and movement emphasized by the action of the Northern Minnesota Development association, and as a matter of course have no hesitation in pledging myself to the most energetic support of all measures designed to embody in law the resolutions adopted by the Bemidji convention.

Senator Alderman is alone in the field for the nomination and no Democrat has filed against him.

"Can the voters stomach a man that will kill a man when the other fellow isn't in a position to defend himself?" is the somewhat cryptic query of a Nashua Herald, about the candidacy of Mr. McKnight against Mr. Miller.

The fight for the two house seats to which the Fifty-second district is entitled has progressed so far that it is possible to get an approximate line on the situation.

Legislative Fight in the Fifty-second District. There are six candidates for the Republican nomination. They are: M. Erickson of Barker, Carlton county; Charles W. La Du of Pine River, Cass county; Charles W. Nelson of Westwood, Aitkin county; G. G. Gentry of Skelton, Itasca county; Walter of Warrenton, Aitkin county; and L. A. Agard of Aitkin county.

The Fifty-second district is Minnesota's largest. More territory is included in the district than in any other in the state. It takes out to call on the voters.

Charles B. Warner of Aitkin is certainly to be one of the members elected this fall, according to reliable sources which appealed to the place ties between Ferguson, Agard and the other candidates are making a spirited fight, and unless all signs point to the contrary, the victory will be his.

Mr. Agard was the last to get into the race, but he has a very strong support by the others, but it is a question whether it will be given for him.

ORPHEUM—Advanced vaudeville.
HOMELESS CHILDREN WILL SEE VAUDEVILLE.

As the result of arrangements completed last night, the eighty-four children in the Children's home will be given an opportunity to see the home tomorrow at 12:30 and give a special entertainment for the children at the home.

The manager of the theater yesterday afternoon offered to have the School Boys and Girls go out to the home and give their act, as it would be impossible for the smaller children to come to the theater. The offer was promptly accepted by Miss Jean McGregor, the matron of the home, for such an event is a rare treat to the children at the home, and an incident that is cherished in the memory of the children for weeks afterwards.

Owing to the fact that nearly all of the children in the home attend the grade schools, and the young actors are busy at the theater during the afternoons and evenings, the noon hour was chosen for the entertainment at 12:30 to 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

When Shaw Was a Critic.
The late Clyde Fitch, author of "The City" and numerous other successful plays, had a hobby of keeping great scrapbooks filled with clippings of dramatic criticisms and all sorts of articles which appealed to him. One day a friend called, and Fitch took down one of his big books and turned the pages until he found what he wanted.

"Before fame came to him," he said, "that great rival of mine, George Bernard Shaw, wrote theatrical criticisms for the London Saturday Review."

Now, these were criticisms indeed. Nobody could praise a good play so beautifully as this critic. Nobody could roast a bad play so tellingly. Listen. Here is a sample:
"I am in a somewhat foolish position concerning a play at the Opera Comique, whether I was in this day week. For some reason I was not supplied with a program, so that I never knew the title of the play. At the end of the second act the play had advanced about as far as my ordinary tramway would have brought it five minutes after the first time of the curtain or, say, as far as I can see would have brought it ten years before that event. Taking advantage of the second interval to stroll out into the street for a little exercise, I unfortunately forgot all about my business, and actually reached home before it occurred to me that I had not seen the end of the play. Under these circumstances it would ill become me to dogmatize on the merits of the work or its performance. I can only offer the management my apologies.

What if I had been one of Fitch's plays? Would he have saved the clipping?

THE MOTION PICTURE HOUSES.
The opening bills at the Orpheum and Lyric moving picture theaters this week proved to be very successful. The program at each house changes today and the bill for the remainder of the week is said to be equally as good as the opening. Both theaters have had good patronage during the week. The pictures are the best in the moving picture line. Some of the pictures to be shown the rest of the week are comic films and others tell stories of much heart interest.

"The Blue Mouse."
John E. Hynes, playing the part of Wallace in "The Blue Mouse," which will be presented at the Lyceum theater in Duluth commencing next Sunday evening, Sept. 18, was at one time, Frederick Ward's leading "comic." He went to Honolulu with Mr. Ward and had a very successful company at San Francisco, Los Angeles, and years ago was in the well-known drama, "The Dark Secret," when tank dramas were the vogue.

TELLS STORY OF HIS CONVERSION.
Evangelist Jack McCall, the sky pilot, celebrated the third anniversary of his conversion at the Bethel last night by telling the story of his life to a large audience of men.

Just three years ago in a mission hall in Kalamazoo, Mich., he was made to see the error of his ways.

The evangelist's work is principally among the woodmen. He followed the woods for a great number of years and he knows the logging business from beginning to end. He likes the woods and the men who bring him, like Dr. McCall, he could be contented with no other work.

In all the camps of Northern Minnesota he is well known and is welcomed with open arms. He makes the rounds several times each season and the men look forward to his coming. A man of iron nerve. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are never found where stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills, the matchless regulators, for keen brain and strong body. 25c at all druggists.

Young Men and Maidens

By MISS EXPERIENCE.

Restless, Eighteen.
Often girls at your age grow a little weary and impatient. I say "a little," though rather overstrained. There is no doubt that domestic work carried on too exclusively in a narrow circle does breed monotony. You feel it, and you need change, particularly the change which will bring you into company with people who are too sensitive to the open air.

Your suggestion, of a course of study that would be as a remedy. What is to prevent you from finding restlessness when pursuing it? And the rigor of it might be an excellent tonic for your nerves. The ideal study for you, I think, would be that afforded by a botanical class, but such a class in your neighborhood. Supposing, however, you could join such a class, it would at once give you three things you need—first, a pleasant study that can be pursued in a quiet room; second, a circle of acquaintances of your own age; and third, a chance to find out what you are capable of under exhilarating conditions.

You would be surprised how expertly the visitor from a small to a large house, and the visitor from a large house to a small one, can find their way about. ence of this kind would add to the interest, breadth and richness of your life. I thought first of advising you to join some recreative club, for such exercise as tennis, but clubs of that kind are often dominated by cliques, and do not readily absorb the stranger, whereas clubs or classes for study such as botany, geology or nature study have a bond in the interest of their researches which obliterate the sense of strangeness and diffuses friendliness. It is not natural for young folks of your age to live in isolation. The various agencies associated with places of worship have much value apart from their strictly religious aspects in promoting social intercourse and giving opportunities for friendship. Education, however, is the only helpful character in addition to the specific aims. Surely in one or other of these ways you can construct a feeling of isolation from which you suffer, a feeling that certainly is not healthy.

Wedding Etiquette.
Widow. Wedding invitations should be issued three weeks before the wedding day. The bride carriage, according to etiquette, is the only one the bridegroom is expected to provide. But Miss Bronte was exceedingly sensitive and shy and afraid of being a trouble to others.

However, no visitor should overstay her time stated in the invitation. No degree of intimacy warrants that, less upon very sincere urging. A guest should never give orders to the servants or permit herself the faintest criticism of the household. As a matter of fact, the art of visiting gracefully is not an easy one to acquire, but one who goes so far astray as to be in all kindness of heart follows the old "golden rule."

She choked with the horror of the thing, and with a gasping moan swooned in his arms. A crashing of bushes. A low guttural cry of a house animal. Bill looked over his shoulder to ascertain the cause, but even as he did his wind-pipe seemed to close up. His thick lips gaped in an awful gasp. His eyes bulged hideously and his head seemed as if it were to be squelched away from his shoulders.

His eyes bulged hideously and his head seemed as if it were to be squelched away from his shoulders.

The big hands of Pete Sim were around his neck. A guest should never give orders to the servants or permit herself the faintest criticism of the household. As a matter of fact, the art of visiting gracefully is not an easy one to acquire, but one who goes so far astray as to be in all kindness of heart follows the old "golden rule."

She choked with the horror of the thing, and with a gasping moan swooned in his arms. A crashing of bushes. A low guttural cry of a house animal. Bill looked over his shoulder to ascertain the cause, but even as he did his wind-pipe seemed to close up. His thick lips gaped in an awful gasp. His eyes bulged hideously and his head seemed as if it were to be squelched away from his shoulders.

his awful grip, but the intense rage which possessed him at the moment seemed to increase his already great strength, and with a snarl of fury he dashed the lifeless poacher to the ground and bent over the form of the prostrate girl.

Ah, what was that? A sharp, stinging pain just below the shoulder made him start suddenly. Looking round he saw the form of a man dashing through the bushes. A few quick strides and he grasped the would-be assassin by the ankle. With a quick jerk, which brought a yell of pain from the victim, he laid him prostrate with a dislocated thigh.

But his young mistress. He turned to retrieve his steps, but remembered no more, for the blood rushed from his mouth and nose, and he fell senseless to the ground.

Once more we look at Pete, on a couch in the drawing-room of the big house whither they had borne him. The doctor was there, and the major and Millie were talking eagerly to him. A low moan from the couch arrests their attention. Slowly the big eyes open and look dazedly around. Gradually he seemed to comprehend, and lifting his hands he gazed mournfully at them, then they fell across his breast as though dead.

Millie, who had advanced to the bedside, stopped dead and actually kissed those hands, and the major had even a look of approval on his face. There was a box of fierce joy on the upturned face, which only the doctor as he pressed down the lifeless limbs could have seen.

REVISION OF GREEK CONSTITUTION BEGINS.
Athens, Greece, Sept. 14.—King George today opened the session of the specially elected chamber which is charged with the revision of the constitution of Greece. His majesty reminded the deputies that their mandates were limited to a revision of the non-fundamental clauses of the constitution and urged them to devote themselves to their task with patriotism with the object of ensuring a realization of the national ideal.

THE MAN OF MYSTERY
Prof. Carle is probably the most sought man in Duluth. Men and women come from Duluth, Superior and from cities hundreds of miles away to ask his aid—to learn the things that he knows. He is a man who has no mystery and wonderful "SEER" as men and women call him. He tells you your name, tells of friends and acquaintances, tells of the future and the past, and tells of the things that you are to do. He tells you of the things that you are to do. He tells you of the things that you are to do.

ALBENBERG'S

To hobble or not to hobble, that is the question; whether it is wiser to remain in the outer darkness of the frumps and unfashionables or to voluntarily assume the garb of one who has been maligned by seven passengers, knock magnets, sliding gear, transmission instrument that produces class hatred, while one was merely Westonizing on the homeward way—whether it is wiser to once and for all step into the class of the dowdies who wear none but their own hair or to cling still faithfully to the edge of the fashionable thing and assume a gown was first designed for a stove pipe.

Now if the dowdies would let one wear two hobble skirts, one on each—but let that pass.

As if the torture of making $6.27, left from buying your summer dress, but a street suit and a best dress and a new fur coat and set of furs not to mention a couple of pairs of some gloves and then a covering for your poor unprotected ankles—as if it is expected that you will not choose an ordinary woman into the necessity of having the fine lines freedom of your hobble skirt, here come a set of fashions that make even the most hygienic follower of the style hesitate and wonder if there remains in this whole world enough freedom of will to rise and in a patriotic attitude exclaim "Avant, there, wretch! I'll none of these!"

Breathes there a woman with so intricate a spirit?

She may start out bravely enough, with "No, I will not have a hobble skirt. There's no use in your talking to me. The things are too perfectly ridiculous and it's time that woman asserted herself. It's just because you don't want to make over my last year's dress and that you insist upon these styles."

Just then you have it. You've got to think of some other style and anyway my husband said that he didn't like them and he just absolutely forbade me getting one. I can't help it if everybody is wearing them. I don't think it's much nicer to have something that is individual and anyway when your husband says you can't wear what you are going to do. I can't help it if they are stylish. I'll just have to be stylish. Oh, is Marjorie Gould wearing them and Ethel Barrymore and Mrs. Louisa Alcott? Well, they ought to know, oughtn't they? They get such opportunities. I always say when you never get twenty steps from your own doorstep how are you going to choose? Well, that's true. If there was anything else I don't suppose they'd wear hobble skirts. And anyway I think they're rather quaint looking, don't you?—and they besides I only weigh 118 pounds. Of course, if I had the size of some women I might have to wear hobble skirts. I think it's much nicer to have something that is individual and anyway when your husband says you can't wear what you are going to do. I can't help it if they are stylish. Be Thrifty--Own Your Home

THROW OFF THE LANDLORD'S YOKE!

To The Man Who Pays

Why continue longer to contribute to the easy living of a landlord? Why continue to pay for the privilege of a mere existence when you might be putting the same money into a lot, later to build your own home?

Your savings per month, if invested in a lot and home, would more than equal the amount you are now paying for rent. You are paying double what you ought to pay.

Consider the landlord's side of it: He buys a lot, builds a house and rents it to you—it's not his home; it's not your home; it's the place where you stay! Does the landlord lose? Certainly not. You are helping him build more houses for more people to stay in. You pay him for building the house and then pay him a nice little profit, too, on a house your rent money would buy outright in a short term of years.

Does this make you think? Does it make you wish to own your home?

Get right NOW, before it is too late. Get your wife to go with you to Chambers Division. Study the map. Look the location over carefully. Note our 25 reasons for claiming it to be the best proposition yet offered on the Easy Payment Plan.

We Want You to Visit Chambers Addition This Week

You cannot judge the beauty of the location until you see it. We know you will want to buy.

DON'T MISS OUR SAFE, SANE, SOUND SALE SEPT. 19

Reason No. 14

It is the last property in the Center of the City below the Boulevard which can be platted and sold on Popular Payment Plan. Chambers Division is available now—today—not in the dim and distant future! We say it is Safe—Sound—Sane—Sure. Sale will be on 19th. (Keep these coupons.)

RICHARDSON, DAY & HARRISON.

No Notes--No Interest--No Mortgage--No Taxes Until 1913 No Payments When Sick.

RICHARDSON, DAY & HARRISON
Exchange Building, Duluth

Reason No. 15

"The Line of Least Resistance" is the "Line of Growth" in every great city. No other property in the City of Duluth meets this maxim as does Chambers Division—Seventh Avenue East is the easiest grade of any avenue in center of the city. Homes have been slowly and steadily built on the city year after year. Our Great Sale will be on the 19th.

Judge Parker Talks of the Maine Election and Other Things.

Predicts Hitch in Plan for Installing "New Nationalism."

New York, Sept. 14.—Judge Alton B. Parker, commenting on the Democratic victory in Maine and on other matters that appear to him to loom large in the political field, said:

"The dream of a permanent presidency with Mr. Roosevelt in the chair has long haunted the pillows of many followers as well as himself. They have seen as through a glass—darkly—the workings of a new nationalism, when the executive power shall become the steward of the public welfare, and an independent judiciary, basing its judgment on principles instead of men, shall be no more. Then too, shall the good trusts receive the presidential blessing with assurance that there will be no hostile successor to transform it into a curse.

Working to That End.

"Many steps have been taken to that end by Garfield, Pinchot and others, under the leadership of their chief, who but recently returned from a triumphal tour in behalf of the propagation of the new faith. There seemed to them to remain but one more step to reach the goal—the capture of New York with Roosevelt for governor to smash the republican machine and then ride over it to overwhelming victory. Ah! That indeed captured the imagination—for then would all the East surrender.

"Mr. Hearst saw the picture too, and for some reason was pleased with it. So he tendered his support, and all agree that he made tender of a great value.

Will Roosevelt Dare?

"But, will Mr. Roosevelt dare? Aye, that is the question. Yesterday he would have dared, but today—Ah! That is different. Maine has spoken and the voice resounds in the ears of Roosevelt. This precious cargo with the voters of New York.

"Will he dare? It is an old saying—'Never prophesy unless you know.' 'I do not know, but my guess is that he will not dare.'

Don't Break Down.

"Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause break-downs. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters, the matchless tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: 'That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters. I eat, sleep and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at all druggists.'

Pest of Bears.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 14.—The farming districts of Manitoba are so overrun by bears that have been starved and driven in by the forest fires, that thirty bear-dogs are to be imported by farmers to exterminate them. The bears have done great damage to the crops.

German Prince in Canada.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 14.—His Royal Highness Prince Ludwig of Hesse, cousin of Kaiser Wilhelm and head of the non-reigning branch of the sovereign house of Hesse, has arrived here on his way to the Kootenai mountains on a hunting trip. In the suite are Barons Gudendorf and Schenk.

MORE TROUBLE IN CUSTOMS HOUSE

Boston Dressmaker and Chicago Man Are Arrested.

New York, Sept. 14.—Another fashionable dressmaker is charged with trying to smuggle foreign-made gowns into the country without paying the government its lawful toll. She is Mrs. Mary Dolan of Brookline, Mass., head of a large dressmaking firm in Boston. Mrs. Dolan was placed under arrest and arraigned before United States Commissioner Russ in Hoboken, N. J. The goods she is charged with trying to smuggle in are valued at almost $10,000.

Dr. Rudolph Mehn of Chicago also had his troubles with the customs officials. He declared about $800 worth of jewelry, but the inspectors claimed he had other jewelry, which he failed to declare. The jewelry was seized.

SAYS WHITES ARE ASSIMILATING REDS.

Denver, Col., Sept. 14.—"Within 100 years it is likely that the Indians will be no more," asserted Fred A. Baker of Washington, D. C., at the convention of the Indian supervisors here. "They will have been assimilated by the white people," Mr. Baker continued. "Of course there will be a few tribes in inaccessible places, who will continue in their present state, but virtually all Indians will be amalgamated with the Caucasians."

Vienna's New Water Supply.

Vienna's new water system will be formally opened on Dec. 2. The water is carried from springs in the Alps by an aqueduct about 115 miles long, which has six and a-quarter miles of branches extending to a number of springs not on the main line. One of the best preservers of good health is a good water tonic, such as Golden Grain Belt beer. Its purity, wholesomeness and invigorating qualities make it an ideal beverage for the home. RESERVE BANKS HELPING FRAUD

System of Concealing Loans Has Been Found By an Examiner.

Washington, Sept. 14.—A system by which banks in small cities in the West have been fooling national bank examiners and concealing loans in their reserve bank in a large city, has been discovered and is under investigation, following close of the statement made by Controller of the Currency Murray to the state bank supervisors here. "They will have been assimilated by the white people," Mr. Baker continued. "Of course there will be a few tribes in inaccessible places, who will continue in their present

It was announced some time ago that large city banks making application to be designated as reserve agents would have to pass the strictest sort of an examination of their condition. It is now known that the real reason for the adoption of such a rule was to hold a check on the reserve banks and prevent them from becoming accessories to any such system of concealment as has been discovered.

There is authority for the statement that the whole system of national bank examination and regulation is to receive great attention during the next few months. New legislation may even be recommended to congress.

THOMAS F. WALSH

ESTATE $6,500,000.

Denver, Col., Sept. 14.—The estate of the late Thomas F. Walsh, which had been approximated as high as $10,000,000, is worth only $6,500,000, according to the inventory filed by Judge A. O. Osborne, representing the estate. Of this valuation $3,000,000 is Colorado property.

Democrats Win in Arizona.

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 14.—Practically complete returns from the election of delegates to the Arizona constitutional convention confirm reports of the overwhelming victory of the Democrats. They have elected thirty-six delegates out of fifty-two, the Republicans have elected eleven and the five delegates of this county are still in doubt.

"ALL FALSE," SAYS TAWNEY

Minnesota Congressman Denies Charges Made By Pinchot.

Claims Ex-Forester Used Public Funds for His Own Advantage.

Rochester, Minn., Sept. 14.—Rochester was the political center of the First district when Congressman James A. Tawney appeared at the Metropolitan theater last night to answer charges preferred against him by Gifford Pinchot in an address delivered here on the night of Sept. 6. Enthusiasm was at a high pitch, three special trains being run into the city and several thousand came from outside points to hear Tawney. Two hands furnished music on the streets before the meeting and the business section was lighted up by bonfires and red fire. It reminded many of the old-time political rally.

Congressman Tawney's speech was devoted to an answer to Pinchot. At no time did he mention the name of his opponent or refer to his own candidacy for congress. He absolutely denied every charge made by Pinchot and endeavored to sustain his reply by the records at Washington.

Accused Pinchot.

He went further by accusing Pinchot of misappropriating public money while chief forester of the government. In defense of his submission of the amendment to the civil sundry appropriation bill, Mr. Tawney said:

It was to put an end to government by executive choice and to prevent the illegal expenditure of the people's money that I prepared and offered the amendment to the civil sundry appropriation bill, which has been the subject of so much criticism, especially by

Mr. Pinchot, whose unlawful expenditure as chief of the forestry service and as chairman of one of these commissions and a member of at least two others were discontinued.

A distinguished United States senator has recently said that the expenditures of the forestry bureau under Mr. Pinchot's management, when critically examined, will show the most amazing misuse of the public funds which ever occurred in the history of the government. From these facts it would seem that it is only since Mr. Pinchot was separated from the public service that he has become an advocate of letting the people know what their money is being expended for.

"Nor was it generally known until after his leaving the public service that during the previous year he spent without authority $82,000 of the people's money in popularizing himself through the press of the country by publication in newspapers and magazines of articles prepared by his associates in the forestry service in Washington. These articles contained matter commending Mr. Pinchot to the people for the great work he was supposed to be doing, and condemning those who differed with him on principle or otherwise in his extravagant expenditure of the appropriation under the heading of general expenses.

"Practically every statement he made in his speech recently delivered from this platform, concerning my attitude toward the public welfare, was as false as was a statement concerning my attitude toward conservation of our forests and other natural resources.

Mr. Tawney denied the statement that he was a bitter enemy of Roosevelt, but rather insisted that he had worked hand in hand with the former president and had supported all of the great measures advocated by him.

Mr. Tawney addressed to make an address to an overflowed meeting, but this meeting was cancelled. The theater was packed to the doors and every available bit of space was utilized by those eager to hear Mr. Tawney.

SEVEN PACKERS FURNISH BONDS

Two Others Are Out of the Country and One Is Ill.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Seven of the ten officials of Chicago packing companies indicted by a federal grand jury for violation of the Sherman anti-trust law have appeared in the federal court and given bail for their appearance. Each defendant was obliged to furnish three bonds for $20,000 each. The three men who failed to furnish their bail are Louis Swift, president of Swift & Co., who is in Europe; Thomas J. Connor, superintendent of Armour & Co., who is now returning from Europe; and Francis A. Fowler, department manager for Swift & Co., who is ill.

The next step in the case will be a motion by government attorneys for the packers to enter a plea. When the plea is entered, the case will be decided.

CHICAGO WOMAN ADMITS SHE IS JEWEL SMUGGLER.

Philadelphia, Sept. 14.—Mrs. Louis Klein, aged 50 years, of Chicago, was arrested and jewels valued at $10,000, which the police say she smuggled into this country through New York, on Aug. 6, were seized here by central office detectives. The police say Mrs. Klein confessed to

MARSHALL MAKES NO REPLY TO HARMON LETTER.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 14.—Mayor Marshall, replying to the letter of Governor Harmon, refusing to honor his request for a special session of the legislature, declared he had no answer to make to the governor's charges of inefficiency. He says:

"I confess it took a long time for us to control the situation. Whether it could have been done better, I leave to time and the sober judgment of the people."

MILES POINDEXTER.

The spectator in the political gallery who is trying to keep track of the humiliations of the Republican "old guard" these days is in the same anxious situation as the small boy trying to see everything that is going on in all three rings at the circus.

Yesterday it was Maine, today it is Washington; day before yesterday it was California. From three of the four corners of the nation have come tales of crushing defeats for the "old guard," and doubtless if there had been any Republicans to crush in Florida, the four corners would have been made complete.

Leaping hastily across the country from Maine to Washington, we beheld the valiant insurgent, Miles Poindexter, cleaning up the reactionaries in beautiful style in yesterday's senatorial primaries. Opposed by every element of reaction in the state, and by many from outside the state—in one of the bitterest and hottest fights the Pacific coast has ever seen, Poindexter swept the state of Washington yesterday, winning every county in the state and emerging victor at the close with the overwhelming plurality of 40,000 votes.

Poindexter is an insurgent, and a real one. He stands for the policies of progress as Roosevelt and the people have declared them. He believes that it is more important that government should devote itself to seeing that the small man makes a decent living in decent conditions than it is that it should labor to help the big man make more profits.

These results—California, Kansas, New York, Maine, Massachusetts—all have the same meaning. Whether the revolt against the economic slavery that has grown out of Republican devotion to the insatiable demands of special privilege finds expression through the real insurgents or through progressive Democrats, it is bound to express itself. Long held in check by custom and the soothing sophistries of the advocates of vested interests, the people's rage has burst its bonds, and is sweeping everything before it.

"THE METHODS OF WARD POLITICS."

Six Republican members of the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation committee, defenders of Ballinger and Bal-langerism, met in Chicago yesterday to declare that the actions at Minneapolis of what they call the "minority" were "according to the worst methods of ward politics."
So?

What, then, of the action of these men in staying away from a duty called committee meeting, because they were in the minority, to prevent the committee from doing what it was called together to do?

What, then, of the actions of Chairman Nelson, who has acted throughout the part of a belligerent attorney for the defense of Ballinger and the prosecution of Pinchot and his witnesses, and who sneaked away from the committee room on a false pretense of having an errand, and then sent back word that the committee stood adjourned, when the committee had taken no such action?

The charge of "ward politics" comes with poor grace from these men who have sunk to the cheapest methods of ward filibustering to prevent the truth from emerging from their committee.

THE TYPHOID FLY.

Nothing more likely to help the important campaign against the house fly has been accomplished than the recent official action of the department of agriculture in giving this common and dangerous pest the name of "the typhoid or house fly."

The indictment against the typhoid or house fly is damning, and the proof is ample. Conviction is complete, and only execution remains to be attended to.

Always a nuisance, it was not until lately that it was realized that the fly is a source of grave danger as well.

In view of the fly's habits, it is strange that the discovery was not made before. The fly revels in filth, and the good things to eat that cover the home table are second in its affection. Summoned from the nearest place of uncleanness to your home by the smell of cooking food, it brings with it on its feet and wings the message of death. The germs that thrive in places of corruption are carried by flies to the homes of the people, spreading sickness and death. This is the indictment against the typhoid or house fly; that it is a murderer, and as such it should be exterminated. There may be doubt about capital punishment for human beings, but there can be none about its advisability for insect enemies of humanity like the yellow fever mosquito, the malaria mosquito and the typhoid fly.

Dr. L. O. Howard, chief of the bureau of entomology of the United States department of agriculture, therefore has formally and officially named the house fly
"the typhoid fly," and he did it in behalf of the government and in the interest of human health and security.
The typhoid fly, once thought harmless under the name of "house fly," is demonstrably responsible for a large proportion of the 250,000 cases of typhoid fever which occur in this country annually.

That is why this particular name is used; because the fly spreads more typhoid than anything else. But the fly's death-dealing enterprises are not confined to typhoid, by any means. Careful experiments have shown that the feet and wings of flies carry the germs of tuberculosis, anthrax, trachoma, septicemia, erysipelas, leprosy, smallpox and other dread human ills.

It is not going to be an easy task to wipe out the fly family. In the first place it means cleaning up every place of filth, for flies breed in such places. Yet such cleaning up is good for more reasons than that it prevents fly-breeding, and sometime society will get around to that, too. In the meantime every precaution can be taken against the admission of the fly to the home. The housewife can be depended upon to do her utmost at that, for she has long held an instinctive antipathy to the fly that does credit to her subtle powers of divination.

MAINE'S AMAZING UPHEAVAL.

The completeness of the political upheaval that shook Maine to its rockribbed foundations Monday is more than a nine-days' wonder.

The defeat for Republicanism is overwhelming and crushing, and the victory for Democracy complete and surprising even to its most ardent and sanguine followers. After wandering for sixty years in a thirsty and hungry wilderness, they have landed in a heap in the feed-bin, and Maine will see a mighty redistribution of the offices.

The Democrats have the governorship, and the governor appoints judges and members of commissions; they have the legislature, which will fill the state offices and elect a United States senator to succeed the deplorable Hale; they have at least half the congressional delegation, and maybe three-fourths; they have most of the county officers in thirteen out of the sixteen counties.

The radical nature of the upheaval is shown by the result in the election of the legislature. A Republican majority of sixty-four on joint ballot has been turned to a Democratic majority of thirty-six, giving the Republicans the two house districts not yet reported. The present state senate has twenty-three Republicans and eight Democrats; the next state senate will have ten Republicans and twenty-one Democrats. The present house has a hundred Republicans and fifty-one Democrats; the next house will have sixty-three Republicans and eighty-eight Democrats. The present legislature on joint ballot has 123 Republicans and fifty-nine Democrats; the next legislature on joint ballot will have but seventy-three Republicans and 109 Democrats.

There has been no such eruption in the history of the Republican party. It bodes ill for that party in November and in 1912.

TAWNEY AND PINCHOT.

Congressman Tawney probably doesn't realize what a serious handicap he works under when he undertakes to bandy words with Pinchot.

Pinchot is trusted, and his motives are acknowledged to be pure.

Tawney is distrusted as a servile retainer of the very interests which have caused the downfall of his party, and the revolt against the dominating influences which men like Tawney have kept in power is sweeping out of public life men far more able and honest than Tawney.

Pinchot merely charged what everybody knows, that Tawney has not served the people but has betrayed them to serve his own personal ambition. To answer by calling Pinchot names is no defense. No wonder Tawney—or somebody for him—has to buy red fire and bands and special trains to bolster up his failing political fortunes.

BOASTING OF THEIR PLUNDER.

Two speeches were recently made on the same evening in a Massachusetts community that throw light clear to the bottom of the infamous game of tariff grabbing, and that exhibit the Aldrich-Payne-Taft tariff bill and the Republican organization that made it in all their wretched nakedness.

One of these speeches was by Henry C. Lodge, Republican senator from Massachusetts, and the other was by F. H. Gillett, a Republican congressman from that state.

Said Senator Lodge: "Whatever the mistakes in the new tariff law, Massachusetts has no cause to complain." (Applause.)

Said Representative Gillett: "Every tariff is a compromise. Massachusetts ought to be satisfied, for we drew as many whole eggs out of that battered basket as any part of the country."

There is the tariff, and Republican tariff-making, in a nutshell. It is a battered basket, from which those with the longest reach, the greatest greed and the most consummate cunning grab the most.

These Republican statesmen, having engaged in the shameful scramble of the special session, return to their constituents to boast of the plunder they have wrested from the people of the nation!

Who supplies the spoil which these successful spoil-grabbers are exhibiting in triumph to their constituents?
The consumers of the nation—every man, woman and child who buys food, clothing, fuel or shelter. The Republican system of tariff-making is to tax these consumers heavily on every necessity of existence, and to turn the rich harvest of taxes over to those who are most cunning and most brazen.

William E. Dodd of the University of Chicago, in a letter to the Springfield Republican calling attention to these amazing boasts, says: "What the old South did for thirty years before the war was to make the interest of the whole nation bend to the material interests of that section. Protection to slavery, cotton plantations and their owners was the burden of all (or most of) Jefferson Davis's speeches in the South during the four years just preceding the great struggle. Now Massachusetts applauds her senator and her representative for standing in Davis's shoes, for doing the same thing that her Sumners and Adamsons went to war to abolish. Does history repeat itself?"

Massachusetts should be satisfied with the tariff law, say Senator Lodge and Congressman Gillett. Massachusetts, where women and children toil in the protected mills, where the manufacturing wage averages something like $8 per week, where there is infinite protection for the capital engaged in manufacturing and none whatever for the labor so engaged, where the hordes of Europe led to this land of promise by a hope of better things, are ground in the protected mills of rich capitalists, and where the demand for dividends crushes hope out of childhood, the glory out of womanhood, and freedom out of a people's government!

Massachusetts may be satisfied with that tariff, and it may applaud the guilty hands that came bearing plunder.
But what of the whole nation of consumers which is the victim of this shameful orgy of greed?

Defeat, and her grim sister Remorse, are knocking at the door of the Republican party.

THE OPEN COURT.

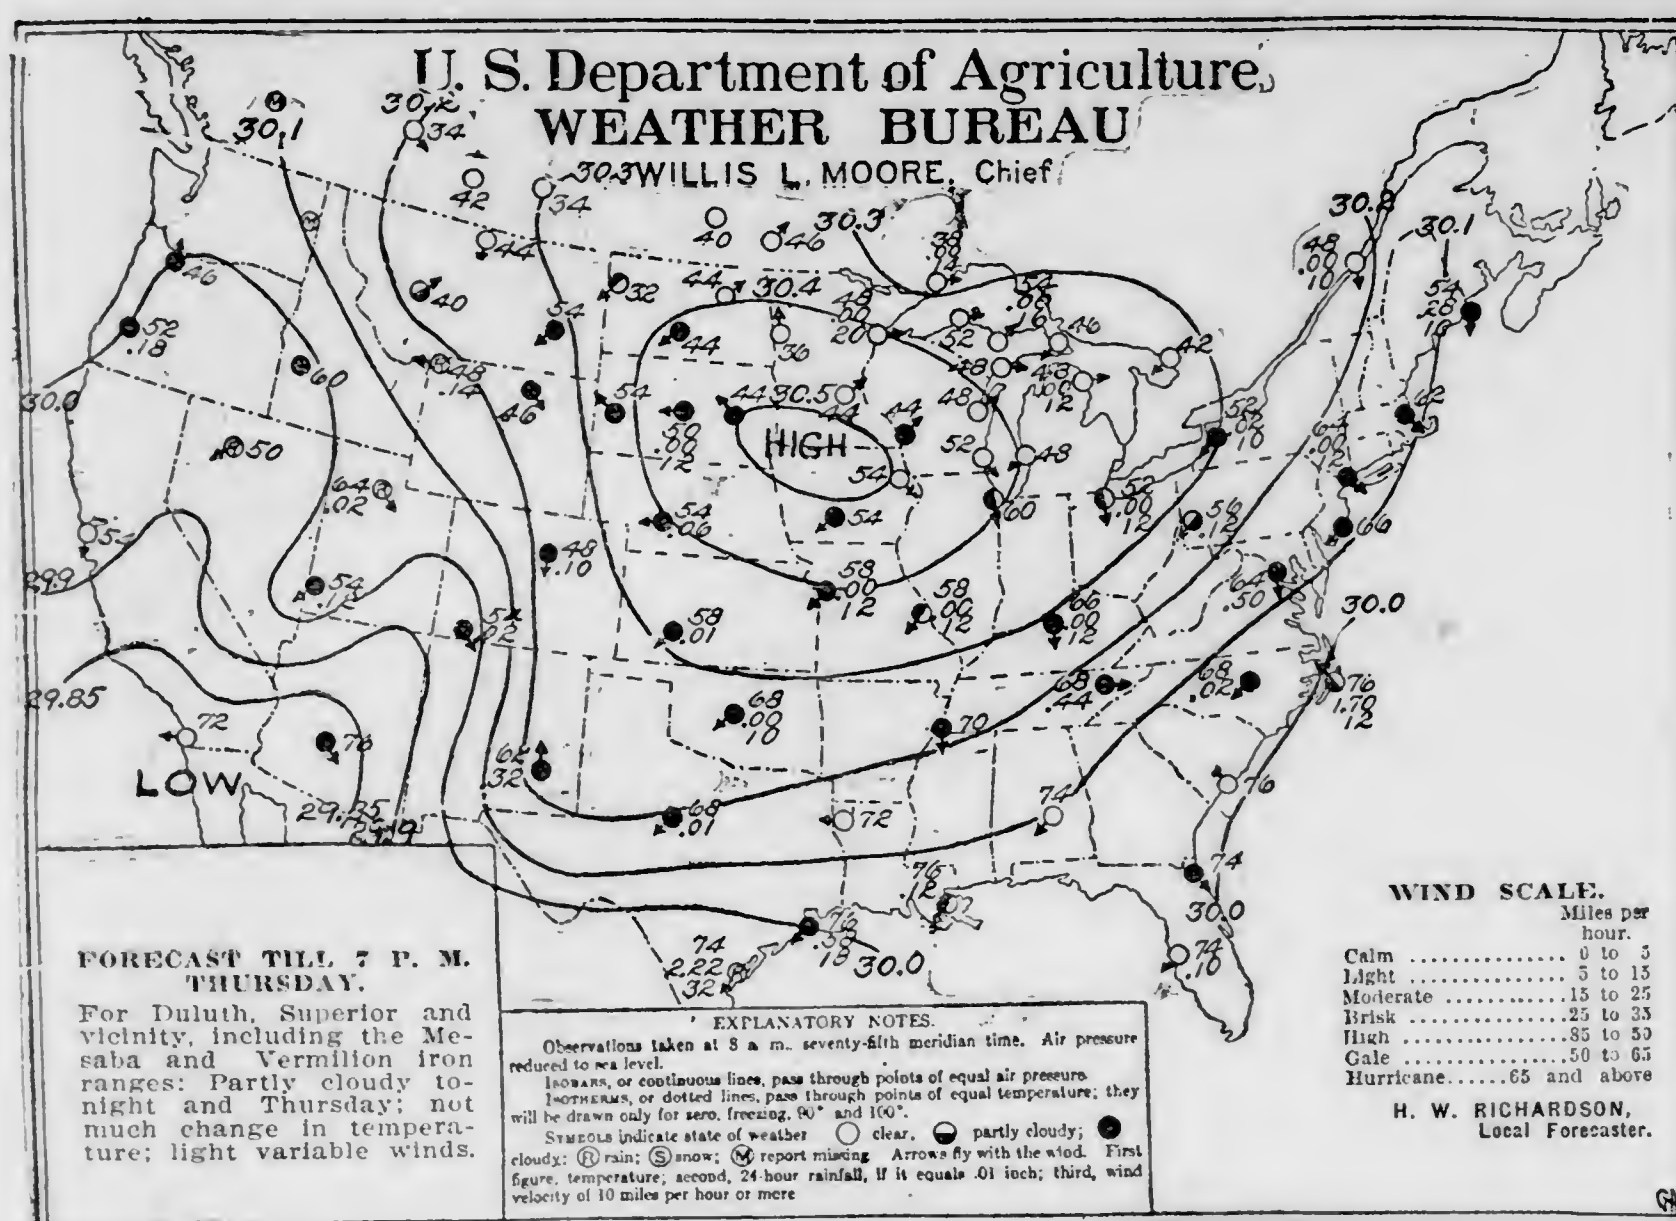

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their views on the topics of general interest. Letters should be short and to the point. The shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though they need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

TO ARREST OR NOT TO ARREST.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Yesterday a mother was arrested on the charge of cruelty towards her 10-year-old son. After she had told her story in court she was released. The question arises, was the arrest justified or not? How is an officer of the law to know when the machinery of the courts should interfere between the relations of parents and their children? Everybody knows that children sometimes have to be punished, and a few of them severely. Not that the parent likes the task, but that it is necessary to the proper rearing of the child. Some of the younger generation are inclined to be amenable to discipline in any other way. In the verdict of the court that the arrest was unjustified, the mother could not aid the child to see his mother brought before a police court on a charge of cruelty. The mother is a spirit of obedience, while it put her in the hands of the law, and she is of her friends and neighbors. Before an arrest is made in cases of this nature, each side should be subjected to the closest scrutiny. It is safe to say that the position of the mother is not by the officer without appealing to the courts at all. Every official carries a tion, it can be very effective. The

OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER

CLOUDY

Though autumnal in its general nature, last evening was truly beautiful. The air was cool and clear, the sky cloudless and star-studded, the moon bright and the evening in the open was well spent. The lowest temperature was 46 degrees. Today is another beautiful September day.

A fine drizzle dampened Duluth a year ago today.

The sun rose this morning at 5:44 and it will set at 6:23, giving twelve hours and thirty-nine minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions: "During the last twenty-four hours rains fell over the Gulf states and the Southwest in connection with the disturbance central over extreme North-western Mexico. In the meantime there were further rains over the Upper Ohio valley and Middle Atlantic states. The Dakota high pressure has advanced its center to Iowa and somewhat cooler weather has resulted in Minnesota. Freezing temperatures occurred this morning at Campbell, Minn., and Detroit, Minn. Generally fair weather is indicated for the Head of the Lakes tonight and probably Thursday."

General Forecasts.
Chicago, Sept. 14.—Forecasts for twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Thursday:
Upper Michigan—Fair tonight and Thursday; light frosts tonight.
Wisconsin—Part cloudy tonight and Thursday; frost in marshes tonight.
Minnesota—Generally fair tonight and Thursday; slightly warmer tonight in south and west portions.
North Dakota and Montana—Generally fair tonight and Thursday.
South Dakota—Part cloudy tonight and Thursday; warmer tonight in east portion.
Iowa—Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday.
Upper lakes—Light variable winds and fair Thursday.

LATEST MONSTER OF THE AIR IS DESTROYED

THE ZEPPELIN VI.

CABIN OF THE ZEPPELIN VI.

The Zeppelin VI was built in 1909, but had since been altered and enlarged. Her motors and other navigating and operating machinery were contained in two gondola cars situated in the bow and stern. It was in the stern gondola where the explosion occurred today.

Suspended from the center of the airship was a luxuriously furnished cabin. She carried a crew of ten men.

The measurements of the Zeppelin VI were: Length, 472 feet, width 42 feet, gas capacity 20,000 cubic yards. Her three motors had a total of 400-horse power, expended in four propellers and giving her a speed of 33 miles an hour.

had chartered the airship for the use of a private party next Friday. He had agreed to pay $500 for the first two hours of the excursion and $250 for each additional hour occupied.

The Zeppelin VI, the latest of the ill-fated series to meet disaster, will be best remembered by its notable flight from Friedrichshafen to Berlin, when it carried Count Zeppelin, the inventor, on a visit to Emperor William.

When the Deutschland was wrecked, the German Airship Stock company, which had inaugurated a passenger service in the vicinity of Baden Baden, chartered the Zeppelin VI and advertised that it would make daily trips of from one to three hours each until Sept. 20, when it was expected that the Deutschland would again be in commission.

Guernsey May Be Re-elected.
Doubt still exists regarding the result in the Fourth congressional district, Congressman Frank E. Guernsey of Dover, the Republican candidate, and George M. Hanson, Democrat, each claiming victory by a small plurality.

In the First district, Asher C. Hinds, Republican, apparently is elected by a plurality of about 300 over William H. Pennell, Democrat, and will occupy the seat in congress once held by Thomas B. Reed. The Second and Third districts will have Democratic congressmen, as shown by the returns last night. D. J. McGillicuddy of Lewiston succeeding Congressman John P. Swazey, Republican in the district which Nelson Dingley, of Dingley, tariff fame, formerly represented, while Samuel W. Gould of Schoegan will succeed Edwin C. Burleigh, Republican, who has represented the Third district in congress for the last eighteen years.

NAVAL DEPARTMENT OF BOY SCOUTS.

Miss Jean Polier suggests that a naval battalion of boy scouts be organized in Duluth. She thinks that it would be fine training for young boys. There are said to be many possibilities on the Gulf that could be filled by the scouts should they be organized.

FIRST OF THE FALL OPENINGS

Latest Styles in Women's Garments at Panton & White's.
It would seem each season that the latest word has been said in gorgeous and beautiful things for women, but with the following season's formal display of the wonderful things the shops afford it seems that the superlative even has been surpassed. The Panton & White establishment is the first to announce its autumn opening and the store from basement to topmost garret has been placed in gala attire and today, the first of the three days' opening, hundreds of Duluth women feasted their eyes on the first fruits of the designers and makers art.

All departments are interesting, of course, but women's wear naturally demands the most attention. The fabrics are unbelievably lovely; the colorings are soft and exquisite and the fashions are picturesque. The windows along the full length of the store have been most admirably arranged and in each section have been placed gowns

ROLL CALL OF PYTHIAN LODGE

High Officers of Order Are Guests of North Star Lodge.

The annual roll call of North Star lodge, Knights of Pythias, was held last night at K. of P. hall, on Superior street, and was a very successful affair. Many of the members of the lodge were present and messages were read from a number of members who are out of the city.

Fred E. Wheaton of Minneapolis, supreme keeper of records and seals, was a guest of the lodge and addressed the members. James A. Wharton, grand chancellor of Minnesota, J. B. Richards of Mankato and Past Grand Chancellors James L. Cromwell and F. L. Young of Duluth also spoke.

The annual roll call is intended to attract as many members as possible to the meeting and outside members are urged to send messages to the lodge in order that all members may keep in touch with one another. After the regular business of last night's meeting a social session was held.

MARY MANNERING IS ON WAY TO RECOVERY.

ON THE IRON RANGES

VIRGINIA HAS AMPLE FUNDS

To Wipe Out All Obligations and Leave a Balance in Treasury.

Virginia, Minn., Sept. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—According to a report read by City Clerk Bickford at last night's meeting of the city council, the balance in all funds up to Sept. 1 amounted to $59,313.07, the report showing that this is the first time in eight years that none of the different funds have been shown as overdrawn. The report also shows that after all bills against the city are paid, the present funds on hand, the city will have a balance in its treasury of $60,000, a phenomenal record and one that probably no other city of the size of Virginia can show.

The property owners of the city are so well satisfied with the work of paying being done by the city, that they have petitioned for an extension of the term of the council nearly every week. Last night the property owners along Cook street sent in a petition to have that thoroughfare paved with the bituminous process, and the property owners on Central avenue want the work of paving continued from Sage to Launch streets. The matter was referred to Aldermen Boylan, Weber and H. O. Johnson.

The grocers and fruit vendors were instructed to keep their vegetables and fruits up off the sidewalk and keep the same covered with some kind of netting, as a protection from the flies and other nuisances, and the meat inspectors were instructed to enforce this order to the letter.

The meat inspector reported that all meat markets, grocery stores, bakeries and hotels and restaurants were in good condition, with the exception of Booth's market, where he found and condemned nineteen pounds of beef.

Miss Jessie McNeil, clerk of the municipal court, reported lines collected in that court for the week ending Sept. 10 amounting to $107.55.

An ordinance granting to the Mesaba Telephone company a franchise to operate in the city of Virginia was introduced and referred to Aldermen Boylan, Weber and H. O. Johnson.

The Virginia Electric Power and Water company was instructed to lower its mains on Hickory street to a depth below the frost line. The street was recently cut to grade and the mains are now only about three feet below the surface.

THIEF FINED $50.

William Savarich Pleads Guilty to Robbing Chisholm Saloon.

Chisholm, Minn., Sept. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—In the municipal court on Monday morning Christopher Gilbert appeared before Judge Freeman to answer to the charge of drunkenness. He was released on a $500 bond.

William Savarich, an Austrian, appeared before Judge Freeman to answer to a charge of larceny. The accused had stolen $40 from Adam Peterson's saloon on Broadway street. On pleading guilty he was fined $50 and costs, which he paid.

Alfred J. Kassel, Calumet, Mich., has returned to Chisholm to enter the employ of the Shawano Iron & Steel company. He will be in the time-keeping department.

The Chisholm Epworth League will hold its next business meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Truett of the Monroe location, on Thursday evening.

THE DR. REA ASSOCIATION OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS

Exclusive Practitioners in Difficult and Long Standing, Deep-Seated Chronic Diseases.

AT DULUTH, ST. LOUIS HOTEL SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17th

Unusual Opportunities to Those Who Doctor With Physicians Experienced in the Treatment of Special Diseases.

The Dr. Rea Association doctors are licensed by the state for the cure of deformities and all nervous and chronic diseases of men, women and children.

The experience of treating thousands of cases makes a physician able to cure diseases quicker than the ordinary doctor. The physician of experience and success is able to cure these chronic diseases that the ordinary physician can do nothing for.

The physician of experienced success has his remedies at hand, those that are tested and tried and those he knows does not have to experiment with and knows that cure follows their uses as well as he knows that night follows day.

Few people realize the advantage of doctoring with special doctors. Not doctors that cure everything, but doctors that know how to cure the diseases that they pretend to cure. An association of doctors where each and every one's opinion is centered on the disease of an individual character is better than one opinion on the disease.

The Dr. Rea Association of physicians and surgeons are well known. They are one of the most successful combinations of physicians in the United States. They are the products of Modern Medical Science. They cure where others fail, and their skill is known to throughout the civilized world. They want to prove that they can cure you and they will prove it at their own cost and without a penny of expense to you, except what is necessary for such medicine as they may prescribe for you.

Lunch will be served from 3:30 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Leo Mitchell of the Monroe location has returned to Ironwood, Mich., where she has been visiting her parents during the last ten days.

Michael Hatch, proprietor of the Serbian liquor store on Lake street, who has been in the old country for the last two months, returned to Chisholm a few days ago. He was met at the Missabe depot by one of the local hands. One reason why Mr. Hatch went to Serbia is that he might secure a Serbian priest for the new Greek Catholic church now going up on the corner of Third avenue and Spruce street.

THE CORONER WILL INVESTIGATE CASE

Chris Kelley Dies as Result of Shooting By Mike Kankras.

Hibbing, Minn., Sept. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The hearing of Mike Kankras, who shot Chris Kelley at the Leontina mine location, will take place Friday morning before the coroner's jury. The remains of the unfortunate man were taken in charge by Supt. Fox of the New York Foundation company and shipped to Chicago, where he is survived by a widow and several small children.

Kelley died at the hospital Tuesday, after remaining unconscious from the time of the shooting.

Just what was the motive of the killing in attempting to enter the house is unknown.

Those who have any knowledge of the affair say that the shooting was entirely justified, as warning was given before the shot was fired.

TAX LEVY WILL BE INCREASED

Eveleth's Assessment to Exceed That of Former Years.

Eveleth, Minn., Sept. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The local board consisting of Jacob S. Saari, president of the council; J. Wilson, and City Clerk D. P. McIntyre, has commenced the work of estimating the amount of money to be levied next year, for the city, and do not expect to have their work completed for a few weeks.

This year's tax levy should greatly exceed that of last year, as the amount, as over $50,000,000 of taxable wealth was brought under the jurisdiction of the city, and the amount of the levy for next year, and as many improvements are yet to be made here, many expect the levy will exceed the amount requested by the city.

Logging operations to be heavier than usual.

Two Harbors, Minn., Sept. 14.—Logging operations will be heavier this year than last.

year than for some seasons, according to the present outlook. The Alger-Smith company will do a heavy business as well as the Weyerhaeuser interests in the vicinity of Alger, while the Northern Lumber company will operate at Rollins and the Skibo Lumber company will be busy in the vicinity of Selkirk. The Oliver Iron Mining company will cut a lot of timber around Mesabe.

NEW ATTRACTIONS FOR COMING FAIR

Automobile and Other Races to Be Pulled Off at Hibbing.

Hibbing, Minn., Sept. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—At a meeting of Hibbing's most prominent citizens last night it was decided to go through with the fair as in former years and in spite of the interest of the hour to make it one of the biggest ever attempted.

Already there are twelve horses entered for the races and the committee in charge say that before the opening day of the fair the stables at the track will be occupied. There will be a new innovation this year in the motor and automobile races, besides foot races and all other kinds of amusement. With his management, Manager Brady is endeavoring to schedule some strong teams here on all three days of the fair, so that the great national game will not be slighted. The following committees are appointed to see things through and to make this year fair the banner one of them all: General management, Dr. H. R. Weirick, J. P. Connors, J. Ryan, H. Anton, and J. J. McHardy; racing and amusement committee, Messrs. Hayes, Cox, Ryan and McHardy; exhibiting Messrs. Antonelli, McGraw, Little, McEachin, Butcher and Gordie; live stock, Messrs. Wring and Barrett.

FIRE CHIEF BACK.

William Neilson Returns From a Two-Months' Vacation.

Eveleth, Minn., Sept. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fire Chief William Neilson, returned Monday evening from a two months' trip spent in Wisconsin points, where he went to be treated for rheumatism. While on his vacation Chief Neilson visited his former home in Marinette, Wis., and also spent a few days in the Twin Cities and Duluth.

During his absence, Charles Nelson, a pipefitter, has been acting as fire chief. Since the resignation of Joseph La Fontaine as assistant fire chief, the office has been vacant for some time.

The Rehearsal lodge of Tower, resumed its regular session Monday evening after two or three months vacation.

Though not as large as last year, the building improvements in Tower for this year will compare favorably with almost any year since 1903.

A bus now makes regular trips conveying pupils to the high school from the Southern location.

TOWER TOPICS.

Tower, Minn., Sept. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Martin, who has been confined in bed for some time, is now able to get up and walk.

acc. accused as an accessory after the fact, was van and pale in mental and physical distress. The police authorities indicated that the day would be a trying one for her, and accordingly she was attended.

The first time identified by a witness who sat close to her.

Mr. Pepper was the first witness called by the prosecution. At considerable length he described the examination of the body of the girl, and set forth his conclusions.

The witness said that he had identified pieces of the body except the head, which he had not seen.

He said that the members found were undoubtedly from a stout body. No bones were discovered, nor was there any trace of the genital organs.

Discovered by an Expert.

The whole viscera was present intact and the only wound was a cut in the upper part of the windpipe. Other parts were left undisturbed by the expert who did the cutting, and the way in which the parts had been separated convinced the expert that whoever was guilty of the mutilation did his work with an exactness born of familiarity with the human body.

Prof. Pepper said that the hair discovered included a short strand of fair texture wrapped up in a handkerchief of the size commonly used by men. The witness identified particularly a piece of flesh six by seven inches in size as body.

No Trace of Sex.

Witness said that he found no trace of the sex. The parts had been buried for not less than four months and not for more than eight months.

At this point, Solicitor Newton took the stand.

Foster County Will Then Push Charges Against Merry.

Carrington, N. D., Sept. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Before the officials of Foster county expect to be able to push their charges of fraud against Charles F. Merry, railroad promoter, they anticipate that he will have to spend a term of nine months in the Hettinger county jail at Adams, Merry, before he became involved in troubles in this county, had already been convicted in Hettinger county of embezzlement, sentenced to spend nine months in the county jail, and this sentence was confirmed by the supreme court. It was when a petition for a re-hearing was backed, and the Merry suddenly left Hettinger county for parts unknown.

The witness in hand and asked him to be more specific in his statement as to having found "no trace of sex." The professor agreed to do so, but it was impossible for him in any manner to determine the sex from the parts of the body found and examined by him.

This was considered as of great importance to the defendant, as it had been generally believed that closely certain organs had been purposely removed to conceal the identity of the victim, sufficient evidence would be introduced to establish that the body was that of a woman.

The witness explained that he meant that he could not identify the sex automatically. He was closely questioned regarding the scar and Newton tried to make out that what appeared as a scar might be merely an overlapping of the skin.

"That suggestion is fantastical," retorted the doctor.

NO CHANGES IN NEW YORK.

364 delegates from the greater city to the state convention, and they were no changes brought about by the Democratic primaries.

Roosevelt is Satisfied.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt expressed satisfaction today over his victory in the Republican primaries in New York county yesterday, and at the same time said he was to take a hand in drafting the Republican state platform.

"Naturally, I am gratified at the result," he said. "It was no less than I expected."

He said that James B. Reynolds was coming from New York later in the day to go over with him the labor planks in the platform.

Col. Roosevelt was asked about recent reports that he might accept the nomination for governor upon him. He replied that there was no possibility of such a thing.

Will Take no Office.

Col. Roosevelt feels that he has too much work outside of New York state to assume any office. He would not say whether he would accept the temporary chairmanship of the Republican convention in New York.

On the Democratic side the vote was very light and probably does not represent 10 per cent of the Democratic vote in the state.

on the senatorship. This is true of the voting throughout the state except in Camden, where David Baird, a former leader, is running.

Baird wants to go to the United States senate, but did not enter the primaries. On this his supporters in Camden refrained from expressing any choice as between Stokes, Murphy and Congressman Charles N. Fowler.

THE KNIFE AND DRUG METHOD OF CURING IS TORTURE

Drugs Are Injurious to Well Bodies and Therefore Must Fail to Bring Health Back to Diseased Ones.

Sick persons should have the most tender care.

Yet physicians the world over treat these disabled and helpless people with knives and drugs, inflicting the worst kind of torture to the weakened nerves and diseased bodies.

Pain is an effect or a disease. The knife and drug methods attempt to relieve the effects without ever attempting to find the cause. The loss of life from this method is enormous.

In this country we have undergone weeks and months of continuous agony; and in the end do not regain their normal health and vigor because of the harmful effects of all the drugs that have been poured in their helpless bodies.

Chiropractic has revolutionized medical science. It has done away with knives and has made the use of drugs absolutely folly.

Chiropractic is a science that gets at the root of all troubles that cause pain to the human body.

I have practiced the "bloodless" method of doctoring for many years in Duluth. Most people call the results of my treatments miraculous when, as a matter of fact, they are the results of natural methods to attack disease.

If you are suffering from rheumatism, dyspepsia, constipation, heart disease, don't think it cannot be cured. Troubles like these are caused by blood impurities or too little blood supply, or some foreign pressure is brought to bear on some nerve center where there should not be. The only cure is to remove the pressure and bring the nerves to their normal state and the results are natural—yet they seem miraculous.

If you do not "feel well," then you know some part of your body is not working right. I can find out what the trouble is and remove the cause and you will be well.

I use neither drug nor surgical instruments and have cured many of the so-called "incurable diseases" because I did not load the body with harmful drugs, in an attempt to relieve the effect. I get after the cause, and the effect takes care of itself.

Call on me at 707-708-709-710-711-712 Palladio building, Duluth, Minn. I have the largest and most completely equipped chiropractic offices in the Northwest. Come to me and let me find out what ails you. I will bring you back to your normal health without painful or harmful methods.

WEST END INJURIES ARE FATAL

Charles Upstrom Dies as Result of Street Car Accident Monday.

Lived in Duluth Three Years and Formerly Worked for Company.

Monday's street car accidents resulted in the death of Charles Upstrom, 38 years old, who passed away about 7 o'clock at St. Mary's hospital. Upstrom was the laborer who was struck late Monday evening by an interurban car on Garfield avenue near the 600 block. He sustained a fractured skull, several broken ribs, a broken left leg, a badly crushed right foot, besides a number of bruises and scratches. He was taken to St. Mary's hospital, where it was thought yesterday morning that he would recover. Upstrom was the third victim of street car accidents Monday. In the morning, Anna McIntosh, a school girl, was struck and nearly killed on West Third street, and G. A. Smith, a laborer, was run over and killed on Central avenue in the afternoon. Upstrom for the past three months boarded with A. L. Messurer, 537 Garfield avenue and up to last Saturday worked as a laborer for the Street Railway company. He had lived in the city for the past three years. A half brother, John Boudin, living on Garfield avenue and a mother and sister in Norway, survive him. The funeral will be held Friday.

Republican Rally.

The West End Republican club is planning a big rally at Sloan's hall, Twentieth avenue west and Superior street, Friday evening. As an invitation has been extended to all the candidates for office to be present, it is expected that the affair will be an enthusiastic one.

Funeral of E. D. Gray.

WILL DEMAND MORE POLICE

West End Club Will Consider the Question Friday.

West end people are complaining because the police protection for that section of the city is inadequate and it is probable that this will be made special order business Friday evening at the meeting of the West End Commercial club. The force, at present available for police duty at the West end, consists of one lieutenant, one sergeant, two mounted police and five patrolmen, divided into day and night crews. West end business men say that the territory needs moderate estimate, about five more patrolmen, as there are about twenty square miles to cover and it is not within the power of the present force to do it properly. Recent petty thefts in the residential district have aroused a lively interest in the matter and it is probable that the council will be petitioned to give the West end more protection.

WANT PASTOR ANOTHER YEAR

Rev. M. O. Stockland Invited to Return to Grace M. E. Church.

Rev. M. O. Stockland will be pastor of Grace M. E. church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, for another year if the recommendations of the quarterly conference are carried out at the annual Northern Minnesota conference, which will be held at Ferguson Falls next week. At a meeting Monday night a resolution was passed asking that Rev. Stockland be returned. Officers of the church were also elected as follows: Trustees, W. H. Leonard, J. J. Preston, J. W. Cummings, John Moir, E. D. Haven, Alexander Kennedy, Dr. L. Q. Greeley, Edward Lowe and R. H. Wellington; stewards, Thomas Perry, Mrs. J. W. Preston, Charles Dyer, Arthur Haskins, R. R. Well Worth 50 to 75 Cents.

The cooker illustrated above consists of a six-quart sauce pan, an inside drain pan with wire ball handle—these two pieces are in a fine blue mottled enamel ware—and a heavy tin cover. Put the potatoes or other vegetables in the inside pan and when cooked simply lift out and the water will drain through holes in the bottom, eliminating any danger of burning face and hands from the hot steam. It's quite an invention that women will appreciate. One to a customer and no phone orders.

Speaking About Heaters

Now is the time to begin thinking seriously about the household question. It's getting cool, soon time to have a little fire for comfort. Perhaps your old heater has outlived its day of usefulness or perhaps it is wasteful because it is too small. At any rate you ought to have a new one. Look at all those "best stove on earth" and there you are. At this point go and take a look at all those "best" heaters and wind up by seeing the MOORE at Forward's, which is still better than any of the "best" for reasons we shall only be too glad to explain.

BOYS HAVE THE AEROPLANE "BUG."

Although this town has no aeroplanes and probably will not have any for some time, yet these two negative situations will not stand in the way of the organization of a club. Under Secretary Norman D. McLeod of the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A., many of the members are building kites and small models of flying machines. The monoplane, bi-planes and other varieties of air craft are equipped with rubber bands and steering gear. In the tests yesterday some of the rubber bands lost their tension too rapidly, causing a smash-up of the machinery. A "glider" without engine or propeller and with wings twelve feet from tip to tip is being constructed and will be used in flights from hills and other eminences.

CANADIAN UNION ATTACKS AMERICANS.

Montreal, Sept. 14.—A bitter attack upon the American Federation of Labor was the feature of the opening session of the annual convention of the Canadian Federation of Labor here yesterday. It was contained in the report of the chief executive of the Canadian organization.

"We are pleased to state," the report says, "that the efforts of American unions to retain their hold on Canada is gradually weakened. We hope during the coming year to see gathered into our ranks thousands of men who have been put outside the pale of unionism by the narrow and autocratic policy of the American unionism of today."

ENROLLMENT AT HIGH SCHOOL 1,050.

There are 1,050 students enrolled in the Duluth Central high school, the enrollment passing the 1,000 mark for the first time in the history of the school. The freshmen and sophomore classes are unusually large, while the junior class is about average size and the senior class is somewhat smaller than usual. The enrollment by classes is as follows: Freshmen, 400; sophomores, 285; juniors, 109; seniors, 115. The enrollment in the high school at this time last year was 850.

BAKE OVENS GIVE INSTANT RELIEF TO FRANK GARDNER OF DULUTH

Tells His Experience In Taking Treatment Offered By Wonderful Invention Wherein Human Beings Stand 500 Degrees Fahrenheit.

FRANK GARDNER.

"To me nothing on this earth appears more miraculous than my recent experience with the famous Bake Oven cure for rheumatism," declared Mr. Frank Gardner of 710 1/2 East First street, Duluth. "For the past eleven months I have suffered torturing pains almost until I began to believe I could endure them no longer. For three months I could not stand on my feet at all, and only through great pain and effort could I be helped from my bed to a chair. "Slowly hobbling along as best I could, and suffering intensely with every step, I went to the office of Drs. Loughney and Loughney on the third floor of the Christie building, and took my first Bake Oven treatment. To my astonishment I was able to walk from the treatment room without pain. I felt like a new man. I went to work after taking the third treatment. And, best of all, I haven't felt any pain since."

"I firmly believe that with a few more treatments I will be entirely rid of my trouble. I want all rheumatic sufferers to read my experience and profit thereby. Hence this statement."

"Drs. Loughney and Loughney occupy all of the offices on the third floor of the Christie building located on Fourth avenue west between First and Second streets. They surprised me when they told me just what my symptoms and general condition was without asking me a question."

"They don't charge for consultation and the Bake Oven is a most pleasant one to take. Their hours are 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. daily. Sundays, 9 to 12 only. They have graduate lady nurses to take care of lady patients. "My address is 710 East First street, my telephone number is 1780-A. And I'll gladly vouch for the above."

SAYS HE IS NOT GUILTY

Bertol B. Brosvik, Former Town Clerk, Denies Grand Larceny Charge.

Ten Other Prisoners, Indicted
By Grand Jury, Plead Not Guilty.

Before Judge Cant of the district court, Bertol B. Brosvik pleaded not guilty this morning to the charge of grand larceny, which was preferred against him by the September grand jury. There are four other indictments against Brosvik charging him with forgery, but he delayed his plea on these charges on the advice of his attorney, J. Grettum.

Brosvik, who was clerk of the town of Buoy, Minn., is said to have committed wholesale forgeries. The amounts ranged from $40 up to over $1,000. He signed the names of various town and school district officers to the checks. It is said, and named them in Duluth and Superior, mostly in saloons.

Aug. 18 last he is said to have obtained from the First National Bank of Duluth $230 and $1,000 by fraudulent means. The slips calling for the money were made in the shape of drafts. There was one for each amount. One was endorsed by the name of Mina Finstad and the other by that of Oscar Hanson.

Ten other prisoners were arraigned with Brosvik. John E. Porterfield pleaded not guilty to grand larceny in the second degree. Walter E. Cracker pleaded not guilty to forgery in the second degree.

Fred Smith, against whom the grand jury brought in two indictments charging him with forgery in the second degree in both instances, pleaded not guilty.

John Williams, who is accused of robbery in the first degree, pleaded not guilty.

Against George Herberg there are two indictments charging him with forgery in each instance. He pleaded not guilty in each instance.

Nick Delmont and his wife, Margaret, are charged with deserting their month-old baby on the streets of West Duluth. They pleaded not guilty.

John B. Shanks, alias John D. Graham, pleaded not guilty to a charge of grand larceny in the first degree.

The prisoners at this term of court are mostly without friends or means to hire an attorney for their defense. In nearly every instance the court will appoint an attorney.

WORKINGMEN'S OPPORTUNITY

Business Man Says Home Acres Movement Will Have Good Effect.

A Duluth business man who is interested in all movements which have a tendency to aid in the development of the city, discussed Home Acres this morning and the effect of the "back to the soil" movement on the part of workingmen on the future of the city.

"The Herald has long been emphasizing the advantages to people getting a piece of ground larger than the ordinary lot, upon which they can raise a garden and have healthful surroundings for their families," he said. "It is gratifying to people interested in the welfare of Duluth to see that the real estate men have awakened to this particular demand and are beginning to offer such tracts on easy terms."

"No man can put his savings into anything better than a piece of ground accessible to the business center of the city upon which he can build his little home and make himself independent by having large enough ground to produce his own vegetables, space for raising chickens and keeping his own cow. He can do the necessary work in odd hours, and if his time is all employed, his children can weed the garden and his wife look after the chickens. It is safe to say that he can produce enough to pay for one-third to one-half of his yearly living expenses. Such a tract is in the nature of insurance against dull times and lack of work, because if necessary he can raise enough on his own ground to support himself when he can not get other occupation. Besides, a large part of his living expenses which he can save by raising produce, the more that he other money he can put to work for his home, and in a short time he is his own land owner and independent of landlords. This means not only a happier and better living for himself and family, but also makes independent citizens and increases a man's own self-respect."

"Every man should aim to save money each year, and the savings bank is a great help in doing this; but in a home tract, bought on weekly payments, a workingman not only saves his money, but if he buys property well located and gets a large enough tract, he will make a large profit over and above the money actually invested. Another advantage of the larger tract than an ordinary 25-foot lot is the healthier conditions for his family, keeping his children off the street, giving them occupation enough that will interest them and develop their character as well as benefit their health, so that when they grow up they will have developed industrial habits and right views of living."

"A man in Duluth has been known to raise $500 worth of produce per acre on one acre of ground, and if more is raised than needed for one family, if property is located near enough to the city, enough can be sold to help materially in paying the living expenses of the family. It is important for the workingman to his work are important items to be considered, but it is safe to say, that when a man can get a tract of land within thirty minutes of his occupation, he is infinitely better off on an acre of ground than on a 25-foot lot."

"I hope that the Home Acres movement will grow to such an extent that it will help materially in paying the living expenses of the family. It will further this movement. Of course people must realize that buying on $1 and $2 weekly payments, taking four or five years to pay for their land, and getting the increased value each year, meanwhile that they must pay larger and larger amounts for the interest, and forty acres for cash, because the minute they have the contract, no matter how small the amount paid, the whole future advance belongs to them. Unless all signs fail, Duluth is on the verge of a very active advance of real estate values and it is well recognized that no property advances so fast as the growing city as suburban acreage. I not only hope that the real estate men will supply the people with attractive propositions regarding prices and soil to the home seeker, but hope that working people and small investors will take advantage of right opportunities to benefit themselves by owning acre tracts."

SENTENCE OF SIXTY DAYS

George Robinson Given Jail Term for Assault on Wife.

Accompanied by seven of the prettiest children ever seen in the court room, Mrs. Augusta Robinson of 1724 East Eighth street, appeared in police court this morning to testify against her husband, George Robinson, who was arrested shortly after 12:30 o'clock this morning for kicking her in the chest and threatening to kill her.

The children, ranging in age from 14 years downwards, sat in a row on a bench in the courtroom, listening to their mother tell Judge Windom of the abuse to which she had been subjected by their father. The baby, just old enough to walk, cried vociferously when taken from its mother by its sister and refused to keep quiet until returned to her arms as she sat in the witness chair.

Mrs. Robinson stated that the climax of their troubles came last night, following a series of slanderous accusations and numerous blows. She explained that she purchased a low-priced suit for herself yesterday afternoon with money which had been earned by her oldest boy, who has been learning the plumbing trade. She said that she had not told her husband about it, which aroused his anger.

He sent me to a neighbor's house on the pretext that a lady had asked to see me, and when I came back he had put the suit in the stove, where it was burned," she exclaimed. "Then he began to berate me and when I stopped over to pick up something he kicked me in the chest and gave me fifteen minutes to get out of the house."

Judge Windom stated that he had known Robinson for a long time and that it was evident that he was set with an unfounded jealousy. "The idea that a woman who has a family of seven children to care for could be paying attention to other men is preposterous," he declared. "She has been kept too busy looking after the babies to have any time for anything else."

Robinson entered a plea of guilty to the assault charge and after hearing the wife's statement, Judge Windom imposed a straight sentence of sixty days in the county jail. Robinson said that he intended to have nothing further to do with his wife or family.

Mrs. Robinson said that the oldest boy had started to school, but that it looked now as though he would have to quit and go to work. She asserted that it would be hard to get along, but that she intended to do the best she could. "Almost anything is better than having to put up with what I have had to endure," she declared.

Duluth Lumber company, assessed at $10,346; raised to $18,500.
Duluth Log company, assessed at $2,025; raised to $15,000.

The resolutions which were passed follow:
Whereas, in attempting to equalize the real estate assessment upon property in the city of Duluth, it has come to the attention of this board that many tracts of real estate—both large and small—have been from time to time marked exempt upon the tax rolls by the city assessor under the claim of railroad companies that they were the owners thereof and that they paid a gross earnings tax to the state in lieu of all other taxes, and that in truth and in fact many of said tracts of land are not now used for railroad purposes and it cannot be claimed by the owners thereof that said property is being held for immediate development and use for railroad purposes and that it is therefore and thereby escaping taxation.

Now, Therefore, It Is Resolved, By this board of equalization that said entire subject be referred to the new city assessor of Duluth, and that he be, and hereby is, respectfully and earnestly requested to give the entire subject his immediate and careful attention to the end that said property may be fully and rightly assessed and taxed, and that when the truth is so ascertained by said city assessor, the county auditor may thereby be enabled to place omitted property upon the tax rolls as omitted property for the several years last past.

The assessment of the following described real estate in the city of Duluth was equalized and fixed as follows:

Lot 5, section 26, township 49, range

15, assessed at $7,070; raised to $11,140.
Lot 4, section 26, township 49, range 15, assessed at $5,475; raised to $10,955.
NW 1/4 of SW 1/4, section 26, township 49, range 15, assessed at $3,815; raised to $8,512.

MOVEMENT BEGINS.

Annual Shipment of Cattle to Eastern Markets Has Commenced.

Dickinson, N. D., Sept. 14.—The annual movement of cattle from the Missouri slope to the markets has commenced, and within the last few days several trainloads have been sent out of here. The cattle are not so numerous as before, but the indications are that the season's shipment will be exceptionally heavy because of the shortage of forage.

Mandan's Building Record.

Mandan, N. D., Sept. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mandan's building record for the past season, now practically brought to a close, has attained a new mark, a quarter of a million dollars having been expended in improvements. Even now new plans are under contemplation for the next year, while expenditures next year, which will even exceed those of this year.

INVEST IN ROCK ISLAND

Phelps, Dodge & Co. Acquire the Holdings of Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

Will Be Influential in Direction of Rock Island Affairs.

New York, Sept. 14.—Kuhn, Loeb & Co., announce that they have sold to Phelps, Dodge & Co., their recently acquired holdings of Rock Island company preferred stock.

Phelps, Dodge & Co., the well known copper producing organization, own all the stock of the El Paso & Southwestern system, which controls the El Paso & Northwestern railway, extending 165 miles northeast from El Paso to the Salado coal fields; the El Paso & Rock Island, 128 miles, and several other railroads in New Mexico, aggregating over 800 miles. These roads have for several years had close traffic relations with the Rock Island. One of the Phelps-Dodge lines, the Eastern division of the El Paso & Northwestern, is the connecting link between the Rock Island system and Dr. Pearson's railroad under construction in Mexico, the Mexico Northwestern, which is to be extended to the Western coast.

The Phelps-Dodge properties in the Southwest include great tracts of coal lands which, according to report, have not been developed to anything like their productive capacity. It is probable that marketing of this coal throughout the great territory reached by the Rock Island lines, was a factor in moving Phelps, Dodge & Co. to make the investment in Rock Island preferred.

Rock Island Now Safe.
Cardinal relations have for years existed between the present management of the Rock Island and the officers and directors of the corporation of Phelps, Dodge & Co. F. L. Hine, president of the First National bank, is a director of both. President Hine says: "Phelps, Dodge & Co. have obtained not a controlling but an influential interest in the Rock Island. Through ownership of the El Paso and Southwestern, this influential interest will act to the advantage of both roads, on a sort of 'give and take' basis. This settles the Rock Island affair, which stock is now in safe quarters. It takes no keen observation to note that this purchase will be splendid for the railroad world."

The statement is authoritatively made that except in so far as there was a certain amount of dissatisfaction of the kind often felt by a small road with the arrangements which it is obliged to make with a large system serving as its connection, there was no trouble between Phelps, Dodge & Co. and the Rock Island management. The railroad lines of Phelps, Dodge & Co. have their outlet over the Rock Island system, and really have running lines over a portion of the Rock Island's El Paso line. The Phelps-Dodge people believed it would be to the advantage of their company to obtain a voice in the Rock Island management, and they will hereafter be influential, although, not dominant, in the direction of Rock Island affairs.

One important result will be the obtaining of an increased tonnage for Rock Island, as the Phelps-Dodge people will probably have a considerable share of their money is being invested, and although the mining company will benefit from the acquisition of the stock, the larger benefit is expected to accrue to Rock Island.

Control of Rock Island.
In securing the Rock Island preferred stock held by Kuhn, Loeb & Co., Phelps, Dodge & Co. do not come into possession of control of Rock Island. Although it has been understood for some time that D. G. Reid has disposed of a considerable share of his holdings, W. H. Moore's interest is unimpaired, and the dominant voice in the property rests where it did before the Kuhn-Loeb purchase.

On the other hand, the block of preferred secured by Phelps-Dodge is a large one, and the El Paso & Southwestern interests will be in a position to vote to better advantage with the Rock Island, with whom they exchange the bulk of their traffic. The arrangement will also give Phelps-Dodge an advantage to Rock Island, if by no other reason than the entrance into the management of such men as Cleveland H. Dodge and Arthur Currier James.

It was obviously impossible for the Kuhn-Loeb interests to exercise any considerable voice in Rock Island because of their affiliation with the Harriman lines. However, in passing into the hands of the El Paso & Southwestern management, the Rock Island stock has lodged with parties of high standing, and while Rock Island and Southern Pacific will be absolutely independent, it may be taken for granted that they will be operated in a spirit of friendly competition.

OVER 9,771,000 ALIENS ADMITTED IN NINE YEARS.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Since 1901, 9,771,512 aliens have arrived in the United States. The races represented have been classified into forty subdivisions by the statisticians of the immigration bureau.

The Southern Italians lead all in numbers, with a total of 1,741,948 with the Jews second with 876,263. Polish homeseekers were third in number with 824,040. The miscellaneous immigrants for which no appropriate place could be found in the statistics numbered 10,772. The Pacific Islanders were the least in number. Only 661 of them have immigrated in that period.

The average amount of money possessed by each alien at landing was $22.50.

Dies in Milwaukee.
Menominee, Mich., Sept. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Anna Lockhart, daughter of Capt. John Lockhart of Menominee, died suddenly in Milwaukee, where she has made her home for the past five years. The burial will be in Menominee.

FREE DOCKS IN HOUSTON

Texas City Is Solving the Problem That Confronts Duluth.

H. L. Stevens of Houston, Tex., head of a contracting firm, was in Duluth today on business. He said that Houston under a commission form of government of a mayor and four commissioners has prospered exceedingly. The mayor practically runs the town and the commissioners sit as a board of directors. They head the various departments of city government. They are responsible to the mayor.
Houston, said Mr. Stevens, is building public docks and slips at a cost of $2,000,000. Houston is twenty-five miles from the Gulf of Mexico. The federal government is bringing a ship canal to within a few miles of the city. A turning basin has been built and Houston has extended the city limits to include it. Houston is building municipal docks and slips free to any one. On the opposite side of the basin docks will be constructed by railroads and transportation companies.

DOG ONLY VICTIM.

Eight Persons Have Narrow Escape From Death By Lightning.
Kermit, N. D., Sept. 14.—(Special to

The Herald.)—Eight people in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Heite, near here, escaped without injury when a lightning bolt struck the house, but a dog lying on the back porch was killed. The bolt passed through several rooms of the residence and then went out through the door, striking the dog where it was lying just a few inches outside of the house. All of the occupants of the residence were partially affected by the bolt.

Postmaster at Mendonville, Washington, Sept. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charles A. Worthing was appointed postmaster at Mendonville, St. Louis county, Minn., vice O. H. Lemberg, resigned.

Flax Higher But Buying Is Less Aggressive---Trad- ing Light.

Eventual prices of flaxseed will hinge to a large extent upon the Argentine crushing season, which is under way. The estimate of 17,000,000 bu for the flax crop in the United States was fairly accurate, the shortage indicated is not sufficient cause for concern. Argentina's crop is surprisingly large, but will not subsidize after the expiration of the September deal. The September contract occupies a peculiar position, conditions governing it are specialized.

Eastern crushing interest has been forced to pay an exorbitant price for flax shipment down the lakes this year. The deal is not a success. It has deterred its operations in this market. Other Eastern crushers are holding

NEW BRIDGES FOR SNIVELY ROAD.

The board of park commissioners at a meeting in the Commercial club some time ago examined plans

The road is the gift of S. F. Snively to the city. Before turning over the park commissioners at Snively would about $10,000 in building the Other subjects touching upon park and boulevard problems also were discussed.

The candidate is already named, his acceptance written and his campaign plans completed.

EARLY ADVANCE

The copper market opened fairly firm and after a fractional decline the leading issues advanced. On the bulk profit taking started and values sold off to a fraction below the opening. There was weakness in several issues.

The Butte-Ballaklava has commenced operation on its veins not in dispute and shipping started today at the rate of two cars daily. The ore from the newly developed ore bodies on the 700 and 1,400-foot levels
